Preface…

To leave the comfort of your current paradigm & venture out into the sea of insanity that "normal" people call conspiracy theory, wearing just armbands & suncream, to float-off past that into the ocean of utter nonsense…..you 1st need to look at what 'utter nonsense' actually is?...

Ask yourself if utter nonsense is akin to some people having so much money that they 'curl-one-out' in a solid gold toilet whilst looking at a sculpture by Tracy Emin of a dirty tampon stuck to brick wall sprayed in hair lacquer, costing 7 million quid – whilst looking at it they are justifying its purchase, it will be a talking point at the next important social event whilst they sip Lambrusco with straw-berreys in it, chatting-shit about what Miss Emin meant by her old jam-rag, while others, including a large % of children go hungry and cold all over the world……..is that not utter nonsense, too?

Press 'pause' on your paradigm while you read this information.

When you allow your mind unfettered access to contemplate the impossible, which was easier said than done pre-covid I must admit, but over the last 4 years its turned into a huge elephant sitting in the middle of the room and the media and 'They' are standing on boxes & dining room chairs talking over and around this huge beast as if its not even there – the electorate now know 'something' is definitely 'up'.
When you allow your mind this unfettered access to run-about unrestrained, endless possibility's present themselves & a 'guide-rail' forms around your psyche as each new bit of info resonates to the next bit, but it won't happen if you do not let it, and letting it means to allow yourself to assay it from a nonjudgmental viewpoint, judge each point on its own merit individually, then as a whole – soon the paint on the walls of your old paradigm start flaking off, then falling away in large sheets. The flaking paint reveals a 'wall of ice' that very few have penetrated in the last 6,013 years – it's always been there, we just didn't know about it to even contemplate it, that's why its sounds so far-out, because no one's ever been presented with this information before – no discussions outside of high-ranking freemasonry had any data on even the shape of the earth, let alone the other realms that exist besides them, and that even the Freemasons themselves are unaware of, they only knew the earth was flat, nothing else.

Your first hurdle with this new information is the people it's coming from.....You need to think about this for yourself.....you need to make your mind-up based on what YOU think....as oppose to the projected misconceptions & preconceptions of the world you thought you lived in, don't worry about what they think, they don't think.....& you need to prepare for the 'Revelations' of the pre & post Apocalyptic paradigm – for a start, the word 'Apocalypse' does not in any way mean the 'end of the world', far from it, its actual meaning is:

"The Revealing of that which was previously obscured".

The depth of what has been obscured is chasmic and has no sides, and the revelations to come are rapid and many, too fast a pace for most to process, hence the fractured minds that will pave the way for the phoenix to rise from the ashes of the old world.....nothing is what you thought, or assumed it was....

I'm not here to impress anyone, and I'm not here to be 'professional', neither is Christian, but you will know this by now already if you have been following 'Christian21' on Rumble.

What Christian explained to Linda Paris in September 2022, changed my life – he explained what 3D-to-5D actually was in a flippant matter-of-fact way as if it was nothing really....."Whats that Linda?...3D-to-5D?....yeah that's just cos the universe starts off in 5th Density, there is no 3D, only here, so we are just going back to where we were before the parasites came..." no one else could even explain what a 'Density' was, let-alone what going from 3rd-to-5th entailed, or why there's no 4th mentioned? NO TRUTHER has been able to do that yet until Christian came along, not ONE. I saw all of them discussing it though "were going from 3D-to-5D", Charlie Ward used to say, and everyone on the show just nodding like the 'Churchill-Dog' and agreeing "yes Charlie 3D-to-5D.....3D-to-5D.....3D-to-

5D…..echoing around the zoom screen with 4 excited participants eager to claim a stall as the market of truth passes thru cyber-town. I was just an innocent bystander looking into this mess trying to work out how come so many people fell for it so immediately??? (covid) I was well baffled by the bog-roll exercise….that was by week 3 of the 1st lockdown. Honestly I shit you not, I flew into Gatwick from North Macedonia where we had a Pharmaceutical cannabis cultivation licence and extraction facility spanning 20,000m2 and designed to be able to produce a GMP API product for sale in German pharmacy's that I and Liam & Greg had just spent a year designing & the 4 previous years looking for 2.5 million quid for to get going on this dream, & we got our seed capitol funding of 2.5M Euros, but coincidentally were booked to fly back that day….the 26th March 2019.
Before we landed I had worked out that there wasn't a virus and that this must be a dry-run for a real virus that they were probably bringing out next year, that was my pre-touchdown thoughts on covid – after week 3 of lockdown I was at Colchester General Hospital for an unrelated incident with a friend, and we saw how empty it was…..tumble-weed blowing about on every ward.

I was at my pal Liams on Scarlet Road in Colchester, smoking shatter and doing cool shit as is normal, when we heard outside in the redbrick Victorian row of terraced houses lined with a few medium sized trees, the biggest commotion you could imagine…..we immediately looked at each other and thought simultaneously said…."Old Bill"….as is normal to assume in a situation like this ('Old Bill' is how we say 'Police', in American) But as we peeked out the front window on our hands and knees, worrying about a bust on the grow we had upstairs ….we saw an old man walking up the centre of the road waving at each side of the row of Victorian Red brick terraced houses……an old man in his 80's…..bowing and waving as he slowly made his way up the quiet-locked-down-street…..we looked at each other again in awe at this apparent Legend of a man making his way slowly along, we looked at the people clapping at the front doors as he passed them, soaking up his glory…..what must he have done to have the street giving him a ticker-tape welcome like this?? We were like 'Bruv he's a fukin ledge is he or what?'….all night we were like who the fuck was that old boy he must be a proper hero to get that welcome? We found out the following morning – the old boy was just walking up the centre of the street, he was on his way home……he wasn't a hero that day, he was there by coincidence – the clapping was for the NHS…..I almost spat my tonsils out of my fucking tear ducts when I heard that….the N H Fucking S….now explain that??….because I found out it was true….these people were actually clapping for the NHS….the same NHS that I had just seen sitting there bored as-shyte and looking at TikTok videos….even worse, making TikTok dance routine videos…..long choreographed coordinated dance routines rehearsed for many hours at work whilst 'On Duty' in empty hospitals the world over – an inverted sense of moral compulsion, almost a silent spiteful revenge, in some, I've seen it several times in NHS nurses in the UK and on Instagram reels of overseas hospitals…we have all seen these clips….spiteful hateful NHS staff happy to be 'enforcing' anything at all - that type of person would enjoy enforcing anything, so long as its 'something'. The herd wasn't thinking straight, the sheep believed every single word of it, and somehow a % of the awake either smelt-a-rat straight away, or like me saw thru the whole thing with xray vision before the actual lockdown had even happened, I hadn't even landed in the UK and seen it in 'English', on English news yet – I'm not a detective and I neither was I a conspiracy theorist then either, and I even thought the earth was a sphere, as well. But lucky for me I listen to myself, not anyone else.

These words are the keys to the kingdom if you know how to find the lock, if it resonates like a bell, then well done to you! You made it this far, and your frequency matched the frequency of truth & the door opened……step into the light and remember who you are, what you are, & where you came from.

We are not your average homeless people…..make no mistake about that……And this information, should you chose to absorb it, will either sound like a ridiculous, yet well thought-out fictional fantasy, or resonate like a bell & change your life forever, like it did to me, it depends on where you are at on a spiritual & interpersonal level, how you view yourself and the world around you, and how you interact with it.

A point worthy of note is that we are both Highly unprofessional for a very important reason, il explain in a sec… so you will need to filter-out the foul language and personal & sometimes nefarious anecdotes, as you soak this shit up, as it's important so pay attention and remove any preconceptions, stereotypes & misapprehensions that you may have, this is why we are unprofessional, it's not an act, we really are that unprofessional in real life, you must see the truth for what it is with no obfuscation….'2020' vision, as 'They' say. You must first encounter this unusual information from an unusual source, a man from the people, of the people – a man with no formal education who was illiterate until recently, and even this was for a very good reason, as will become apparent before the end of this book.

Your preliminary hurdle, call it a test, if you will, is allowing this information to pass thru the 1st socially programmed filter by accepting the sincerity and unabashed openness of the individuals relaying this new information at face value without allowing a stereotype to engage in the mental adjudication process of the 'first-impressions' yard-stick of a totally misappropriated & fake social structure & system, a matrix within a matrix, and at a time in the simulation cycle of a wrongly understood and falsely interpreted pre-*apocalyptic paradigm.

It is BECAUSE of professional people that you are all totally fucked right now, but don't worry....it's all okay and there's nothing to worry about, for the people that have read this Free information and run it past their cerebrum, or what's left of it, for a few+ days, they will have the added benefit of understanding and the post covid world and they won't need to ask people what's going on if they contemplate these words, as they will be able to understand that which lies between the lines (pun intended). They say the truth will set you free.....and it will, but the truth really is stranger than fiction.

Professional people are telling you that your little girls chemotherapy failed for the 2nd time and she will go on palliative care next week, with a shaved head and tubes in the nostrils, she will pass away within a year or 3.... when she didn't need chemo as there are side-effect free natural cures that are far more effective. Professional people were all telling you to roll-up a sleeve and take one for the team, yet they never had a jab themselves, & it is because of professional people in media and 'tell-A-Vision' that you believed there are current wars going on in the world, and that the *common cold can kill you, & it is because of professional people that you have concerns about 'Climate Change', which is also totally fake, and the world you live in is now TOTALLY FUCKED Because of Professional people. Professional people in suits are portraying an image that is a unified and accepted standard of business & commercial conduct, epitome'd in the actual material & cut of the garment itself – but this does not actually reflect anything about their morals or character....its a uniform to exude professionalism, that's all it is, it could be hiding a crack-head or a Luciferian child-killer....or a starseed indigo, or just some fucking lunatic.

*ALL 'coronaviruses' are listed in the British medical encyclopaedia 1989 as "Common Colds",

Christian and myself are the two most unprofessional people you could possibly find on the planet....when you portray your true self with all the scars and blemishes, your truth will resonate with others as they will see its self-evident sincerity as truth on your 'wavelength' / auric field / biofield call-it-what-you-will,

as they too can see/feel the obvious clarity thru the frequency of 'truth' if you want to call it that, resonating as one singular frequency within the combined 'bandwidth' of the energetic exchange of the this same auric-spectrum. You can also 'feel' when the recipient before you also 'sees' & resonates with this truth & The truth is a lot simpler, and tangible than we were told or assumed.

'Professional'…. if it's a artisanal craft, an art, a strategy etc, is clearly professional if it is done or carried out correctly and looks good after, or adheres to the method statement outlined at its conception, but do not assume that those in power, even at a local-level, are professional…….neither are those in positions of power below this level i.e. senior police in every county/town, CAFCASS, Social Services, NHS bosses, Education Heads & industry 'Leaders'.

Christian21's information here in this text with explanations, encapsulates your true reality, the paradigm you walk thru each day as you carry out your duties, roles, and chores, the yolk of your existence is the blindness to the crimes being carried out on your children. When you step back from this faux 3rd Density Simulation environment, in your mind, which this information will allow you to do if you relax your mind and allow contemplation of the impossible using a mix of pragmatism blended with the benign logical acceptance of the utterly illogical, you will understand and know that it has been made this way for a reason, its not an accident or coincidence, as you will soon see.

So, for authenticity & clarity of the information's reception, we grew up separately in the UK. Christian had interaction daily with ET's who were with him 24/7/365 physically with him in craft above or near his location & via a strong telepathic link.

Christian wanted a hard life on a rough council estate in Portsmouth, but I wanted a farmhouse with a pool and idyllic upbringing, with multiple foreign destinations yearly and a donkey - we both got what we chose, but I didn't have the full 9th Density ET support-&-backup team + concierge treatment, with 24hour breakdown & recovery + ET ''Bupa', with interaction by a dedicated team of the oldest beings in the universe to aid in his council, like Christian benefitted from, but I'm glad it was him who had to go thru what he did, and not me, it's not-a-bit-of-me whatsoever, I don't even like hitting a pigeon whilst I'm driving, let-alone watching children be skinned alive…..fuck that….I accidentally killed a hedge-hog last summer with a garden rake, poor cunt took 3 days to die of internal trauma, I tried to save it…..I'm still gutted so gutted about that, honestly I'm so gutted about that happening, the poor thing must have died in agony, and I caused it.

So, what Christian had to witness from age 9+ is so fucking horrific that it is beyond your current understanding of the word disgusting, there isn't a current human understanding or even a word for this sickening gratuitous depravity, yet it is what we are all going to see on the EBS unfortunately, but we cover this in detail later.

A by-product of Christians information sews-up a hotch-potch of conspiracy theories that themselves turn-out to be fakes & red-herrings, and installs a new 5th Density simulational paradigm in your mind whilst still here in 3rd Density……you will understand I promise.
Christian has most of his past life memories and those he can't remember, 'Kalo' will soon download for him. We were here at the start when the occupation started almost 6,014 years ago, we were both taken out the ice when the realm was flooded with 150 meters of water, which was known to you as the Great flood, and then they froze it, which you know of as the 'ice age', when the Draco / Etamine / Grey / Anunnaki (malevolent faction) came and they froze the entire planet and created a new firmament, making a total now of 3 firmaments, then thawed the rest which was a second flood maybe a week or two after they froze it, and kept the ice wall frozen in place with technology, as it still is to this day.
The firmament is created from the ground-up and requires a cold base to initiate from the crystalline plasma that is the actual material of the constituent make-up of the firmament itself, its frequency is so high that it can withstand anything and any impact and is totally impervious to penetration, usually, but not always…..with the right technology you can penetrate membranes / firmaments, or travel under them thru 'passageways' that were created when the realms were 1st envisaged.

To attain a 5th Density mind-set before the EMF (Electro Magnetic Frequency/Flash) you will need to digest or at least try to, the information in these pages - This information has never been presented to you in a coherent and structured way before, for a very good reason, and until Christian21released it all with fine detail, in a way of simplicity and apparent obviousness.

Just think for a minute….if you were crossing the road, and I told you to quickly look left…..would you? Or would you ignore me because most people only look right?.....that's the choice you have right now, and the 1st hurdle will be letting your guard down by allowing yourself to see the honesty and sincerity in this material, its free for you, it's your information Christian came along out of nowhere with all the answers in the 11th hour…..and they are in these 'Brief Synopsis' you only pay with your attention with this ascension material – it's you right to know the truth before the 'Event' is upon us.

I am pretty unconventional in my approach to everything I do, but I am authentic and as good as my word, true to myself & conscientious, and I hope that is the impression you get whilst reading this, because it is true. I do not practice what I preach regarding health, unless I get ill, which is never, but if I do get ill then its usually life threatening…….usually - I will not lie and I cant be bought either, just the same as Christian21, and yes, I would die for your child as well as my own son should need be – but I'm only human and I have done human things the same as everyone else trapped here. I am no better than anyone else and I am not trying to be.

At LEAST 10 BILLION people who experience this 'Normalstorg Syndrome' AKA 'Stockholm Syndrome' here in this realm and its part of the control mechanism– all you need to do is open your front door and the 1st person you see, will be able to ascertain that they indeed have Stockholm syndrome…. "were all in this together" "Safe & Effective" "Flatten Lives to Save the Curve", "I'm getting my 7th today", "I need to pay the mortgage tomorrow", "well book a holiday when the kids are off school next time", "If I get this new job, we will be much better-off" "I'm in court tomorrow for speeding" ..."I gota go see my GP this week".....This is all 'Stockholm Syndrome' in some of its many guises. And it does not necessarily come from the Victim/Captor relationship, or power struggle. Stockholm Syndrome is something we are all poised to enter into at any moment.....why? because 'we' as a species, are very nice, we want to help, we want to do the right thing we want to 'get-ahead'.....but those who sold their souls who you look up to, are no longer 'our' species, they just look like us so we assume they are human. WRONG. They are not human anymore and they do not have your best interests at heart, at all, so listening to them make up rules and regulations for you to obey, while they rape and torture your children, is far from ideal.

Clubbing together in emotional simultaneity to help protect each other during a time of great uncertainty & universal crisis, is what we are good at as a species, 'most' of us care, so it makes complete sense that we will do as advised by government in a time of crisis. BUT....it was a weaponization of our love, emotion, empathy & sympathy towards each other, and our own existence itself. It was okay that 'some' or 'most' people believed covid in the 1st year.....but when the rollout started.....come on be serious...."Died Suddenly" ....I was at my Godsons (Josh Crook, fukin legend) football training after the rollout started and "died suddenly" was fresh on the lips of people – there was another dad there at the footie, he had a newspaper open talking to my pal about how many pro footballers had "Died Suddenly" on the pitch whilst playing football, me and George knew immediately as it was BLATANTLY OBVIOUS, but this other dad, his stance on the fact that 120 professional football players had actually died whilst playing football on the fucking pitch!.....and this guy's thoughts on the subject, whilst "Died Suddenly" was "....Well it's because they train them too hard these days" That was all his mind could conjure-up – this guy must have been in all 6 resets, he probably came here straight from another re-set in another fucking gateway.....he's the 'Re-set kid' as how can someone be sooooo BLIND??? – Spiritually 'killed' by the mundane normality of this faux existence. Tell a lie enough times and it morphs into truth.

Each reset brings with it horrors beyond your imagination, immense pain and suffering and the destruction of all living things within 24 months at the longest. Each time you die and are reborn immediately into the next available birth of the same sex baby as yourself, & during a live birth, there will be many souls waiting to enter the baby's solar plexus, there could be several souls needing a vessel, or hundreds of souls needing a vessel. Normally this process takes many many months….a potential new 'mother' will let it be known with her consciousness via the law of one 'wifi' connection of your pineal Gland to the realms aether, that she is ready to conceive. There will be many conversations with the disincarnate soul long before conception even happens. The potential mother will 'interview' many souls who are ready to reincarnate, and she will be in constant contact with the soul selected, as will the father, so the relationship between the new baby and the mother and father will start over a year before conception even happens. Don't forget that in 5th Density-upwards there are no mistakes & no accidents.

It is rather unfortunate that the "Cradle of civilisation" in Sumero/Babylonia is when all this started, the occupation I mean…….before the 1st sewerage system was invented, before the 1st writing was formed, before paper was invented, before we had even invented copper tools…Child Sacrifice was what made this world tick……..thats not a time frame of 'all of your life'…….its a time-frame of 'all of your lives'…. plural……child sacrifice has been going on here since 'our' new-re-

inception here in realm-3, all that time ago, 6,013 to be precise. 9+ MILLION children per year were stolen from your realm to be used for food and sex, dark magic and ritual torture for a very nefarious purpose/s, many purposes – the fear and terror created during these ceremony's, is the 'loosh' that the controlling demons need as sustenance. Demons do not eat food, they consume energy – this energy is manifest by the physical pain and suffering of these children during torture & ritualistic sacrifice + all the wars and conflicts, trouble and killing that have plagued your realm for so long. So yes, its going to be very upsetting, which is a total understatement of the half-Deca-millennium, but 'it is what it is' as they say. Some people don't like that saying, but I think it's pretty apt every time it's used. "it is what it is" is not submitting or relinquishing control of anything, and it's not giving up… it is what it is, because…it is, what it is……you can't put the milk back in the bottle after its spilt of the floor….hence: 'it is what it is'. But it's all over now – there isn't even anyone left alive to get angry at because they are all dead as well. All of them are dead, so when you see the EBS, just stay indoors and be with the family, don't be tempted to go outside and join the chaos, it's pointless and you could easily get killed, or worse, you family could be killed while you are out killing other people that have a haircut like a police constable would have. Your perceived societal necessity to gauge validity, value & worth, via the parameters of a preconception ordained by your captors, is the reason you are here in this mess & up to your eyeballs. Christian could not possibly be 'Professional' for this to have worked, no way would this have worked if he was required to fill a suite and operate from a studio…..his whole approach to the Great Awakening is specifically to have come from a worse-off than most background, uneducated and home-grown. There could be no privilege for him and no easy life. When you need to have 35 separate personalities installed in you to deal with the sacrifice viewed in real-time, doesn't give much opportunity for further education and the opportunity to even need to measure-up for a suite let-alone don one. We are all programmed to accept certain information from certain sources I.e medical information will be coming from someone dressed appropriately & in a way befitting the scenario and circumstances, a lab-coat and stethoscope emboss authenticity, legitimacy, accuracy and dependability, into the equation and every word is taken as 'Gospel'– have you noticed that when anyone you ever knew who went to a consultant at any hospital in the western world, 'their' consultant was "the leader in his field" ..."the best there is"…. "the #1 orthopaedic- gynaecological-optometrist ever known to mankind".....we all hear this all the time.....in reality their consultant is without question, well trained, but not well educated because education is where it all starts going wrong – see David Adelman's book "School, no place for Children", for a start – but it's the same in any field and with any topic – the enormity is very difficult to grasp because it's so supermassive in its reach – it literally encompasses everything you have smelt, seen, heard, felt, touched, wanted, needed, hated, tasted, and it incorporates everywhere you ever visited, how you travelled there, what you thought when you got there and how you paid to get there……it covers literally every single 'thing'. your emotions are governed by the same structure, all your myths are real and true. you are in a snow-globe that is violently shaken every thousand years with an appalling reset, & the boundaries of this snow-globe are your firmament and the ice walls that seal the system of your simulation environment – there is and was no hope for you whatsoever. This might sound a little odd at first, and for some it will never resonate due to the entrenched programming , loop-after-loop, re-set after reset - The longest you would live after a reset is just 24 months if you managed to evade capture and stayed well hidden, they will find you, they have technology that can 'see' thru the planet and find a silver coin 70 miles below the earth surface, so of course than can find you wearing a loin-cloth carrying your 5yr old daughter to the stream to get water after you run out of 'Evian' 7 months into the reset. So when evaluating information like this, especially this information, it is important to filter the information from the source if you find the source itself unsavoury – if you were walking thru the desert in 50 degree Celsius heat, & not drank any liquid for 24 hours and you are about to drop dead from heat-stroke, but you see in the distance what can only be a mirage, a shimmering font has appeared on your field of vision, you crawl closer in the sweltering heat, the sand on your forearm has grazed your brow each time you cuff the sweat from your head, & its now sore and bleeding - you are finished and death seems comforting at this point. But as you slowly crawl closer, you realise that its not a mirage after all, it's a real spring with water actually soaking the rocks below it……what are you going to do?……drink the life-saving water and replenish your thirst……or start judging the font that the waters emanating from?…."I'm not keen on that rusty pipe, looks dirty to me"….."that doesn't look like a professional font to me, iv seen better fonts in France"….."I'm not drinking that shit water, it's not got accreditation and there's no safety data available on purity and microbial matter, and I can't see a 'RAS' certificate anywhere…..so fuck drinking that shit water". It's the information that's important, not the orating-individual broadcasting it….but that's really obvious, isn't it? It was very important for this message to come from someone/s 'Down-to-Earth' no heirs and graces, no professionalism, no false façade, nothing like you are used to hearing 'strange' info from, for a very good reason….NO ONE LISTERNS TO THE HOMELESS, no one listens to the uneducated, no one listens to anyone not dressed appropriately for the setting, BUT, to ascend home, you're going to need to start listening to the homeless, not all of them, just me and Christian.

Introduction

The entry level on the subject of Christian21's information, starts at the point when you realise that the Earth is actually flat. To realise this fact is to break the programming forever and re-enter the realms of possibility, probability, and uncertainty. When you have done this mental-manoeuvre, you realise that anything is possible, then everything else will be a lot easier to work-out. This revelation alone is paradigm-shifting. Then you start to see why the globe myth was pushed so hard, like not pushing this myth was synonymous with the end of their dreams.

What's behind the ice wall & why the need for secrecy, is so profoundly important to you and every single person that you know & love, that you must make yourself aware of these things – Here in these pages, its laid-out for you with the dot's a lot closer to join and all the missing pieces of the jigsaw puzzle are here for you to fit into the tapestry of your great awakening process. Without Christian Sibley, we would all be fucked.

Remember:

until you know…..you don't know..

Most people are not 'stupid'….just very unlucky at thinking…

PLEASE REMEMBER:

During the EBS you will see really nasty stuff – Children being tortured by the rich and famous, religious leaders killing children at satanic ceremony's, 14' tall shapeshifting reptilians eating children, raping children and terrifying children for their adrenalized blood, known as "Adrenochrome" it costs $2.2 Billion USD a Ltr to buy, and I think it takes about 1,000 children to make a ltr (?) nasty nasty nasty….the child must be in a state of extreme agony and also extreme terror for this 'Drug' to have 'value'.

The important thing to take away from all this, is that none of the children you will see during the EBS are in pain now, because they are all dead - its over now, its not happening anymore since 2019……all the kids are already re-born here again, or the ones saved have been treated in medbeds over the last 4years….don't forget that this War was won over 4yrs ago……all the dead kids have been reincarnated here on the planet in the same way that everyone else who died has been reincarnated here on the planet – the children who were 4 in 2019 when the DUMBS were finished being cleared out, are now 8yrs old and have new lives after medbed care and treatment by the most skilled people in the universe, literally – when you find out what your soul family have been doing, you will cry, you do not, and cannot possibly understand the love they have for you, that type of emotion doesn't even exist in a 3rd Density simulation, yes you can love and be loved here, but its not the same, at all. You will remember all this during the EMF when you get your memory's back.

So what you will be viewing during the EBS, are historical crimes of which the perpetrators are all long executed and the victims who survived are now teenagers with new lives and new family's……all this happened ages ago, you just never knew about because the media were owned by the perpetrators during the time-span this was going on, which was for 6,013 years in duration…..i keep getting upset writing this…..i can see what's coming with such clarity that when I talk to literally ANYONE about any single aspect to this great awakening process, the fact that no one even has a single fukin clue about anything to do with it, and even the awake people I know are miles-away from grasping the enormity of all this, my eyes fill with moisture. Its like a child who really hurts themselves with boiling water as they didn't realise hot water scolds, its that same naivety, just presenting in a grown-up. Its 'Twilight Zone' shit.

Its rather unfortunate that the "Cradle of civilisation" in Sumero/Babylonia is when all this started…….before the 1st sewerage system was invented, before the 1st writing was formed, before paper was invented, before we had even invented copper tools…Child Sacrifice was what made this world tick……..that's not a time frame of 'all of your life'…….it's a time-frame of 'all of your lives'…. plural……child sacrifice has been going on here since 'our' new-re-inception here in realm-3, all that time ago, 6,013 to be precise.

9+ MILLION children per year were stollen from your realm to be used for food and sex, dark magic and ritual torture for a very nefarious purpose/s, many purposes – the fear and terror created during these ceremony's, is the 'loosh' that the controlling demons need as sustenance. Demons do not eat food, they consume energy – this energy is manifest by the physical pain and suffering of these children during torture & ritualistic sacrifice + all the wars and conflicts, trouble and killing that have plagued your realm for so long.

So yes, it's going to be very upsetting, which is a total understatement of the half-Deca-millennium, but 'it is what it is' as they say. Some people don't like that saying, but I think it's pretty apt every time its used. "it is what it is" is not submitting or relinquishing control of anything, and its not giving up… it is what it is, because…it is, what it is……you cant put the milk back in the bottle after its spilt of the floor….hence: 'it is what it is'.

But it's all over now – there isn't even anyone left alive to get angry at because they are all dead as well. All of them are dead, so when you see the EBS, just stay indoors and be with the family, don't be tempted to go outside and join the chaos, its pointless and you could easily get killed, or worse, you family could be killed while you are out killing other people that have a hair-cut like a police constable would have.

Your perceived societal necessity to gauge validity, value & worth, via the parameters of a preconception ordained by your captors, is the reason you are here in this mess & up to your eye-balls. Christian could not possibly be 'Professional' for this to have worked, no fukin way would this have worked if he was required to fill a suite and operate from a studio…..his whole approach to the Great Awakening is specifically to have come from a worse-off than most background, uneducated and home-grown. There could be no privilege for him and no easy-life. When you need to have 35 separate personality's installed in you to deal with the sacrifice viewed in real-time, doesn't give much opportunity for further education and the opportunity to even need to measure-up for a suite let-alone don one.

So when evaluating information like this, especially this information, it is important to filter the information from the source if you find the source itself unsavoury – if you were walking thru the desert in 50 degree Celsius heat, & not drank any liquid for 24 hours and you are about to drop dead from heat-stroke, but you see in the distance what can only be a mirage, a shimmering font has appeared on your field of vision, you crawl closer in the sweltering heat, the sand on your forearm has grazed your brow each time you cuff the sweat from your head, & its now sore and bleeding - you are finished and death seems comforting at this point, but you realise that it's not a mirage, it's a real spring with water actually soaking the rocks below it……what are you going to do?……drink the life-saving water and replenish your thirst……or start judging the font that the waters emanating from?…."I'm not keen on that rusty pipe, looks dirty to me"….."that doesn't look like a professional font to me, iv seen better fonts in France"….."I'm not drinking that water, it's not got accreditation and there's no safety data available on purity and microbial matter, and I can't see a 'RAS' certificate anywhere…..so fuck drinking that shit water". It's the information that's important, not the orating individual broadcasting it….but that's really obvious, isn't it?

Q has been around a long time - it's not something launched in 2017 when the Q drops 1st started coming out, its way, way older. 'The Plan', that is associated with the Q phenomenon has been passed down, not genetically, but incarnationally (if that's even a real word? if it wasn't, it is now) – in just One of the 'Plans' incarnations was known during the last qtr of the last re-set C. 890 AD-to-1890 AD, as "The Morris Butler Plan" after the 2 intrepid hero's William

Please purchase Claudio Nocelli's 'Nos Confunden' Book series – they are low-cost on amazon prime & will help you a great deal in understanding 'other' aspects to this 'plan', and eyewitness accounts written in 1748 and after. These series of books, the 'Nos Confunden' series, ARE the actual information that Kristen & Kai helped procure for the Great Awakening.

Christian21's information is LITERALLY the difference, peace-of-mind, security, confidence, certainty, and understanding of True-5th Density Ascension with all of the benefits that entails, which are staggering to say the least, or what we would now consider a Utopia, so no one loses out and everyone gains, 'everyone's a winner' or WWG1WGA

'Everyone' is MILLIONS of Species & Trillions of individuals that depend on us as we them for a symbiotic relationship based on love & empathy, it's this that keeps the 5th Density environment 'Ticking' as this Positivity fuels the Ether, that fuels the realms, that fuels our technology, that allows us travel anywhere we want anytime we want - its weeks away for the awake, and lifetimes away for most of the sheep.

The plan to save us was started immediately, when this happened 6,013yrs ago...its been a long process with many Re-sets, 6 to be precise & you were just about to have your 7th re-set, Tartaria being 5thto-6th re-set and as mentioned Great Tartary started Circa AD 890.

The reason this Info has only been available since 2022, is the reason that so many are struggling with it still....at first, if you're in the 'Matrix' right now, really well plugged-in to it thinking things like 'Biden' is a hero and you haven't noticed that the Joe Biden we see the last 4 years in the media, is not the original joe Biden etc, this information will seem like some fairy-tail Sci-Fi fantasy to you, and that's exactly how the Draco planed it - they knew their shit was up long looooong ago - they knew what to place in the past to effect the future, that's why the sudden ramp-up of the Tranny-culture and 'peado' stuff at schools etc that every normie seems so cool about like its normal to them to allow this.....its NORMAL for to them to follow trends, that's all that's normal about it - the media can make anything they want into a trend and they were even trying it with Cannibalism, no, sorry, they even did it with cannibalism, past tense.

Just today 19/02/2024 I have received several messages about how "...'They' are legalising paedophilia in Norway (?) somewhere out that 'neck-of-the-woods' anyway....but they are NOT actually legalising this practice, it's the same as everything else....your watching a movie..."Central Casting" as Mr Trump would say (about a billion times already) and everything is carefully edited, trimmed, masked, painted, blacked-out, missed, avoided, Computer-Generated-fakery's, body-doubles and possibly a clone here-&-there. The wars of the last 4years are staged fakes for several reasons but all the reasons boil-down to the same topic, being the procurement of adolescents by war and displacement, trouble & strife, SOCIAL SERVICES & CAFCASS and respective agency's the world over.

These agencies alone are responsible for 60% of the children that go into the food-chain. YES you heard me correctly…THE FOOD CHAIN.

Fig. 4 Ancient child Sacrifice to Baal / Moloch

Satanic Ritual Abuse (SRA)

The ultimate end product of this *ancient process, is mainly 2-fold….Adrenochrome and the energetic manifestation of physical pain and suffering, known as 'Loosh'. This energy is what a demon requires to feed and grow, but we shall leave demons aside for just now and return to this topic later on….because Demons are silly right?

* ancient process….to put this into perspective…..before the 1st sewerage system was invented, before the 1st writing was formed, before paper was invented, before you had even invented copper tools…Child Sacrifice was what made this world tick……..that's not a time frame of 'all of your life', it's a time-frame of 'all of your lives'. Plural, all of them, and in 6,013 years you have had many lives, 60+ lives, and it could be as many as 600 separate lives in that time.

This information is free for the people of your world, for as many as possible – hopefully for the people who have not seen it yet –

These words in this text are my understanding of long conversations with Christian whilst living with him for several months. those who it resonates with

are the people who the information is for, so don't panic, if you are not reading this, then you were not supposed to, and if you are reading this, well done! You made it at least this far into the impossible – there are growing numbers of people who accept the truth, and the truth is properly fucking ridiculous. Pardon my French. But to 'get home' in whatever this ascension malarkey is all about, then you will need to read on.

I apologise in advance, as this document does have some foul language in – yes its unprofessional as-fuk, but, as you will see shortly, it is because of professional people that you are all in this mess in the first place, but this will become apparent In a few pages-time.

Importantly, we are all still in 3rd Density and whoever 'I' am up-there i.e. back in 5th +Density, I'm not that version of 'me', down here, whatsoever ….apparently I'm 9th Density the other side of the 'bowl' & I think quite a lot of us are, by 'us' I mean the awake who Christian21's info resonates with already – this portion of 'awake' are likely the souls who came in to help either incarnated here, or in Avatar Tanks, on ships above or in Russia at this time. and these souls are the 'indigo's / starseed's that we have all heard about…..this is what you are, and what I am….im not bothered who I am 'up-there' as down here I'm 'me' so were doing this my way and I like to be true to myself & as good as my word, so I write how I talk as I do not want to portray an image of that which I am not, especially with this information as it hasn't been heard before for a very good reason that you will see shortly - I don't want to mislead anyone that I'm a different person 'off-book'….?...if that is even a real phrase? I doubt it? but it is now, I guess I mean is 'in person', to how I write. I'm no one of any importance whatsoever, but these words are important, and they are for everyone, from 'Christian21', the most caring soul on the planet.

In this revision of the material I will be correcting the bits I got wrong, or that Christian elaborated on after more conversations on the subjects, so this version will have a lot more detail in than previous versions.

Child sacrifice has been going on here since your new-re-inception here in realm-3, all that time ago, 6,013 to be precise. 9+ MILLION children per year were stolen from your realm to be used for food and sex, dark magic and ritual torture for a very nefarious purpose/s, many purposes – the fear and terror created during these ceremony's, is the 'loosh' that the controlling demons need as sustenance. Demons do not eat food, they consume energy – this energy is manifest by the physical pain and suffering of these children during torture & ritualistic sacrifice + all the wars and conflicts, trouble and killing that have plagued your realm for so long. So yes its going to be very upsetting, which is a total understatement of the half-Deca-millennium, but 'it is what it is' as they say. Some people don't like that saying, but I think it's pretty apt every time it's used. "it is what it is" is not submitting or relinquishing control of anything, or to something and it's not giving up… it is what it is, because…it is, what it is……you can't put the milk back in the bottle after its spilt of the floor….hence: 'it is what it is'.

But it's all over now – there isn't even anyone left alive to get angry at because they are all dead as well. All of them are dead, so when you see the EBS, just stay indoors and be with the family, don't be tempted to go outside and join the chaos, it's pointless and you could easily get killed, or worse, you family could be killed while you are out killing other people that have a haircut like a police constable would have, or someone that looks like a slim version of your old GP. You will be so so angry at what 'revelations' that you find out during the 'Apocalypse' which literally means: "The revealing of that which was previously obscured", it does not mean 'The End of the World', it is the end of 'Their' World i.e. 'They' the Government, the Deep-State, The Cabal (a 'Cabal' is a 'Clandestine political sect'')

Your perceived societal necessity to gauge validity, value & worth, via the parameters of a preconception ordained by your captors, is the reason you are here in this mess & up to your eyeballs. Christian could not possibly be 'Professional' for this to have worked, no way would this have worked if he was required to fill a suite and operate from a studio.....his whole approach to the Great Awakening is specifically to have come from a worse-off than most background, uneducated and home-grown. There could be no privilege for him and no easy life. When you need to have 35 separate personalities installed in you to deal with the sacrifice viewed in real-time, doesn't give much opportunity for further education and the opportunity to even need to measure-up for a suite, let-alone don one.

We are all programmed to accept certain information from certain sources I.e. medical information will be coming from someone dressed appropriately & in a way befitting the scenario and circumstances, a lab-coat and stethoscope emboss authenticity, legitimacy, accuracy and dependability, into the equation and every word is taken as 'Gospel'– have you noticed that when anyone you ever knew who went to a consultant at any hospital in the western world, 'their' consultant was "the leader in his field" ..."the best there is".... "the #1 orthopaedic-gynaecological-optometrist ever known to mankind".....we all hear this all the time.....in reality their consultant is without question, well trained, but not well educated because education is where it all starts going wrong – see David Adelman's book "School, no place for Children", for a start – but it's the same in any field and with any topic – the enormity is very difficult to grasp because it's so supermassive in its reach – it literally encompasses everything you have ever smelt, seen, heard, felt, touched, wanted, needed, hated, tasted, and it incorporates everywhere you ever visited, how you travelled there, what you thought when you got there and how you paid to get there & all that your senses took-in whilst you were there……it covers literally every single 'thing' in your combined experience since birth.

Your emotions are governed by the same structure & all your myths are real and true, you are in a 'snow-globe' that is violently shaken every thousand years with an appalling reset. The boundaries of this snow-globe are your firmament and the ice walls that seal the system of your simulation environment – there is and was no hope for you whatsoever. The longest you would live after a reset is just 24 months if you managed to evade capture and stayed well hidden, they will find you, they have technology that can 'see' thru the planet and find a silver coin 70 miles below the earth surface, so of course than can find you wearing a loin-cloth carrying your 5yr old daughter to the stream to get water after you run out of 'Evian' & Muesli, 7 months into the reset.

So when evaluating information like this, especially this information, it is important to filter the information from the source if you find the source itself unsavoury. If you were walking thru the desert in 50 degree Celsius heat, & not drank any liquid for 24 hours and you are about to drop dead from heat-stroke, but you see in the distance what can only be a mirage, a shimmering font has appeared on your field of vision, you crawl closer in the sweltering heat, the sand on your forearm has grazed your brow each time you cuff the sweat from your head and its now sore and bleeding - you are finished and death seems comforting at this point. But as you slowly crawl closer & closer, you realise that its not a mirage after all, it's a real spring with water actually soaking the rocks below it……what are you going to do? drink the life-saving water and replenish your thirst……or start judging the font that the waters emanating from?…."I'm not keen on that rusty pipe, looks dirty to me"….."that doesn't look like a professional font to me, iv seen better fonts in France"….."I'm not drinking that shit, it's not got accreditation and there's no safety data available on purity and microbial matter, I can't see a 'RAS' certificate anywhere and I've had 'Amoebic Dysentery before, 2 years ago in Spain off some moody lettuce .....so fuck drinking that shit".

It's the information that's important, not the orating-individual broadcasting it....but that's really obvious, isn't it?

It was very important for this message to come from someone/s 'Down-to-Earth' no heirs and graces, no professionalism, no false façade, nothing like you are used to hearing 'strange' info from, for a very good reason....NO ONE LISTERNS TO THE HOMELESS, no one listens to the uneducated, no one listens to anyone not dressed appropriately for the setting, BUT, to ascend home, you're going to need to start listening to the homeless, not all of them, just me and Christian. We aren't your average homeless people.....that's why I am pretty unconventional in my approach to everything, and couldn't give a fuk . I'm me, & iv been trying to remain myself for 50 years and I'm very happy with this, I now know why I am like I am, and that alone is very refreshing. Shame it took 50 years. I'm not here to impress anyone, I'm not here to be 'professional', either - A as mentioned above, it is because of 'Professional' people that you are all in this mess in the 1st place.

Professional people are telling you that your little girls chemotherapy failed for the 2nd time and she will go on palliative care next week, when she didn't need chemo in the 1st place, NO ONE NEEDED CHEMOTHERAPY, let-alone Children – professional people were all telling you to roll-up a sleeve and take one for the team – Its because of professional people in media and 'tell-A-Vision' that you believed there are current wars going on in the world that the common cold is actually a lethal & deadly virus.

(ALL 'coronaviruses' are listed in the British medical encyclopaedia 1989 as "Common Colds") And it is because of professional people that you have concerns about 'Climate Change', which is also totally fake. The world you live in is now TOTALLY FUCKED Because of Professional people.

Because of this, a total *1,013 species of highly benevolent ETs to stepped-in to save you..... we all have eyes, ears and a mouth, just not everyone knows how to use this equipment properly.....I don't need to explain this anymore, I guess?

People still saying "Q!! conspiracy rubbish!"....there are still people out there saying that apparently!! they are "Oblate Spheroid" Enthusiasts unable to contemplate where to start research other than mainstream outlets for news, because they were told everything that goes against mainstream narrative is a conspiracy theory, and for a normie that's daunting because where do u start if u still think Biden is a Hero?....i know loads f people who are REALLY awake, but they are not getting it still, they picking snippets from here, there & everywhere....not realising that all this info is mostly C.I.A plants - there was no such thing as an "ExC.I.A" agent.....you might retire, but they can tell u to do or say whatever they want whenever they want....or u get killed. its not "Deep-Space-Telemetry" is it. Christians info absolutely nails this and im actually genuinely gutted that people cant see it....its really obvious when you give it a few minutes with an open mind! - soooooo obvious that its really really embarrassing now...Q isnt only real....Q has cost MILLIONS of lives from THOUSANDS of species over 6,000+yrs.....trying to save us ungrateful sods. People could at least spend 5 minutes on the egg-timer with a fresh pair of eyes, it would honour the loss in some small way of all those souls that have died, who were not even our species in the 1st place.....it wasn't 'our' fault they came here and enslaved us....but it IS our fault that 'Most' of us are so deep in a coma....ignorance 'Was' bliss, but it was also a choice. "3D-to-5D".....what does this actually mean, and why? A brief synopsis (Part-1) of Christian21's information in the last 14 months, to hopefully answer any questions people may have still, such as: What is 'Ascension'? What does "going from 3Dto-5D" actually mean?? And why was no one else in the TOP Truth Movement able to explain it even in its basic terms? Why/how are the top truthers leading you down-the-garden-path? What can you honestly expect in November? & how and why we got in this mess in the first place, plus some other interesting bits.

*50+ main species involvement, with the rest offering support and facilitation of 'The Plan'.

Ascension…

What does this mean??

In normal circumstances, Ascension is a process of the procurement of understanding which leads to knowledge, that transmutes to wisdom, which leads to the elevation of ones consciousness to a higher state than it previously was at various stages thru the natural life/death cycle. BUT NOT FOR US THIS TIME….its different for us in 2023. The reason that no one knew what Ascension meant/means FOR US NOW IN THESE DAYS, is because we are not on a ‘Normal’ ascension pathway….WHATSOEVER. And NO ONE was supposed to know any of this till 2022 because even being aware of this info could have triggered another Re-set, it has in the past, we were about to be re-set again for the 7th time….we have no clue at the moment how LUCKY we actually were – we were all about to be destroyed (Georgia Guide-stones explained a tiny bit of that) utterly annihilated, soul and all, destroyed out of existence. that's worse than dyeing, which is also fake.

What happened to 'US' here in this realm IS UNPRESEDENTED IN THE HISTORY OF SOURCE CREATION ITSELF. Never before had a situation arisen in the known universe, where a technologically superior race/s were able to completely dominate and subjugate and enslave not just our realm here, but have strong influence over 88% of those 177 other circle environments on our planet – "Gateway-10" being ONE supermassive planet….with 177 other circle environments spread-out over a vast distance – each circle environment has many many different species and several realms of its own.

Outside our small realm that we call Earth, are another 2 realms on our circle environment. From above it looks like a 'Dart-Board' imagine we are in the centre 'Bullseye'…the 'Ice-Walls' of Antarctica are represented as the Green Circle around the Red centre Dot on the board (Earth is the Centre Dot) Beyond the ice-walls of Antarctica are the next realms, and carry on 'walking' North in your mind's eye, and you will, after some time come to yet another ice wall, and then into another realm…..walk further and you will come to the last ice-wall and the final dome of that circle environment - each ice wall has its own Firmament…here we have 3 firmaments, the Draco put in a 3rd, the closest firmament to us, the one immediately above our heads as soon as they came here 6,012yrs ago to stop any souls escaping back to source via 'The Light at The End Of The Tunnel' which is actually the SUN - as the sun is the way every soul in the universe gets home to source after death….this is why we know of ancient Sun-Worship. The Light you see when you die, is the Sun in your realm, whatever realm you happen to be in, even inner earth has its own sun/s. That was essential as its their main Goal was our souls NOT GOLD…although they wanted Gold….our SOULS were the target from day-1….they need our souls in human body's, because we are of no use to them whatsoever in Light-Body form, they can't control us and subjugate us in light-body and they need Adrenochrome predominantly…..that can only come from a terrified child, so they need souls in body's.

To achieve this they used advanced technology to create a 'frequency-fence' within our Realms Firmament which was previously 2 realms separated by a 'new' ice-wall we know of as Antarctica, which created the 3rd environment that we call Earth. A 'frequency-fence' can be used by any advanced species for good or bad purposes, and it was used to stop us returning to Source….no soul went home from Earth to Source Creation in 6,013 years until 2019 (let that sink-in) because the Draco used an * 'Amnesia-Vortex' on the back of our Sun….an amnesia Vortex will be the next thing you see after they (the greys) scan your orb/soul/little-blue light straight after you die, they then know who 'YOU' expect to see when you die e.g. you dead Nan, Jesus, Buddha etc etc and a Hologram of that person is generated Infront of you and they will be beckoning you to enter the light.

*see William Thompkins 'Selected by Extra Terrestrials' or "Above Majestic" with David Wilcox…yes I know he's a nonce, but William Thompkins was Real, and he wasn't a nonce– Also the Kerry Cassidy interview, where William Thompkins discusses the Amnesia Vortex.

The Sun is several things, it brings life to your realm, but it is also the portal back 'home' to Source-Creation. There was no escape until 2019, because the 'amnesia vortex' first downloads all your wisdom/knowledge & experience just as Source-Creation would have done if you had not have just entered the amnesia vortex, The Draco need this information as they were trying to create their Own Version of a 'Negative Source' (futile, but that's what they were trying to achieve) then spits you out again immediately into the next available human birth….it's THAT FAST. There are no ghosts because there are no souls waiting about anywhere for any reason, be that in 'purgatory' or the chip shop round the corner. That's why Ghosts do not exist, no matter how real they 'may' seem or what TV program they were on….they are ALL fake. Hauntings are not fake though…hauntings are carried out by a group of Greys that work for the Draco. These Grey ET's are known of as the "Invisibles" (no prize for guessing why they are called that) they 'live' in old houses and buildings and they 'Haunt' shit, play poltergeist and do Ghostly-looking things to keep the myth alive THAT WE DO INDEED DIE…..WELL WE DON'T DIE….EVER…Death is only the Amnesia Vortex….nothing else….if you die and you are reborn with all your memory's…..how is that death? We see it as death because we have no recall on who we were last loop/time/incarnation. Ghosts & Hauntings, The ORBS that are seen by people in these Haunted houses, are in fact Grey ET's in light-body form…that's how these 'Invisibles' travel about and remain hidden…..they are only picked up by camera or sensitive people…..what else keeps the Ghost/Death thing alive is 'Mediums'….these people whether they are aware of it or not, are Telepathic, they are not talking to Dead people who passed over, because those souls have already incarnated IMMEDIATELY after death, whenever that was, so they are not contactable after being reborn – however this is in our fake 3D simulation, that will differ in a 5th Density matrix, you will know the souls of all you meet in 5D matrix, when we 'land' after the EMF you be able to know the soul of your dead pet from this life, or any other, same as a person, you will know when you meet someone and they, you, if you were connected to them in the past, but that's only in 5+D).

Mediums are able to tell you things that only you or the deceased would know….because YOU know it, and the Medium is Telepathic seeing/hearing/smelling that which only you could know, and the medium is just receiving YOUR own memory's interlacing or embroidering it with a message, wouldn't be a bad thing and it gives people peace, closure & contentment, but its all fake because Reality is different from what we were told….ALL OF IT IS DIFFERENT FROM WHAT WE WERE TOLD. The medium may well believe themselves that they are talking to the deceased person as they could easily assume that they are in fact Psychic, when they are just very telepathic.

Demons: Demons are also gone forever – Demons were the 2nd most ancient beings in the universe after Source Creation Itself. Demons speak Latin because Latin was the 1st ever spoken language in the universe. Latin was NOT invented here in this realm, the Latin Language is actually BILLIONS OF YEARS OLD. Demons are obviously negative-as-fuck. Demons take on the form of a "Custodian" & Custodians real name are the 'Etamine' Usually very scary looking monster-ish half man/half animal – 'Custodians' are huge and Minotaur-looking with Horns and grotesque appearance…hugely shocking to see, that's why the demons take that appearance and there is no other reason a Demon would looks like this, just for the ugly-scare-factor. Demons are just normal souls in the reincarnation process that decided one day not to return to Source, but to go their own way and create a negative version of source, as mentioned above re the Draco…they are all in on the same goal, but all ready to back-stab each other at the soonest chance if it benefits them.

For strength, demons need sacrifice as the negative energy (Loosh) created at sacrifice and torture is what demons 'eat' - to manifest a demon to help you, you must start killing. Without worship and adoration, 'Loosh' or pain and suffering, a demons energy dissipates. They are now all gone trapped between 2 dimensions and unable to be freed.

So ascension, for us, what does this mean in 2023? When the draco arrived 6,013yrs ago, they flooded our entire realm by opening an underwater portal in the ocean between realm 2 (on the dart Board image in your mind) and they flooded our realm in 150 meters high of water, they then froze all that water (the entire realm) leaving the tech under Antarctica to keep just the 'new' icewall frozen (the ice-wall created by this flood), and they thawed the rest out in a few days – this created the 'Great Flood' and also the 'Ice Age'.

The Great Flood in the Draconian written Bible, was this actual event of flooding our realm out via portal technology, and the last 'IceAge' (we only had one) was when they froze it all.

They froze it all for 2 reasons:

1. They had to kill us off as quickly as possible, and

2. To set-up the icewall as quickly as possible to trap us in this new circle environment. They had to stop us fighting back, and they needed us to be no threat, which meant dead.....what on earth for? How were we a threat to them?....

BECAUSE WHEN THEY ARRIVED.....we were already at least 5th Density+ beings, ALL OF US WERE AT LEAST 5D....and some of us 6,7,8,9,10,11+D.....THIS IS HUGE.....this is the reason for the amnesia vortex....WE MUST NOT, AT ANY COST, REMEMBER ANY OF THIS or they would be FUCKED.

How were we 5D...??? BECAUSE THE UNIVERSE STARTS OFF AT 5D.....there is NO 3D.....there was 3D waaaaaaaaay back Eons ago, Trillions of years ago when Source 1st sent us off to Create & Experience life in a physical reality. Evolution by natural selection did happen ONCE and ONCE only.....after that 1st time, there was no need to waste time letting life evolve over billions and trillions of years.....Source had to learn just like we do...trial and error EXCEPT Source did ALL THAT in 'Thought' FORM before Source even set creation into motion/existence....So, The 'Big Bang' we hear about, was not a Physical Explosion of Matter, It was an Energetic Explosion of Light.....YOU AND ME.....that's what the big Bang was....shards of Source being blown out into 'space' to go off and inhabit the new creation/s, to build, love, create, experience, understand and evolve up thru density's.

There are 15 densities to complete taking billions of years…….AND GUESS WHAT? WE ALREADY FUKIN DONE THAT….YES…..FUCKERS…..everyone alive on this planet had, 6,013yrs ago ALREADY COMPLETED THE FULL 15 Ascension cycles…..we were all fully ascended masters at the time they came. We were also extremely advanced, being the Newest Creation of Source. Source asked a species called the 'AKTUN' who are a small 1' Tall ET popular on TV at the mo coincidentally as one was found somewhere looking a bit forlorn – The AKTUN are an ancient species highly advanced, and Benevolent ET's, they are Source-Creations best Geneticist's. Of this species there were 5 AKTUN, known as "The 5 Masters" and these 5 beings were THE creators. Unfortunately 4 of these AKTUN were murdered by the Draco aster being forced to back-engineer 'us' into these pathetic skin-suits, there is only ONE of the 5-Masters still alive (its like A Rolling Stones tribute party) The AKTUN are the guys that go about creating flora and fauna and animal life for Sources new realms manipulating the DNA of everything to create the perfect beings for each environment…. and it was the AKTUN who created your ORIGONAL body (you can thank them personally in a few weeks)

Fig.5 The 'Aktun' who created your vessel (the original advanced vessel, and the one you are 'wearing' now for Source Creation – out of 100 species of highly advanced ET, they chose 22 species and made you, from the best attributes of those 22 species

when we came here after completing all 15 Densities and returned to source for the last time…..we return to Source for 2 reasons:

1. it's part of the deal, source created us and gave us this opportunity to experience physical life in a physical body, to love and grieve and to be able to augment physical reality in any way we decide to. It's that experience that makes Source-Creation grow stronger – Source Eats Wisdom, Knowledge and experience and it is this knowledge that Source Creation requires

2. We are source…WE ARE SOURCE….why wouldn't we want to be with Source!? Source Creation is you're 'comfey slippers'.

So we were all together after exiting 15D and we stayed with source because we had done it all, we had done and learnt EVERYTHING. Source decided to advance our vessels and upgrade our ability's and give us the option to stay with Source, or go incarnate into the new vessel and do the whole 15 Densities again….. Source had the 'Builder Race' (as we know them) create a new planet while we were chilling with Source…..a new SUPERPLANET…..not like the other planets before it, which are singular discs held in place with electromagnetism & frequency's - separated by distance, but not like the distances we were told, it's all a whole lot closer than we thought or assumed.

'The Builder Race' that you have heard about in movies like 'Promethius' to name just one, are actually the 'Anunnaki'. Figure. 1 & 2 below are 'similar' to what the Anunnaki used to look like a very long time ago when they were out there 'building'.

ig. 6 & 7 Previous versions of the Anunnaki as 'The Builder Race'

They are known to us as the 'Builder Race' as they literally 'Built' everything and are the masters of construction. These guys are next-level, and designed basically ALL the 'ancient' monuments in your realm – The term 'ancient', to you is not ancient to any other being outside of your realm here, and is used incorrectly because time outside your realm (named ARB201 in the ET database) is elastic and can be manipulated by anyone and everyone, plus also, no one outside your immediate icewall / Membrane / Firmament has ever died before….death is only a 'thing' for you here because of the amnesia vortex as mentioned above, and covered in detail below.

All planets are ALL flat with a bowl just like yours is…there are NO ROUND TIHINGS in 'SPACE' unless they are manufactured by some species for whatever reason i.e. a base/ a ship / off world habitation like our moon was for instance or as another example 'Nibiru' which is simply an Anunnaki away-station, not a 'destroyer planet' unless you take into consideration the intentions of the occupants, who were all ultimately working for the demons, Nibiru 'was' (it has now been destroyed) a controlled space station.

ALL planets and there's BILLIONS of them in the universe are the same, they are constructed with sand, water, sound frequencies & EMF technology & something called 'Rose Blood' is also used as a binding agent (?) and I am vague on this? Its got mercury in and some other shit that I forget right now and it's a reddish colour.

"Gateway-10"

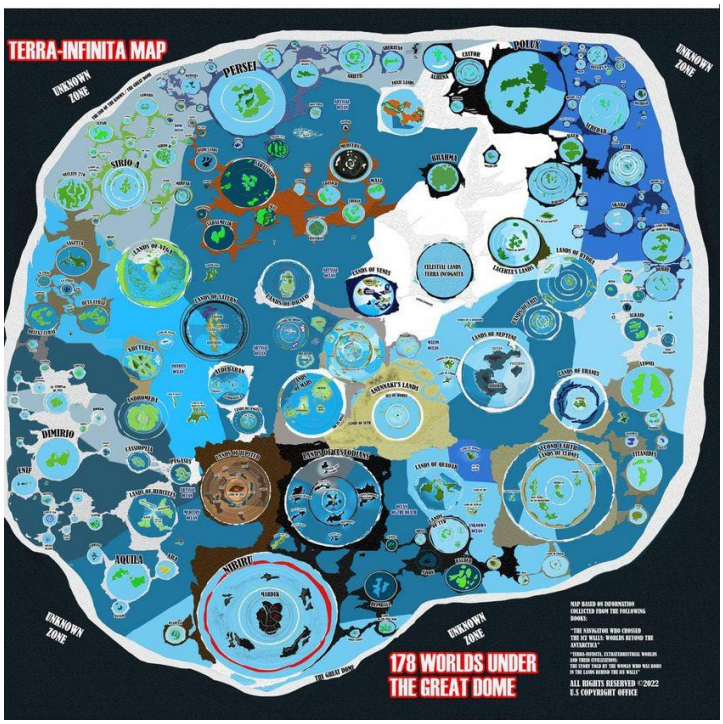

Fig.8 This is 'Gateway-10' your realm is in the very Centre Of the image – Realm ARB201 in the ET database, or 'HEART' Anagram of EARTH, being changed buy the Draco 6,013yrs Ago. Your realm is the 'Heart' of the Gateway-10.

Gateway-10 is different from the other planets in the universe– Gateway-10 has 178 circle environments ALL ON THE SAME FLAT PLAIN/PLANET.....A VAST SUPERPLANET and was created as an experiment to see how better it would be, if these millions of different species had the opportunity to co-exist in close proximity – making '1st-contact' with each other millions of years sooner than if they had to be able to discover a way to travel interstellar to reach other 'discs' / realms in faraway constellations – having ONE massive super-planet is going to be a whole lot better with many species cohabitating together sharing wisdom and knowledge and trading and experiencing love and harmony all much closer together - after all the 'Law of One' unites everything, every being, every plant, every animal and insect and it is the Law of One that connects you to the Aether of your realm and the ability to know and understand all that you need to understand and know, when you need to know and understand it…..think 'Google' but done in your mind instantly, and 'cyberspace' envisage as the Aether which you can physically see, its known as the Aurora Borealis or Northern Lights. The information in a 5th density plus simulation is the collective super-consciousness that Carl Jung talked about, and it's used by everyone for everything. The Simulation experience is 'powered' by love and empathy, and it is the love and empathy of the realms inhabitants that combine to create the parameters of the simulation environment they exist in, so yes, you do create your own reality, Literally. The super-charge to this is what we call 'Twin-Flames' or Soulmates. This is another misunderstood concept also, but as we will discover, we misunderstood EVERYTHING by design and manipulation, subterfuge, and deception. 'it is what it is'….best to find this all out now and start processing it early, rather than in a few weeks on the EBS – this way you will have a psychological 'air-bag' pop-out of the TV screen and cushion the trauma as your mind has a head-on collision with a concrete reality that travelling at the speed-of-light towards you. Some people find reality fascinating, yet others, because of the programming cant seem to be able to process the info, it seems to get too far-out too quickly for most locked-into the system.

"The Beast From The Sea" of biblical lore is 'Maritime Admiralty Law' and it is the system of your enslavement, it's another example of designed consequence and here we see it in the Knights Templar who were synonymous with the Bloodline family's, often discussed. The 'Holy order of the poor knights of Christ' and the plethora of off-shoots such as 'Scottish Rite' Freemasonry etc etc etc ALL of it and ALL secret societies….ALL of them in every single country….all of them are Satanic….that's why they are secret societies in the first place, as if there is nothing to hide, what's so secret? See Appendix.i. for the "Rothschild Secret Covenant" – everything will make even more sense after reading that)

It's all pathetic bollox, pointless pathetic bollox to lead people away from the group and to give information to that which elevates that persons/peoples consciousness, status, lifestyle workload and places them in a position to feel that they need more & to be able to want more, to aspire to greater riches, wealth, gold, power, sex……a new cancerous group has formed, eating away at the goodness in people, turning them against each other, & these fools are so stupid that they cant even see the corelations of the 'Pied Piper' which are startlingly obvious, to be honest. In Appendix i at the end of this book, is a document called the "Rothschild Secret Covenant" – it's a real document and I 'think' Nathan Rothschild wrote it? But as you know I/we do not do any research in this information because everything I thought I knew was all lies, and the same for you, so if you want to research this document you can find out who wrote it, but it's a real document that's been about for a while and the only people saying that its authenticity is unproven, these are the people who just tune-in to consensus reality are unable to research for themselves or formulate a coherent chain of cognitive thought on any given topic, so they would say that likely they have received at least 2 covid jabs and are content paying fraudulent bills and taxes.

I digressed, I apologise….
Imagine how much easier it would be If 'Everything' was a lot closer and you could evolve and trade/learn/understand & 'Know' EVERYTHING so much faster if we were all on the same planet (flat surface)….So Source-Creation had the AKTUN create 'US' from a selection of the TOP 100 species in the Universe, the AKTUN chose 22 of those species and created the new Hominid. We are normally a lot taller, smarter, faster, lighter, stronger…. using 70+% of our brains instead of our current 2.2% some people don't even have a %, they just have ears, and probiotic yoghurt filling the void between them, as 'covid' has blatantly proved.

We are in fact one of the most advanced species that has ever been created Your guna love this if your reading this for the 1st time I'm chuffed-to-bits for you because this will all make sense by the end and although its far far out…..it will ring true and when it does your mood will be elevated at the idea that there's actually something to this information and when the penny drops your frequency will be resonating at the frequency of unconditional love and that means acceptance of all things and being at peace with it, understanding your griefs and sorrows for what they 'truly' are especially now knowing that death is fake….re-look at your self from every angle and have a self-assessment on how your interaction affects others negatively or positively?…. only good can come from doing that and it is the ticket-home to a minimum 5th Density simulation (the simulation will be explained below in more detail) and you need to be thinking about this right now….probably a year+ ago really, but hopefully this compilation of Brief Synopsis will bring you up-to-speed on the essentials of Christian21's message and enlighten you to your real reality and heritage, who you are and where you came from, what happened to you and why it happened and what you need to do to accept this and move on…..

* At Telepathy we/you are the BEST…..of ANY species in the Universe….you are the latest version of Source-Creations idea of what the perfect hominid would look like, and be able to do…..given the 'freewill' to do so. In 5th Density there are no bad emotions or intentions, no negative 'anything' and these feelings and emotions are only felt and experienced here in the fake/faux simulation that should never have happened in the first place. You are shown all this in a plethora of films, series and story's.

THIS LAW IS THE REASON FOR ALL THE TRICKERY and symbolism….they need to obey this law….it's a Galactic law in a Free-Will Matrix , which is what we 'were' in…there wasn't a Law to say you can't 'Down-Matrix' because of the free-will law (ironically) but there is a Law to say we must have free will…..so they show us all the truth in Sci-Fi films and fantasy movies, while putting the actual fantasy on TV in the news, our educational establishments, Hospitals and medical systems, our History books, our science….everything….every book in every university and every school is LIES…..big and small lies built off a Kernel of truth……E.g…."The Dinosaurs" Oh dear, you can tell from just this that they don't like us much, forget the 'Red Shoes' for a minute…The dinosaurs…..only 3% of Dinosaurs are real….the rest were fabricated off the few real ones….BUT THE REAL ONES were created by the Draco to kill the rest of us that the flood didn't manage to wipe out…..that's why there's human footprints wearing shoes and tracking a dinosaur footprints of a velociraptor looking footprint imbedded in the mud-rock of Puluxy River somewhere in Texas (? Dunno, its in the US somewhere and is pretty famous) YOU KILLED THE DINOSAURS….YOU DID! Not a asteroid that doesn't exist either, but YOU or the soul that is in you now, but many lifetimes ago when this occupation first happened….. The Draco made some Velociraptor creatures that hunt and kill and 'Vril'd a few Giants, and Vril'd a few other killing-and-eating creations that they made - "Vril'd" meaning the Tyoe-1 Reptilian that they use to take a host thru the eye, hence Celebs with black eyes. They are a cpl foot tall and not too bright, they live deeeeeep underground below the DUMBS (Donald Marshal discusses them in good detail from his time in Cloning centres) with a Vril inside a velociraptor….you have a semi-clued-up killing machine able to follow orders. From these few dinosaurs, they created a whole billion $ industry that makes money and helps keep you in the dark along with the ghost lies and fear of 'death' & Religion to control, money and desires……. Fame & Fortune and having more than your neighbour – they have had us fearing the things that do not exist and laughing at the things that do exist…they had us wanting the items that are our demise, begging for vaccines in case we get sick and getting disappointed if we are refused a lethal & deadly poison called Chemotherapy.

Since the 1st reset they have operated like this, just using different tactics and different subterfuges....this is the essence of a parasitic species. The are ALL GONE now, even kicked out of their own realms banished from Gateway-10 forever. It will not be possible for them to return here, but they are still alive outside of Gateway-10, and it is for this reason that the children of tomorrow will join the realms protection/military, after the EMF.

We all get on when we are at home with Source-Creation....every species with a soul will return to the same Creator, 'Source-Creation' as is the term used to describe this entity beyond your circle environment , which is the SAME creator who created EVERYTHING... but a soul inhabits a being, that species could be at any stage of development within their matrix (simulation) circle environment. For about 25 million years this worked really well here in Gateway-10 it was a shining example of multispecies harmonious cohabitation for the benefit of the entire universe, not just Gateway-10. Gateway-10 was such a resounding success that other gateways like this one were planned

But, the progenators of each of the 4 parasitic species cheated by making sure that advanced technology and weapons were available for their newly-extended familys setting-up on Gateway-10
But then 4 of the more advanced species progenitors sneaked-in advanced weapons while the ink was still drying on the Galactic Treaty allowing these parasites into the experiment on 'CONDITIONS' that they reneged on before/during and after the treaty was signed these 3 are:

Outside of the great dome there is also ONE HUGE DOME that covers ALL of the 178 circle environments)
Incorrect from original post – apologies – there was NO TREATY...they snuck-in, all of them snuck-in the cunts....if there was a treaty they would have broken it 1 million % anyway, but there was no treaty – just to correct that.

The 4 Parasitic species

- The "Etamines" (Custodians)
- Greys (all 9 species)
- Malevolent Anunnaki
- Omicron Draco / Alpha Draco

Fig.9-11 Etamines / Custodians fig.11. Demons mimic Etamines for the fear factor.
An example of 'Etamines' / Custodians
Demons mimic this look because of all the alien species, these motherfuckers are the most shocking/frightening to look at – Demons can mimic anything, but they are looking for 'Loosh' so they need to look nasty and scary for this reason.

ALL Etamines are a negative parasitic race - Bipedal hominoids, Animal torso from the waist-up, think 'Minotaur' looking, with different animal torso/head, height about 12-14' – were created as a warrior species by the negative Anunnaki faction who also created the Grey "Alien" you know of as the 'Zeta Reticulin'. The Anunnaki created these beings for 'muscle' and to be a terrifying adversary in any wars and battles, occupations and usurpations. I wouldn't mind betting that the Apis Bull of Ancient Egypt, or at least the reason for the Apis Bulls being buried at the Serapeum of Saqquara, 6 in total I think? Were likely Etamines/Custodians?

That would make sense, 'August Mariette' 'found' the Serapeum in 1850.....which coincidentally was the final few years of Great Tartary....."looting" had emptied the Serapeum of most things, including the Apis Bull interned there. August Mariette was a freemason and likely they took out the Etamine/custodian remains because they didn't want anyone seeing a Minotaur mummified corpse in real life, better for them that we think a Minotaur is a fictional character, so most likely there was no "looting", rather, a handful of freemasons carefully emptied the Serapeum during or just after the last re-set, that way because the 'new' human babys saved before the re-set started and taken underground to be the children of the new world after the re-set ends a cpl years later, wouldn't know what was actually in there – that's the reason for a lot of "looting" of ancient sites, just like they used the term "The Dark Ages" to explain-away a vast tract of your past where it was too much hassle for them to explain it all with lies, as with lies you must start with a seed of truth, to embellish upon:

"The Serapeum of Saqqara was the ancient Egyptian burial place for sacred bulls of the Apis cult at Memphis. It was believed that the bulls were incarnations of the god Ptah, which would become immortal after death as Osiris-Apis. a name which evolved to Serapis (Σέραπις) in the Hellenistic period, and Userhapi (ⲟⲩⲥⲉⲣϩⲁⲡⲓ) in Coptic. It is part of the Saqqara necropolis, which includes several other animal catacombs, notably the burial vaults of the mother cows of the Apis.[1]

Over a timespan of approximately 1400 years, from the New Kingdom of Egypt to the end of the Ptolemaic Period, at least sixty Apis are attested to have been interred at the Serapeum. For the earliest burials, isolated tombs were constructed. As the cult gained importance, underground galleries were dug that connected subsequent burial chambers. Above ground, the main temple enclosure was supplemented by shrines, workshops, housing and administrative quarters.[2]

The Serapeum was closed in the beginning of the Roman period, after 30 BC. In the subsequent centuries large-scale looting took place. Many of the superstructures were dismantled, the burial vaults broken into, and most of the mummified Apis and their opulent burial goods removed."

The “sixty Apis….” Were likely Etamines and this was the Etamine burial yard?

The ‘Grey’s collectively are the key to success for a parasitic species as it is common knowledge that the Greys, all of the 9 species of Grey ET’s, are the masters of knowledge and the Greys collectively know more about the universe and the life within it, than any other species of ET. For this reason the malevolent Anunnaki needed to create their ‘own’ version of Grey, the ‘Zeta Reticulin’, as we call it here in realm ARB201, because they fell-out with the greys during the 2nd re-set here, after allowing the leader of the most prevalent of the Grey species, to be killed. Sorry but I do not know which species of Grey that was? Id ‘guess’ that it was the ‘Ebens’ or possibly the ‘Maitrax’)

The Anunnaki: ‘Ea’ & ‘Annu’ are the leaders of the Anunnaki species, they are a hugely benevolent and loving species well loved by every other species and well know throughout the universe, they are masters of Construction and are also very ancient. As mentioned above these guys were the ‘Builder Race’ of your archaeological folklore from previous incarnations, because at every ascension, a species will get more and more beautiful and with ascension comes more abilities & upgrades, technology & wisdom.

Ea & Annu had 2 sons, Enki & Enka. One of the sons, I think from memory it was Enka, I say from memory as even during archaeological ‘discovery’s’ the wrong names are used on purpose to confuse and obfuscate even further, making future enthusiasts work almost impossible to extrapolate any true meaning from the purposeful mess left behind by their 33rd degree masonic predecessors.

The Anunnaki are a vastly old and large civilisation spanning the known universe -there have been many off-shoots over the epochs and eons since their inception – for this reason there are many species that have Anunnaki DNA in their make-up, and the humans are no exception – you are directly related to the Anunnaki and their skintone and appearance differs, as does with your human cultures.

This is more accurate as to what the Anunnaki actually look like, they shape-shifted their head using technology, not by using Adrenochrome, as was the reason that the Draco could shapeshift. The reason that the Anunnaki shape-shifted their heads was so that 'we' never associated them with 'human-looking' as this would cause us to start asking questions.

It's all the same people connected by bloodlines and treaties between the four parasitic races that were 1st infiltrated by ancient Demons a long time ago with Enka, the son of Ea & Annu, the benevolent Anunnaki who helped in the war to find and execute their own son. Saying the Anunnaki are bad, is like saying all white people are bad. Its that simple. Most Anunnaki are extremely good and they are the builder race that gave each realm its pyramids that were for positive purposes of energy promulgation and aetheric dispersal of positive frequencies, being back engineered at the start of the occupation for your subjugation and control, being used by them for mainly their own energy requirements during a Re-set because they are 4th density beings with 4th density power requirements which are different to our 3rd density simulations power production, so for the parasites the pyramids, were for them the 'refiling' points for their equipment, armour and technology – like if you were going camping in the woods, you will take a power-bank charger with you, or a small generator to handle your power requirements for the trip, except all the Annunaki have to bring with them is the 'missing' capstone, for activation. The capstone does not look as one would expect it to look, it does not look like it is the missing capstone, as it has 3 different 'sockets' to accept 3 different size craft to rest on, causing the activation of the system to regenerate, in seconds, the power for the craft.

NOT all Anunnaki are malevolent and only a faction of these beings turned bad after Enka, one of the two sons had an encounter with a demon whilst out walking - your not going to find this level of detail in any history books.....this is as close to 1st-hand knowledge as you could possibly get....im just say'in....Christian knows all this because he remembers it, by design because he signed-up for this role at the start of the occupation, so that he can relate it all to you now for these times.....he didn't learn it or study it, he remembers it – and so will YOU during the EMF (Electro Magnetic Frequency, or 'Flash') but as of this time your still separated from all of your memory's, making you a danger to yourself and those around you because during the chaos that will soon arrive with the EBS (Emergency Broadcast System) EVERYONE who is not aware of the truth, and by the truth I mean the REAL truth, the unembroidered concrete of reality, people who are unaware of this truth will not be able to formulate the correct thoughts to process the Revelations they are made aware of during:

- the information on the EBS itself
- the memory's that are returned to you in the 30 second duration of the EMF

This is why society collapses in a 'controlled implosion' – and this is why its taking SO FUCKING LONG to materialise – but more on this later.

Back to the Anunnaki:

The negative faction of Anunnaki shapeshift their heads only, this is why you see the Egyptian Pantheon as we understand it with animal heads – the Anunnaki race stand 9'+ tall with just an animal head from the neck-up.
The Anunnaki only shape-shifted their heads to avoid identification as 'Human-Looking' so we didn't pursue the idea that we looked like them, and therefore maybe after time concluded that 'hang on a minute….you ain't no God…..your just a geazer bruv….jog-on m8". This would have been less desirable for them so they shape-shift their heads only – whereas the custodians actually look like that – ugly mother-fuckers, by design as they are built to terrorise and slaughter 'everything' they have NO emotion whatsoever and the cruellest acts committed against earth humans children, is conducted by this group of parasitic ET.

The 'Greys': Several species of greys work with the Draco & other parasites, and in fact the Draco made several of the 9 species of Grey of those species that are unable to reproduce, the 'Ebens' were one of the original species of Gray that can reproduce.
The Greys are the reason for the cattle mutilations, they feed off the glands and the glandular secretions of animals, sheep and cattle mostly but they do munch on a human when they can, as human cadavers have been retrieved with the same glands missing as the cattle. that's why with cattle mutilations there are always items taken with surgical precision, they only want certain glands and things like eyes, they mix this with a substance similar to corrosive battery-acid, and drink it – its what the 'eat', and its why they leave the rest of the carcass in situ as they don't need the meat.
They excrete this disgusting mix of excretions and 'ooze'-out thru the pores of their skin, their faecal matter….that's why they smell like shit, and they do this in a tank that suspends them periodically once a week or so, in a mixture of gasses/steam which 'draws' the waste out of them thru their skin pores. As you will see below, the reason 'hauntings' and paranormal activity is associated sometimes with pungent odours, cigar smoke or flowers of a particular type, is because a grey will be somewhere close, monitoring you or haunting you for whatever reason, and there are many reasons that this might happen – but the smells associated with your dead 'Nan' are because the Greys stink like shit and you would notice if you were next to one.

They have no sex organs or anus. They are the Draco's Foot Soldiers that facilitate Draco communication with realms as the Draco like to stay out the way where possible. 'Lamb' Alister Crowley's Grey ET 'teacher' was responsible for representing the demons and facilitating their arrival into our realm via a portal, into the newe'ly-sold-vessel. The Greys, because of their non-imposing stature are the more humile-looking of the parasites for a 1st contact scenario.

Alpha Draco/Omicron Draco: 8-14' Tall powerfully built reptilians. NOT ALL NEGATIVE, there are huge positive factions of this species, but they were not here unfortunately, we just had the bad guys.

The Omicron Draco & the Alpha Draco were created from Dragons, hence Dragos, Dragon, Dracon, Draco – Dragons are 4th density beings that live off animals such as sheep and cattle, just like the fairy-tails explain. They are intelligent and telepathic as is standard in all density's above 3D which as explained previously is fake and the only example of a 3rd density simulation, in the entire Universe, is here in your realm ARB201. Drag-man & Drag-Queens are basically hosted Draco/demons revelling in their unabashed glory.

The ONLY part of the human body that is REPTILLIAN is our core (spine)and that's the reason that some children are born with a 'tail' from the coccyx, because of the reptilian heritage of our core. WE DO NOT have a reptilian brain, they said that as they are jealous….they are 4D beings and cannot enter 5D because of the killing and eating children thing, they are also a parasitic race (Negative ones only) who are not too clever in the known universe, they can't invent much and steal off other races for tech, such as the 'Goauld' in Star-Gate did (No coincidence, Obviously) – the 5D 'ticket' is 'Unconditional Love' and there's no back-door, so they are trapped in 4D…WHICH IS THE EXACT REASON THAT WE ARE GOING "FROM 3D-TO-5D".….Because the Draco created 3D as they couldn't control us in 5th or 4th density….we are the only realm in the ENTIRE UNIVERSE that runs on a 3D matrix….the universe starts off in 5th Density….not 1st, then 2nd, then 3rd, then 4th, then 5th etc….no no…it starts in 5th Density because 123&4 are agrovation and take trillions of years to get to a point where species can get to a technological spring-board of advancement breaking free of their membrane / firmament / dome / circle environment, & manipulate space, time & their experience of physical reality….Source doesn't want to waste epochs while shit drags its sorry-arse out the ocean again (that did happen ONCE ONLY as mentioned above, but it was never to happen again – Gateway-10 was no exception, but when 1st inhabited by peoples of all species, as was the purpose of our realm within Gateway-10….. on the 'Nos Confunden' Maps we are in the Centre and called "The Known Lands" (we are the Bullseye in the very middle) ('Earth' A.N.A.G.R.A.M 'HEART'….because we are in the centre…..the 'Heart' of Gateway-10 is OUR 3 REALMS soon to revert back to just 2….our circle environment is the most special place in the universe…we are the HEART of all the species that contributed to Gateway-10's development for millions and millions of years….we just cant remember because of the amnesia vortex….that's all….a thin veil, thinner than a a sheet of Cellophane & twice as clear, cemented in place with unadulterated deception, lies, subterfuge, deceit, wars, money, greed…..oh and don't forget the Demonic 'help' garnered by child sacrifice to feed the loosh-hungry demons with – if you don't create loosh in some way, use your imagination, a demon will not help you and they are very powerful and only operate from deceit and lies….its their modus operandi.

Fig. 29 Pleiadean family

Soul Family's…

So for us this time, and only this time, is going from "3D-to-5D" as is heard uttered by many a 'truther' yet they are all clueless as to what that actually means, or entails – it is actually a whole lot cooler than normal ascension would be for our soul family's - not that they need to ascend, but when they do…because it won't be new to them….they never had a memory taken away EVER in billions of years….it's only happened to us, so it's not a new AMAZINGLY NEW experience for them as it will be for us! We left them all that time ago, for us its been thousands of years (6,013) but for them it's not…..there is no time in 5D+, we can manipulate time in 5D, we can distort time, and we do, often, it's a natural process for us as is many ability's that True-5D ascension brings…and for 'us' collectively, true 5th Density ascension is only going back to what we preciously had and the stage in the cycle where we previously were, so who we left behind are still the same age they were when we left them….looking at the silver lining on this…….i see it as Luckily for me I had my mind wiped each time which is a pain in the arse if your trying to 'get-ahead'….but its great if you are awake now and understand this….it's not scary, its properly exciting-as-fuck! Yes it sounds far-out, but it supposed to sound far-out, like everything, your paradigm was augmented on purpose and designed specifically so that this information will sound too far-out to be real, because for you the truth needs to be stranger than fiction – because all the time you are unaware that you live in a cage, you will not try to escape.

Jesus who could bring the dead back to life, was the son of God & performed 'miracles', or Doctor Doolittle who could speak to the animals, Clark Kent who could do bare-mad-shit with his eyes, or any of the Marvels Characters……..THATS US BACK HOME……..all put into fantasy and sci-fi and separated into 'Special individuals' like Only Dr Doolittle could speak to animals, or Only "The Invisible Man" could disappear from sight – Only "Superman" who could fly…..only Jesus could heal the sick …..

They have to show you what they are doing, so they do it in films and scifi….so we never believe it, so we never find out, so we never question anything, so we never wake up, so they can carry on eating our children and torturing us over-and-over-and-over using us at every single opportunity while we look for the 'Missing Link' and asteroids whilst pumping Chemotherapy into ourselves & our children because we 'think' there's no cure for cancer……because that's what 'They' said.

Going from 3D-to-5D shortly, we will all be going, no one stays behind or misses out in this and no one dies….we all won the lottery, except some people will be so trumerd by the EBS and 1000+yrs of memory's & the EMF flash itself, that they will refuse to accept what's happened and think they are going/have-gone mad – they will literally loose their minds unfortunately, but even on little earth there is nothing to worry about as they will have the best healers in the universe living there with them – its ready now for them, it was re-terraformed a while ago for this time now.
They will get about 500yr life-span and free energy, no banks, no schools, no government, no money, no passports, no driving licences….there's no roads in 5D let-alone cars and no QFS, there's no disease, no germs, no war, no problems and everything is free and easy. Its what we used to live like before the terrible occupation started all that time ago.

"Trump isn't coming to save you"...."Q isn't coming to save you either" ive heard that a few times in 4 years.....and its true, they are not coming to save you THEY ALREADY SAVED YOU.....OVER 4YEARS AGO With help from dead people such as: Princess Diana, Michael Jackson, Bruce Lee, Bob Marley & Nikola Tessla + many many more 'Dead' people will tell you all this themselves in a few weeks' time. The 'Alive' list, so called because every name on it are people we know who were apparently deceased, some recently, some many many years ago. Just because they are on the 'Alive' list does not mean they never sold their souls, far from it, most on the names on that list just shat-themselves and didn't want a painful death, so they thought they would 'help' and have their deaths faked so they can testify at the trials and provide info for the takedown of the Cabal.

Surprisingly there were no positive-humans in a position of power after JFK senior was removed from public duty's in 1966 and it was at this time that the benevolent's stepped-in in a big way, setting up the Kennedy Assassination themselves which was a joint Pleiadean / Andromadan venture, to safely remove JFK from the eyes and ears of the known lands inhabitants whilst the final stage of the 'Plan' was set in motion. Chronologically speaking, the last stage of the

Fig. 30. Ascension Mechanics of Ashyana Dean Is basically a load of confusing bollox that you don't need to know. But it looks good if your selling books, videos & Lectures.

'Ascension Mechanics'

People charging money to explain to you that which should be free information for the people, will have you thinking that there are a lot of complicated

'Metatronic' 'thing-a-me-jigs' and all sorts of strange new concepts & platonic-solids with complex new thought models to help to use to understand this process……but ….it's a load of bollox, and you do not need to know any of that. It does help sell books and its great for pulling-in a paying crowd in an auditorium who are desperate to understand yet more unnecessary crap. Humans love the pointless & unnecessary, and revel in the superficial taking pride in their OCD's….listen, in my school in 1978, if you'd been proud of an OCD / mental health delusions, you would have been knocked-out, that would have got rid of the it permanently, but now its like the coolest thing ever "…..Hi I don't have a name as its not random enough & I'm basically a gender-fluid-bi-trans-gay-lesbian-sea-cactus who identifies as a lion on Wednesdays between 12 & 3pm and a palm civet on morning weekdays but at the weekend & most evenings I'm in a state of flux-neutral-fluid between whatever I feel like at the time, so I could be a lamp-post or a uni-cycle, sometimes I'm gender neutral though…" This sort of shit wouldn't have lasted 1 second 'when I was a wee lad', that poor cunt saying that crap wouldn't have got passed the first 5 words before an ambulance would have been called. These poor sods have been destroyed by the system, proud of their poor-mental health status and wearing it like a badge as they fail at every opportunity as if failing is cool….again this is all by design. There is nothing "totally random" about anything.

In order to make it back here to this fully-5D realm, and not end-up on realm 'Y557' with an address ending in 'Great Lands Of The Deserters', Little-Earth, all you need to do is let go of any preconceptions based on your perceived knowledge gained at any point in the last 6,012yrs here, likewise delete ALL religious preconceptions and also the same for fear of financial loss/money….uninstall all that, and be prepared to see your past lives arrive cinefilm-like in front of you during the ascension process FLASH….you will see yourself being tortured probably quite a few times as a child in the ancient past, plus everything else....you will see your history here and get the opportunity to accept it or deny it, fear it or thrive off it, embrace it or run from it - the choice is yours but at the event, you must be in acceptance and understanding that you cant change what happened to you/us...you cant put the milk back in the bottle....but you can use it to grow from and you can be grateful that you got to be part of the BIGGEST EVENT IN THE UNIVERSE EVER....nothing like this will ever happen again and it never happened before - ALL the bad stuff and the parasites and demons are all gone now....the only thing that can harm us is our own stupidity at this point. 'Ascend'.....don't 'Ass-End' –time to unite and make them "little-Blue-Lights" a little bit brighter Peace & Love people – Leon xxx

* we/you: if you have been here incarnating since the start of this 6,013 years ago, you will have had a lot of mindwipes and trauma – the starseed / indigos that are here equal about 15% of the population making them in number 1.5 Billion of 10 Billion souls here right now

 Asteroids are.....yep you guessed it.....fake. Asteroids don't exist, there is NOTHING random in the universe. The only asteroids that are real are the ones that the parasites make to cause us damage. They put microbial matter and dangerous 'life' into masses of rocks and debris, also some noxious toxins and radioactive waste. Asteroids are a weapon, not a natural phenomena form the depths of the universe.

A Brief Synopsis
By :Leon-George: Sinclair

One way to use Christian's info as a lie-detector to help join-up the missing dots, is to remember that to leave our firmament/ dome / membrane / circle environment, is not possible without a DNA upgrade to 5th strand. To even survive in 5th Density, If you were to leave our membrane, our DNA is not compatible with a 5D environment, like trying to run a Mac program on Windows, its not going to work and before long maybe a few hours, you will start falling-to-bits and your organs will breakdown and you will die – so we now can understand how many LIERS there are in the SSP world…..think about all those testimony's from over 1,000 "Whistle-blowers" explaining how they went off-world on missions (Jason Rice, Corey good & Randy Cramer…to name only 3 of many) BULLSHIT. ALL of it. Maybe they were MK-Ultra victims with fake memory implants, or maybe just liars. Emery Smith had a role in the SSP but a lot of what he talks about is lies because he had to or he wouldn't have got his true info out, his true info is inner-earth and the autopsies he conducted, like the 'Atacama Hominid' plus others. I like Emery Smith, but when you know someone has lied, how do you know what to believe ever again?? Emery Smith was the geneticist who conducted the autopsy on the 'Atacama Hominid' found in the Atacam desert:

The Atacama Hominid.

Don't forget the Draco knew their time was up 6,000yrs before 2020 actually came, plenty of time to plan a nasty post-eviction vacuum for us with a preponderance of fake "Truthers" peddling miss-info to fortify the solar system hoax, and to stop as many ascending as possible.

So anyone saying they went "Off-World" is making it up because there's no fukin way the Draco are going to start restoring peoples DNA to go a 5th strand to go and do stuff that they can easily do themselves with an army of millions of greys at their beckon-call, and without having to risk giving an army of humans the upgrade along with all those ability's….they are not stupid & It's stupid to assume otherwise in light of the new info Christian has brought to the table which is self-proving when you have the key of understanding it. Now its also validated by the 'Nos Confunden' Book series - when you start to see the Big Picture…not the 40,000' view…..but the full view The reasons, purpose and goals of the 'Galactic Councils' Known in this realm as other names Galactic Alliance/ Federation etc' have been hijacked by a bunch of possibly-well-meaning T-shirt sellers and fake-hopefuls like Elizebeth April etc etc – the internet is awash with spiritual snake-oil vendors filling your heads with quite plausible crap to align yourself with at the end, to keep you from ascension, most are unwittingly part of the problem, just wanting to succeed in their field of the paranormal or mystical, and make an honest living….but the financial 'string' that you must cut, is the same for everyone else.

Eeveryone ascends but think of the hassle for the positive ET's, our soul family's, to pick-up-the-pieces of billions of almost-ascended who will now be going to little-earth, or 2nd earth to heal. Its better for the defeated parasites to have as many non-ascending as possible, even tho they are not here to 'enjoy' our chaos.

Truth at this time during the awakening is meant to be free, and no truthers charging money even have any truth to sell. So when you know where we actually live, as in the actual reality of our flat plain that's a whole lot bigger than any flat earther could have possibly imagined even only a few weeks ago lol and you start to understand the ET world…when Christian 1st said that, I though how the fuck could anyone understand the ET world when they are not even officially publicly recognised until recently?

It's a lot easier than you think…because, once again, it's so simple, it's not at all complicated…..like at Primary School / Elementary School in the 1970's (in Essex anyway) 99% of the children are lovely, caring, beautiful, thoughtful and selfless….but 1% want to kick your-head in for no reason whatsoever other than because their parents were cunts…..extrapolate that out on a universal scale…..they aren't Primary-School kids, they are billions of years old and the most accomplished masters of the universe second only to Source Creation itself…..and that's how to understand the ET world.

That's all there is to it – just throw in some ridiculously advanced technology and every conceivable type of life, every type of surroundings and every type of flora & Fauna….. and forget about needing a passport. That IS the 'ET' world (Home) in a nut-shell - It's YOUR birthright! Home-Sick yet? Lol. Its so simple…….but unless Christian had turned up with this info…… do you realise we would all be going to Y557….."Great Lands of The Deserters" lol…. aka 'Little Earth' / Second Earth?

Fig.31 Med-Beds looked similar to this, they were real and they will not work in a 5th Density simulation. In 5D we have EMF Technology replacing these old, antiquated technology.

Medbeds (Sky prince Medbeds etc etc) These are fake to give the awake something to look forward to….e.g….The REALLY awake started getting a bit upset with the stupidity of this now, like 3yrs ago….so the white-hats have given them, not False-Hope, but something tangible and believable to hold onto to that is technically real….to solve the ills and trauma of this last few years of madness - those awake 'know' that Q is in control (well 'some' do and the others are just hopefuls hedging-bets) 'Sky Prince' the Medbed-Mouthpiece is a lovely woman, she's 'probably' been given info by the Whitehat's, a bullet-point email each month saying what to say and what not to say, and given poetic licence to fill in the gaps……she probably believes they exist too….but you can lie-detect this by knowing that 3D technology will not function in a 5D simulation environment…..the Medbeds that are being pushed as real, were real….but we didn't get them and we never will cos we don't need them we have much better than that old crap! That's 80yr old tech that the "Elite" used for themselves, we have EMF's now…Medbeds can grow a new arm in 20 minutes…..EMF Tech can give you a new body with upgraded DNA to any to density in no longer than 30 seconds….and a 3D medbed can't function in a 5D simulation…they would pixel-block like everything else from the wrong density….so they are ticked off as 'Fake' truth. (I even have an explanation of them and pictures on my own website!! Lol i didn't know myself till a few weeks ago that they are not going to be released…BECAUSE they are just part of the movie set, same as everything else is….."central casting" –

Fig.32 Pixelating / Pixel-blocking. Everything physical that isn't 'alive' with a soul, will start looking like this just before the EMF happens.

Moments before the EMF, everything around you will pixel-block, the cup in your hand and the couch you are sitting on….everything will pixelate - the only things that will not pixel-block, are living things, anything that breathes air will not pixel-block because it has a soul, even trees and plants – a wooden table, will pixel-block, but a tree will not because the wooden table became part of the simulation code when it was cut from the tree. Its atoms will be re-augmented into our new simulation environment furnishings and materials. BILLIONS of Species on BILLIONS of Discs/Frisbee's under bowls floating in electromagnetic fields held in place by frequency's…..all over the place – all these people want is us back unscathed with as least trauma as possible – our real parents & families are only a few miles above our heads, literally!

Our family here now with us are unlikely to be directly related to us 'up there', as in Your ET Son Is not your Human Son…but your immediate family here are Soul family which can take up a whole constellation of billions of members as we are ancient don't forget….ANCIENT….so we will have a big family – the only thing our Soul-Fam have been able to do for us, is keep soul-family members in the same earth-human family's…. because of the security here they are unable to enter this circle environment – the 'Nazca lines' are actually the site of the Draco/Anunnaki/Etamine security system, called "Sky-Net" (I know!….they are cunts!!…. "….I'll bee-bek….Sarah Connor") SkyNet is 'most' of the stars in the sky….Sky-Net has points of light that all focus onto a point in the Nazca Plain, from the 'Star", it's their security system to locate and destroy any Positive Frequency that enters the circle environment – Earth Quakes are the same detection system….if a positive Frequency enters a portal here from outside, or comes in *under the firmament, it sets off massive earthquakes in the area, obviously these areas are often mountainous regions and can and often are catastrophic, Draco have killed each other by accident during missions they were doing when a positive has entered and caused avalanches and burials of Draco workers and teams….all to stop even ONE positive entering, or one human leaving thru the 'Byrd Strait', *'Summer Gate', or 'Morris Passage' the ice melts in the summer and there is a clear passage to the 'Ancestral Republic' which luckily for the 3D-team entering a 5D environment, was close to the islands of the Ancestral Republic where they could get their 5th DNA strand upgrade. A 5D being can enter a 4D or lower simulation environment, but like in a video game, you must complete the level before you can up-a-density, but you can go back to a lower level in the game and replay from that density.

The passages are also Portals….The Summer Gate is an ocean-only passage thru the icewalls….this is where the myths of Strange sea-monsters and whirl-pool disappearances of ships in olden times comes from…..BECAUSE the Portals are leaving a 3D environment into a 5th Density reality….the story's of Sailors Loosing Their minds on these discovery trips to plot new courses to unknown lands, comes from these such trips thru a portal! They will have experienced extremely turbulent waters and 'pixel-blocking' THEY WOULD HAVE LOST THER TOTAL SHIT at seeing reality pixelate Infront of them after having just escaped some fuck-off kraken, if they were lucky enough to have escaped some mental-looking sea monster…The Draco put Negative-Vril'd Giants (there are 9 species of giants and the Tallest are the Anakim standing at over 200 meters tall, the Archon Giants are the 2nd tallest at about 150 meters tall) or sea monsters near portals to stop any one getting thru and finding places that only exist in Fairey-Tails, like the 'Ancestral Republic" where our last re-set cousins live, still to this day. The Tatarian's are still there .....some made it thru when the Draco came, and some also gave up their lives coming in to help us.

William Morris and 'Butler' were proper lucky as they were found quite soon and taken ashore, DNA upgrade and they were ready to stay in 5th Density.....if they entered via another gate, they may have been killed by Draco or died of the "wrong-Matrix"...if that had have happened, or if they sank the ship in the portal as 99% of other explorers did, or if they went MAD on the way thru like 99% of that 1% did...because it draws you in thru it when you enter it you accelerate at high speed like a vacuum discharge, and shits pixel-blocking...and your from the year 1748.....fuuuuuuuk that!!! Lol poor sods must have 'Touched-Cloth' many times in those moments (I paid good money to see shit like that in Raves in Essex warehouses in the '90s lol)– but if any of that had happened and they failed to get thru and find help.....I might not be writing this and we could have been re-set looooong ago and doomed forever...like forever soul-destroyed, literally which was their plan. They would have then turned their attention to the 88% of the 177 other realms on our planet.....and then all 178 would have eventually fallen and we would be history, and every species would have been enslaved. We were so lucky because from day-1 we had the best help ever....but that best help, was helpless until now because the demons and Draco/Etamines, Greys & Negative Anunnaki had it sewn-up long before they came in, and made sure all their manpower was here, and setup security so they could reset us quickly as possible. We were hundreds of thousands back then, not billions. They needed more souls brought in to occupy vessels for torture & sacrifice (demon-tokens to get demonic help when they got stuck) & adrenochrome.

So they destroyed other planets and brought the sous here to incarnate and make the numbers up for sacrifice, the Martian realm was one such realm – being

'joined-to-the-hip' of Earth Mars was essential in the parasitic plan, it was their Ace-Card for the sell-outs that had sold their soul – for the parasitic plan to work it involves initiation thru the ranks, an ever flowing self-replenishing stream of new possible-soul-sellers to become the 'captains' of the minions in every conceivable area of public life, theatre, dance, music, filming, construction, cosmetics, fashion, sport, media, finance, printing, textiles, science, religion, CAFCASS & Social Services (Cunts, pardon my French) every area woven tightly together in the blood-soaked-tapestry of civilisations….soaked in the blood of your children. Let that sink-in.

The phases of the moon can be easily debunked by the naked eye, with the truth always being hidden in plain sight – test this for yourselves. – With no training whatsoever, and after only 3 sessions observing the moon for a few seconds each night over a period of 3 or 4 days, you will be able to guess the exact location of 'the morning star' otherwise known as planet Venus – if you try this you will see what I mean…..even on a cloudy night with only the moon visible, you can easily tell by the illuminated surface of the moon, exactly where the projection is emanating from, and in 50 years I never even thought to think about it! Its so obvious when you look.

The moon was stolen from an usurped species taken by the Draco, likely a positive species who lived on it or had it as an away-station and was made into a base by the Draco. It's not a natural structure, it looked like the 'Death Star' in Star Wars and its 'outer' was a holographic projection from what you know of as the 'Morning Star' or the planet Venus, that's why moon-light is cooler that moon-shadow. The projection was mocking us also, it's a representation of our actual realm with at least part of realm 2 in the lunar image also. The moon was destroyed a few years ago and was part of the demonic plan……The Aurora Borealis / Northern lights are in fact the energetic-manifestation of 'Loosh' which is the energy given off by a human child/adult during torture, sacrifice and/or suffering in general, but if you want a portal opened, for instance, its going to cost several children to be sacrificed –

The 'Northern Rock' is at the centre of our realm and is the highest mountain on the planet, yet no one's ever heard of it and its not on any maps… 'Mt Meru' is The Northern Rock - we heard of Mt Meru, but it was meant to be a different mountain in a different area, or even mythical in Origen– it is however centred at the North Pole.

That brings us to another problem – the Cabals way of turning everything upside-down and on its head, the opposite of what is real……this applies to EVERYTHING, not just the upside-down-cross popular in horror movies, but even the magnetic North Pole….as we shall soon see, South is North and North is South, so the actual location of Antarctica is actually the south pole, at least that much is true, but the True South pole of this realm, is where you expect to see the North Pole, so the Arctic Circle is actually the correct location of the South Pole and this is where they are finding all sorts of alien tech and old bases, pyramids and strange energy signatures….up near Greenland and in that part of the world – because Antarctica is in the Northern hemisphere, the 'Arctic Circle', is in actual fact, your icewall.

Fig.38 A Spirit Tree resides at the bottom of each realm and regulates the aethers of the realm – the parasites installed a 'Black-Sun' which was a Negative Battery to replace the spirit tree when they back-engineered our whole system for a negative purpose.

At the bottom of every single circle environment, is a 'Spirit Tree' - The spirit tree sits underneath the bottom of Mt Meru/Northern Rock and is part of a system of Ether regulation and maintenance keeping harmonious balance with all the other realms aether on Gateway-10 . The Aether is fuelled predominantly by the love and empathy of all the beings within the realms simulation environment, and to some degree, the realms outside those membranes and icewalls. The spirit tree is just like is shown to you in the popular film 'Avatar', and there is much truth hidden in plain sight in this series of films, as is the same with most if not all movies.

Fig.39 a singular disc spirit tree system – the tree however, is located immediately under the 'disc' section, and not with its roots as depicted in the above image, but this image even shows Mt Meru.

Circuit board city's and planning and the Loosh mechanism

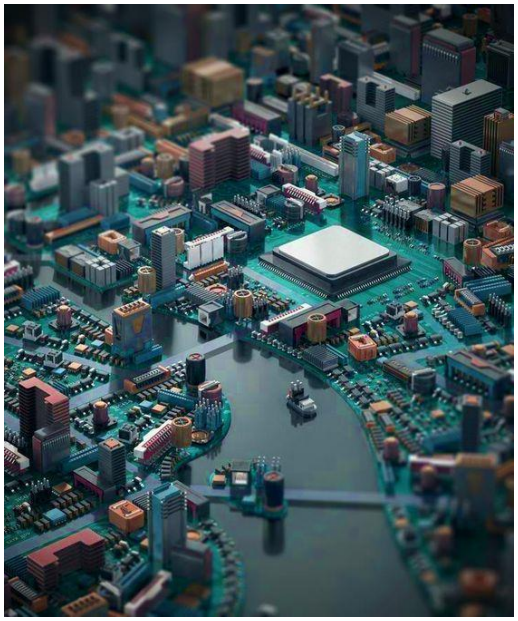

Fig.40 City-wide 'loosh' harvesting mechanism. Harvests ALL loosh on the planet – even the angst in a traffic jam, and the frustration caused by a crash, or the death caused on roads or the resentment at the potholes…all this feeling and emotion is harvested and stored in the Black-Sun ready for the valve to open and be siphoned-off by the receiver 'dish' on the side of the moon.

The Draco ripped out our Spirit Tree at the bottom of your realm and installed a 'Black-Sun' which is more than just an insignia…the Black Sun is a Negative Battery for want of a better word, it stores the Loosh from sacrifice thru yet another 'Mocking' exercise, that of the printed circuit board…the system that utilises our city's layouts, the moon, the black-sun & loosh, is presented to us as the printed circuit board and its function is similar….our city's are laid out like they are as energy collection and storage "Banks" i.e. buildings placed at certain locations, in conjunction with other facilitations (of which I am clueless at the mo) are able to collect the stored Loosh from all the 'Banks' - Not finance institutions, although some old repurposed Tartarian buildings may well be Bank HQ's to this day, but the loosh action goes off underground somehow below, or at basement-level) Loosh is stored, saved up in the storage Banks, and transferred to the black-sun via the city lay-out, until certain points in the year when required, they open a 'valve' for want of a better word above the black sun (between the northern Rock and black sun) and draw the loosh-off from the moon, that was one of the moons main purposes, to retrieve the energetic manifestation of the pain and suffering of an entire species.....let that sink-in.

Now, the moon is just a hologram projected onto another large spherical space-station-looking structure, and the 'Morning Star' (Planet Venus) that is the holographic projector casting the holographic moon image over the spherical object that's now in the same position as the moon previously resided.They had to project a holographic display out from the moon's surface for 2 reasons:

1. The moon actually looks like the 'Death Star' on Star Wars.... literally, so it would look a little bit suspect having a metallic space station in the sky with discs flying in and out all day & Night while you're trying to convince an entire species that they are on their 'jack-Jones' (Own)

2. They can come and go much less noticed with a hologram over it – and only be seen when they want to be seen, for whatever reason.

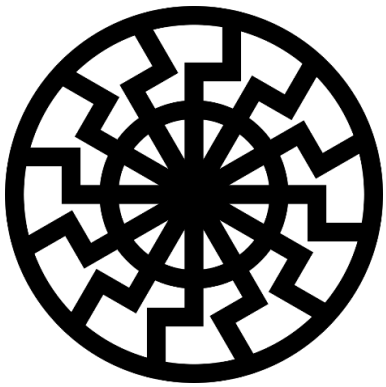

Fig. 41. The Black Sun emblem is not just an insignia, the black-sun is a 'Negative' battery designed to hold and store 'Loosh' – the activation of this Battery is what used to create the Aurora Borealis.

The Black sun is now gone, and a new spirit tree is back – The spirit tree helps maintain & regulate the ether/s of the realm/s and the relationship is symbiotic. All this is shown to you in a plethora of films and entertainment, but it is automatically disregarded because if its 'unlikely' content. They managed to pull-it-off, the total subjugation of your entire species, and you are still blissfully unaware of any of it.

The aethers and in fact also the waters of all the 178 realms are connected to each other enhancing the entire experience - we all share the same water and the same aether, although each realm has its own atmosphere, its how we are connected The Law of One, WE ARE ALL ONE…..LITERALLY! that's how you know that anyone talking about Lunar Cycles 'n shit like that is just wrong, basically, or lying. Lots of people wrongly assume that their own 'thought's are actually Channelled 'messages' & so much misinformation is promogulated in this way – thoughts are not messages and you need to be physically and emotionally at equilibrium, unless you are Christian21 then it doesn't matter as he has pineal gland the size of a fukin nectarine – but the rest of us are less connected because we liked all the things they showed us to like and drank the things they advertised for us to see on the Tell-A-Vision programming tool that every home had/has since its 'invention' – And no 'Filo T. Farnsworth' didn't invent the cathode-ray tube after watching a ploughed filed and imagining electrons going up-&-down the ploughed lines…..more utter bollox, more like, the Draco said when you can give us 5 million children per year, we will give you the technology to make a black-&-white Telle to watch David Attenborough on (that cunt sold us all out in the 1950's…..what a cunt & his brother….and every other famous person you ever heard of – doesn't matter how 'Nice' they were or seemed….they all killed children, so loose the appreciation please, its all about to come out publicly, so prepare your mind. Take it as you wish.

Volcanos are just pressure regulators for the sealed system you live in – because you live in a climate-controlled environment, a terrarium. Pressure and moisture build up….a Volcanos are how the pressure is regulated. Clouds are fake…clouds are formed by the condensation on the firmament and are not there in 5D simulations, if we need rain, we just make it rain. Also, in 5D we need much less sleep, so a day is actually 3.9 days long in our time measure in our 3rd Density simulation - it never gets properly dark in 5th Density, after 3.9 days it starts to get 'Dusk' as the sun moves away, but Dusk is as dark as it gets. 'Some' of the Stars in the sky are actually planets, a planet is ALWAYS a Flat Disc…THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS, all planets have a firmament or 2 usually, to separate realms, as realms 'may' be in different density's and even in different time-loops - Firmaments serve several purposes, it keeps the atmosphere in and also keeps bad 'shit' out…Like Draco etc, normally, plus offers protection to the life on the plain/s – if you have a tropical greenhouse in the UK, or if you grow weed, you will need to keep the environment very specific for certain plants to thrive…..that's why we all have firmaments, there are no planets without firmaments, well, actually there are, there are some 4th density realms/planets within the 'Great Dome' of Gateway-10 itself, that have no firmament above their specific 'dish', this is possible because outside of your worlds firmament, and within the great Dome itself there is an atmosphere, a weaker atmosphere that most life can still breathe if need be – this atmosphere is held in place with the outer firmament / membrane of the Great Dome itself, and the life living on these less protected worlds, are mostly 4th density animal life. You can visit these realms after healing, they are only a portal away, short trip in a craft worst case scenario.

No planets are accidental, all planets are Artificial and created by the Builder Race/Anunnaki, for Source-Creation. If you were standing on another planet looking at this planet…it would be fucking mental because it is SOOOOOO massive – Christian said that he asked Kalo why he can't remember (in this life) seeing the whole planet from high up/far back?? Kalo replied…"because we haven't ever taken you back far enough!"…WTF?? it's so fukin big that you can't fit it all in your eyes in one go, unless you are bare-miles away. Normally, if you were outside the Great Dome and standing on another planet like the Pleiades for instance, and looked down at another planet, NOT this one….it would be like looking out and seeing another shining star but it would be a lot closer than 'these' stars look as they use the 3 firmaments as a way to Lenz the sun and the moon in and out like a camera zoom – that's why the stars look so far away and are not clear….they are not meant to be clear - Your astrology is utterly defunct & obsolete now, and all the star signs go out the window with that theory, sorry but it is what it is, there's only 1 reality no matter how much we want otherwise….the stars are mostly Sky-Net1'.

I even took an atomic clock to my son's birth so I could know THE EXACT TIME of birth as I thought it mattered for his astrological chart when he's older if he wanted to know? As an accurate time of birth gives a more accurate a reading, I heard - His TOB was 01:11:28:43 on the 31st 12/2019 They said 01:12 but I corrected them, then immediately after refused Konakion (vitamin-K) and had 3 surgeons telling me "YOU could kill your own son with stupid conspiracy theory's" Lol I weren't having NONE OF IT!! Konakion is used to prevent a rare blood thinning issue that effects 1 child in 100,000 so why give it to EVERY SINGHLE CHILD….??? plebs,,,,they take blood AFTER they give VITAMINE K….WHY NOT TEST A BABY 1ST THEN? And if it's not got the rare blood thinning issue, don't need to give it konakion? Fools. Also….Knoakion is made with "Sodium Acetate Anhydrous" of which a constituent soft metal present in the manufacture of Sodium acetate anhydrous…..is ALUMINIUM….that's how they sneak heavy metals into "vaccines" no fucking chance was my boy having that shit - I had 81 peer reviewed study's saying there's a link to ASD and adjuvants therein….so no fukin way was I listening to them fools. Sorry, I digressed… The Ether facilitates our submersal in The Law Of One covenant, it is the life-pulse of civilisations, its used for everything from power requirements to communication, knowledge promulgation to helping others on and off world we use it constantly daily always for everything and it is a 'part' of 'us'……and we had it removed and a 3D matrix put in, and after the flood when they froze us to negate any backlash from us whom being 5th Density at that moment still and hugely powerful in strength and ability's, they downsized our brain capacity from 70+% to just 2.2% downsized our height from 9+' tall to an average of 5' and made us nontelepathic with a TINY pineal gland that they knew to fluoridate and dampen . Very few people have anything much above baseline telepathy.....thinking a tune that your mums thinking of at the same time etc. These were all part of their repertoire of tactics to subdue us control us, and make us 'sleep'....for 6,013 years.....let that sink-in.

Approximately 60% of the population of the Earth is currently Human....that needs to sink-in as well ...so what are the non-human members of the population? Roughly.....

15% are Hybrids...

Hybrids are reptilian mostly I assume, but I Need to check that also - there are many reasons for the hybridisation programs that were going on with Grey abductions for centaury's....they were ALL negative abductions....99% of them if not 100% were greys, carrying out experiments for Draco in family generations, & looking for a number of traits for several purposes - To assist with the access to other realms that are sealed off, because some realms have never left their domes thru fear of the galactic war, so they have awesome defences and can stay locked in and a Draco wants to get in there....they need to work on compatibility issues in splicing themselves with our DNA to hopefully be able to carry the Source Creation Soul which is a special soul...it's the soul we have ourselves, they also abducted people to try to get their souls (Draco Souls) to be able to ascend and get back to source to attack source from the inside, as I said b4 that's pointless but that's what they were trying to achieve, long-term.

Fig. 42. Avatar Chambers are real and been around a very long time – this is how souls are purposefully placed in vessels, when required for a specific purpose or reason, such as the 'Great Awakening' where we needed to send in indigos to help, but once in here you are trapped in the rebirth cycle here, the only way out was one of 3 portals thru the ice wall. Or we would be looping here for eternity if the parasites had their way.

15% Avatars....? What are Avatars? 'Avatars' are just like you see in the movie 'Avatar', & also real are the blue species seen on this movie, the feline/Lyrian-cross ET featured, are also real and exist, but are not connected to the Avatar Chambers in anyway apart from in the film for entertainment purposes. An Avatar Chamber looks like a Med-Bed, but when inside the chamber, you are put into stasis and your soul can be inserted into any other being anywhere else. Christian21 for instance, was placed carefully after much thought and wisdom being applied, in a proper shit-hole in Portsmouth, on purpose, whereas I, being Christians more attractive and intelligent younger brother, I didn't fancy all that watching kids get tortured and shit like that's not really my cup of tea, so I chose a warm loving family who had a few quid and a lot of love, I probably looked on the Akashic records about my future life and thought 'yeah sweet that's well cushdy down there with them two.....il have a pool & a farmhouse by the time I'm 11, & 4 holidays per year to exotic places, sick bruv.....see you in 2022 Kristen.....don't worry about me bruv I'll be sweet.....I'm a survivor....." it was the year 1599 when we had that conversation.....time flies when your having fun. We have been in-&-out since 1599, came in with 2,000 others plus their twin-flames, at the time when it started getting rally bad, that was 400 or so years before the end of the last re-set ending in C.1890 when the templars were busy spreading banking and other forms of nefarious activities and practices.

There was supposed to be many more Christian 21's about doing similar videos & presentations but covering different topics, and the same topics in every language and for all cultures…… explanations of different aspects to the great awakening and what else lays behind the icewalls, and beyond the imagination – but all the rest fucked-up and, well, they didn't make it for whatever reason….they were not supposed to have a chat with benevolants and then start writing books and making money….'smart choices'….they should have realised that what they had must be so so special as its only them in contact….they should have nurtured that contact and not started writing books about it 20 fukin years ago like Alex Collier, Delores Cannon, Ashiana Dean etc etc etc…..these people were likely Avatars also….but they fucked-up BIG TIME and got Cut-Off from the Benevolent helpers because THEY WERE PROFITING from FREE information that was supposed to help save our species and help as many ascend as possible….. but the bug of fame and fortune found them first and made them sick with success, and the benevolent's had to pull away, so these people started making shit-up, like Ashiana dean invented 'Sanader 9' and 'Sanader 12' to help 'puff' out her books and talks because she/they had ran out of new info to write about as they were cut-off…….Alex Collier is another example. This info is free for a reason. Its how to go home……the 'satnav' to get there runs on love and empathy……take it as you wish.

half of the Pleiadean civilisation is already here….. my soul is from these people and if you are reading this document, you are probably one of the others who came here to help also. The Pleiadean civilisation numbers about 1 Billion people…..so 500,000,000 of this species are here in your realm helping to free you and wake everyone else up…..you can lead a horse to water…but you can't make it think.

Fig.43. 'Celecia' is the leader of the Pleiadean Civilization, she's a very very nice lady & As far as I am aware, she is the mother of Christian, & myself. Trust me stranger things have happened.

'Mother' is proper old, several billions of years old but she looks 27. Everyone does in 5th Density-up, that's why shit starts at 5th Density, it's like a really good TV series that's got 15 seasons….but the first 4 episodes of season 1, are proper shit, so after you seen season 1 , if you watch it again, you know to skip the 1st 4 episodes and start on Episode 5. It's kind of like that but with 'Space Aliens' & a lot of amazing technology.

Technological supremacy was reached a long time ago by many species and the only advantage that the Draco et al actually had this time, as they had tried this 7 times before and failed miserably, was the help of the ancient Demons who had the skill to advise and take hosts to make their plan a success, which it was, for a while.

Species tend to all look the same in the upper densities because the love and empathy creates a similar soul to develop and thrive in similar circumstances, so the whole species could well look very similar whereas the different races here are looking this way because of the species the vessel's genetics was back-engineered from when the occupation started. Hence African, Chinese, Asian, Russian etc.

Christian remembers being saved from the ice when they flooded and froze the realm when they arrived.....he then came back in here to help for a thousand-ish years and then left again.... He then came back in here at the start of the Knights Templar Era because that's when Banking was invented and that's when it got REALLY bad for us here....and he's been looping here ever since...424yrs later he's still here and he's got no hot water and no washing machine (I have to stop typing to laugh my head off thru this last bit WTF!!???but it had to be that way.....if the people were going to believe anyone after this amount of brainwashing and propaganda on a subject so 'out-there' as this is....that person is guna have to be some seriously staunch player and come from 'the people' - can't be a saviour type as that doesn't gel (because of the Cezare Borgia issue) and so here we have it.....Christian21 as down-to-earth as one could possibly get.

 NOTE: Importantly, Christian is 'only' human right now – he admittedly gets shit wrong now-&-then which I feel adds to his creditability as he is discovering all this at the same time we are, literally - also he doesn't get embarrassed by it, which I relate to myself and see as another plus as he welcomes the opportunity to correct himself - If his team had have pumped him up telling him who he actually is and all the juicy bits like how it will all end in 2023 , when was 17 or something, then he could have jeopardised the whole 6,000yr mission in order to 'pull' some blonde tart from round the corner in a Pub...."Alwright Darlin.....Do you know who I am??....I'm Buck-Fuckin-Rodgers' babe.....come meet purple-Yoda..." you know what it's like with lads and hormones! lol , as a 5yr old or young child, it could have gone to his head and made him a right little brat if he was aware of earth shattering secrets....wearing his Y-Fronts over his brown corduroy trousers in 1987 and a bath-towel round his neck like a cape and a pair of nickers on his head like Spiderman.....you can see what filling 'humans' in 3D up with Truth could do in the wrong person.....look at what happened to Ashyana dean etc and that was only caused by the need for fame/more books – so Christian has had the same treatment as everyone else, little bit worse than most in fact, only thing he knew that was a real benefit that no one else would get to know, was that he isn't going to die before this is all back as it was in 5D so he's not going to get seriously hurt at any point, or ritually sacrificed.....Mother doesn't like the thought of her 1st born son being sacrificed.....so he's only had to watch countless other children be horrifically tortured and sacrificed, but his payment for that is 'No Healing Time' required for him after ascension, as he healed about 37 yrs ago.

Christians memory is the same as yours and mine, except he has an Kalo-&-Co who can edit his language in real live time as they have done in the past (well funny!) or they can download him information as needed, just it works for us all in 5D with the matrix and aether, Christian has a second-hand alternative version - Another thing he got wrong was with me! He thought I was Pleiadian and I was trapped here during the raid/event (Atlantis sinking / "Ice-Age"), but no, I was rescued like he was at that same time and I volunteered to come back in to help....help?.....me?...how?.....if we can 'grow' help with hydroponic nutrients and an 1,000Watt LED in a double garage, im in bruv, but now I know I volunteered.....i feel guilty for not trying hard enough before I knew this, to know what it is that I don't know? And would never ever have guessed.....I don't want to have been here for 6,012yrs for nothing cos I fukt-up.....i don't know if I fukt up or not, even? Better make up for it now then on the 11th hour, just in case :)

So a few months ago I got this image of a 9' Tall12-pack athletic hero in my minds-eye, of my new self 'in a minute' seconds after ascension, ripped as fuck & hung like a Greek God.....but no....no no....he got that wrong as well.....(bless him) no....im a 2' tall fury little creature that drinks its own piss and lives in a hole in the ground, likely my "Amazing Moment" with my soulmate, will be with a miniature 'Chewbacca' in a damp cave with a bottle of JD & 20 Marlborough Lites.....Christian wont tell me what I am "dont wana plant seeds".....so I'm just picturing the worst in my head so anything else has to be okay! (this is ONE WAY I USE TO FIND SILVER LININGS – seriously, it is) – id like him to get stuff wrong when it doesn't directly involve me, personally tho! Lol see....this is why telepathy is beneficial.....if we were in 5D, id know how big my Knob was, cos id just look down in awe at it, whenever I needed to.....but we aint in 5D and because of that & with no telepathy.....and i cant know what Christian is thinking about my species.....therefore my knob could be several meters long if im from Venus.....or an inch long (like it is now) if I'm a fucking Hobbit or something? Fuck sake....well at least because of this new NEW info and the peace-of-mind that comes from understanding it a little, means that if my only worrys about post-Event scenarios are the size of my new phallus and 'Milk' (see below) then its gota be a good thing as there are people out there who still actually think that wearing a mask will protect them from a common-cold, so fuck knows what they are going to think when the see the EBS???....let-alone the revelations of 'past-them's' and what they went thru as other incarnated people.....this is going to get terribly terribly odd very very quickly. Buckle-up folks!

when Christians was about 9yrs old, his 'team' show-up....and they go thru the remembering process, starting off as a little blue 'Smurf' so as not to shock him.....but even at 9 he wasn't shocked at all and pre-empted their concerns for his concern, and nullified the fear for them - So they picked up from where they left off last loop, and it was during one of these last 4 loops (the 1st I think in templar times) in South America Christian was an Architect & Painter, which is when he drew the paintings that were used on the covers of the Nos Confunden Book series. Christian has been under the Umbrella of Q, but a separate operative answering only to Kalo/Celecia & his team 'up there' - his role is autonomous, and he is here to scoop-up the "probably-wouldn't have-made-it" crew….and good fucking job he did, as I was in the 'could-possibly-make-it-but-highly-unlikely" Crew. 6 months ago when Christian was walking in the park with the dog, he said "I gota apologise to a few people for not getting back to them….erm….'Leon Sinclair' that name seems significant for some reason…"…mush I ran to the bathroom to look in the mirror and make sure I was me, I wasn't sure so I got my passport out, and fuck me….that's me bruv?…….wtf??? the only time that my name has ever been associated with the word 'Significant' is during a Police Investigation……not for anything else…..so then it got Proper odd as if all Christians info for the last year of revelations weren't odd enough…. By this time I already knew he was legit, I could feel it and it all made crystal-clear sense and answered several longterm questions id had that couldn't be answered by anyone in YEARS of searching….i.e the 3D-to-5D question + others….the answers were all straightforward & answered matter-of-factly in a casual way "oh yeah that's because……." Straight off the bat, so over the coming weeks it transpired that my name was significant because Kalo kept pointing my name out and reminding Christian to contact that 'Leon Sinclair' geezer…..it transpires that there's sooo much more oddness…..more oddness that you can wave a short stick at – I've know Christian/Kalo/Celecia [Christians Mum] and 'Cezare Borgia' only knows who else, for THOUSANDS of years……and Adey/Vince/Elle Donato as well….ALL FOR THOUSANDS OF FUKIN YEARS…..what??? what???...what the actual fuck?……im running out of tin-foil fast as I can buy it.

… 'on-the-out' we all work together….yeah I know how that sounds….we go everywhere together Lol lol what a mental 'fing' to penetrate ones ears…… doing bare mad shit by all accounts – Christian is the total OPPESIT of his persona here now at this time….'on-the-out' he is many things….A spiritual leader whose advise is sought on ALL GALACTIC TREATIES…Christian is always present at Treaty meetings and meetings of galactic issues – Christian is so important to this process that Kalo comes and gets him sometimes, in lightbody and takes him off to be present at meetings, obviously his soul is in light body form and exits the 3D matrix with no issues but returning to 3D matrix he will not have recall on what happened whilst out, unless Aldo restores the missing parts. he is a healer & teacher. The reason he only had 15 dishes on his wall to start with was because those 15 planets are of significance to him for many reasons he's still uncovering.

Mother 1st came back into Christians life only the other month, After 1,500yrs lol (I can't get over that!! Soooo funny!) because Christian fell-out with Celecia 1,500 years ago, about a row over how come Christian doesn't listen to anyone, even when your telepathic and don't need to speak, Christian still doesn't listen, he's developed special technique, a way of ignoring anyone in a nano-second, its like a special super-power hes found within himself. So Christian didn't listen to Mother that time either when she told him not to come back in for more loops here as its rather dangerous down here in 3rd Density, anything can happen at any time and the only thing you can predict with any accuracy, is lies, pain & suffering, in a subtle,-to-medium, or full-on hard-core agonistic onslaught of instances and circumstances to produce 'loosh' directly off your auric field.

Kalo & Mother let Christian come to conclusions on his own and he can't be given too much info as he himself has to connect the dots, it's the only way to 'LEARN' anything and that's why you also have to connect the dots. Our job here is to make the dot-joining process as easy as possible for you by laying out the 'jig-saw' pieces on the table for you, spaced-out almost in the correct place to fit. We with his info

Kalo waits until certain times to release/unlock Christians memory's, or to explain more detail. Christian was the secret weapon for the populations of the world, the denizens of our realm who could at least try to understand and try to at least remember our past and true heritage, to no avail it does not matter, it's the trying that matters….to not try is to give up….no one who tried anything is a looser, only those who never try, loose. But he wasn't meant to be on his own don here now…..but because of looking glass tech, they knew he would be on his own, and after a while it was obviously going to be the most likely of all possible outcomes, so Christian got the Full Concierge 5-star treatment……not in terms of lifestyle, but in terms of support as to make sure Christian was plausible, authentic, accurate and efficient at getting the message out to as many as possible…..they had to carefully chose where he grew-up for instance, as English is the most commonly spoken language and The Draco HQ is in the UK, they chose here for him, right under the Draco's noses – and they couldn't have him going to school learning rubbish as it would just make their job harder - and they gave him a split-personalities (35 in total) for a few years to compartmentalise the trauma he went thru as a 9yrl old watching 14'Tall Draco rip a child's pineal gland out Infront of him with a crow-bar whist in light body and all sorts of torture, the Draco knew it was Christians lioght-body that was watching as they can see Lightbody souls also, its only 'us' that are blind to these things in our 3D paradigm & limited skillset - so they tortured the children even more knowing it would upset Christian…they don't like him much cos he keeps fucking with their shit throughout loops. This happened during trips in light body with Kalo to DUMBS and bases in various places. Christian also visited inner earths, and other realms - Christian has been to both inner earths and has knowledge (or visited? I forget what he said?) the Labyrinth which is where the demons lived, now destroyed along with every other trace of demonic activity in a physical labyrinth deep below the surface.

Christian was uneducated at school which just adds to his credibility a million-fold because how the fuk could anyone know all this in their head without being able to read until you were in your early 30's – the last 14 months videos have turned modern science on its head and made a mockery of physics, history, religion, politics, astrology, 'Space', Geography + more and they are ALL NEVER BEFORE HEARD explanations in infinitesimal detail on subjects we thought were lost to historical fraud & the sands of time. But no, Christian has eyewitness testimony for stuff that happened Millions of years ago. Christian is incorruptible and can't be bought-off & because of the severity of the situation and these being the final days of that situation, that culminated in the victory of a Universal Galactic War lasting over 7,000yrs, and the fact that OUR SOULS VERY EXISTANCE was now at stake, there had to be ONE fail-safe AT LEAST ONE for the people, they could have won the war before now, but at great cost to human life down here, so they waited – Both sides in the war knew the Draco had until 2020-ish and both sides knew not much could be done to free us before now, attempts were made and thwarted, as 88% of Gateway-10 was taken in 'some' capacity. (14,000 separate 'worlds were affected to some degree, by the occupation) So Christian needed to be able to answer ANY question on ANY subject, when he needs to know something, Kalo 'streams' it live into his head, or just unlocks the necessary info if he already knew but forgot. The Nos Confunden Book series have unlocked VAST TRACTS of info that Christian is now remembering Some of the 15% clones are waking up and realising that they are clones. They will live out this life and cloning will be no more again. It is a galactic 'nono' cloning is taking the identity of another which is not okay out there, no good can come from cloning 'willy-nilly'.

Species in 5D have their own spoken language, but also have telepathy which is the preferred method of communication and most common for all species – its faster and easier to use telepathy. Telepathy works on frequency also, each species has its own frequency, like a radio, you simply tune into that frequency by listening to the thought of that species and like in any language, you pick up that frequency's signature tone/accent and then you are able to converse directly with that species, even your house pets (and I think, plants also, ill ask)

Cannabis grows wild in 5D all over the place, I'm relieved to say, or I would need to look for a double garage on 'Y557' (little earth / 2nd earth) and cannabis is part of our lives - aiiiight 😊 - Alcohol does not exist and neither do recreational drugs. The Andromadans gave Earth people cannabis at the beginning, cannabis is a part of the human immune system and the ECS or Endocannabinoid System is actually the body's 1st line of defence for any injury, illness or disease. My website www.medi-cure.uk is full of advice and information on how to rid the body of cancer with natural intervention. DON'T BE FOOLED BY PEOPLE WHO ARE UTTERLY IGNORANT to naturopathy, by ignorant I mean anyone who works for the 'Health' Service in any country. Meds kill, get over it and move on.

Barbara starfield conducted a detailed survey in the late 1990's I think from memory, it revealed that 'Iatrogenic' death is the 3rd biggest killer on the planet – Iatrogenic death is when the hospital, or medication, or a GP kills you by accident. Another person who I definitely forget the name of (you can check this out as its in a book by Gary Null, called "The Wisdom of Your Cells") well, Gary Null was relaying this in his book, the other medical guy couldn't believe that Iatrogenic death was the 3rd biggest killer, so he carried out an even bigger more exhaustive & detailed study of over 50,000 deaths and concluded that Barbara Starfield was incorrect, Iatrogenic death is actually the NUMBER 1 KILLER……let that sink-in.

We eat 'sometimes', but survive on water & sunlight mostly – eating only fruits and vegetables as no one in 5th Density eats meat or kills to survive – nothing does, not even Tigers, they eat fruit and sunlight also (Il have a sunlight sandwich please and a glass of fruit) the insects in 5th Density do not sting or hurt people or other wildlife, insects also survive on water and sunlight – the Draco back engineered everything to harm us and cause discomfort, such as gnats and flies….do not exist in 5th Density. Some 'wild' animals even wear clothes in 5D…(I guess that means they are not truly wild?) and in 8+D we can manifest physical objects into existence. When we get home, will have a better surprise….our original body's that were destroyed in the flood, the blueprint for that body will use your DNA in the body you are in right now during the EMF, has been upgraded in the last 6,012yrs….meaning it's going to be better than the body you lost (and a TRILLION times better than the one your in now!) After the EMF when the separation has happened we will be with our immediate original family's (little earth and here) you will wake up in the same place you ascended from, but it will be vastly different….you will be as Dorothy in the last 10 minutes of the 1939 Wizard of Oz….literally, you will be like that in bed with familiar, yet strange faces gathered around you eagerly awaiting your recognition…..i plan to do this as well as possible….by that I mean (and iv given it my full contemplation considering how One-Off this is going to be….because no one has had this much mindwiping for so many thousands of years and its NEVER going to repeat itself again, so this is literally THE ONLY TIME IN THE HISTORY OF CREATION THAT AN EVENT OF THIS SCALE AND MAGNETUDE, EFFECTING THE ENTIRE UNIVESE….will ever happen…..ever….and we all have not only a ticket to the event…and not only do we have 'Dress-Circle' access……we are the fukin actors in the performance! What the fuk!. So ascending 'well' is now my goal… …by that I mean I will come in to my body from above and il open my eyes to heightened visual perception and greater colour spectrum, audio upgrades, smell taste and touch, all improved, totally new body 9' tall, and a phallus like a Shetland fukin Pony….

Now I know I'm in an Avatar tank also, il be in the same location as Kristen and if hes going to be last out, I need to be 1st out as I need to find his chamber in the sea of Avatar tanks in Russia, I need to find his chamber quickly before he returns to his body, because I'm going to pop-the-lid on his stasis habitation and fart right next to his head , shut the lid and sit on it for an hour or two, cos mother wont let me punch him.

Just seconds into the EMF, your soul will witness a sequence of 'Cine' film-like images streaming past your field of vision, the same as happens when you recall a vivid memory from your recent past, or a recollection that takes you back to the moment with such vivid clarity that you are momentarily transported back in your mind to the time when the vivid memory was etched into your mind's eye.

– you will remain inside your vessel while the vessel is fixed & this method was chosen so as not to freak-out children too much (we just left while we are 'at the movies' watching our past lives (1,000+yrs of them). We come in from above. Christian will be there before his body….ALL THE AVATARS (1.95 BILLION OF THEM) will also be there before their body's and they will have their memory's back, but for a split second they will wonder why the fuk there body is coming in after???.....then it will dawn on them that they FUKT UP! Some were obviously taken out with Vaccines, and the whole vaccine issue started because the Draco didn't want any starseeds waking up that's for sure, so they 'nuked' them with vaccines and meds etc from the end of ww2, plus with a 3D matrix and calcified Pineal gland, we were telepathy-less and stunted in every way – the 'Rothschild Not-so-Secret Covenant' details all their sick twisted plans for us…(its included at the end in Appendix i. and they ticked every one off…why are so many still asleep? Their apathy IS their beacon of despair, that they wont acknowledge, ever. Its fukin painful now….i cant wait to go home now. I cant wait for the next vid either.

Christian21's
A Brief Synopsis
By :Leon-George: Sinclair

"It sounds 'far out' for a reason" – And if it didn't sound far out, then we wouldn't be here now discussing how far out it is, because they would have had another Re-set long ago. They (Draco/Greys/Custodians/Anunnaki kept the real truth from us and so did the Benevolent/WhiteHats/Q-Team/Positive ET's, for the same reason....if 'We' find out, then they (the parasites) are fucked and will have an immediate reset to make sure the long-term goal is accomplished,..not even our benevolent soul family's could tell us the truth for 6,012yrs. Or until 2022 in fact. Resets are proper shit: It would have started off with Vaccine Passports after Hilary Rotten-Clinton would have won in 2016 and quickly seen that everyone who was Unvaccinated with the Covid Injection would be round up by the SAME FOREIGN MILITARY we have here now and everywhere else posing as asylum seekers in the UK, except with a different set of orders to that which they now have, and we (the unvaccinated) would be in FEMA camps to be harvested / sacrificed / injected / executed for too low a 'Social-Credit' score or similar fate. BILLIONS WOULD HAVE DIED BY NOW....already as the REAL VIRUS that ONLY WENT INTO THE LAST BATCH OF THEIR ADRENACHROME, would have been unleashed and the REAL "Vaccine" would have been in EVERY single vial, not just mainly in the 2nd shot..... they would have been dead with the planned "Agender-21" as it was originally called, and the Georgia Guide-stones laid this out before they were blown up by the white-hats a year-or-so ago. They would have had breeding centres where children get pregnant as young as possible and continue to produce children until death chained to a bed for their whole lives....warehouses full of pregnant children.....think about that for a minute. These would be to use as sex slaves and menial task duty's where human labour/man power may be required in the servicing of the parasites newly created world for themselves, a world of pain and suffering that they relish in. the population would be 500 million or less, not more. During the previous Re-sets, every single adult over 15 is 'Harvested'/killed for fun/hunted/gassed/bombed/slain in arenas fighting each other to the death/ burned/raped and maimed etc, for 'their' pleasure & for loosh and the general end-goal of depopulation (again) We already went thru 6, Klaus Schwab was fond of discussing the 7th ("The Great Re-set") which would have been a few years ago had Hilary Clinton have beaten Trump in 2016.

There are hunting parties of Draco & Malevolent ET's, who just go about hunting out every last family and raping and torturing them, just because it's what they do. Thats why the Universe starts off in 5D.....look at the hassle we have here in 3D and the hatred & murder the Malevolent in 4th Density, still have. 5D is where it starts for that obvious reason, everything ticks- over nicely in 5th Density and it's a good foundation to start from for a solid peaceful co-habitation for the betterment of all.

Small baby's are kepped alive just like in beginning of the 20th Century all those 'Cabbage Patch' kids, Children pictured and drawn sitting in large groups in cabbage patches (bizarrely) also the 'Foundlings' these were re-set baby's that needed new parents (a 'Pair' who 'Rent' = Parents) The Worlds Fairs had exhibitions where you could buy a 'Foundling' like a pet, to bring up.

Children between 4 & 14 are harvested and tortured for Adrenochrome and Loosh (the energetic manifestation of physical pain and suffering– its like THE BIGGEST NEGATIVE Festival in the universe, when they re-set us here in this realm. Disgusting doesn't do it justice as there are no words to describe that amount of torture and suffering on a global public simultaneously.

Fig.44. Re-set Negative ET's (Maitrax/Maitra)

Think 'Predator' the movie on a global scale with way more varied frightening monsters than just 'Predator', like 'Custodians' (Etamines) on the Rampage, who are 10' Tall powerfully built hominids (Think Minotaur') with an animal torso and head like a Bull, plus torture and rape and prolonged suffering of the entire species simultaneously.....its not fun, and dont worry as soon you will be watching all 6 of these re-sets during the 30-seconds FLASH from the Sun during the Event when we get our memory's back, because you too were sacrificed probably many times in the past.....don't be angry at this time, that's important to deal with this well, by that is meant 'objectively' where possible, and remember that these 'past-you's' are all in the past, you never remembered it anyway until being shown during the EMF, so if it never bothered you before, try not to let it bother you now – look at it as a blessing that you now know the truth at last, however disturbing that truth may be.... What a breath of fresh air that will be! it's all I ever wanted to know my whole life anyway, the TRUTH.

Having negative emotion, anger, resentment, guilt etc at the EMF 30-seconds FLASH will just see you end up on Realm 'Y557' where is 4 main continents:

'America2'

'Europe2'

'The Great Lands of The Deserters'...

....who said ET's don't have a sense of humour! There are some small islands, 'Organs Land' and 'Experiments Land' (as they are currently called) The reason for this is 5th Density runs on positivity – there is no negativity in 5D+ whatsoever, and there never can be or the entire system fails, just like with the Draco et al, they can't have a single truth in 3D to keep that running it can only run on lies and negativity – their whole System, technology and modus operandi was back engineered from positive examples....ONLY and its always the polar Opposite of what is Real/Good/True/Positive. Thats why magnetic Nort on your compass, is actually magnetic South, in reality – also why the Crucifix hangs upside-down in Luciferian bedrooms and horror movies, it's the Yin-Yang Dark / Light - Neg/Pos - in/out - up/down - good/bad, necessity of all things in 3rd Density. Don't forget Source-Creation already did all this in thoughtform 1st, so even the thoughts running thru your head at the moment whilst reading this text, Source already thought that on your behalf billions of years ago before your 'shard' of source-creation left the source of its creation - yes on YOUR behalf, your thoughts in your head have already been thought and so have all the off-thoughts that travel thru your synapsis at the speed-of-light. Interestingly, Alzheimer's is a 'Prion' disease caused by sugar and heavy (soft) metals, such as Amalgam fillings in your teeth & the 'adjuvants' in ALL vaccines whether they display this on the PIL (Patient Information Leaflet, which a legal requirement for all medication) or outer packaging in plain-sight, or hidden inside new terminology and explanations, this is why dementia and Alzheimer's is so prevalent....its ALL by design, nothing is left to chance – the thinking process itself relies on 'information' traveling about, signals being sent to generate thought, but the sugars and the soft metals cause the messenger carriers to get distorted / contorted and misshapen, causing a catastrophic break-down of the thought creation process. To reverse Alzheimer's start using COCONUT oil / Fat / pulp, cook with it, cook ONLY with coconut oil, fry in coconut oil, bake in coconut oil, use coconut cream instead of fresh cream/synthetic cream....get as much of it in you as possible (but more on that on my website, its all FREE info on how to remain in perfect health and also how to free yourselves from unlawful debt, bills, Leki – Gas – Water – Council Tax – dealing with the stupid police who are a pathetic joke and should ALL BE UTTERLY ASHAMED:

Sorry I digressed…..where was I?…..Source Creation having thought all all of this out 1st before even creating physical life – so Source was well aware of the parasitic occupation several billion years before it even transpired in your reality, Source knew all about the Demons and their goals long before they even came into being, billions of years before they even existed – they couldn't possibly win, its like a 5yr old child couldn't physically fight and beat an adult in a sparring competition, the child is way way out of its league, so as we see with the Demons which are nothing more than angry little children in the galactic world. They are quite pathetic.

Each Realm either on this Super-Planet of 178 Worlds with several realms in each World i.e. 2 or 3 Inner-Earths and several realms on the surface, each 'Disc' has a 'Spirit Tree' at the bottom Centre of their 'Disc' with a 'Mt Meru'/'Northern Rock' situated as the highest point within that entire realm/disc (Each realm/disc = the territory between the Centre of the Realm/Disc and the outer-most Firmament – this is the case for the original planets (also discs, don't get confused because ALL PLANETS ARE DISCS, there are no round planets, not anywhere, not EVER….the only place that Solar Systems exist are in the imagination, or peoples roof-tops…..literally…. so there's no 'Nebula' that's also CGI and also all that 'Birth of Galaxy' bollox is also just to cement the globe theory in your mind…..all these 'pointless' lies coalesce to become the actual glue that keeps this bizarre way of life/slavery & barbarism is a better description, in place. The only large Round things out there are like the Anunnaki Away-Station which is a huge round 'planet'-looking thing called 'NIBIRU' – Nibiru isn't on an Orbit, but it did exist as a physical 'thing'.

The Spirit Tree and Mt Meru (whatever they are known as in each realm) are the system that keeps the Ethers of each realm flowing uninhibited equally as required 'Torrid-like' at each realm/disc – this positive energy flow (aether) is what makes each realm and the collective realms harmonious flow of positive energy and frequencies promulgate the extremities of the entire planet & all 178 worlds on it. This Ether we use to communicate with, run our homes electricity needs and our lifestyles, the Ether powers our vehicles and Portals....the Ether is EVERYTHING to us and that's why there are no Negative Chemtrails since 2016.....there are 10 TIMES the 'Chem-Trails' that there used to be, which worry's people greatly I see.....BUT DONT WORRY Because these are NOT true 'Chem'-Trails....use a new word like "PosTrails" or something (Positive-Chem Trails) BECAUSE THEY DO NOT HAVE Barium and Aluminium in BA-AL etc etc, on the periodic table.....what a coincidence-NOT (Baal) or any other NEGATIVE chemicals in.....THEY HAVE TO SPRAY POSITIVE FORMULAS IN THE SKY NOW BECAUSE WHEN THEY DROP THE FIRMIRMENT AFTER THE FLASH IT IS VITAL THAT THE AIR HERE IN OUR REALM IS OF THE SAME QUALITY AS REALM 2.....BECAUSE THESE TWO AIRS WILL OBVIOUSLY MIX TOGETHER WITHOUT A PHYSICAL BARRIER (FIRMIRMENT) AND THAT WOULD BE CATASTROPHIC FOR REALM 2, NOT US.....SINCE WW2 THEY HAVE BEEN SPRAYING US LIKE BUGS WITH TOXINS AND OUR AIR QUALITY WAS SHIT.....REALM 2 HAS PUKKA AIR AND THEY DONT WANT OUR TOXIC SHIT MIXING WITH THEIR PERFECT ENVIRONMENT –

In the 'Simulation' environment experience we are in, 'air' is not part of the 'Code' like Trees are not but their wood (cut from the tree) is, and becomes part of the live-'code' after separation from the tree – so our Air will be the same air that it was before the EMF as it will be as it will be after....so that's why they upped the "POSTRAILING" (lets stop calling it Chem-Trails from here on, it gives the wrong impression) Anything 'alive' is not part of the code....so blades of grass have a soul....but lawn-mowings do not (if that makes it simpler?) So be grateful for the POS-TRAILS!!!! they have restored he air quality in here to 85% and if there is a delay past Mid November it will be for the newly awoken and ...the fact that they can't take the firmament down yet as its not at 100% perfect air to mix with realm 2.

There isn't a single thing that hasn't been triple-planned and quadruple-planned and they have had 6,013yrs in which to plan it – and until we got to a point of mass communication with the ability to text msg a remote person in the jungle, or a village on a mountain, or send a video to your Nan in Calcutta, there wasn't a way to save us without annihilating the entire species simultaneously BECAUSE JUST AS THE ROTHSCHILD SECRET COVENANT explains (see Appendix i.) amongst other things: ….."we will make them police themselves….blah blah blah…" so our BIGGEST OBSTACLE IN THIS LAST RE-SET (Only the last one, Probably-not the previous 5) has always been OURSELVES……let that sink-in. Benevolent couldn't help us because:

1. Whoever is in possession of 'Looking Glass' (LG) controls that realms simulation, and for just under 6,000yrs it was owned & controlled by the parasites. This is why no twin-flame/soulmates are together here in your realm, and why all/most of the ET healing species Arcturian / Andromadan / Articulate are reincarnated here in wheelchairs on disability payments. The parasites saw all this coming when they had 'LG' so were able to adapt their machinations to a more despicable level of control by taking out as many indigo's as possible, how? It didn't matter…vaccinate the pregnant mothers, then the new born's….then 175 other new vaccines by the time they are 18yrs old and should be enough to ruin them completely and make them no threat of forming groups with a specific purpose.

2. Our poisonous air, food and water calcifies our spiritual apparatus, our Pineal gland, by design. This 'equipment' is your 'modem' or router that handles the communication between your brain, soul, aether, and out into the universe, it connects you to yourself, and the universe around you.

Everything 'connects' via this way, and that is 'how' all are one - WWG1WGA has several meanings as does all the other Q information and 'lingo', but it distils-down to this on a universal/galactic level. We are all one because the 'battery' that powers our vessels, were all made in the same factory….every species soul, came from the same Source-Creation, and we are all source creation ourselves, this is also why we are all one…..extrapolate every single soul in the universe negative or positive…..and remove their soul from the vessel they inhabit, and put the souls all together……we are all one, good and bad are all one and the same experiencing different reality's & paradigms within individual simulations/multi-simulations, meaning that most beings exist in 5th-to11th density in a physical body, after that its Lightbody existence until 15th density, then you have completed the full cycle, and return to source as we did before, to stay with source or to begin the cycle again, but with more beauty and more upgrades to the physical body…..its a long cycle taking many billions of years to complete and the mad thing is that YOU HAVE DONE THIS CYCLE AT least ONE TIME ALREADY…you just cant remember because of the amnesia vortex and reduced brain capacity & downsizing. But you will remember…..thats why im documenting Christian21's information/Revelations in this free document. TO HELP YOU PROCESS AND DEAL WITH WHATS ABOUT TO HAPPEN WHEN THEY CALL THE EBS.

3. we were taught that they are likely the enemy…..we police our-stupid-selves. Its 'Stockholm-Syndrome'….. planet-wide, and it was always ourselves who were a threat to ourselves, like when a toddler is running near a road and cant process the danger it's in, happily laughing whilst running towards a speeding vehicle, oblivious to the pain & suffering that could be imminent.

Fig.45 The faceless algorithms of a conforming society held captive by Stockholm-Syndrome. These people are your teachers. and NHS staff, Doctors and Police, Social-Services & CAFCASS workers, these people even serve you in the supermarket, and drop you off home in a Cab, after.

4. The Benevolent just had to sit back and watch us self-harm and harm each other thinking it's okay to do so because 'our' god is the right god and their god is the wrong god. To help one of us would mean helping all of us, and until we were ALL AWAKE (2020+) then that was just not possible to do because the Draco occupation came with most of the Darco's army's and most of the 3 other Malevolent races army's with it, Earth being their most valuable stolen possession plus the threat to the other 177 realms on this super-planet because 88% of those other realms were also compromised by the parasites, but not to the same degree as in here in our realm – so if the Parasites were seeking retribution on a mass scale because they were pissed-off by Benevolents keep trying to save us, as they did – often they had the opportunity & a foothold on 14,000 other civilizations that share this supermassive planet with us, with which to turn their attention towards, which was simply too great a risk to the entire super-planets way of life. If Gateway-10 had have fallen to the parasites, the entire Universe would be at risk as in another few thousand years, the parasites would have grown their armys and power off the back of their Earth-Takeover success and the billions and billions more sacrifices would have bought them cart blanche with the demons, plus news of this success would have spread far and wide with every negative species coming to Gateway-10 to help the parasites and get a piece of the action.

look at the Nuremberg German woodcut from 1561 depicting an 'odd' sky-battle painted by an eyewitness & several such examples exist. The year 1561 is just 38 earth years before Christian & I came back in here with 2,000 others, to help, being the year 1599 - this was just ONE attempt at saving us in the year you know of as 1561 AD, that was your soul family's battling Draco, Etamines, Anunnaki and Greys, to fee us.....it failed, obviously. I was probably in one of the UFO's on the 1561 woodcut in Nurenberg, on the Bridge of a Mothership with Kristen & Kalo.....'Kalo's probably short for 'Kevin Lopez' from Arcturus, smoking about in his new 'Whip', the Millenium Falcon 😊

fig. 47. Kalos Millennium Falcon

Kristen would be like:

"common we have go save them Kai"….

"Naaaa fuck that bruv, Werni's platting my hair on Tuesday & I'm having my ball-bag waxed Wednesday afternoon with that proper-hottie Pleiadean, you know the one with the green braids who's is studying Hair & Beauty at 'Sterope' Polytechnic Uni… and you know how that new Lycra Mother ordered for our 'Outfits', well the leotard snatches the hair out of my arse-crack & bollox after it's got a few days growth on it, also I tore my cape on Kalo's Telescope stand last night when he was trying to look at Venus with it, the pleb, I told him "Venus is a projector bruv" but he wanted to see for himself, so I'll decline this time brother, but thanks for giving me the opportunity to die in agony once again, its character building for sure, but you go this time, il watch it from up here in Kalo's room…"

Kalo's room has got what I thought was an 'X-Box', its shit-hot cos you can control humans with it in real-time, it hooks up to a massive screen next to the humongous circular viewing window that Kalos Bath sits underneath, so he can watch the realm from his polished-copper-hot-tub. I used to think it was similar to 'Lemmings' or 'The Simms's, you can control a human to walk off a cliff and all of a sudden loads more humans start following him….and you just keep going left on the joy-stick till all the humans have walked off the cliff……Kalo was putting more logs on the stove to heat the bath water, and he didn't notice what I was doing…."Oh Fuuuuuk….sorry bruv…..is that Looking Glass? I thought it was an X-box……can't you just re-start the level again?….well, Kalo bruv….. they were all going to die anyway….So no harm done eh…?….don't mention this to Mother will you bruv?".

There was an attempt in 1986 where there was an "Alien Invasion" and none of us remember as we were EMF'd (Neutralised like in Men In Black the movie) – negative EMF's can remove memory's and positives EMF's can restore them. Positive EMF's can make you a complete new body in less than 30 seconds making the MEDBEDS/NESARA/GESARA/CBDC/Q-PHONES/ALL CRYPTO..... obsolete.....WHERE WE ARE GOING THERE ARE NO FUKIN ROADS.....LET ALONE A BANK OR A HOSPITAL, A SCHOOL OR A SHOP.....our technology and brain capacity totally negate the need for all of that unnecessary crap – the reason we have all this unnecessary 'stuff' here in this realm is to help fuel the deception and keep us occupied with a new 'thing' to buy to keep your TV remote in, or to put crap on in the bathroom, at the smallest level, to hide the big secret that was only meant to be available for 'digestion' in 2020+ being ADRENOCHROME & What actually is behind the icewall? - everything you have seen in films in the last 110-ish years since cinema was invented, is what is ACTUALLY behind the icewalls – Think SG1 / Star Trek / ALL Scifi movies and series ever made, all depict reality, our true reality behind the dome and the icewalls and the technology we use daily to traverse our worlds - we all use stargates and Portals daily as part of getting about.....that's why there are no roads.....don't need them when you open a hundred portals a day to wherever you want to go – They show us individuals over time like story-book characters "Dr Doolittle" who could talk to the Animals, or "The Invisible Man".....".....Superman" and all the X-Men Characters with abilities.....Jesus who could bring back the dead, and Buddha the enlightened one etc etc but they are just showing us individual characters that collectively had the same abilities or very similar, to what we all had and used on a daily basis. We can all talk to animals....when we are back in 5th Density again and we can all heal like Jesus did – we will get all these abilities back when we get our 5th DNA strand fixed soon.

Reality is Faaaaaaaar-Ouuuuuuuut because this model has never been presented to ANYONE before 2022....that needs to sink in so think about that for a minute.

No One has heard this before since Tartaria ENDED C.1870AD SO, YES IT WILL SOUND A BIT STRANGE……BUT I know for a fact that everyone else who this information already resonates with, understands this and its implications, that's how come that this all makes total sense to us...its NOT because we are all coincidentally stark-raving-mad simultaneously...it's because it was presented to us by Christian21, and as suggested we joined the dots up in our minds using thought as the 'etching' tool. THATS WHY ITS EMBARASSING FOR US NOW……BECAUSE WE ALL KNOW HOW EASY THIS IS TO UNDERSTAND, AND PEOPLE WE ASSUMED WERE INTELLEGENT, CANT SEEM TO GRASP IT, STILL…..ITS HUGELY FRUSTRATING.

So plausible deniability is an added bonus of showing us the truth in movies...."Oh yeah you heard about "Stargates", in.....'Stargate'. but look at the list of films they do this in....ITS ALL OF THEM....they all have something true in, even if it's only a sentence of truth in a Drama Series episode, the next episode will also have some truth in as well as the previous episode - over 99% of ALL television. I have no memories of any of this, I have no images in my mind that are triggered by any of the thought processes that I have been thru with this new information, either – but I do have overwhelmingly strong feelings of opaque familiarity with most of it, NOT like De-Ja-Vous in any way, but I can almost taste the importance of this and the history associated with it and I can 'feel' that this is right, this is where we came from and it's also where we are going back to....our sci-fi series writers were not as amazing as we assumed, they got told what to write about and embellish upon – it wasn't from their imagination, well, 1% their imagination 99% reality, with the 'REEL'- Fiction being in our mainstream media who control the 'Reel-Power' which is why they will be the last to fall.

People need to learn to think for themselves, assess situations without asking someone else to do it for you - i wouldn't doubt it if 'Just Eat' started selling 'Decisions'....they could start a new company called 'Just-Think', you could call them up to ask them what to do?

Fig. 48 You can think what you want, but your thoughts are chosen for you....

'The Alive List' have been paying for all this themselves with their personal fortunes....Donald Trump was executed way back in about 2009-2011 and using Avatar Technology, his body has since been used by a Lyrian General called Raphael. Donald Trump had a lot of money....all the Alive list had a lot of money.....and its that stolen money that paid for the White-Hats Military campaign .....'Touchet', Cabal.

Remember...

...no money in 5D - no Crypto - no banks - No Schools - No QFS.....Gold will pixelate during the EMF being as that is also 3D Gold, it's not 5the Density-simulation-compatible Gold, whereas 5D gold could be brought into a 3D environment, but not Visa-Versa.

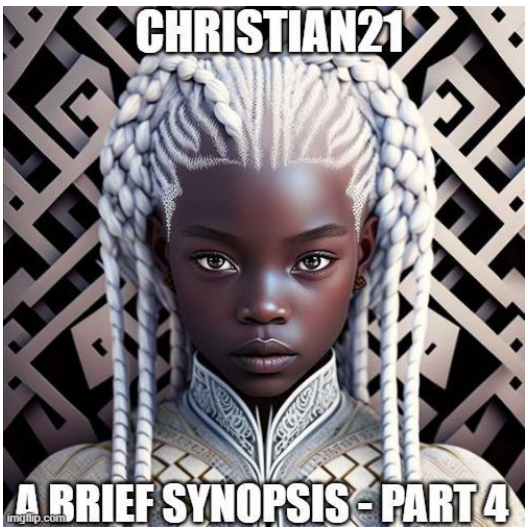
I knew long before I physically met Christian, that all he is saying is complete truth, mindboggling as it may be, it's true. Using 'Occam's Razor', the simplest answer is usually the correct one, all things being equal - all of these explanations Christian puts out, fit together perfectly to make this new info quite easy to digest IF YOU HAVE AN OPEN MIND TO START WITH. TIK-TOK TIK-TOK TIK-TOK..... Max respect people :) big Love - Leon xxx



I hope not to repeat myself on past writings with Christians information, sometimes it is on purpose if the info is essential, but sometimes its accidental because I forgot what I wrote previously – forgive me if I do, and I apologize in advance:

The universe runs in 'Cycles' and as a result of this, 'IF' our 3D existence was not deleted from the simulation code after the EMF event, then it would repeat itself again in the future, it will be deleted though, so don't panic, as will all your negative experiences down here in 3D....you will keep your memories of the love and fun times you experienced, but nothing bad will remain in your memory of this whole experience lasting 6,013 years because it should never have happened in the 1st place and was not designed to occur, and is not desired to occur again, EVER. So, all the 'Bad' will be deleted from your accessible memories in the same way and using the same technology that you were mind/soul-wiped just before being born in this life cycle.

The necessity of the EBS and the REVELATIONS it will bring, are going to be the most far-out disturbing things you have ever seen, or ever will see, or could ever imagine. The EBS is the truth of our existence - not all the truth obviously, like they are not going to tell you the earth flat or that Jesus real name was 'Cesare Borgia' the illegitimate son of Pope Alexander the 6th, raised by 'Cardinal Roderick Lancole De Borgia' from the Spanish Argon'ese House of Valencia (or Seville? I forget?)..... you will find all that stuff out at the EMF (Electro Magnetic Frequency, or FLASH) anyway as your memory's will be restored - The EBS (Emergency Broadcast System) is only for the REALLY IMPORTANT bits, the stuff you need to see so you know what really happened and your soul can heal - I'm not sure, but I 'think' the soul can't be wiped of the memories but i know the vessel can have the memory/s suppressed, and i think that because logically, Source will want to know EVERYTHING no holes-barred....Obviously...so if the soul 'Could' even be wiped somehow, I doubt it would be allowed or done for the reason above, but il ask Christian if I remember to.

The parasites were helped by 'Sources' pain-in-the-arse & highly intelligent yet despicably evil & problematic traitors...the Ancient Demons, who are the 2nd oldest entities in the universe 2nd only to Source Creation itself. The demons look so fukin ugly because being bad/negative, they are left no choice but to go as the most shocking-looking creature imaginable, which is the 'Custodians', or 'Etamines' as they are called amongst the ET's – Etamines and other 'monstery'-looking creatures from myth as all myths are all Real...all of them, or at least the core of the story is authentic yet embroidered by eyewitness testimony and many ages of time - as you would not want to run into a Custodian in a dark alley. Demons mimic Custodians and other shocking looking beings/monsters only for effect, like a 'Tabard' displaying what team you 'support'. A demon can mimic anything it wants to mimic, a beautiful woman or a vicious-bloodthirsty-beast, whatever is needed. They have no Gender and require (preferably but not essential) a Trans-Host.... That's why the LGBTQ movement and it's the reason that "Baphomet" is a Tranny-Goat.....its also the reason that the 13 families and all the celebs 'Trans' their children for hosting – its also the reason that Christian and Bluewater's Trollers are mostly 'Trannys' a Tranny is below a Minion, so its easy to get Transvestites on board to use as trollers because they feel their cage has been rattled, and they are easy to manipulate, obviously. So the cabal got desperate and recruited some cross-dressing sex offenders to pour negativity on Christian21's message – my thoughts are……forget the tranny trollers, ignore them, because a profile picture of a bodybuilder, hides a weak 'person', emotionally frail, seeking attention to slake the need for approval, validation, confirmation and recognition, to reinforce their inverted quasi-obsequious self-awareness by dress code and a flag to rally with, promulgating their demands via using the weaponised version of love and empathy once again as the 'straight' supporters of the LGBTQ movement are being very fair, they don't like Nazis and the thug approach to LGBTQ and they feel everyone should be able to express themselves as they wish, which is absolutely correct BUT they are not realising that there is an agender to this and its well scripted, even the tiktok tranny influencers are scripted and used, right now they are being used by Benovelant ET's tho….so they are totally fucked. Which is also fair….misleading children to desire to become the opposite sex to that which they were born….???.....oh dear……your off to a FEMA camp very soon. There will be executions for crimes like this and some of the guillotines in the camps will be used to execute wrongen's with, for the public to get some closure. LGBTQ is nothing but programmed-delusion, the same self-replicating algorithmic- thought-worm, parasitic in nature, that is easily replicable by the desires and needs of the group or individual that the information/fad/desire/s resonate – out of this group validation process come new terminology, new trends, new music, new interests, new relationships, so much is unpacked thru the algorithmic transference of data in the form of perceived 'rights', desires, needs, aspirations etc, but its all flawed and faux, its imagined delusion on a mass scale facilitated by 'They', the same 'They' who are now making it possible for men to lactate to feed a new-born (no shit) but this is now all just 'Revelation' of the Apocalypse, being "The revealing of that which was previously obscured" meaning essentially…. EVERYTHING that you didn't know about before….that's all there is to the Apocalypse, but they even had you thinking that Apocalypse meant the end of the World, so that you would shit yourself now in these 'End Times' (what a joke) and be terrified during the EMF….so that you go to heal for a few years….that's all there is to it – Think 'Snow-Globe' in a washing machine on full spin, and the washing machine is inside a hurricane…..that's where you were until reading this document, same as I was before I wrote it. Fucking Clueless.

Its soooo pathetic its laughable…..you really do have to be a pathetic-spineless sycophantic-little-cunt to even want to sell your soul in the 1st place……how utterly pathetic, are you so fukin desperate for attention and adoration, power & money, that you would do that? how tragically sad. I always wanted to do well and I always tried my hardest, and all my life I didn't think I'd failed, and I never saw it as failure, but I had nothing to show for an amazing time, basically and I wouldn't change a thing -id always followed my dreams and been up for a laugh over doing anything sensible, I have zero to show for it and very few regrets and THATS EXACTLY AS ITS NEEDED TO BE (coincidentally-or-not?) so I didn't know that until a few months ago (phew!)….I have nothing, and i want nothing, I can't be bought either coincidentally just like Christian cant, and I've been like that all my life since I was a kid - Id rather give than receive since i was young - i can live in a Sewer or a palace and not be, or feel out of place in either, actually, i have lived in both lol (more sewers though) as long as I have weed/shatter and a way of smoking it, and something to eat, I'm good, anywhere.

The Greys are all hugely telepathic, and fanatical about studying everything – the other negative species all need greys to help them advance whatever nefarious plans they have at the time because the greys know more about every single other form of life in the universe, than anyone else does, and the greys need the Muscle and protection of the physically stronger species, they may have technology and muscle power but the Greys are super-scientists and have studied more of the realms and the life therein, flora & fauna than any other species – the greys *collectively are who the Draco & Custodians use to meet-&-greet as they are less frightening to look at. *I think C21 said there's 9 in total and only 2 species of that 9 can reproduce and are not "created" foot soldiers.

There will be 7 "Trumpets of the Apocalypse" from (Revelations in the bible)....these 7 trumpets are in the form of 7 Messages – on Text/TV/Radio/Internet.....the messages will explain what to do and where to go – there will be NO HELP for people after these messages.....we will be on our own from this point-on as the foreign military will not be there to start helping people with shopping or a lost cat.....you are to pay attention to the messages. The plan is to have a 3-day power-cut-into-a-10-day-lockdown.

The 3-day power-cut will end and when the power comes back on again, there will only be one channel...the EBS Chanel.

After the 10-day lockdown which will likely be cut short to just 3 or 4 days due to the pandemonium it caused, some point soon after....maybe straight away, maybe a few days later, maybe a week....people will be rioting and pillaging everything oblivious to the level of observation they are currently under will be drawn to look outside as everyone else will be doing that.....looking up at the stars coming in closer and closer.....closer and closer. They will breach Realm 2's firmament then be visible to us down here as UFO's..... and not stars.....at that moment 10 BILLION people will shit themselves like never before – they will stop beating each other-up and pillaging shops and business……they will all look up and see this sight (the story of 'Chicken-little' springs-to-mind) and PANIC, all sense will go straight out the window and at this moment a possible set of memory's will be triggered in the psyche from the last re-set/s you were in, REAL re-sets, not this fake re-set, but the people will not know this, they will run in terror, but because of the EBS chaos and riots, all the roads are filled with petrol-less cars and vehicles, burnt-out vans and lorry's, bricks, glass, metal, rubbish……madness, so fleeing the "Space Aliens" isn't going to be an option in a car by road, so people grab what they can and RUN……like fucking idiots, to where? No one knows, they are just running until they drop from exhaustion utterly terrified – now a lot of these people are already going to be dead due to the Myocarditis & Pericarditis caused by the vaccine, lots will die of a weakened heart during the few days the EBS will be shown, and lots will drop dead during the Sky-Event, made more realistic by the fact that the 'invaders'-apparent are also taking-out satanic buildings and premises, with energy weapons and lasers, from the sky, locations like all Royal Estates, Downing Street, Houses of Parliament, All the politicians houses, actors dwellings and mansions, sacrificial Council premises and government sites, Military buildings that were involved etc

etc, so it will appear that there is an OBVIOUS intention of maleficence by our 'sky-friends', making the whole 'show' so much more realistic 😊

(I cant FUCKING WAIT mush....c'mon Donald....hurry-it-along bruvva, please)

Fig.52-54 A 'Re-set' a real 'Alien' invasion would see all humans dead within 2yrs

After a few days-to-a-couple-of-weeks of this .....ZAP!!! Dorothy's back in Kansas with a lot of very familiar faces around you.....eagerly waiting to see your reaction to them, and help you to deal with reintegrating back into your old society and way of life. They will help you remember who you are and what you were before the parasitic occupation. Some people will need way less help than others and the ones that come-to-terms with this 1st, will be the ones to help the rest deal with it even faster (like a fuck-off AA meeting)

When trump said a few years ago "were going to put a flag in MARS...."…..he meant the Realm Mars which is the closest Disc to our disc here – lots of people thought trump meant the M.A.R.S "Military Auxiliary Radio System", or MARS the "Planet" - Mars is a flat disc, not a round planet....round planets do not exist anywhere...he may well have meant those also in the public's minds, as Mr Trumps speeches have several meanings that every annon is aware of even if they do not understand how to read these 'messages' within the message, but Trump was referring to the MARS disc that was previously taken-over by the Draco and mostly destroyed, its where the UBER-Sell-Outs like Admiral Byrd get a Golden Ticket to if they are VERY unlucky....lol – the Draco renege on every single deal, unless you can match them in power or technology then they will take advantage of you as they have nothing to fear

So, the UBER sell-outs were told they will live in paradise for a few hundred years for selling their own species out, like Byrd did - but they end up with a shit deal, everyone ends up with a shit deal that wasn't what they expected….don't forget the Demons were in full control of everything, taking a human/Draco/Etamine host they can galivant about incarnate in a vessel doing as they wish unhindered by anything or anyone - the parasites learnt all their tactics off of the Demons, so of course no one got a fair deal. Byrd would have had his 5th strand of DNA fixed to go there, as would everyone else who got "The Golden Ticket"……{a side note I need to check with C21 is maybe Mars is a 4th density simulation? or even a 3D Sim? As why would the parasites let the sell-outs have 5th density? Doesn't make sense unless they did not control LG for that realm? The houses on Mars and the lifestyle, looks very very similar to here on Earth, the style of building looks like it did here in the timeframe the sepia images were taken

Mars, looks just like Earth, some parts of Mars look exactly the same as earth, but what actually goes on on Mars, has never been documented by a member of the public, or written about before, until now. The pictures are relegated in forums and Pinterest as 'Creepy Oddities' of a bygone era, but they are actually documenting life on Mars – nothing is what we thought it was, why do you think Mars would be any different?? – the truth will upset you and make your very very angry, just like every other truth that was lied to you about.....everything you 'know' is a false lie....that's what the Apocalypse is for a 'de-lying' of our way of life, and its actual purpose for the last 6,013 years.

The thing that people do not realise about the planet Mars, is that it is:

A. The closest planet to your realm here being 'joined-at-the-hip', to Earth.
B. used as a testing ground for genetic experiments & technology.
C. Has been inhabited continuously since the occupation started.
D. Looks exactly the same as planet Earth, scenery, trees, deserts, towns and industry, landscapes & terrains.
E. Has a FIAT currency same as you have here, coins and notes.
F. Is the birthplace of many of your 'inventions' as 'most' of the best & talented scientists sell their souls immediately given the opportunity, such is the pressure of succeeding a quick golden-ticket and they are 'chillaxing' with Sasquatch & C3PO's Great Grandfather.

Images – Fig:

- 59-61 Scientists gather to wave at a craft – they may have built this craft and are testing it. It may have a new advancement in technology, or it could be just a random photo of a common occurrence, but the image was shot on Mars.
- Fig.62-64 Your current and past scifi characters, 'C3PO', R2D2 and 'The Transformers' are based on real science that took place many years ago on Mars -
- Figs 65, 66,69 & 71 – these beings/creatures live here on Mars, some were there before the occupation. Mars has ALWAYS had life on it....ALL planets have life on them, that's what planets are for, they are created for eternal beings to incarnate & experience physical life.

Mars was destroyed 6,013+yrs ago and the original 'Martians' who were two extremely benevolent species of ET roughly 4' tall blue-skin with a white belly and bald head. Their souls were sucked-up and brought here to this realm to incarnate into the food-chain.

These souls will return to Mars in their original body's during the EMF. Mars was used as a Satanic-Play-Ground of debauched and depraved sexual activity and the most absurd unrestricted genetic testing on ANYTHING and EVERYTHING the 'Paperclip' scientists likely all got a free pass to carry on their barbaric human trials and mixing human DNA with other animals in their 'mad scientist' style take-over of sanity and morals – likely the 'Pig' was created on Mars during or between the 1st 4 resets as we know now that Pork / pigs are a Wild Boar DNA mixed with a humans DNA – they did this to mock us and watch us eat an animal created from our own genetics.

Paedophilia was legal on Mars and old men would marry young children in satanic ceremonies, pictured in some of these images are a young girl with a much older man, this is either the daughter / wife of the scientist posing in the image. The creations are many – the 'Transformers' craze came directly from Mars as you can obviously see in these images. These 'Transformers' on Mars were actually designs of war machine for destruction, prototypes created to see if there was any application to following ones imagination with the finance to fulfil the ambition to create that which has never been attempted before. Lots of your inventions here in your realm will have come from Mars, and from the minds of the men and women who were happy to sell-you-out at the drop of a 'Paperclip'.

Figure 68 shows what looks at first like a total fake image of a Sasquatch with 3 male holidaymakers taking a selfie – this is a real image, taken on Mars and not too long ago by the look of it because the phone the main person is holding looks semi-recent. These will be newly sold-sell-outs from whatever industry they are in, likely science or technology and at the cutting edge of it – these scientific brains are required to fill vacancies on Mars as they were testing literally EVERYTHING you could possibly test on – making very unusual 'disasters' of genetic idiocy, splicing human DNA with strange beings from other realms and planets manufacturing the characters from dystopian nightmares – purposely creating hideous monsters for all sorts of reasons – there was no need to hide anything from the Martian public as the Martian public are all well aware and complicit – there are even remnants of the beings we call Cro-Magnon & neanderthal man etc, still living in desolate areas of Mars to this day, with their families just as they were doing 5,900 years ago…still wearing similar attire and carrying spears and bows and arrows. Mars is BIG and successful creations of these mutated insects and beasts will be allowed to roam areas of Mars, these may be harmless yet massive insects and bugs, all sorts of bizarre mutations – its not new….look at:

figure 67. And notice the guy on the right of the image, he is wearing a puffer jacket and does not fit-in with the clothing of the era, the image was taken C.1900, yet the male on the right in the puffer-jacket is clearly not from this time frame – he is a time traveller, and he's gone back to let's say 1900 from what appears to be at least the 1980's by that jacket he's wearing, this is all common knowledge outside of your realm here, time travel is a daily occurrence 'out there'.

The photos that we have all seen doing the rounds on social media, showing a person in a crowd wearing unusual clothes that do not fit the era of the photographic capture, these are also time travellers, popping back for whatever reason, likewise portals opening on CCTV cam somewhere and someone walking out of it as if nothing is 'unusual', these people know they are using a portal and the reason we see them could be for several reasons, they entered the wrong realm by mistake and leave immediately, or they are here to do a specific task and they are from our realm already and are using the portal to travel to another location in our realm. Portals are real and you do already know all about them, you will remember all this during the EMF.

...like Christian explained, once you understand the ET world, this all makes immediate sense, and understanding the ET world is actually pretty easy, you would never think it was easy to understand something that wasn't meant to have existed before.....but it is simple, the ET world is, as you would expect, a perfect utopian dreamland, the ET world is de-cluttered with nothing unnecessary being, or happening in your daily experiences, ever – imagine having nothing utterly pointless to do…..you don't need to wait in traffic for 4 hours a day just to be able to eat and shelter your family, you don't need to go see a doctor ever again, don't need to give your child to others to 'care' for during the day, don't need to get-up for work.....don't need to cut the lawn.....don't need to worry about getting hurt, or having an accident.....don't need to 'worry' about a single thing – everyone loves and wants to have fun and no one has a negative thought, ever.

Christians words, when you contemplate them, all make perfect sense & are loaded with personal experiences and his own accounts of his experiences....not lessons he learnt in a class room, or on a craft somewhere, but things he was personally shown to wake him up, starting age 9, which sounds young, but its not, because Children are not 'Children'.....they are ancient beings like you are, but the amnesia vortex wipes all the memories of any pre-existence – so likely your child/children are much older that you are! And they will obviously all get their memory's back at the EMF as well.

To understand the ET world think of a Primary-School playground.....500 children and 496 of them are little angels who are perfect protege's, kind/loving/full of empathy and sympathy and would do anything to please you, they love you unconditionally and want the best for you.....yet there's 4 children who grew up on the poor estate over the road and they are nasty and spiteful, jealous, greedy and selfish, they want your sweets and they are most happy, when you are crying. Thats the ET world. Its THAT SIMPLE but with ancient beings instead of children, and with technology that you were only even allowed to imagine just 20yrs ago, and some of it is well beyond your imagination, but fear not as YOU know all this and much more and you will remember it at the EMF (ElectroMagneticFlash) in a few weeks' time.

Now you can understand the ET world. So the rest should be quite simple.

Long ago the white-hats started infiltrating the SSP and getting into Key positions....this is why some people are pulling their hair out because they saw Vladamir Putin at a Ceremony, or saw Trump hugging a Luciferian 20yrs ago in a Bar somewhere and we were lead to believe that, as Trump says "I used to be one of them" in a coded message about Freemasons....you see, to be in the 'Club' you have to do certain 'things' to climb the ladder – these 'things' start off a lot less ominous than skinning a human child alive, but the escalation of these 'requirements' gradually increases from that of which was asked of them at Yale University when they joined the fraternity's with the unusual initiation tasks – the Skull & Bones the 322, Oxford, Harvard, Cambridge etc etc – this is a watered-down version of freemasonry initiation....you start off spitting on the cross for level 1, and only at the cross-over from 29th degree-to-30th degree do you fully realise that there is a Luciferian agender here somewhere, and by the time you are initiating into a 33rd degree Freemason, you're killing a child to be there – but it gets much worse than just killing a child....at that ceremony for the 33rd degree accolade, you only have to cut a childs head off with a carving knife, its all over in a few minutes – BUT....if you want to remain famous with your own TV show, or whatever it is that you sold your soul for.....to remain there you need to be killing AND torturing children, several per week and many children must be sacrificed at the satanic Callander dates all over the world. THAT'S pretty much EVERYONE you ever heard of who is famous.

The players on the stage at the moment, good and bad, are all being played by good people. There are no bad people left here, and that is a concept that 99.99999999% of people just can't seem to wrap their heads around because its goes against what their eyes and peers agree on in a consensus reality – YOU MUST LEARN TO FORMULATE YOUR OWN CONCLUSIONS....that means relaxing the muscle that grips your thought process and let the blood circulate your cerebrum for a few minutes before 'deciding' to conclude an important decision – make these decisions based on what YOU feel is right AFTER you have dissected the scenario with your foundations of truth, not the hearsay of others and not what 'They' dictate ('They' = the Gov, Media, Industry, Cabal, Deepstate etc) . Rule of thumb….what 'They' say, is usually the opposite of reality….especially the media.

Every single *person in the public eye, has been replaced by an actor, body-double with makeup & prosthetics, full prosthetic body-suits and masks, which are far ahead of anything the public have ever seen other than on films such as 'Mission Impossible', CGI on a green-screen, or whatever is needed to keep the 'storyline' alive.

* 'person' a 'purse' that you keep your money in, comes from your 'ancient' his-story, and was what a slave used to cover their mouths so as not to be able to speak during the long days in servitude. These 'purses' were made of leather and had straps that went over the ears, or round the back of the head. In the evening time the slave was allowed to take the purse off, and they used the purse to put anything they had that was special, some coins if they had any, a figurine of their 'god', anything sentimental or special. This is the origin of the word 'purse' which is the root-word for your word 'Person' which means a 'Mask Wearer' which is the reason that you all had a mask on for a common cold and stood 6' apart as is the requirement during Freemasonic ceremonies. You were wearing a mask as part of the revelations of the Apocalypse, or "the revealing of that which was previously obscured". So tightly are the lies woven together that separating them is a daunting task. This book is designed to help you cut through this obfuscation with ease and simplicity, if you chose to.

And if your really lucky you can be like me…..totally fucked because I cant watch a film, series, movie and I cant go to a shop, a bar, a restaurant, a garage…..fuck sake I cant leave the fuckin house without decoding everything as I walk past it….im fucked now, I cant even talk to anyone about anything 'interesting' because it's all way above their heads and it's like I come from another planet where lunatics live.

I had an interesting chat with a sleeper the other day, well asleep, lovely guy but snoring thru life. He gave me a lift to a garage from the office, and on the way back we pulled into the carpark and just before we got out, I said "here bruv you know about the reptilians here?" he said, "The what?" – I broke his reality-down in less than 10 minutes in its entirety, everything except the ice-wall, I thought I'd omit that part so as not to sound too crazy - I talk fast like Christian does as when I'm concentrating I have to talk a fast as otherwise il forget what I'm talking about which I do anyway, but much worse when I'm trying to breakdown a whole paradigm. This guys mouth was just open for the whole time and I even remember thinking that if he doesn't close it, he wont be able to swallow soon as it'll be too dry in there, I then pulled out a short clip of David Icke (fukin nonce a & his nonce son) and showed him.....I said the EBS will be soon hopefully and if you want to know anything more, you know where I am"

*Must = 'may' as in its optional, same as 'Mandatory' = 'Optional' in Law. But my advise to you is that you really must, for your own benefit, not mine.

For the plan to work, many good people have had to witness and possibly be involved terrible atrocities, its FUCKED-UP.....like to bust a drug Cartel gang, police start using heroin/coke/crack, to 'fit-in' because to not 'use' is death or the failure of the mission. It was the same for some poor souls here as well over the last 6,013 years. As mentioned previously, there were already many attempts to free us, all thwarted for fear of endangering all the other species on Gateway-10....if your realm was a singular disc, floating like all other worlds did until Gateway-10 was created, this would have been over long ago, because the benevolent's would have turned up firm-handed and kicked the shit out of every single one of them. But the risk to the entire Gateway was way too great to do that, we are arguably just one species of intelligent life living here....but there's roughly 14,000 other worlds here on your planet. You see why this took so long now. Like trying to remove a Glioblastoma (brain cancer) with a scalpel whilst the operation is being carried out with the patient laying upside-down in the back of a lorry off-road in the Nepalese foothills, traveling at 70 mph, at night with no lights. If that makes any sense? It was a very tricky situation for a very very long time, so they just had to wait until 'we', woke up as a species which couldn't even be attempted until social media was released. From using looking glass, 'everyone' knew was going to be after 2020 before the populace started to 'see clearly' with "2020 vision" - the parasites were hoping to stay here until at least 2048, but they only had Looking Glass for this Realm and Mars, so they were unable to control any other species other than with 'Treaties'. There are no 'Contracts' in 5the Density upwards, agreements are made with treaties, and in the positive environment, no one reneges on a treaty….EVER. That's why the parasites were so confident that the treaties would be adhered to by all who signed them. But they overlooked a vital point……..the parasites are hated by all benevolent species, for obvious reasons, but the parasites are 4th Density beings and they were waging war against 5th, 6th, 7th,8th, 9th, 10th, 11th 12th, 13th, 14th & 15th Density ascended masters who are way above this low-level of existence, and being that YOUR soul is already an ascended master having completed all 15 densities of experiencing physical life in a genetically created self-replicating vessel, YOU are actually easily able to deal with this, you would know this to be true if you had access to your pineal gland, but as we mentioned earlier, its calcified as-fuck and defunct thru toxins, pollutants & soft metals, by design.

'Loop' serves as a better word for reincarnation in this 3D simulation for the last 6,012yrs as although we do in fact reincarnate here after death, its faaaaaar from normal reincarnation as we are mind wiped and have no choice where we are born next, we are simply born again IMMEDIATELY after death into the next available human baby of the same sex we were 'just now' before death - once again.....our sex stays the same since we left Source Creation for the first time billions of years ago. A male soul will always be a male soul and visa-versa. When a still-born birth occurs, it is because the soul did not enter the body in time....A SOUL ENTERS THE BABY AFTER BEING BORN, NOT BEFORE.....moments after birth, the soul that was previously alive as a different person only about 4 minutes in real-time prior to the new birth – you will almost certainly have been in a different country and in a different culture – the freshly-mind-wiped soul will fly into the Solar-Plexus of the baby who will still be attached to the umbilical chord (probably still attached) at this point, and Animate the newborn. A still-birth is when the soul fails to enter before the baby dies because it has no 'Battery' as Christian sometimes calls it, the "little blue light" with which to energise the animation process as the soul takes up residence in the newly birthed vessel and starts to climb the chakras to its final destination, being the brain, where the soul will spread-out creating the consciousness. It was the development of the consciousness that the parasites/Cabal/Deep state were so desperate to halt the progress of, by introducing "Vaccines" into the equation as because of LG (when they still controlled LG) they were well aware of the star-seed / indigo waves that were incarnating here starting in about 1954 with the 1st wave, so they 'upped' their attack whilst pretending ....."Vaccines & the childhood immunisation program are for your child's health and well-being" – Errrrrrrr.....NO....the Childhood immunisation program is specifically designed to make sure YOUR own child, who will be an Indigo Child, like ALL children born here in the last 20+ years are - the GAA, or 'Galactic Alliance Association' are made-up of 1,013 species of highly evolved ET's, their 'Plan' was to swamp this realm with star-seed indigos to dilute the negativity amongst humans who were trapped here from the startb unable to wake-up because of the mindwipes/vaccines/re-sets. These 1st indigos helped things along such as the 'Hippy Movement' in the 1960's and all the turning-points of a freedom much needed – it was all thwarted by the parasites unfortunately because they had LG, we didn't. The Childhood immunisation program was to disable you and your indigo children from possibly waking-up others. That's all it was for, oh, and plus they test out new ways to disable children and cause deformities, such a cleft-pallet, dwarfism, primordial dwarfism, Thalidomide etc etc.

As for your history and heritage in family lines....unless you're the so-called 'Elite' then its only your vessel that has a family linage as our 'peasant' worthless souls do not reincarnate/loop back-into the same family line.....HIGHLY HIGHLY UNLIKELY to happen unless specifically ordained for a purpose.

Your soul family who are people/species from your own constellation which, after being billions of years old.....you will know them all really well, you just can't remember, yet.....that's why the Wizard of Oz ending will be significant. Dorothy waking up back in Kansas...will be YOU surrounded by very familiar faces.....

Christian gets things wrong sometimes, and has to correct himself – he's not told 'everything' and left to get on with it.....he's got to ask questions for an answer on something, so with the unlocked parts of his brain that his benevolent helpers have aided with for various reasons from being able to answer any question within minutes (hes done this with me hundreds of times, questions that I don't think are answerable, or just really 'unknow-able' he's fucking answered with a really compact & elegant answer that makes total sense, immediately.....honestly its fukt-up.....well fukt-up when this happens and it happened often, several times a day.

Being wrong and admitting it, is something that I myself have always been really good at, and it is such a refreshing change to meet someone like Christian who also doesn't mind being wrong – life is painful because people seem to be ashamed of being wrong....but how can you learn to juggle if you never drop a ball, EVER....??

EVERYONE is wrong ALL the time, but they avoid visiting this thought process or accepting the facts. You have to change your inner workings and thought processes, and that means looking at yourself in the naked-light of truth. 'Most' people will never be able to do this because of the delusion they need to prop-up their façade of self-worth, self-importance, self-respect, *self-appreciation, self-validation based of the functioning delusion….its a cycle of self-preservation only and its all very fragile indeed.

In 5th Density there is no need to learn a new language, as communication, even with the animal & vegetable world is done telepathically. Christian explains it like tuning into a radio- station when the being/animal/anything starts to project telepathic images/information you will pick-up the frequency used and be able to communicate back and forth with ANY being or an animal, anything that is 'alive' will be your communicator….don't forget, YOU yourself have been a vegetable….some still are, but you have been a tree and plant and a flower…you had to experience this type of life 1st….'can't run before you can walk' - so this is how you can talk to your pets like Dr Doolittle and this is facilitated by the 5th Density Matrix, the Ether & also our original size Pineal Gland…not these shrivelled-up-little-sesame-seeds that we call pineal glands.

The parasites are not intelligent, they seem intelligent to us because they took us down two density's and shrank our brain in capacity and ability to be able to compete with us in the 1st place – the Demons were the brains behind the occupation of our realm and it would not have happened without their assistance. They are ALL GONE NOW – FOREVER TRAPPED like the 4-mincers off Super-Man who dressed like 'Gary Glitter' trapped in a mirror floating about in Space....except the demons are trapped between 2 dimensions. If you want to know how they do that, you'd need to ask Baron Trump or his Mentor Nikola Tesla (Tessla the Fucking Legend) I was 27 before I even heard of Nikola Tesla....1997 i 1st encountered him, and bearing in mind that his area was a proper bit-of-me.....i couldn't believe I never heard of him till I got my 1st PC and started looking online in 1997.....they must have forgotten to tell us about Nikola Tessla when I was at School.....JUST THAT OMISSION ALONE.....is enough to make you QUESTION YOUR WHOLE EXISTENCE & REALITY..... Nikola Tessla.....the most amazing person to have lived in at least this last re-set ,if not before, who knows? In terms of his contribution to our species here in 3D no one else did better and no one else could even stand next to him - and no one is taught about him or his work in schools.....THAT IS FUCKED UP BIG TIME. Tessla has been living in a South American DUMB that only has Portal Access and he has been living there since he died (how mad is that!!) .....

"Let the future tell the truth and evaluate each one according to his works and accomplishments….the present is theirs, the future for which I truly worked, is mine" - Nikola Tessla.

"Everyone should consider his body as a priceless gift from one whom he loves above all, a marvellous work of art, of indescribable beauty, and mystery beyond human conception, and so delicate that a word, a breath, a look, nay, a thought may injure it." - Nikola Tesla

Tessla was, sorry is, an Andromadan Soul. He will likely be one of the most excited person alive right now as he's been well aware of all this since before our grandparents were born.

I can't wait to find out who all these players have been thru history!.....that's mental that they are the same souls reincarnating into the same key vessels/roles and they get to keep their memory's also like Christian, these figures will already have their 5th DNA strand fixed if they are travelling to mother-ships outside the firmament or to an inner-earth or another realm they will need to already have their DNA upgraded, or as mentioned previously, they will fall-to-bits/die. Don't forget this is the ONLY 3D realm EVER TO HAVE EXISTED for BILLIONS AND BILLIONS of years, at least, so nothing else is 3D anywhere and it never will be again either.

The parasites are just that, Parasites. They live off other species for all their needs, food, tech, metals etc etc – they invent very little of their own and steal everything they can use. They contribute ZERO to the universes development and they are all virtually decimated, if not annihilated from our Gateway, but the rest of the Universe is teeming with them and so the fight will now leave Gateway-10, and will carry-on where ever they are to be found. They will be keeping a very low-profile around this part of the universe, so fear not, you are in no danger at all since 2019.

The only thing they brought to any table was broken promises, lies and misery. the people that have a big x-mas planned or a new car or dream-home, Holiday or big-spendup planned from prior success, or people who have done REALLY well on crypto, as a good example or people who have spent a whole lifetime studying and becoming an expert in Space/Religion/Science/History/finance/Art, even art, as none of the greats from history painted those masterpieces or sculpted those sculptures....there was no Leonardo Da Vinci, No Raphael etc etc....these are people made-up to explain a plethora of REALLY AMAZING pieces of TARTARIAN ART or inventions or architecture – there was no Sir Christopher Wren - maybe he existed....but he did not build St Pauls Cathedral - EVERYTHING IS FAKE/LIES/SUBTERFUGE/SMOKE-&-MORRORS/PORTALS & TRICKERY. William Shakespeare was fake.....William Shakespeare was 4 different people and one of them was Sir Francis Bacon (I forget the rest?) but they were known as "The Speare-Shakers" and were there to make sure our language was kept in-check and to introduce new 'programming' to the newly literate and possibly to take credit for older Tartarian literature- adulterated and reversed use of words where possible (93% of the English language actually means the polar opposite of what we assume....they reverse EVERYTHING because it's what they do, it's a compulsion, a psychotic illness.

9+ MILLION Children go missing each year, year-in-year-out. In the UK ALONE up until 2016, between 250- &-350 CHILDREN per DAY went MISSING.....IN THE UK.....Let That Sink-in.....PER DAY, yet we never heard of this before- it was in a documentary by some famous person highlighting child crimes, I'm sorry I forget the name but I didn't know I would need to reference it in 5yrs time - this is information I found out before covid during research in about 2018 and I couldn't work out how come so many kids go missing in ENGLAND for fuk sake..???..i thought 350 PER YEAR WOULD BE A RIDICULOUSLY HIGH AMOUNT.....but PER DAY????.....in England????? how can there be that many Nonces in such a small country??? That's what I thought.....then Christian21 fell out the sky with a lorry-load of answers.....BECAUSE CAFCASS AND SOCIAL SERVICES ARE TAKING 60% OF THEM globally OUT OF THE CARE SYSTEM TO BE SOLD/SACRIFICED/EATEN AND RAPED BY THEIR MASTERS.

350 kids a day is a HUGE NUMBER for the UK. Thats over 127,000 children PER YEAR just from England. These are not people don't forget, these criminal gangsters only look human. The human soul in them, if they sold their soul, is totally crushed, and compressed inside the vessel by whatever entity now lives in the vessel. After the ceremony, there is a down-time for the original celeb/sell-out and a clone of them is introduced to the public while the demon/Vrill/entity learns to mimic the host and the hosts mannerisms and personality. Negativity can and does mimic Positivity, but Positivity WILL NEVER mimic negativity...NEVER. To do this is to become it. Il say that again as its IMPORTANT TO REMEMBER this.... Negativity can and does mimic Positivity, but Positivity WILL NEVER mimic negativity...NEVER. To do this is to become it. Positivity ticks-over on truth, acceptance, understanding, empathy/sympathy & Love.....to start mimicking negativity, even for a Galactic War.....just will not bode-well. I put it twice because its important because understanding this is key to understanding HOW THE FUCK your favourite "Lovely" Celebrity is a child-killing paedophile and actually much worse than JUST a child-killing paedophile.....it's UNBELIEVABLE to most that Elizabeth Rothschild AKA Queen 'Lillibet' Windsor would be drinking the blood of small terrified children.....I mean that's not going to happen in the real world is it.....come on, "The Queen drinks babys blood and kills Children....." Is what my pal Rupert told me, exactly that walking past Downing Street on our way to the Parliamentary Debate on Cannabis and Children's Rights in 2017, days before they changed legislation to allow CBD be sold legally – Rupert was telling me how the queen's masonic role is that of a Butcher.....he was well into that "Crazy" shit....I told him "Bruv you're doing my nut in now m8...the fukin queen doesn't eat fukin children mate you sound like a fukin idiot please shut up now & don't be saying this shit in parliament or we will get kicked out and I need to be here for this.....we are nearly there shut-it now please you fukin lunatic....” I spoke to him the other week after loosing his number for several years.....I apologized about being very very wrong with the queen and her being a child-killer. I couldn't possibly see it in 2017, so I know how the sheep must view it.....Christian grew up with this info.....i still think its a total miracle that he never told a single soul about this, not even his immediate family.....BECAUSE NO ONE WAS SUPPOSED TO KNOW ANY OF THIS TILL 2022.....so for 39yrs he kept his mouth shut unless his team 'up there' said he could share certain aspects, he stayed silent (fucking legend!) he had to stay silent no matter what, but he didn't know back then, that he would be the only one to make it thru to the end – Kalo and his team would have known that Christian would be the only one to make it thru to the end as they have 'Looking-Glass' Tech, but no one mentioned that to Christian back then, for obvious reasons - Looking-Glass technology is a 'Program' that plugs into the 3D Matrix and can be used to look forward and backwards in time because we live in a generated simulation - currently a 3D simulation environment....soon to revert back to its ORIGINAL 5th Density simulation environment..... ”Religion” or Re-legion actually means.....”The following of Satanic Legions” no Surprise there then.

Because of the change in our DNA after they downsized us in every way possible....height, speed, brain capacity, lung capacity, mental agility, they also made sure to shrink our Pineal Gland, which is the Spiritual Apparatus that connects our vessel to our Soul, and also connects our vessel/soul to the Ether and the collective super-consciousness, and on-out into the Universe.

In 5D a 'Day' lasts about 3.9 days with 'dusk' as dark as it gets. There is no pitch-black darkness and also the use of fire is prohibited, fire is satanic and is used to destroy life so it is not used, ever. It is also very dangerous, so there’s no fire.

Cannabis grows wild everywhere in 5D (im soooo pleased about that) I'm hopeful Kalo may DM me a strain list soon? so I can start ordering seeds before the EMF as il need to get a crop on ASAP cos the fucking police just took my last one and if im lucky il have just enough shatter to see me thru to the flash. I bet they have wicked grow-lights in 5D, probably just go get a load of mini-indoor-suns and hang them up in a warehouse?

in 5D there's no "Bread & Circus" no sport/TV/Movies/etc etc - we spend our time doing cool shit like helping other species, healing stuff like terrain/rivers/lakes and other lifeforms- we travel and spend much time off our realm elsewhere learning and working with others. Some of us are farmers, some are Realm protection/Military and some of us are teachers, some are.....sorry I forgot! I can't remember what the other main vocation is? There's only a few, like 3 or 4 vocations as the rest is all done by ourselves, like shops....we manufacture most, if not all at home, and beings in 8D+ can manifest directly into their hand for instance, that which they require.

'Christmas' is a Satanic festival where thousands and thousands of children are sacrificed one-by-one to counteract any and all of the dwindling-Christmas—cheer that was left in the occasion. There are too many awake people now that know what Christmas is (and all the other 'holidays') for them to put us thru yet another Christmas 4years AFTER the shit-show had already ended. Each other realm in the Gateway, Gateway-10 which is 178 Discs/worlds on ONE giant flat planet/plain, is on a different time loop/era , all of them obviously have individual Matrix and simulation environments contained within firmaments, there are all sorts of environments....ALL SORTS, but the tech is all the same level of "WOW" and all of it would look like magic to us, right now – but we will all remember all of this anyway – we don't have to learn anything new....we just need to remember....which is what the EMF is partly for. So again, about the QFS/Medbeds/NESARA/GESARA/CBDC/CRYPTO ....ALL CRYPTO....NOT JUST

'most' coins...ALL COINS....XRP XLM BTC ALL OF IT.....Isn't going to exist when & after they turn the lecky-off for the 3day powercut.....the servers will NEVER BE TURNED BACK ON AGAIN. The death of crypto. If you have any crypto....SELL IT ALL TODAY there's no money where we are ALL going....there's no roads where we are ALL going....theres no schools where we are ALL going.....'MEDBEDS' ARE 3RD DENSITY TECHNOLOGY THAT IS MUSEUM-WORTHY....IF IT WAS MADE IN 3D IT WILL NOT EXIST IN 5D, IT WILL PIXELATE AS WILL GOLD AND SILVER....AND THE SERVERS AND COMPUTERS THAT ALL CRYPTO IS STORED AND TRADED ON, AS WILL YOU CAR PARKED ON THE DRIVE, AS WILL THE ROLEX ON YOUR WRIST AND THE CLOTHES ON YOUR BACK.....everything that is not 'living' with a soul, will pixelate because it is part of the 3rd density matrix program code, just like when your satellite TV starts playing-up and goes 'funny' with blotchy-squares of colour and distorted picture making the image on the TV screen unintelligible from what it was a second earlier.....THAT IS EXACTLY WHAT TO EXPECT RIGHT BEFORE THE EMF EVENT, ITSELF. There are no "Tier 1,2,3 Redemption Bonds"....think about it.....people with humanitarian projects get more than someone else....so 'some' people will have more than others....they are showing you and leaving it to YOU to join the dots-up. The forgiveness of all debt.....well its not a lie, but we are not having NESARA/GESARA because there's NO DEBT anyway!!! it was ALL your own money in the first place... ha! we were told that 'borrowing' OUR OWN money means we have to pay it back plus interest!!! ha!!!! ITS OUR OWN FUCKING MONEY. How can we be forgiven in repayment of that which we already own????? This info is free to anyone who can be bothered to think. To some its the most important info they ever heard, to others its to 'out-there' to even contemplate.....the level of programming will determine who wakes-up b4 the EMF, and remember..... NO ONE LOSES OUT, NO ONE DIES, NO ONE HAS LESS THAN ANYONE ELSE, EVERYONE ASCENDS TO 5D AND NO ONE IS TRAPPED ANYWHERE AFTER ONLY PARTLY ASCENDING, THATS NOT GOING TO HAPPEN – EVERYONE ASCENDS WWG1WGA 'STYLIE' and everyone gets a new age regressed body & at least a 5th DNA strand which are your keys to abilities and density's – as we will have access to 5+D....ALL OF US will be able to exist in 5-to-9th density as sokn as we are all healed.

People who passed before the Amnesia Vortex was removed, so 2018 sometime, will have been reborn here, but will get all their memory's back at the EMF – people who died after the amnesia vortex was removed will be reborn here to inhabit a new vessel for the ascension, with all their memory's intact. Children who are 4ish now, should start remembering?

I have had such lovely kind messages from so many people – THANK YOU SO MUCH!– I am also fascinated and BLOWN AWAY by this info.... it is so out the ordinary and thankfully it all makes perfect sense – you can time-match this information to current events in the world, and you can project this information backwards thru his-story and it all hold true. After your mind has reached absorption level with this intel, you will not need to listen to, or follow anyone nor watch anything because it will be you who are explaining all this to everyone else.....this information is 'OUR' own self-replicating algorithm, and algorithm created by Source-Creation itself.....for YOU and its called the Algorithm of TRUTH.....

It makes perfect sense to anyone who looks into it, as will the flat earth....the only people who can't see it are the people who will not look, or who half-look.....'we' can't look for you.....'we' cant research for you, but we can present you with the tools and information to join your own dots up....and we can make those dots very close together.....THATS ALL WE CAN DO.....all you have to do is join up your own dots, pull-in & discard anything and everything from your own paradigms conclusions. It doesn't matter if you are new to this info.....BECAUSE ITS NEW TO EVERYONE, EVEN CHRISTIAN.....SOME OF THIS HES ONLY JUST

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

The 'Universe' as you know it, does not exist in that capacity. To a sleeper reading this, it will sound ridiculous, but as every awake person knows only too well.....the more research you do, the more crazy you sound to anyone else. And even awake people sound crazy to other awake people depending how 'awake' that person is. The problem is that this info is new, it's never been heard before en-mass like it is now. We do not know what the Tartars thought of their situation, or how much they knew about the occupation considering their minds were wiped and re-set also. Its worthy of note that 'WE' actually were the Tartars....so we already know all of this, we know what the Tartars thought about the occupation because we were the Tartars, we just can't remember, yet.

The 'Ancestral Republic', luckily for the Butler Morris crew, is the closest land-mass to the Portal they went thru to pass the ice-walls – there is 3 gates:

'The Summer Gate' where the ice melts in summer allowing passage under the firmament – 'The Morris Strait' and 'Byrds Passage' (they have 3 other names also, that I can't remember, but they are the same locations named above) I would assume they went thru 'The Morris Pass' [kinda obviously I think?] if they had gone thru one of the other 2 'Gates'/Portals/passages then likely they all would have died because they would not have been found before their 3rd-strand of DNA would have failed them in a 5th Density simulation, which is what it is behind the Ice-walls....DONT FORGET....HERE IS THE ONLY 3D REALM IN THE UNIVERSE. THE UNIVERSE IS NOT A NATURALLY OCURRING PHENOMENA BROUGHT ABOUT BY A BIG BANG.....no no...The Big Bang did happen, but once again nowhere near close to what it actually was....the Big Bang was an Energetic Explosion of Light, not a Physical Explosion of Matter. The Big Bang was the moment Source Creation released YOU out there into the universe to go off and 'Create'. Thats what YOU are....you are 'Mini-Source' - like a sachet of Ketchup made from a larger bottle, but sadly most of 'us' seem to have less cognitive ability than even a sachet of Ketchup.

The planets are made from sand & water, blended together with frequency's & electromagnetism, with a substance called 'Rose Blood' which has mercury as a constituent part, sorry but I forgot what else is present in Rose Blood. ALL planets are flat discs and made in this way and terraformed over millions of years – there are NO ROUND PLANETS ANYWHERE IN THE UNIVERSE this is also a myth to bolster the heliocentric model & globe earth-myth.....if the Earth is a Globe then it has no edge....if it has no edge....then there can't be anything behind the edge that doesn't exist, can there?.....that's why it matters if the earth is flat or not. And as another example that happened to me today strangely, yet totally unconnected to this information: I was on a call with a common-law Ex barrister woman, lovely awake woman now in the common-law space and not the Maritime Admiralty sector – as an example not connected to flat-earth in any way....she used in a sentence .... "I don't care if the Earth is Flat or Round Leon....." I didn't interject! It wasn't the right time as we were talking about a totally different topic – BUT IT DOES MATTER IF THE EARTH IS ROUND OR FLAT....BECAUSE WHY THE FUCK LIE ABOUT IT?? WHAT ARE THEY HIDING BEHIND THAT WALL?? THE 5D TRUTH, THE WHOLE TRUTH AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH.....OF WHO AND WHAT YOU WERE, ARE & WILL AGAIN BECOME.....THE KEYS TO THE KINGDOM ARE YOURS AND COST A FEW MINUTES THOUGHT, ONLY.

YOU have ONE LAW.....its called 'The Law of One' how apt. it's very simple: "Don't be a Cunt" is all you have to not do. We didn't need the bible.....we just needed a little bit of paper the size of a Postage Stamp that says "Don't Be a Cunt" on both sides - how easy would that have been, you could pass people in the street and say:

"Hey, have a great day!...don't be a cunt" and they'd reply "Sweet bruv, im not a cunt, make sure you aren't a cunt as well!....and have a lovely day bro!" - if you got in trouble the police would ask "What happened? You could say....."well they were acting like a total cunt, so I knocked him out, Cuntstable", and the police would be to them like "well....your not supposed to be acting like a total cunt, you know the law.....and you got knocked-out, tough shit don't act like a cunt, you silly so-&-so".

Life would have been so simple.....well, back home in 5D, no one is a cunt, they got rid of their little bit-of-paper reminding them not to be one, about 15 Billion yrs ago. Don't forget THESE PEOPLE are YOU....they are YOUR PEOPLE....they are not "Space Aliens" they are ET by default, but that is a semi-derogatory definition because THEY ARE YOU. YOU are more ALIEN than they because of your beliefs....THEY ARE THE NORMAL ONES THEY ARE THE MAGORITY....WE, HERE IN THIS 3D HELL ARE THE MINORITY WITH THE TWISTED VIEWS AND UPSIDE-DOWN TAKE ON REALITY.....it's us collectively who are FUCKING

INSANE & DELUDED, a danger to ourselves and everything around us, because of ALL the false information we were spoon-fed since birth.

The 'stepping-stones' we base our collective reality on, our Consensus-Reality, all turns out to be purposeful lies to lead us away from REAL REALITY and to imbed the lies in our psyche by making us compete from a young age to remember the lies and be able to regurgitate that lie on an exam paper.....the qualification we receive after completing these set of carefully-thought-out-lies is what helps most of us define ourselves – they get a PHD/Masters/GCSE or whatever accolade it may be and assume that its well learnt by them and they now have a solid foundation to go on to become an expert like the expert mentors who taught them, themselves standing on the shoulders of Giants, one day. We find that our friends define us, our vocation can and often does define us, but we can't all define ourselves for a plethora of reasons from the projected-expectations of others, to shame that we look or sound different or have hair that we assume from media programming isn't 'en vouge'- what we think of ourselves is pushed down because we HAVE HAD OUR TELEPATHY REMOVED some of us need to rely on the opinion of others, who are just as clue-less.....this causes many problems for the soul as without Telepathy 'Sarah' thinks her arse looks big in these new Jeans, and she assumes that 'Lucy', by the look on her face & her encouragement, does not agree because Lucy wants her best friend to feel good about herself, so Sarah buys the jeans and never wears them.....but With Telepathy.....Sarah's concerns about her big arse in those jeans would have been upheld by Lucy's thoughts, as Lucy's thoughts would be available to Sarah during the energetic exchange of telepathy during the decision-making process, and the pair would have been thinking the same thoughts at the same time & agreed that Sarah's arse is indeed too big for those jeans. And They could have had that conversation in total silence.....without telepathy we are partly disabled – with telepathy comes confidence and 'knowing' without it we can lie to each other, which is what 'They' want. They want self-doubt and cynicism....its part of the 3D Matrix cohesion - I don't if that's a good analogy or not? It's the 1st thing that came into my head lol –

We can relax and not worry about what others think/assume/believe or 'know'....as we will know it all with them, at the same time they know it, so will we – it takes away all the uncertainty and feeling that kick-in about what someone may or may not be thinking about you – these feelings can cascade in some people causing them debilitating mental-health issues and then a prescription for medication is offered for the anxiety, stress, depression....anxiety is caused by concerns about the future, and depression is caused by concerns in the past and NO medication is going to help with that, wake-up people you are so used to believing what any twat wearing the proper out-fit says, that you overlook the obvious.....MEDS....ALL of them, reduce life expectancy, cause gut permeability that allows more & more toxins in thru the now damaged gut-lining so now your gut is like an old tea-bag leaking toxins & chemicals from poisonous food, air & water straight into your blood stream – this will lead to other health issues later on that you will not associate with the meds because: "....how can meds be bad don't be silly my GP prescribed them to me and I need them for my heart"....can you see where this is all going? It's a vicious circle....you don't need meds for ANYTHING because there is a NATURAL SIDE-EFFECT FREE version available from nature.....its called EATING THE RIGHT FOODS & HERBS, minerals & supliments....THE RIGHT ONES. The RIGHT ONES ARE NOT ON SALE IN HEALTH-FOOD SHOPs....Dont be silly, the last place you will find something 'healthy' is in a 'Health' stores. All those vitamins and 'healthy' options are more lies.....you think they will let you have something healthy?....why would they want that? What good to them are you if you are healthy? The only reason your lifespan is 100 years is because ideally you would die age 16, they would prefer that because then you are reborn straight away into a new vessel, and they hate you with a burning passion, so after your worth to supply potent adrenochrome expires, which is roughly at the end of your 15th year, you are worthless unless used as a sex slave, but why keep an 'old' 17yr old sex slave? That's pointless as they want children for sex, ot adults – but lucky for you they wanted you to work your fingers to the bone so you can do their bidding, mining, manufacture, invention – even with only a 2.2% brain capacity, what you can do with that is pretty amazing – humans are known for their ability to invent, don't forget that they merely down sized us and reduced our brain capacity, but even with this reduced size we are a force to be reckoned with intellectually because our original brain was fucking amazing in the new humans, the latest version of what source thought was beautiful, powerful and able – your using a downgraded version of the fastest supercomputer ever created by Source….its between your ears right now, bit dusty, but its there and if your reading this text, then you know its plugged-in, and switched-on

In 5th Density everyone is only thinking good things about you - remember the analogy of the nursery-school children....500 children & only 4 nasty ones ruining it for the others – well the other 'Children' are back now that the nasty ones got sent -off.

An excellent video on my page I posted a few weeks ago made a few years ago by someone– pairs of children who were physically very different, one black one white / one disabled in a wheel chair and the other not / one Asian and the other a Ginger curly-haired little boy with freckles – one girl with one arm and her m8 with 2.....were both asked "What's different about you two best friends?"....NOT ONE SINGLE SET OF PAIRS SAID THE OBVIOUS!!! NOT ONE CHILD SAID THE OBVIOUS AND IT WAS NOT 'STAGED' the little girl was like "sarah dosnt like beans and I do" - the able bodied child said "were different because kevin likes cats and I like dogs" - the children are pure and true, there's no fucking with children they can spot a Total Cunt a mile away, that's why they need vaccinating as quickly as possible and poisoned and made as unhealthy as possible as soon as possible.....quickly fill them up in the 1990's with antidepressants and triple the immunisation program, and that will set the stage for lifelong illness and mental-health reliant on 'meds' as advised by your local Health-Care "Expert". GPs and 'experts in medicine' are basically sales reps for 'Big Pharma' The same system that's harvesting the children for Adrenochrome is the same system that orchestrates EVERYTHING else from our language-to-our sciences and off out into the whole of 3D circus of 'Pointless' – ALL ONLY THERE TO obfuscate their plans main goals....Adrenochrome / Gold - which is strange because was it Jacub Rothschild who wrote the 'Rothschild Secret Covenant'? Fuck knows what one of them Scum-bags wrote it, but I bet he got sacked the day after.....fucking idiot went and committed IT ALL to writing (See appendix. i.).....dinny cunt....that was meant to be a secret bruv, that's why it's called "The Secret Covenant" went and told the world instead, what a pleb.... these people are not very bright. They are there by the virtue of a technology associated with Demonic intentions, only.....not by Right or intellect – the system that Crowned them has gone forever in an embarrassing vacuum of nefarious depravity and ill intention. GONE forever.

The 'stepping stones' we relied upon that we learnt from birth handed down at 1st by mum & dad, then after at school, info that ordained for us things like the shape of our planet.....and that it is the "frame of inertia" that keeps a helicopter in geo-synchronous flight when hovering stationary for an indiscriminate amount of time over a rotating planet..... that the 3 fundamental forces of creation are (according to the Luciferians), the strong & the weak nuclear forces, Electromagnetism, and Gravity....we must not forget Gravity....because Gravity is the key to explaining why we can stick to a spinning ball.....GRAVITY is ESSENTIAL for Bullshit-Cohesion because Gravity, however credible it sounds, is absolute bollox, yet ESSENTIAL for the globe model which is what PREVENTS

YOU FROM LOOKING INTO WHAT MAY LIE BEHIND THE ICE-WALL.....IF THE WORLD IS A GLOBE THEN THERE CANT BE AN ICEWALL.... so they had to make sure you thought the earth was a Globe.....and.....that it is Gravity that keeps the earth's oceans from flying-off into space as the earth is apparently (according to the Luciferians) spinning at 1,000mph - have you seen a wet-tennis-ball spin in the air? And a tennis-ball isn't spinning at 1,000mph.....why is the gravity that keeps TRILLIONS OF TONS of water attached to the spinning-earth, not able to pull a droplet of water, or water vapour back down to the surface?.....why can Gravity keep a 20 ton tank on the floor....but not a tiny Gnat/Damsel Fly...???.....the stepping-stones we relied upon to make it thru to the other side of the river that is our lives, are our actual history & sciences, a history of Cave-Men and Dinosaurs, of the Rise & Fall of civilisations & Empires, and the search for the missing-link. ALL of these FAKE STEPPINGSTONES kilter when stood-on & hold no weight whatsoever when scrutinised, yet they are the 'handrail' of our existence – these lies that we know of as 'Facts', hold as much substance as the homeopathic soup made from boiling the shadow of a dead pigeon, yet they are all our go-to answer when weighing-up any situation we encounter from changing a car wheel that we assume its gravity that will kick-in if the car jack fails when our head is under it-to-The Aurora Borealis being the energetic explanation of invisible solar radiation charging our magnetosphere.....all very plausible.....UNTIL you give it some thought. Then these lies start to 'pixelate' in your mind as you mentally exit 3rd Density, never to look back.

You can use your newly found truths to act as a scalpel when dissecting other info in the awakening process.....as one small example: I do not watch the news and everyone I know knows that I don't – but a couple of really awake pals will call me up now and then and ask me to explain the news to them....a news that I've not seen or heard about – but because I now what's going on BECAUSE CHRISTIAN TOLD US ALL FOR THE LAST 2yrs, I don't need to turn the TV on to explain current events, I just need to hear what apparently happened? – that's not because of any other reason than I paid attention to Christians vids and watched them all 4+ times (and asked him Bare questions) Christians information is OBVIOUS when you get over the 1st shocker....whatever that shocker may be, wrap your head around the 1st one and realise that he's not lying and YOU WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO MAKE ANY OF THIS UP.....IF SO.....WE WOULD HAVE SEEN TV SERIES MADE OBOUT IT AND SPIN-OFF'S AND MOVIES.....COMEON.....YOU THINK 'THEY' WOULD MISS AN OPPERTUNITY TO MAKE A BLOCKBUSTER HOLLYWOOD AVATAR-MEETS-JURASSIC PARK TYPE OF SEQUELED TRILLION $ EXTRAVAGANT MOVIE OR THE MERCHANDISE THAT GOES ALONG WITH IT ALL...AND THE SERIES THAT FOLLOWS THE MOVIE THAT THEY MILK FOR 20+ YEARS AFTER..????? - THE CLOSEST YOU GOT TO BEING TOLD ABOUT THE ICEWALL WAS IN GAME OF THRONES....WITH 'WILDLINGS' BEHIND THE WALL. That's as 'in-your-face' as they felt they could go with the truth....a shitty little icewall less than a mile wide....more like a garden gate than an icewall.....they would be all- Over-this like white on-rice a long time ago if they thought it was OKAY TO TELL US about all this mythical stuff beyond Antarctica then THEY WOULD HAVE PROFITED FROM IT 10-MILLION%.....AND YOU KNOW THAT'S TRUE - its by its omission that it becomes more lucid and if anything, its omission adds to its obvious snowballing credibility. This info is true and I know it is true for many many reasons, but if it wasn't true then how can I use it to understand the worlds current events in perfect clarity? If any of this was made-up then the whole 'concept' would fail and could not therefor be used to explain current 'Global' (sorry had to! lol) events. For any doubters:

Before Christian21 no one would have known what the Aurora Borealis was or how it was created – no one would have known that the base or stronghold of the benevolent 'ET' (sorry Fam) presence in our realm has been in Russia, or that the ET spoken language, when they use a spoken tongue is actually very akin to the Russian dialect...who the fuck knew that??? no one! - no one knew the ins-&-outs of 5t Density or what it even meant in real terms – no one – no one knew what the sun actually was or what 'Source' really is.....no one explained Ghosts and hauntings, demons and Custodians, what they are and where they now are, no one told us about Greys and how they think and operate, how they take a 'crap' (a 'Crap' means to 'Curl one-out' in English) no one explained or even knew what going from 3D-to5D, meant.....hundreds of unanswered questions answered by Christian who has brought sooooo much to the table, and he hasn't asked for a single penny/cent/rupee/$/Euro or Bit Coin for it, whilst he's showering in cold water cos he has no boiler and washing his clothes at his exes house as he has no washing machine.....and coincidentally this geazer happens by pure chance to be in possession of 200 BILLION FUCKING THINGS THAT NO ONE HAS EVER HEARD BEFORE, EVER, AND NOT ONLY THAT BUT THEY ALSO FIT LIKE A GLOVE TO THE CURENT EVENTS WE ARE ALL WATCHING UNFOLD.....NOT ONLY THAT BUT THE FIT LIKE A GLOVE RETROSPECTIVELY BACK INTO THE PAST IN ANY ERA, EVENT OR PERIOD, AND ON ANY TOPIC.....it would not require a good imagination to pull this off, it would require information from people living the other side of the firmament who are directly involved in wiping our collective arses for us (again).....AND OH LOOK.....that's what Christian is saying! He can't go mincing about in Versaci jackets and luis vitton y-fronts when he's pumping out a message of 5D-'Home' using NO CURENCY.....i don't think he needed to shower in cold water to prove the point, personally, but hey fuck-it init...'in-for-a penny-in-for-a-pound' as we say in Babylon. Thats the reason I am writing up these brief synopsis, to get Christians message out there to as many people as possible – in text form it can be pasted into Google Translate and be replicated in any language to cover as many little-blue-lights as possible – and also because I can't see anything of more importance – considering that what Christians been on about for the last 13+years, and considering where we are right now in our civilisations story..... and considering anyone who looks into Christian21's info will soon realise that he's only telling the complete truth.....to 'penny-drop' that last sentence.....that sentence is like a 'zip' file....it unzips a tangible picture of our real past....OUR REAL PAST.....WHAT COULD POSSIBLY BE MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE TRUTH OF WHO AND WHAT YOU YOURSELF ARE???

Your ability to shed this 'Toxic-Load' of misinformation, lies & half-truths, since you learnt to speak, and augment your paradigm to align with actual reality is what separates the awake from the sleepers. It's not easy to delete 50+yrs of lies that are scratched into your mind whilst 'installing' a completely new unheard-of paradigm, but if you can do this then amazing things await you. actually, amazing things await you anyway! But slightly better awaits if you put a bit of thought in, that's all it takes a little bit of thought ... Dear Sleepers.....We know you have heard fantasy before and rubbish-nonsense day-in day-out your whole life....you are used to silly story's that always turn out to be wrong, or a hoax, or just preposterous.....we have all been in a 'Snow-Globe' shaken violently every thousand years or so with a re-set – Usually, the bury-your-head-in the-sand approach that has worked 100% of the time in the past, for you, is not going to work this time. This time is different for all the reasons stated Christians videos and in the previous 'Brief Synopsis of C21s info'. This time we get to go home because this time, and this time ONLY....the people pulling the strings are the 'Good-Guys'.....I don't mind having my 3D-strings pulled by people who care more about me than they do themselves. I'm fine with that, it's knowing how to tell the difference, which means doing a small amount of research to elevate your viewpoint..... fuck the vessel.....your personality in this life 'is' Your Vessel for argument sake imagine your personality rendered onto the outside of your body/vessel, and your little blue light is trapped inside unable to communicate with you properly because they Draco saw all this coming and made sure that your spiritual hardware, your Pineal Gland was greatly reduced in size and well calcified like an old kettle, from toxic water and food that was designed to do exactly that, calcify your spiritual apparatus and stop you making contact beyond the newly created 3rd realm, with your family and also to stop you contacting each other down here in 3D, lying is ESSENTIAL to their plan as it helps glue 3D in place. The vessel is already so traumatised and dumbed down with toxic food/water/vaccines etc. Its far worse for children born 1980 onwards because of the accelerated childhood immunisation program where children will NOW get up to 175 vaccines by the time they are 18 depending on their geographical location....ALL VACCINES SINCE 1840 when the 1st "vaccine" was "invented" (fuck sake....nothing was 'invented'....or 'discovered'...it was already there....in fact, much much much much better was already there – before this happened to us YOU did not know what a wheel was, YOU did not know what a Button was, YOU did not know what a lie was and you had NEVER eaten meat before. (okay billions and billions of years ago during the 1st every Epoch....during the slow-crawl as we dragged our sorry arses our the ocean, as this did happen ONCE a fuck-off long time ago, but never again after – realms are not all going thru evolution....there will be a slow natural evolution, but it starts off with realms being created over millions of years using frequency's and sand and water....that's the basis of all rocks, blended sands.... seeded like a carefully thought-out climate-controlled garden, think "The Eden Project" in the UK.....but planet size.

Volcanos are the pressure regulators inside the sealed system that IS your realm and the clouds are also fake/not naturally occurring....clouds are the condensation coalescing below the firmament....clouds are not part of the oceanic cycle of convection or anything like that – in 5D there are no clouds where we don't need them ,it rains where we want it to rain, when we want it to rain.

The 'AKTUN' who as mentioned earlier in a previous synopsis, are the master Geneticists in the Universe and create the vessels for the populations of the realms in the universe, including the flora and fauna, as Source asks, and it was the AKTUN who created our New Vessel (we have an even newer one on its way that can shift-up Density's as required to lightbody at 11D

The 5 people who CREATED YOU, look like this! Ohh my....you are in for some real shockers soon!

Worthy of repeat here is that Source Creation went to a lot of trouble before even creating physical life – when we design anything complex, like a new home or a 20,000 m2 indoor climate-controlled grow space, we usually start with a pen & paper.....Source went a step further and designed a House in 'thought', not only that but Source ran, lets envisage it as a mental-virtual simulation in real-time of not only the house, but the occupants of the house, throughout time....every Tennant and owner of the house and every decision that these people would make individually & collectively, Source already thought each persons thoughts thru to completion....not only that but Source also thought all of the thoughts that these people didn't make, and also all of the decisions that they didn't make and all the spin-off implications of all of those unmade

decisions and the spinoff's of those that were made, before Source even created physical life. Now imagine that the House is the Universe - it was all carefully thought out and planned – nothing is, or was, an accident. There are 15 Density's in one 'Cycle' and each 'Density' can take *a few billion years to complete. Upon returning to Source as we do each time after death, via the Sun as it is the Sun we see as the light when we die because the Sun is our (artificial) portal back home to Source Creation. Only in 2018 when the amnesia vortex and soul-loop were removed, were souls able to return to source for the 1st time since the occupation started 6,013yrs ago. Again, it is our knowledge and wisdom that Source requires to 'Eat' and grow larger in ability and strength, as is the natural way of all things. ALL positive 'things' strive towards perfection at all times....its what we do. 'WE' (every single soul on the planet) had already worked our way up thru ALL 15-Density's and back home to Source Creation, where we stayed for rather a long time. After death we can (before 6,012yrs ago, and AFTER 2018) stay with Source (its really cool there by all accounts) so after death we can stay with Source or go back to our soul family who are the 1st species we incarnated into at the beginning – there will be variations to this like we may at some point have jumped species after a particular passing and decided to incarnate into a new species – all memories are always left intact and that makes perfect sense as well because I always thought that how can reincarnation, that I knew was real since I was 15 when I read a book called 'The Children That Time Forgot by Peter and Mary Harrison', in 1989, how could reincarnation be worthwhile if 99.99999999999999% of us cant access those past life memory's?? and then Christian turns up and answers to all these questions, straight-off-the bat :)

Killers, murderers and 'offenders' are also by design and part of their system by necessity for it to function – this demographic are created using frequency's e.g a child experiencing a problematic child-hood, bearing in mind that every single person alive has been closely monitored all their life since the moment of birth, buy at least ONE benevolent ET (sorry fam) and up until 2016-ish, at least ONE Negative ET through their lives and after into the next one – YOUR family are monitoring you as they are worried-as-fuck about your little blue light, and the negatives are watching you as they are meticulous in every detail and need to know if you could be a benefit to them, or a threat in some way in the future? – so both sides know more about you in this vessel than you yourself do, million% they do – so the child experiencing a problematic childhood, holding anger and resentment at the situation, being shouted at etc, may do something like harm a kitten, or kill a toad or something like some kids do....this will be monitored and nurtured by the negatives, don't forget they were working to a long well throughout plan requiring as many psychopaths as possible and their budget and manpower for this task is infinite - so they will start using frequency's on the child to try to up the tormenting animals to introduce them via thought possibly to violent films & video-games and hopefully on to murder or rape – that all adds to the populations 'Loosh' and also takes the heat of the elites for the crimes committed and missing kids etc Also don't forget that nothing REMOTLY LIKE THIS HAS EVER HAPPENED BEFORE......your family 'up there' are on the same lifetime they were when you left, but you have had about a 600+ lives in that time and have been a 600+ different people with different views and different understandings with many different opinions and in many many different eras in time. From this you have gained not very much from the experience to be honest.....like asking an artist who can paint/draw as good as a photograph, do some colouring-in in your child's nursery School book with crayons from China an inch long.....'we' are not amused, and we all thought and said at some point....yes everyone, even the most dormant sleeper has, in their life said likely many many times: "Something's wrong', 'I could run the country better than this', 'how have they made this law?', 'It's preposterous'....etc etc etc"

it's NOT A BROKEN SYSTEM.....IT WAS MEANT TO BE THIS WAY....IT WORKED PERFECTLY WELL FOR THEM, LIKE THIS.....it helps hide the 9+ MILLION CHILDREN THAT GO MISSING PER YEAR.....WHICH IS ALL 'IT' HAS TO DO – IT WAS BUILT TO BE FLAWED FOR THAT REASON.

Imagine you have a daughter, and someone takes her away to a location that you are aware of, but that you can't ever go to save her. Imagine that you know full well that your daughter is being raped constantly every day....and when she 'dies' they will 'bring her back to life' (incarnate her, mind-wiped again)..there's still nothing you can do about it....you just have to know about the abuse possibly watching it physically even, and all you can do is wait worrying your tits off.....FOR SIX THOUSAND AND TWELVE YEARS.....you know your daughter has had her mind wiped and will not remember anything about where she came from, or you - you can contact her if you wanted to, but to contact her could easily raise the awareness of her captors and she would likely end up being pumped full of drugs to stop her hearing the voices in her head of you trying to reach-out to contact her & comfort her because she has been preprogramed to assume 'Aliens' which YOU are, are bad...she would certainly have perished again and all your family want is for this loop to go well for you with as least pain as possible – you also know that it's not just your daughter but everyone who lives in your town....ALL THEIR DAUGHTERS HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO THIS PLACE AND TO FREE ONE COULD CAUSE THEM ALL TO BE TORTURED EVEN WORSE THAN THEY ARE NOW.....WHAT DO YOU DO?

Your family 'up there' have never had a situation where a family member has had their soul stolen to be placed in many many consecutive 'lifetimes' solely for the procurement of the most expensive drug in the universe, Adrenochrome. There's only 1 market for this drug and the people who used it are ALL dead already, so there will never be a need to worry about this again. 'Normally' we have ONE LIFETIME because DEATH does NOT EXIST....we die of old age, one day, but are always born with full memory recall - after many EMF blasts to restore our homeostasis and age regress us. We would expect to be living IRO 450-500YRS BUT IN TRUTH WITH EMF'S IT WILL BE MORE LIKE 5,000 yrs+ and some of us 15-20,000 before we need a new body – I think Christians mum Celecia is about 20,000yrs old in this vessel, and she looks 25yrs old....she's guna be beautiful without a doubt because Ugly doesn't exist in 5th Density - there are no Fat Cells either! neither does jealousy/greed/anger/resentment/spite/criticism/etc exist in 5th Density.

Remember the school playground analogy with the 500 children....496 are perfect little angels and the 4 nasty kids ruin it for everyone else.....well the 4 nasty kids have been removed permanently now, so the rest of the 178 worlds who live here in the 'Play-Ground' will be able to get back to 'business-as-usual' the sooner we all heal from the Revelations soon to come with the EBS and the EMF – once again, some will heal quicker than others depending on the belief system they held, their 'Perceived' intellect & how well they are willing to loose every penny they ever had including the purse they held it all in.

That's another reason I'm writing these up, we need as many blue lights back here in the 'Earth' = 'Heart' of the Gateway as possible because that's not only good for the souls themselves, it's good for the entire Gateway & the greater Universe as a whole because what happened here was a 'pimple' on the arse of perfection. The more blue-lights back here gives the loss of life spent to free us more meaning and less of a bitter aftertaste, I guess, with each one that makes it home as unscathed as possible . The opaque familiarity I have with this story compels me to do something about it – what can I do? Whatever I can re-meme/make memes/start conversation/write up this info and make some videos explaining things....the doors are closing on the 5D Bus Home, now and the last few stragglers, who are in reality a few million souls that need to hear this information still have time.....a % of 10 Billion will make it, if I can help 1 extra soul back home, I'm good with that..... The only thing that bothers me right now is milk.....i drink Tea, with milk. Not without milk. So if we don't consume anything with animals in.....what about milk? There will defo be Tea.....maybe 'old-me' likes black tea? Fuck knows, im just glad that my only concern about this transition, is Milk. Thats thanks to Christian21's info.....PEACE OF MIND LIKE YOU NEVER EXPERIENCED IN THE LAST 6,012YRS!!! LOL....THATS WHAT CHRISTRIANS INFO IS....PRICELESS-PEACEOF-MIND AND THE MOST VALUABLE INFO YOU HAVE HEARD SINCE THE DAY BEFORE THE DRACO ARRIVED. LET THAT SINK-IN.

As a personal example that happened ONLY YESTERDAY, to me: I had a long awaited CAFCASS appointment (a year to wait) about seeing my beloved son who I have not seen in 2 years (long story that I am happy to talk about, but it's a long story, DM me if you want to know, But its too off-topic right now for this example) CAFCASS and Social Services who have been helping secure 60% of ALL children taken annually (my son lives with his mum, he's not in care) are secured by CAFCASS & Social Services.... CAFCASS said that my sons mum wants to vaccinate our son. I had been researching vaccines since 2018 when she conceived, it was then that I found the 81 Peer-reviewed studys (that they said do not exist) on the direct link between the adjuvants in ALL vaccines, to ASD (Autism Spectrum Disorder) and my sons mum is well aware of this link as we discussed in for 2yrs prior.....so IF I HAD NOT HAD THE LUXURY OF THIS PEACE-OF-MIND INFORMATION FROM OUR MAN C21, THEN ID BE FUCKING WELL PISSED AT THIS 'Revelation' of his mum now wanting to vaccinate him with everything all-of-a-sudden including the fucking COVID shot that she herself has not had and will not have because she knows its killed millions. Why the change of her mind, is irrelevant to me, very unusual but irrelevant nonetheless it bothers me-not BECAUSE..... ALL VACCINES NOW HAVE ONLY SALINE/GLUCOSE IN THEM. I had a conversation with my GP's Surgery Practice Manager - I don't use a GP but I needed a 'Sick-note' from a GP, and in discussion with the GP I got hold of the practice manager on a call and told him to go open the vaccine fridge and take out ANY vaccine bottle, take 1, 10, 350 or ALL of the vials for ANY VACCINE and they will ALL BE SALINE/GLUCOSE.....so my son can go have a saline injection if it makes his mum feel better! Lol look at the state of my mind would have been if I had not known this new info from Christian!!!!!!!!!!!! so to be able to shrug-shit-off like this as if it's nothing and be only concerned about Milk.....well CHRISTIAN.....THANKS BRO :) I CANT IMAGINE HEARING THAT FROM CAFCASS YEATERDAY WITHOUT SESAME-STREET-JAIL-TIME if I wasn't in possession of your detailed breakdown on what the fucks actually going on in the world right now I WOULD BE TOTALLY FUCKED BRUV AS WOULD MILLIONS OF OTHERS!!! :) ALSO when I got nicked the other week....IT WAS ONLY WHEN I STARTED TELLING THEM ALL WHY THERE IS EMPTY OFFICE SPACE UPSTAIRS IN THEIR POLICE STATION, THAT THEY ACTUALY STARTED LISTERNING TO ME AND TAKING ME SERIOUSLY.....then I started on the common-law.....SO I KNOW 1 MILLION % THAT YOU ARE SPOT-ON WITH THAT BREAKDOWN AS I TESTED IT BRUV :)

The Planets, worlds, and realms within them are governed by Galactic Councils – there are no 'contracts' but there are 'Treaty's' where councils gather to discuss who isn't going to be a cunt, and why not, and what happens of someone is a cunt. No one ever is a cunt – there are NO CUNTS IN 5D. Cunts can't get past 4D because if you are vibrating at the Frequency of a total-cunt, then the natural ascension process, the 'Normal' ascension process that species go thru, will not let you enter 5th Density. So cunts, phone chargers and the price of petrol isn't something we need to worry about in a few weeks time.

Everything in the universe is ARTIFICIAL – the universe itself is NOT ARTIFICIAL but everything in the universe is. Source creation created itself (funny, that) and started off in an empty spatial dimension, a singular universe with many attributes, naturally occurring wormholes and other parameters…. epochs and eons ago. The Universe was not homogenous in temperature, electrical resistance or frequencies & over an extremely long amount of time, parts of the universe coalesced to form electrical interactions at the right temperatures, that one day ignited in a permanent Indigo-Blue Spark of continuous light, that was Source Consciousness.

The light came into existence as self-aware & Sensient, after an even longer period of time, and became stronger & stronger thru understanding, realisation and sustained-thought, with a desire to strive, thrive and succeed with pure intention, just like a flower does, and children do - to learn and to understand all things seen and unseen – This Indigo-Blue light grew not in physical size but in Etheric/Energetic size, NOT occupying everywhere at once, but having created everything, being everywhere at once, in essence, by default – as mentioned before, the Big Bang did happen, but once again it was twisted….it was an Energetic Explosion of Light, not a Physical Explosion of Matter, as we were told – the Big Bang was Source Creation, sending-off 'Mini-Sources' like a Sachet of Ketchup taken from a larger bottle, Source sent us off out into the universe to animate it – to gain wisdom and knowledge from our interactions with each other, ourselves and that which we create and coexist alongside. Everything is carefully thought out and created, nothing is accidental in the universe, or our lives – because we use the aether, 5D-Matrix and telepathy, we share the same collective superconscious with all-other 5D+ beings, this is why there are no accidents in 5D and this is a good example of how, for instance the collective superconscious is used to avoid being hit by a falling-'something', for instance if you were with others and one saw a danger, you would all know at the same time, if something went wrong, not common, but shit happens.....then you can draw-in the info as required to remedy the situation I.e. step out the way because your pall saw a brick falling on your head, and you 'saw' the same image in your mind that your pal did with his eyes – information comes in at the speed of thought like a google in your head, but much faster and far more comprehensive.

Everything in 5th Density is pretty quiet because our technology is silent and has no moving parts and our telepathy negates the need for verbal speech, unless you need to call someone a mug for some reason, I can't see you needing to speak...sorry that was a joke...you will never need to call someone a mug, unless the Draco come back in 5 billion years' time, foul language does not get used in 5th density at all, ever....

The word Cunt (which is actually a "Camels Vagina" - I don't see any offence in a Camels vagina?..... I've seen more offensive vaginas in a human to be honest) Cunt, will no longer be used...I must say il be sorry to see that word go.....maybe no one speaks in 5th Density because people can only communicate using swear-words? That's why it's quiet..... No one's allowed to swear and everyone knows that 'normal' peoples conversation is started with "Fuck me bruv..." or..."Fucking Hell mate listen to this....."...or "Guess what these Bunch of cunts did..."....so maybe we aren't telepathic, more like we are all too scared to swear, so everyone sits there in total silence & hopes that everyone else knows what the fuk we are all thinking about....that must be why a day is 3.9 days.... It takes that long for people to guess what it is that no one's allowed to swear about.

I'm worried it will be boring in 5th Density.....I'm busy here I have a busy life I'm always proper busy and I never get lonely, I got too much to think about before all this even happened....jesus christ – there's no jobs in 5th Density so everyone's got 3.9 days bored outa their heads, you can't go for a walk down the road because roads don't exist, there's no laptops so you cant even go online.....everyone's skint because money doesn't exist.....no wonder it looks nice, there's fuk-all else to do except gardening by the sound of it cos there isn't even TV – all you got to listen to is other peoples thoughts….and if were ascending with these idiots, I don't wana listen to whatever it is these idiots are thinking about……can you imagine being telepathic-as-fuk and sitting on a bus that doesn't exist on a road that isn't there, listening to humans thinking?…….i can't imagine anything worse. I think I'll stay here thanks Christian bro……..fuck going back there bruv, I just talked me-self out-of-it m8, phew, dodged a bullet there…….there isn't even anything that's illegal to do so there's no laws to break….how boring. so, where's the thrill of life?? Cant even go down the pub to forget about what you've lost…….cos pubs don't exist either…..you don't need a passport because there's nowhere to go and if there was you'd have to prance there in a fukin leotard like 'Nadia Comaneci',

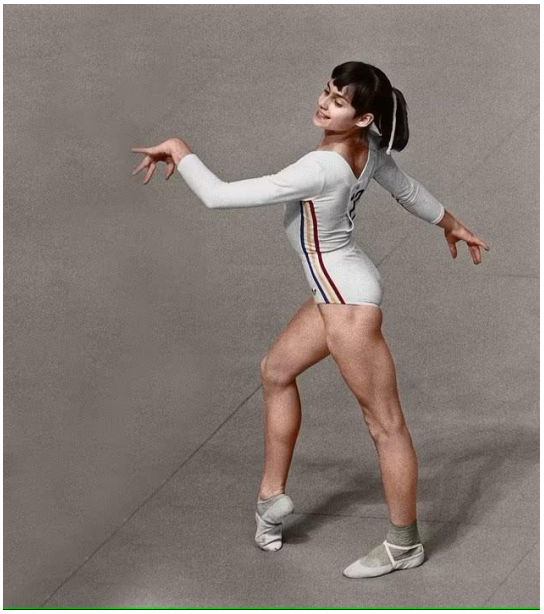

Fig. 81 Nadia Comaneci - 4 times gold medal gymnast 1976 olympics

You just sit there in a muddy field knackered after 3.9 days of mowing the fukin lawn, there's no seasons either so its always summer and the 5th density grass grows like fuk….million % I'm staying here….actually, no, il fuck off and find a Draco lamenting his losses, beat the granny out of him with a scaffold pole and keep him washing up crack for me, the Draco invented cocaine & crack and that's the only benefit they brought here, and that was for themselves….no us, and just quickly while we are talking about it, cocaine does not smell like petrol because its smuggled in petrol tanks….no no, it smells like petrol because to make cocaine from coca-leaves, you must 1st use a solvent to dissolve the alkaloids in the leaf material, this is best done with Ethanol….but Ethanol requires a distillers licence and you will never be granted a distillers licence because Ethanol is the precursor to every drug legal and illegal…..its use is prohibited and pure Ethanol has a flash-point of just 13 degrees Celsius making it very dangerous to handle….BUT….the next best thing that is easy to get, is Petroleum Ether' and it does a very similar job, but it obviously smells of petrol….because its made using petrol…..

you only really need a crack pipe some ethanol, sulphuric acid & a microwave…….oh and a medbed, so, I gota plan to not get bored, I just need my old UFO back and some weapons, so if anyone wants to be a Space Pirate, hit me up. We can start selling handbags made out of Draco Skin, shoes & apparel….there's several product lines there, we could make a fortune.

You can use Christians new information as a surgical scalpel to dissect the old 'Steppingstones' and see any truth in them, or at least fact-check them 'Live' – as one example off the top of my head: Roswell - Roswell was actually 7 crashes over 4 days (or 7?) in a similar area (80km radius I think it was) and its all very credible witness testimony and a very very very credible & public cover-up/white-wash….SO INCREDIBLY CREDIBLE with impeccable whistle blowers & eye witnesses…Col. Phillip J. Corso, Staff Sgt Clifford Stone etc….yet knowing the agenda, plan, modus operandi & psychotic level of control these parasites have thru christian21's info, its likely something like this:

There are no accidents – the greys work for the Draco– the Draco use us as food/drug and the greys feed off the glandular secretions of mammals, not necessarily humans but including humans, that's why the cattle mutilations are left, as why takeaway the carcass if you do not need it? Also leaving the carcass there in situ helps with the fear-aspect to worry people about what may have mutilated the cattle in this way and left the good meat behind in the 1st place?...."can't be a wild animal, can it?" The greys were said to have human body parts in at least one of the crashed discs.....also for the scare tactics to worry us, and also tell us what they are doing, as they must tell us/show us for their galactic loop-hole to function everything must be done by consent that's why the celebs must sell their soul and sign a contract – they do atrocity's en mass showing us in movies beforehand and to them that is as good as informing us. Crashing an "Alien" disc with human body-parts on, is a good way of showing us that Greys abduct humans..... Roswell was probably for many separate reasons, and possibly had 'Whitehat' influence in some small way (?) who knows? (Christian will lol!) but it wasn't an accident.....there are none, so we can rule that out – it was likely for some deep-state-reasons of a future fake 'alien invasion' that's actually our collective family's returning at last, and a blend of various scare tactics for various reasons & a mix of each. Roswell was staged, maybe the 'whistleblowers' were also duped? Maybe not, they all worked for the military so the chance of them saying anything they were not supposed to say is very very very slim because their children and grandchildren will be raped and tortured in front of them if they did that, that's why they don't do that. Unless they have no living family whatsoever and are on their deathbed, they will say what they are told to say.

There are no still-born children, birth defects or hereditary health issues, this is ALL designed for a plethora of reasons loosh, family angst, drug and alcohol usage, broken homes = CAFCASS & SOCIAL SERVICES getting involved in the child procurement mechanism, prisons...remember this isn't isolated, its extrapolated out planet-wide as the macrocosm of individual experience/s that our species endures as a way of life and we know nothing other than this way of life.....until now, so don't dispare.....we are almost there.....

Twin Flames / Soulmates

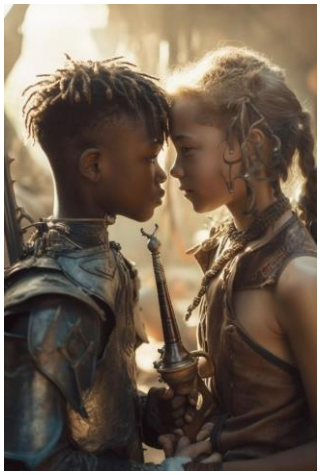

Fig 82 Twin-flames meet at a young age, & the law-of-one ensures that this happens early on – twin flames are required to stimulate the simulation with love & empathy

Two soulmates decide to have a child together and the female decides mentally when to allow fertilisation of her eggs, so there is no need for contraception. The baby is 'designed' by the genetics of the parents (obviously) and also the love and bond between them. Nothing is by chance or random, and communication between the unborn soul and the mother and the father-to-be starts a long time before conception even happens – both potential parents - I don't like that word, but for ease of homogeneity of the text, il use it. 'Parents' = "A Pair-Who-Rent' the child from the government, who own your child because you registered the birth, that's why social services can take your children away if you registered the baby and got it a birth certificate. Its all existential fraud, full-vertical-integration-wholesale-Demonic-Fraud....that's why I'm on the run...fuck them come fukin nick me you fukin mugs, paedophile nonce cunts how dare you give it all the fukin white linen & sandals crap with me you fukin pricks....your facilitating/facilitated paedophilia and human trafficking and unlawful wars and child sacrifice.... you fukin self-righteous fukin idiots....what are you doing you POLICE fools stop what you are doing, you should be utterly ashamed of yourselves…..blinker-on looking at the ground as you trudge your way thru the weeks till payday….'not my problem'…. 'just doing my job' …..you jobsworth cunts.

I woke up my pal George, my best m8 from school-era 35yrs ago, about covid and the Draco etc, but he 'twigged' (realised) the earth was flat before I did……and also the dinosaurs are mostly fake, before I did…. and I thought he was nuts 4yrs ago telling me that! lol….i was slow to get that one. So everyone moves at a different pace with the awakening process, it depends on your view of what you have learned in your life as to how you assess a situation when someone says something totally out of your paradigm, and with a straight face. If it sounds incredible and the person saying it looks deadly serious, I WILL look into it, don't matter how mad it sounds…..like Brian telling me the earths flat in 2017……i thought the geazer had lost his mind, but because he is what I call intelligent I couldn't not investigate the madness. Try not to refer to any preconceptions you have about history / science / religion / astronomy / astrology / geography / physics etc etc etc etc etc come sit at the table with an empty mind, and allow yourself 10 minutes, just 10 minutes of pre-conception-freethought on any part of this information and it will become clearer and clearer, more and more obvious as you wrap your head around it all. This message could only have come from a grass-roots man of the people from the streets with no profit made….how could he be standing there with a holier-than-though attitude and coming from a well-heeled background…telling 'Normal' people how it is….i think we are a bit too used to that suite mentality in politics / religion / science to listen to another one, even if he was telling the truth - WE ONLY KNOW WHATS BEEN PRESENTED TO US…..AND THIS INFO HAS NEVER BEEN PRESENTED TO US BEFORE UNTILL 2022, AS MENTIONED PREVIOUSLY……FOR A VERY GOOD REASON…..TO AVOID ANOTHER TRAGIC RESET AND UNIMAGINABLE PAIN AND SUFFERING AND THE LOST CHANCE AT OUR FREEDOM….YET AGAIN,

AND POSSIBLY THE FALL OF THE ENTIRE 5D WAY OF LIFE. SO THATS WHY YOU NEVER HEARD 99.99999999% OF THIS INFO BEFORE.

It's very hard to wake-up to this if your career has been in one of the sciences like Anthropology, Astronomy, Archaeology, in particular.....this is going to be painful if you are not awake (it's going to be painful for everyone) but when your entire career that you studied all your life for and were driven towards, to find out its 100% fiction.....WOW. That's MOST people with most things.....its how you deal with it that matters :) and its THE ONLY THING THAT MATTERS HENCE US TRYING TO DESPERATLY WAKE EVERYONE UP......You can lead a Horse to water, but You can't Make it Think....." Big Love People :) start putting 'Silver-Linings' on EVERYTHING, if you can't see one.....look harder, they are there I assure you – I look up and see only silver linings since I was young because my parents (my mum taught me that) showed me how to :) & now I know the clouds are fake anyway.....well.....if clouds are fake.....problems are fake too, so don't worry about it :) Huge love to all - Leon xxx :) And remember.....What happened in 3-D.....Stays in 3-D

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Hi guys sorry for the delay in this brief synopsis – I'm on the run again you see….not for the agro I had the other week with the police, that's all fine, well, it was all fine…..let me explain quickly before we get stuck-in to Christians info – I still have 18 months to serve on licence for a previous crime that I'm rather not proud of whatsoever to be honest -but it is what it is and its far from straight-forward at all and would need a long explanation way beyond the scope of this document for anyone to even formulate an idea on it – but, needles to say that I am now apparently on-the-run which isn't hard in the UK, just don't live at home and you cracked-it. Some people think im off-my-nut as I only had 1 probation appointment left on my licence period….so I was only 2 weeks away from not needing to be on the run in the 1st place….BUT THERE IS MORE AT PLAY HERE THAN JUST a warrant for my arrest…….there's my pride for a start, cow-towing to a Luciferian agenda that steals children to sacrifice and torture to placate their non-existent God known as Baphomet = Satan = Leviathan = Alpha & Omicron Draco / Greys / Annunaki / Custodians/Etamines & Ancient Demons…..why should I have to go report to some Luciferian Office to the system that broke-in my house and assaulted me with telescopic batons???? GET FUCKED This is unrelated to that but it's not the point they are corrupt-as-fuck and they are doing far far far worse than I ever have in all my incarnations rolled-into-one….and I'm the one in trouble??? Well fuck-that…Naaaaa bruv fuck that come and look for me you cunts……you wont take me alive. I bet you police cunts cant find me before you get arrested yourselves in the coming weeks anyway….so Fuck-Ya.

So it means I'm having to be 9 more steps ahead than my usual 6 to be on the safe side, but I can't be bothered to hand myself in again as its pointless as we are so close to the event & I have a lot on and no time to be talking to 3D police idiots who will soon all be arrested themselves anyway and will certainly try to stitch me up again.....fuck them cunts & the system they rode -in-on....that Trojan-horse made of ply-wood – circus clowns.

British Police

Firstly, I have typed this brief synopsis up in American, as there is less cruising in the American language, I have also made a copy in Brail so that deaf people can hear it as well.

The shape of the Earth, although of great importance as discussed before, and not something to 'toss-off' lightly in ignorance of its full magnitude, knowing nothing whatsoever of even a glimmer of-a-reason as to even why it is so important.....right now it's not something to worry about this late in the day – for those who haven't done the thought model-work, just relax and know that you are in safe hands and nothing bad is going to happen, it will look like the world is falling apart in front of your eyes, but its nothing to worry about and it is actually a very cathartic time in your species collective history. Enjoy it for the unique experience that it 'was'.

You can't deliver this whole concept ready-built to the mind of a sleeper no matter how obvious it is to you, because you are tackling the sleepers vessel only, not the soul knows all this anyway, but the sleeping vessel and its personality moulded thru indoctrination and 'Lessons' to burn into your automated thought-processes, your new-post-re-set paradigm, all carefully thought out for you, even down to your choices in food and leisure right down to the fine detail. Time-progressed thru into the future..... You are free and can choose anything you want, as long as its option A – B – C – D – E – F – G – H - I – J – K or option L and each option has sub options within them which are going to for fill every conceivable need in the parasite-created algorithm that you know of as 'life' and encompasses anything & everything that your new post-re-set paradigm can possibly present to you in any area of that disconnected 'life' that has become the obscured parameters of your very existence – the more 'intelligent' someone is is a good sign of their new postcode (Y557) because they will not accept being wrong all their lives especially if they define their own reality and themselves by the false-stepping-stones that are PHD's and such accolades.....its all turned round on us....PhD's are only a sign that you are 'Next-Level' programmed and likely to fall for a fake plandemic like Covid obviously was right from the start. By the time you leave Uni you are ready to go out into the world as no risk-&-all-benefit, as you pass-on algorithmically your Stepping-stones of securely researched pearls of true wisdom, all based on lies. You see how this works.....its not even complicated, but its far easier to fool someone, than it is to convince them that they have been fooled, as you are attacking their intellectual edifice and that of their circles and peers and the greats before them in whatever industry or area of life, not they themselves, your attacking their delusion and their own personal-firmament that is thinner than a single atom, its only a single 'thought' thick but for most of us it is impenetrable. Well it won't be soon, that self-created firmament is about to turn to cheap and brittle glass made from recycling crystallised bullshit, crying wolf for a 'Hectare' of years expecting the most advanced species ever created to fall for it indefinitely.....well they were right, the most advanced species ever conceived did fall for it indefinitely, and if a group of reincarnating souls known as the core Q-Team hadn't devoted a hectare of years of their own souls progression.....we would all be well fucked....but NEVER indefinitely....there is NO WAY Source would have seen Gatreway-10 fall.....no fukin way. The 'Unknown Lands' or beings of immense age who were the 1st souls ever to incarnate....those guys are here also, Christian21, is one of those guys. Do you see the importance of not getting this wrong? Celecia didn't even tell the other Q-Team members about her son Christian till September wen Q saw Christian for themselves at the same time the public did – they must have been like who the fuck is this geazer coming out with detail that no one is meant to know since forever??? It must have done their heads in!.....how can anyone know this and be alive still???? It cant be. But it was, he was well hidden and protected.....the Chaperone for the Last 5-D Night-Bus back Home.

ALL of the furnishings of your reality are turned around to have the worst possible complications for the least benefit costing the most.....like 'Wind Turbines' as one example in the Power Sector, and footwear in the Clothing industry, footwear is designed to disconnect you from the 'Ground' and damage your lower joints & back, as oppose to how they sell it.....the opposite, as always. And 'Health'-Food being nutrition free and full of chemicals, for the majority, at least. Baby powder has asbestos in it and all foods are poisonous, basically that's a well-established fact over 30 years ago... You can only build this model in your own head by yourself - paying attention to what's going on and what you are drawn to but with THE RIGHT INFO at your disposal to select from, or at least give your soul the opportunity to view all the info and don't throw the baby-out-with-the-bathwater.

Saturn, Mercury, Jupiter, Mars and the Moon were ALL spherical and artificial space stations. Don't forget there are no 'Planets' in the sense that we understand them all as spinning balls that formed themselves thu the accretion of matter & gravitational forces, the strong-&-the weak Nuclear forces, electromagnetism and our old friend Gravity, over epochs. No Planets align to anything and none of them move anywhere, they are held tightly in place with electromagnetic waves and frequencies. There are no Comets, Meteors or bits of floating debris in space from exploded 'anything's'.....its all very very controlled out there and static.

Tesla said himself that all things are sound and frequencies.....he also knew the earth is flat and he also talked about the Firmament and the "Celestial bodies" behind it. The Celestial bodies are themselves a mixture of things: some of them are 'Planets' being flat on a plain/plan, hence plain-et's. There are NO EXCEPTIONS to this, that's why YOU are to think of this notion as CRAZEY....because, like the other conspiracy theories, most are true.

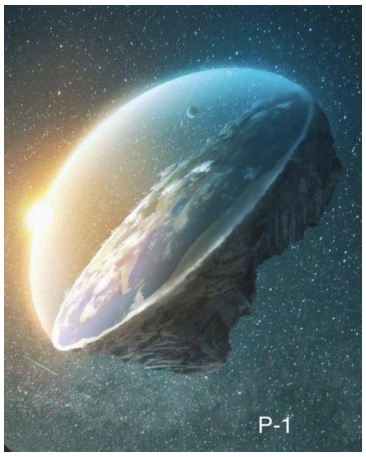

Fig. 83 all worlds / planets are disc shaped, there are NO spherical worlds

Your constellation that you originated from, is obviously outside of the Great Dome itself – and constellations or groups of stars, are all flat 'Frisbee-discs'. The reason 'Stars' shine is because of the Firmaments of the realms – if you were on a 'Star' in the Pleiades system looking back to us here, it wouldn't look the same....because WE are on a super-planet....the 1st and ONLY super-planet – now the parasites are gone forever, more super planets are being created as ours here was a resounding success till them plebs turned-up. But if you were looking at another star from the Pleiades, it would look exactly the same, like a twinkling in the distance – it's the signature that a civilisation is there and how you would see them when approaching -it's pretty dark out there – the light emitted from a Star...don't forget a star is a flat planet with at least 1 sun inside its firmament, the light of the planet is caused by the realms sun shining thru its firmament, like looking at a light left on in your greenhouse in a field a few miles away - Stars (planets) do not need to shine and if they wanted to they could keep the Sunlight inside the firmament by tinting the outer firmament keeping all the light inside the realm/s. But this would likely cause light/heat issues unless essential it would not be done.

A constellation of stars is simply a group of flat discs with firmaments floating quite close to each other, 'Galaxies' are constellations that are closer forming clusters / galaxies - they will have 1 or 2 main species per realm', and a whole load of others who joined them in smaller numbers. There will likely be 2 realms (2 firmaments) on the surface, and 2 or 3 more realms inside the 'Planet' - Each constellation could include billions of people for instance, a being living billions of years is by default going to have a number of off-spring...cousins, nephews, nieces, daughters and sons aunts and uncles....so a Pleiadean soul-family is going to be VAST in members (as is every other species). You will know them ALL or at least most of them – don't forget.....'on-the-out' you have at least a 70% brain capacity....not the 2.2% you have here right now, so on-the-out you have total recall of every single thing you said, did, went, saw, heard, knew or thought, ever, since your 1st incarnation. You don't need a pen and paper to take notes because your memory is sharper than a razor-blade and you do not need a computer to calculate or pose a question to, because in 5th Density we are all connected thru the Ether so that everything you don't know, like something that you would need to google, for instance comes to you as you think the question because WE ARE ALL ONE we share the same collective super consciousness in real-time, that can not be achieved in a 3rd Density sim, so there is nothing we do not know. This was a main reason for the spraying of Barium / Aluminium and the reason for calcifying our pineal gland which is our spiritual apparatus and how we connect with each other – if we started using our spiritual apparatus (which we can't anyway, not in a 3D matrix its not compatible as etheric-communication starts off in 4D, not available in 3D much over base-level telepathy (thinking the same song / thinking of a person who then calls etc), that's why it matters not how much meditating you do or how much kundalini energy you raise to which chakras.....trapped in a 3D matrix with an amnesia-vortex and soul-loop, your coming back in here moments after death into the next available human child of the same sex. So i feel proper sorry for these Monks that thought they were going to ascend so spent their WHOLE lives in a cave trying to hit 'Rainbow-Light-Body' when they died.....pointless waste of life....could have been partying and getting high, but instead ....80yrs sitting in a cave with your eyes shut, eating leaves, so you can be reborn straight away into a housing estate in Peckham South London.....gutted. see this is what happens with false steppingstones that kilter with sayings like 'Blind Faith'.....blind faith is a fools crutch that should be really obvious post-covid .

The demons and parasites like a 'trans' host as the demons themselves have no gender they want a Trans-Gender host when coming into a human – it doesn't really matter to them but their preference is Trans like their god, Baphomet was a transgender goat god – but you see these fools have been lead up-the-garden-path as well just like we have.....the Parasites / Draco / Etamines / Greys /

Annunaki & Demons are all perfectly aware that Lucife r/ Satan / Leviathan or the negative entity in ALL RELEGIONS & CULTURES.....is as fake as all the other 'good' religious figureheads. 'They' thought of everything, literally everything. So for the Sheep they created God and his son Jesus / Mohammad etc etc etc etc etc there's like 147 religions or something, a preposterous amount, whereas outside our realm there is only the law of one and source.....

SEPTILLIANS OF QUADRILLIONS OF BILLIONS OF PEOPLE.....NOT ONE OF THEM HAS A GOD OR EVEN USES THAT WORD BECAUSE THEY ARE ALL CONECTED DIRECTLY TO SOURCE CREATION ITSELF JUST LIKE PERMERNANT WIFI, AND THEY ARE ALL FULLY AWARE OF WHAT REALITY ACTUALY IS, THERE IS NO MYSTERY OR AMBIGUITY ABOUT THIS TOPIC FOR THEM, NO UNCERTAINTLY OR CONFUSION, THEY DO NOT 'BELIEVE', THEY 'KNOW'.

The Luciferians and 33rd Degree+ Freemasons believe at the core of 'their' version of Religion (Religion = The following of Satanic legions) That:

In the Garden of Eden, Eve slept with a 4th dimensional entity known as 'Leviathan' (another name for Satan – and where the naming of the "Tribe of 'Levi'" comes from). Eve slept with Satan / Leviathan in the morning, and Adam in the afternoon....from this union 2 sons were born Cain and Able.....Cain's father was Satan in human-form so as a result he had no soul like his father and because he was conceived 1st, he is the rightful ruler, whereas Adams father was Able.....this is the central core to the massonic-luciferian thought-school on their origins of the house of Cain.....hence all the bloodline tracking to keep the lines 'Pure' so sleeping with your sisters is necessary for the purity of the inbred-gene-pool. Cain ended up killing Able, as we all know.....and he ate him after, that's where the word "Cannibal" comes from, Cain-Ate-Able = "Cannibal". Whereas in reality, Lucifer / Leviathan / Satan etc etc in ALL religions.....is just the fake negative mirror-image of God, something for the Wolves to believe in because the sheep have God – there must always be competition for 3D to function

'smoothly' for them – smoothly being very antipodean to what we know of as smoothly. Satan / Leviathan etc etc etc etc etc etc throughout history and in every religion, is a Demonic hoax to have something to worship if you are bad that doesn't involve telling you the actual truth.....so NO ONE ever finds out what the truth actually is, which leads to well lets go to see what's behind the icewalls then??

'Hyperborea' where the Vikings thought their 'gods' (il never use a capital G for that word ever again) came from...is actually 'North' as they thought, but its in realm-2, not our realm 3....Hyperborea is a continent in realm 2 near Atlantis & Asgard- is thru The Dyatlov Portal in Russia - In the 'Dyatlov-Pass' in the Dyatlov Mountains.....This is why that expedition of college graduates ended up getting savagely killed by a Sasquatch back in the 1950's (1954 or 56...i think? I forget) they were camping in the Dyatlov-Pass and never came home....several years later the snow melted and their campsite was found and a journal and photos still in the camera report a sasquatch stalking and tracking them – the tent had been cut from the inside-out bizarrely, and the inhabitants had left in a hurry with no food with them as that was found still frozen in the tent, in tins – they were found part naked in the ice some distance apart and some were not even found I don't think?....but anyway, we now know thanks to Christian that they put Sasquatch and other Giants near Portal areas to make sure no one finds the Portal....there's none left there, if thre are Bigfoot knocking about still, they will be benevolent THATS WHY ALL THE STORYS N THE HIMILAYAS ABOUT WHITE YETI Scaring people away from 'Shambala' (I forget the name of the mountain Shambala is meant to be under? Its another theoretical location for Mt Meru, but as we discovered there is only one Mt Meru and its at the South Pole which is actually the North pole – Shambala is an inner-earth entrance or Draco base im not sure which? Il have to remember to ask Christian. According to Yoga-hippies its called Shambala – and also "Probably" the reason that all those human bones are found so high up in huge pits in extraordinarily remote locations in china and Himalayas.....these are the bodys of the eaten people who were killed who got too close to the portals and the remains kept out the way at remote locations?

The importance of Soul mates, Source Creation left nothing out when planning how to experience physical life. Source realised that life can exist, reproduce & flourish with source energy alone inside it, but how much better to go one-step further with this and allow the new indigo surce-souls that ability to actually Thrive exponentially like supercharging the experience of physical life that source had created.....this is what a 'Twin Flame / Soul-Mate' is for - Source had created everything in thought-form 1st as mentioned previously, so saw the power of bring two shards of indigo-light together to bond as a permanent pair – a Twin-Flame or Soulmate (same thing) – The power that comes from this union of perfection causes an exponential production of Energetic-Etheric energy transference into the aether and it is this Energy that is the main power of the Ethers that all the realms use and that flows freely thru each realms Etheric fields & apparatus / spirit-tree / Mt Meru / Northern-Rock in a toroidal manner, similar to a natural magnetic field viewed by placing iron filings on paper with a magnet underneath – this is a Toroidial-field. linked to every other realms spiritual apparatus, and also our own spiritual apparatus (pineal gland) -,if there is a sacred 'Trinity' it is the Trinity between our Soul, Vessel, & Ether that is the sacred 3 it is the energy of LOVE that is harvested for travel & technology just the same as the parasites use 'Loosh' which is the term used for the physical manifestation of pain and suffering (they have to be opposite to everything Good, by default) Loosh is just their version of our power supply.....pure intention....

Walking down the road that doesn't exist in 5D, flowers have faces and connect to you to love you as you walk past them, don't underestimate this unseen power, just because it is wiped from our memories does not mean it does not exist.....most people reading this will 'Know' that the Draco actually Exist without ever having personally seen one.....you see how this all works yet?

The consciousness of a being is Created when the soul enters the newborn baby moments after birth.... after.... not before and not during conception, or the pregnancy itself, the soul enters the solar plexus when the baby is taking its first breath/s and it is the souls arrival that animates the baby. A still-born birth is a baby who died before the soul entered, or who died during the pregnancy or during the birthing process. Abortion is bad because although there is no soul in the foetus yet, NOTHING THAT IS MENT TO BE, IS PREVENTED FROM BEING, IT IS THE NATURAL WAY OF ALL THINGS AND IS PART OF THE COVENANT OF THE LAW OF ONE

The consciousness is formed over the 1st few weeks as the soul climbs the chakras thru the body to the brain where the soul 'installs' itself for this lifetime and looks like a tree with its roots at the coccyx with the blossoming 'branches' spreading-out thru the brain . The personality of the baby is synonymous with the Vessels paradigm and environment, so we call the personality in this lifetime, the "vessel" for ease of description.

Once seated in the brain, the soul spreads out 'unzipping' & installing 'software' into the baby's brain. It is this process that creates the consciousness. Without a soul, there will be no consciousness and you would simply be motionless – like being asleep (as happens with cloning at the centres, when the celeb goes into REM sleep after about 20 minutes at home, the cloning centre can transfer the consciousness of the celeb to the clone of them at the cloning centre and then the clones becomes "Animated" by the consciousness / soul of the sleeping celebrity – when they wake up in the morning they have total memory of the pain and suffering they received during their excursion to the cloning centre that evening, they will be raped many many times each night and often have to fight other clones to the death so the elites and Draco can enjoy the 'fun' – (see Donald Marshalls testimony – it's all accurate info) the clone and the celebrity cant both be awake at the same time – if your soul was out of your body, whilst in a deep sleep for instance and held in a physical place, if the 'silver cord' as its known was cut, the invisible thread that keeps your soul attached to your vessel over distance when you are astral travelling/dreaming etc, your physical body would die – if the silver cord was uncut, but you were held some way preventing its return, then your physical body would remain in a permanent vegetative state and death would come with old age/organ failure etc (unless your soul returned earlier)

Every Single war is orchestrated and ALWAYS HAS BEEN right from the start – ALL TROUBLE IS ORCHESTRATED and designed for a plethora of reasons to do with Adrenochrome as children are 'misplaced' and taken to 'Safe' countries and locations that all happen to end up underground being tortured – it's easy to 'loose' 65,000 children when there's a war going on, ask the Ukraine - no one bats-an-eye-lid, they are just grateful the children are "safe".....WRONG, the children will be dead or a fate worse than death before the 1st month has passed. The Children are why the war happened in the 1st place, These children go towards the quota required by the Draco / elites / demons / Anunnaki etc etc etc The Draco need Adrenochrome for their abilities in 3D such as maintaining the shape-shift, walking thru walls and 'Shadowing' / attaching to human vessels etc – they hold this energy between their wings at the back, and they do not use Adrenochrome to get 'high' like the elites do – these wings are not used for flight, but serve several purposes including the above – the wings are a throw-back to their Dragon origins, as the Omicron Draco species (and Alpha) were created from the DNA of Dragons, actual fire breathing dragons that exist (and quite likely it was the Annunaki who created the Draco who were a benevolent species until Enka got Demon'd right-off as mentioned previously.

There are / were some negative species of Dragons, but most are 'fine' and wouldn't kill you unless you were a threat to them. They eat sheep and cattle, and are 4D beings. The Greys do not use Adrenochrome, but they do eat the glands and glandular excretions of humans and cattle, mixed with a corrosive substance similar to battery acid. And obviously the Demons need the loosh generated by the torture – Their system, their entire system is copied from our positive version but reversed, so instead of intense love, there is intense misery (my ex would have loved it, shed have been like a pig in shit there)

The reincarnational aspect to this 'Plan', the Morris-Butler Plan AKA Q involved 6,000+ years of reincarnating the same souls back-into key positions in this realms present and past – for instance, JFK Junior who didn't die in a plane crash years ago, John F Kennedy Jnr is the reincarnation of Abraham Lincoln.....let that sink-in. 'some' of these key players, throughout history are all here by agreement and these people had a 'job' to do and are and have been doing it for 6,013years....how fucked-up is that? They are already 5th Density having their DNA fixed to be able to leave the sealed-system and go to other realms & outside the firmament to a mother ship etc (don't forget all other realms are 5D....there are a few 4D realms and planets, but nothing much going on in 4D) The same for the parasites....the entity living in Queen Victoria, is the same entity that lived in Queen Elizabeth, it was the same Draco soul in both because reincarnation-tech is real and used by both 'sides' in the war, which is THE ONLY REAL WAR there ever was....the Galactic War has been going on for thousands and thousands of years outside our realm in this universal cat-&-mouse game that has been playing out way before our 6,013yr occupation by the parasites – we are shown "Battle Star Galactica" – "Altered Carbon" "Space 1999" - "Never Ending Story" - "The Hobbit" - "5th Element" & other SciFi and fantasy films throughout television & cinematic history, without realising that all these worlds the films are set in, and all the creatures & beings that occupy these worlds & the technologies used there, are all real....these forms of entertainment are the modern-myths of the past but the two are quantumly-entangled somehow as they both represent the same origin, Ogers, Dwarfs, Pixies, Fairy's, Bigfoot / Blemyeh / Panotti / Mermaids / Dragons / Giants / talking animals / Gnomes / Little-Foot.....ALL of these 'made-up' creatures are not 'Made-up'.....and the plots in the films are all relevant, like seen in Game Of Thrones – GOT is set in Realm 2 & the power struggle between competing factions and 'Houses' of Draco hosted 'Bloodline families' is what we see as the storyline, the "Wildlings" beyond the Wall are obviously our 5D friends and family.....whoever wins the battles and builds the biggest army will win the Throne and are then chosen in the 'trial' of war by the Draco to rule the 7 kingdoms in the Draco's absence ....in our case it was the Windsor's (AKA the Saxon Coburg-Gother family from Germany - They would all have started in Khazaria anyway though (Ukraine) which is one of the reasons that the war in Ukraine happened because the Khazarien / Jesuit seat of power was always Old Khazaria and still was until post 2016....this is where their main head-qtrs always was back-in-the-day and remained, just expanded underground to consist of vast biolabs and torture areas linked-up by mag-lev trains like a Bond Villain's bungalow.

In the last 6,032yrs the technology has improved a great deal, so now Realms do not need an ice wall to maintain the firmament, which has something to do with temperature at the base, hence the necessity of the ice wall in the 1st place – but now this has changed and the realms do not need ice walls to maintain the firmament as the rock now being used is created to remain frozen no matter how warm it is….similar to the soft drinks available on the market at the moment that have an ingredient that makes the drink actually colder than the actual fridge cooling it – so theres no need for an icewall anymore and these are all being replaced as well.

Also, great news is our new body's that we will have created from our existing DNA during the 30 seconds event, will have been upgraded also, so basically what this means in 'real-money' is the body that you left during the Great Flood let me just say that Atlantis is in Realm 2 behind the Ice wall, so don't bother looking about for it in here, those sunken cities are just previous re-set civilisations and the account in Timeus & Criteus by Plato is more bollox with a kernel of truth i.e a place called 'Atlantis' does exist, but not here – it's just a way of 'telling' you something true wrapped-up in lies to make unravelling the actual truth or even finding a broken plate from there is impossible because its 5th Density in Atlantis because IT ISNT IN OUR WORLD / REALM – ITS OUTSIDE THE ICEWALL IN REALM 2, so looking for it is a never ending search for the impossible, real place wrong location and wrong Density – a 5D plate from Atlantis would exist in our 3D realmbut not visa/versa as it will 'pixelate' / pixleblock, so remnants of previous resets that were either planted as 'fake' cities i.e cities to never be real cities or ancient sites, rather they are bogus sites with false information on – as an on-the-hoof example: Gobleki-Tepi in Turkey is one such site, covered in sand for a few thousand years….i think they said its older than 9,000yrs…..well it isn't, it was probably no older than 5,000 yrs and it has dinosaurs carved on it….probably to mislead us yet again as we know that no vegetarian dinosaurs existed, so how is one carved at Gobleki Tepi? also that Stegosaurus never existed, so its presence on a Cambodian temple is a Draco joke on us - neither did any other Vegetarian dinosaurs....a Dinosaur sole purpose was to kill us lot off after the flood, as mentioned above, so there's absolutely NO POINT making a veggie dinosaur – Gobleki Tepi is a fake site, it was probably never used as anything other than to be found in the 1960's or thereabouts and solely for subterfuge and misrepresentation of already false information to lead-us-down-the garden-path and get money generated to research Gobleki Tepi and the 'new' experts can cut-their teeth on it and forge a career out of an entirely fake story that was well thought-out many thousands of years previously by the very parasites that are killing our children and using us as a food source. Let that sink-in.

They can now explain Atlantis as "Oh look it must be Atlantis because its right where they said Atlantis was meant to be..." when actually the text that said where we should expect to find the sunken Atlantis, was actually written via draco/parasites to explain away the reason that there's signs of an 'Ancient City' there in the 1st place i.e. a pre-re-set-city OBVIOUSLY and also disclose a wee bit of truth with the Name Atlantis being a real place, but in Realm-2. You can see the pattern emerging over all the centaury's ....with all key players having full past life memory and existing in 4thDensity each time after a 3D birth and a 4th D-upgrade.....making it way beyond the scope of any 'Mortals' lifetime to research it to a conclusion that made sense, due to the amnesia-vortex, there's no concern of that person picking-up-where-he-left-off next loop / incarnation and discovering the truth over 5, 6, 7 or 20 lives (because the actual Atlantis is a 5th Density continent outside of our realms ice walls....good luck trying to find it "Beyond the Pillars of Hercules" which was presumed to be the point between Gibraltar and North Africa. ALL our TEXTS are not FAKE per se, but they are just old, planted there to confuse / lead astray / obfuscate..... planted freshly written in clay jays in places like Nag Hamadi & Kamran (i forgot the other place?...its the most common one strangely and that's the one i forgot! Lol) it's all FAKE, yet still old. And all sorts of story's about these texts and how were found or discovered....fake fake fake fake fake.....ALL OF IT FAKE FAKE FAKE. Not 'some' of it....ALL OF IT. They even go to the lengths of building fake / real old city's and bury them knowing they will be discovered in 4,ooo years and confuse everything and it worked perfectly.....for all that time. Whole industries were spawned from pure fiction while the factual stuff was all portrayed as fantasy leaving beautiful souls who care and have oceans of empathy to set out to deceive other beautiful souls who felt the same till the reset came and the vortex at 'death' – we have been kidnapped and isolated, tortured and mind-wiped hundreds of times, all for a secretion that a gland in our brain produces when we are terrified-to-death.....is that really worth a new house or a new watch?

Greys are the master abductors, they can, and do intervene on, and in any situation, and in any time frame – they can abduct you in any scenario and no one including yourself would be any-the-wiser having your mind wiped with a Men-In-Black-style 'neuralizer', and sent on your way oblivious. To see how a real Grey abduction is carried out, watch 'Jupiter Ascending', this film shoes you much truth.

So your DNA during this event is going to get a make-over and returned to what it previously was prior to the parasitic-occupation 6,013yrs ago.....not only that....but shits changed a bit since then, so abilities are even more greatly enhanced than they were when we left - so if you were 9th Density before, then you will be 9th Density again in a minute...but a better version of your 'old' self..... WE ARE GOING THE FUCK-BACK TO KANSAS – here i just forgot something!!! In the '90s i had a pair or Red 'Rebok Classics' (Trainers) that i wore for about 2yrs clubbing in and my pals used to call me "Dorothy" because of my red 'Classics' ha!

So i turned up round Christians on Thursday eve, with no notice, on my way back to Spain where I usually live (El Alpujarra) It was so good to see him tho 9 I have never experienced time going as fast as it does when talking to Christian....we talk for like 21hours a day when in the same room....it's hard not to be honest as every word that comes out of his mouth is earth-shatteringly NEW unheard-of information for NOW....not 5 years ago or 20 years ago...FOR NOW and for the souls ready to hear it – for the souls that have done the mental hoop-jumping to traverse this 6,013 year cobweb of lies and fake history's, resets and mindwipes .....see next part 6.2 as this is double the length allowed to post! continued from part - 6- .....So i said to Christian that if we wake up on December 25th then all us awake will chip-in and get our own rowing-boat and row-the-fuck to Antarctica our-fukin-selves and go thru the portal nearest the Ancestral Republic (again.... for me & Christian apparently) I'm well up for that because If there's no parasites now, and there isn't, then the worst that can happen is we all drown-to-death, and we have all done that loads of times anyway, so it's well worth the risk. This is another way i create silver-linings as while everyone else will be totally devastated if we wake-up to Christmas....I'm now looking forward to the trip to the Ancestral Republic on Ed McNair's Boat, that he doesn't know he's buying till he reads this. Thats my plan B....take the 'Etamine' by the Horns and just go ourselves....THIS IS WHY THEY COULDNT EVER LET ANYONE EVEN KNOW ABOUT 'SOMTHING' possibly BEING BEHIND A WALL....i couldn't give a fuk how long, high or wide it is.....I JUST found out I live behind it so I'm going home...under, over or thru it. And that's why we don't know about it, or at least we didn't know tangible detail about it until 2023 until my-man C21 popped-up.....its so strange because me-of-all-people knows Christian....me? how the fuk is that even possible? ....well apparently we do this together often (?!) just with normal weapons and smoking about in UFO's not by getting laughed-at by total idiots while we are trying to save them....usually the victims we are saving are a little bit grateful….not at all like the police who are trying to lock me up for helping people beat cancer with no known side-effects using a controlled plant that doesn't cause mental health issues….you honestly couldn't make it up. …..the stance on the ice wall is that "There isn't an Ice wall in Antarctica...and they show us footage of a cold & snow-covered beach which is LITERALLY the ONLY beaching portion of our entire realms ice wall – its the point closest to southern Chile / Patagonia if there isn't an ice wall, then how come captain Cook navigated 60,000 miles of "Ice wall to our Starboard-side" and why are there now countless videos of un-ending-ice walls floating about on instagram etc? .if our soul-fam had have told anyone at all over the last reset, then people like me would go and look for it, unknowingly causing another re-set.

Atlantis was sunk when they opened the portal underwater between realms 1 & 2, then froze and created realm 3 after the thaw-out which was 'The Great Flood' as it was thawed almost instantly with technology, causing planet-wide flooding and they pumped the water back into ream 2 via the same portal, flooding Atlantis that is situated in front of the other side of that portal near Hyperborea [from memory of the map, not personal memory!] - both now being behind the 'newly-created' ice wall completing the 3rd realm – they then brought in some killing-machine reptile creations and 'vril'd' some created dinosaurs and giants to go hunt out the last of us survivors – 'Velociraptor's' were real but a T-Rex head is actually a Dragons skull, not a "Tyrannosaurus-Rex". Interestingly all museus admit that the nones on display are mostly made of powdered chicken bone polished, because "the real bones are locked away in the basement for safe keeping" HA! YEAH RIGHT….COURSE.

I was taken out the ice with Christian when this happened apparently..... We spend a lot of time together on-the-out by all accounts and, for some strange reason that I will likely remember during the event, I decided to come back in here pretty-soon after because Christian said it would be a right laugh.....he got that wrong as well (he didn't say it would be a right laugh...I'm joking)

I hate being late, since primary school if I was even 5 minutes late my mum would be in trouble....I don't like making a late entrance anywhere, so I probably wanted a good seat in 2023 for this end, and booked an early 'Dress-circle' ticket to the performance which I must say was well worth being early for and I'm glad I came – this isn't going to happen again....what's 6,013 years anyway? It's a 'shit 'n a shave' as we say in the UK, I've had longer lunchbreaks in 5TH Density. Apparently we came here with our soul-mates as they were not going to let us come in here alone, so 1,000 men came with our partners, but we didn't realise we would be split-up, we knew about the Re-sets and the Amnesia vortex etc etc so we obviously had a lot more determination & courage than we had common-sense, but the goal has always been to free the children not ourselves, as Sources most precious creation is the Children, the children of ALL SPECIES.

List of Omicron Draco Reptilian Overlord Families - the genetic family line is used as the host family in this realm. Like the 'Houses' in Game of Thrones....House of Baratheon / House of Targeria etc etc. These are the Venetian Family Bloodlines who represent Earth for the Omicron Draco from Orion:

1. Barbrigo
2. Barozzi
3. Bembo
4. Capello
5. Contarino
6. Carnoro
7. Carrer

8. Donodo

9. Lordon

10. Ottoboni

11. Pissanni

12. Sagredo

13. Zuliani

14. Orsini (who are synonymous with the British Royal Family./ Windsors)

Here is a list of the 13 Family's that sit below the above Omicron Draco powerbase:

1. Astor

2. Bundy

3. Collins

4. Du Pont

5. Freeman

6. Li's (as in Bruce)

7. Onassis

8. Rockefeller

9. Rothschild

10. Russel

11. Kennedy

12. Van Duyn

13. Merovingian

14. Walberg

The off-spring of these bloodlines are our 'Famous Celebs' who come to prominence by being runners-up in talent competitions like X-Factor and other such competitions - and the rest of Hollywood and the media with actual talent, who are not bloodline, are brought into the fold and they sell their souls also, or you never hear about them again, they will be a 1- hit-wonder and disappear or be killed-off in an 'accident' if they know too much. So a contestant on Big Brother could actually be a Rothschild or other bloodline family member and as a way of making them famous in the public eye, they give them a place on big brother and make sure they come 2nd or 3rd, maybe even 4th, and ease them into fame that way – don't forget that Bill Clinton was a Rockefeller but they give their kids away to other bloodline families to raise & abuse so as to complicate whose related to who, obfuscating the trail of semen. Don't forget that 43 or the 45 U.S presidents are related directly to the D'Est Klan of France, who themselves left Egypt as the Priestly class when the Ptolemy's came to power – the Priestly class of Anunnaki Hybrids are the reason that the Vatican wear those stupidly large hats, to cover-up the stupidly large head that these cunts have. It saves shape shifting all day as why waste valuable adrenochrome if you don't need to? Just stick a fat-hat on the fatheaded-twat and roll him into town to get the shopping sorted, and save 87 'Troy' ounces worth of gold to cover the cost of his Adrenochrome for the day....DONT FORGET the Anunnaki only shape-shift their head from the neck-up.....because they look human anyway.....so no point having a head like a fucking Pigeon like Horus had, or a 'Haddock Head' or a 'Halibut'-Head like the Merovingian Dynasty fish dude' had (fukin jokers!!!) if your no longer in Egyptian Times.....it's now 1123 AD and you moved from Egypt to France.....times are-a-changing and you need to change with it, so your colleagues at the Vatican let you stay there, but you gota wear a stupid hat if you want to go out the house and sexually assault any young children....I mean even if your raping young children, as long as you got that stupid hat on.....you must be doing gods work....mustn't you? you can see what really staunch-religious people are guna be like during the EBS.....oh dear – its why we are doing this....we care....well...Christian cares....Il be honest, until he explained the "Vessel/Soul" differentiation.....id have shot every last sleeper in the fukin head 2yrs ago...no....3yrs ago.....actually....2nd week of lockdown...anyone falling for this joke known as "Covid"....id have fukin shot them already – so good job I wasn't in charge of anything as I would have killed more people than the fukin vaccine has, just for believing it for 7 days too long, I'd be knocking on every door saying "sorry....we don't need you here anymore, our species is at risk from YOUR stupidity and its time you fucked-off.....BANG" That was 'old me' new me.....fukinhell the new me....well.....the new me would use a Tazer and place a pillow underneath where their head will land before it hits the floor. No not really.... I know how the brainwashing goes and what it does to the mind – makes us think strange things...like the other day I started identifying as Princess Leah out of Star Wars for a week or two, started wearing my *Syrup in 2 'Buns' and a white frock. *'syrup' = Syrup-Of-Fig' = 'Wig' in UK'dien)

People don't spend enough time thinking or wondering about the things that actually matter, caught-up in life's rusty old Hamster-wheel with no time to question anything important like food, energy, history....all the questions you had as a child like..."mum....how is there a half-moon right now when I can see the sun and the moon at the same time both in the far distance proving that we are not in-between the two?..".– people don't have passion for truth as the consensus reality that adorns the walls of their paradigm, saves them looking at anything else, as the collective thoughts of their peers & colleagues must be more appealing and surely more accurate? as your self-doubt makes you lack the confidence to stand-out from the herd or to be wrong, so better to agree/follow someone else than your own thoughts on a subject? At least you can all be wrong together; more fodder takes the flack off you directly. - How can little-you be right and all those others wrong? Most people just pretend to agree and don't look on purpose so that they can say at the Tribunal shortly "hey look I'm so sorry, but i knew nothing whatsoever about it...look at my browsing history if you don't believe me and you will see that I didn't research anything whatsoever, I was just following orders you must understand I had no choice....so can I go home now yeah?" – we all know this - they seem happy to live in a lie hood-winked & grateful for the comforting programming slogans "safe & effective" – "were all in this together" – "protecting others" – it reassures them that they need not look into anything as they can just blame it all on the media and employers / employment status when / if it all goes wrong. But it's different this time! That was the old system....we have the new guys running the show now & there was a subtle shift pre-covid, an incredibly smooth transition from darkness-to-light and hardly anyone even noticed but a ripple. Now the Magicians Curtain from 'Oz' is about to be pulled back by 'Toto' Dorothy's little dog to show a very publicly naked reptilian Magicians act standing there with 'nowt' on except their trousers all around their ankles and a drip of adolescent's blood running down their simultaneous chins, caught RED HANDED. Oh dear.

Until the EMF when we get our DNA fixed, we can't feel or see the restorative effects or utilise the aethers purpose.....the EMF will change this, as well as ourselves and also our surroundings, "in an instant" as Trump said and I'm well seeing this now...really, its palpable now –you gota look at it like your immediate soul-fam mum & dad sons / daughters / friends who have been popping your soul in loops where you are most likely to benefit with the mindset of selflessness and empathy, and sympathy towards others which is the key back here to ARB201 true 5th Density ascension after the event, with all the trimmings....because they need as many souls as possible back here to fuel the ethers of the wider landscape and other realms in this vicinity also as 'most' people will be going to Y557– so the quickest way back here is basically what Christians saying: Acceptance of what happened without anger resentment, spite, pessimism, hate or revenge – I haven't got a leg-to-stand-on as I knew what I was getting involved in apparently, ...but for the billions that didn't, it's a learning curve that was a novel experience with no real gain whatsoever from any of it, but no one else will ever get to have those set of experiences again, no one will need a wheel or a button, petrol or aviation fuel.....Nothing whatsoever is actually what we thought it was.....all the myths and legends are true and so are 'most' conspiracy theories-so-called due to their being true and needing a cover-up or needing YOU not to look into it, AT ANY COST. 'We' are so advanced that we must be totally dumbed-down in order for this to work for them, so the biggest secret is what's behind the ice wall, the ice wall that doesn't exist? When a few people start asking that at the same time in pockets all over the world.....that mass grows, even with a calcified pineal gland from sugar and soft metals in the food water and air, we still wake up...that's why it's called "The Great Awakening" you probably heard Leonard Nimoy telling Captain Kirk about it on 'Vulcan'.....Vulcan went thru a 'Great Awakening' and turned to logic as an expression of all other emotions – ours isn't going to be like that, but it's the 'showing you / telling you' scenarios that they are obliged to show us, in plain sight - but without people like Christian21 / Phill Schnider / Nikola Tessla / Bill Cooper / William Tompkins / Julian Assange & Ed Snowden etc etc we wouldn't know how to join the dots up without them and we thank these people who risked everything to tell us about the lies and who we really are, or how a part of our seemingly broken reality works and why it isn't actually broken, rather it was built like that – they are not stupid – the Earth is a business (was) and was run by a bunch of psychopaths that used us as currency, leisure, food & labour. William Thompkins and the rest ONLY KNEW A PIECE / PIECES OF THE JIGSAW PUZZLE due to the compartmentalisation of these restricted special access black-budget projects – Christian21 has the jigsaw box lid and already made the jigsaw and printed it on a wall in his flat, for us to join-up-the moving parts that form the mechanism of the beastly system we have been enslaved in for so long -- there's only about 12 people who are not making shit-up. Christian21's info goes way way beyond what any astronaut or other 33rd degree mason would possibly now....they obviously do not know that their own God, Satan is fake too. They also think Mars is in the sky, their privileged knowledge is nothing more than the saccharin of a half-truth faux reality, yet again twisted from the lemon of life.

Those ready for the last 'Night-Bus'' back to 5D need to stay on the path.....turn the TV off.....you don't need it – listen to Christian with free info, and listen to Donald Trump and read between the lines knowing what we now know about TRUE REALITY. Anyone looking forward to Christmas for the nostalgic embroidery that the childhood memory's bring you and the warm glow you feel nearer that time of year again, enticed with the Christmas lights and mulled wine, "cos its what we do"...stop it at once and get a hold of yourself – Every Christmas tens of thousands of children are tortured and sacrificed to counteract the joy that you get from Christmas.....your joy effects their Loosh balance and they have targets to reach to keep the demons sweet – no longer, but that's what Christmas represents, a Satanic / Demonic festival of child slaughter rape and sacrifice. So, stop the festive crap and start manifesting 'Home' instead.

Fig.84 the face is a creation of the souls imprint fig.85 beautiful souls will have a beautiful face (in 5th density, not here because the souls here are all damaged, beauty here in 3rd Density doesn't guarantee a beautiful Vessel and a beautiful vessel in 3D can hise a damaged soul quite well

Our facial features are ordained by our souls imprint into the new vessel, not the genetics of the parents – YOUR face is a manifestation of your soul – "The eyes are the window to your soul"....yes indeed they are, at least that is true – as the consciousness develops after the soul enters the newborn baby and climbs the Chakras creating a new consciousness in the brain as it progresses over the next few weeks, spreading out and 'installing' – this is another reason for the "Vaccines" they need to inhibit this progression as much as possible because there is nothing worse for them than an "Awake" child.....if a child was born with full past life recall of our true reality....or if a child has an imaginary-friend....'Imaginary' friends are not imaginary.....they are ALL REAL and THEY ARE ALL YOUR SOUL FAMILY (or the soul-fam of the child with the 'imaginary-friend')...well look where they all are now.....The 'Nut House' with everyone else who saw these 'imaginary' friends over the years and spoke about it.....it is far easier to fool someone than it is to convince them that they have indeed been fooled, and the 1st thing any 'Parent' (a "Pair" who "Rent" the child from the government as they signed the ownership of the baby over to the government when the registered the Birth with a Birth-Certificate) will do, is let the programming kick-in and see what the GP says about it – but just like when you go to an optician for an eye test, they will still try to sell you a pair of glasses even if your eyesight is 20/20 vision....BECAUSE THEY ARE AN OPTICIAN SELLING GLASSES they will try to sell you a pair for reading, or a pair to cut glare, or a pair to use on the computer.....that you don't need as your eyesight is perfect....but they need a sale....so like your GP, they are a BUSINESS working for Big Pharma, so even if you mum takes you to the GP for seeing an imaginary friend and hearing voices....YOU will walk out of there on medication to stop it all and if that doesn't work then you're going to be sectioned under the "Mental Health Act" (any Act / Statute or Policy brought out after the 1st January 1973 is an Act of TREASON and any Judge or magistrate [or police] enforcing such acts, statutes of policy's are in fact "Aiding and Abetting in a

Treasonous Act" – "Trying to obtain money by deception" – Gross Misconduct in Public Office" – "Malfeasance, Misfeasance, nonfeasance in Public Office".....the list goes on....make yourselves aware of your inalienable rights as they are your birthright https://medi-cure.uk/maritime-admiralty-law-2/ I am building this page out to answer as many questions as possible)

that's why Christian21 is standing up there on his 'JackJones' – can you imagine how long ago this would have been over and done with if there were 1,000,000 Christian21's all doing videos on 5th + Density, and back home, all with their own parts of the puzzle and all united????The doubters would have all evaporated 3yrs ago and we'd all be home by now.

For the last 18 months I haven't watched a SINGLE truther because there's NO truth in what they say. Out of 100 kilos of truthers-Truth, there's a gram of truth in the lot of it. ALL THE SSP WHISTLE-BLOWERS, bar about 5 or 6.....ARE FAKE The William Thompkins Interview by Kerry Cassidy – is true & the only person Kerry Cassidy ever interviewed, who was honestly telling you his story with no lies in it. THE REST are fiction / delusions / C.I.A plants and misinformation / wannabes. I don't know if his book "Selected by Extraterrestrials" is completely true as it was written by 'Bill Burnes' (? I think from memory?) Bill was his friend and colleague, and he completed it AFTER William had died age 96 but maybe Bill was compromised also? But the interview is honest and true even if the book was compromised. Phill Schneider and Morton William Cooper are also totally honest. The rest are bullshitting for whatever reason, and there are a billion reasons why they would do that. Cementing the globe theory is #1 priority – that's why they all describe planets as round spheres etc etc etc and no one ever talks about an ice wall....not because they were told not to, but because they them selves do not know ANYTHING about it WHATSOEVER.....WHY??? because it's the BIGGEST TABOO in the parasites world.... Christian21 is THE ONLY PERSON TO EVER EVER EVER DISCUSS TRUE EXOPOLITICS because C21 is the ONLY person that knows ANYTHING WHATSOEVER about exopolitics. In fact, 'publicly' Exoploitics did not even exist for us plebs down here until September 2022 when Christian's vids started emerging online. I believed it all myself as well, don't get me wrong I fell hook-line-&-sinker for all the bullshit too – I was as 'fresh' on this info as the next person and I had preconceptions of my own, and a long history of being wrong about most things. But your willingness & ability to drop what you thought you knew, is what will dictate how well you absorb this info and where you land after the EMF. Don't forget that no one looses-out in this and it's not a situation that someone needs to worry about 'dying' or being trapped anywhere – the Ascension itself will come as a double-flash whilst every man woman and child in the world are outside looking 'up' at the stars coming-in closer and closer – they will pause for a few hours stationary at altitude – it is at this point that the poor sheep who haven't had a heart attack yet or died of shock or suicide, will fall apart-at-the-seams. During the stars 'falling' (ring any bells from an old nursery rhyme/story...??? The story of 'Chicken-little and the day the sky fell down' [from memory] During the stars 'falling' in the coming weeks after the EBS - there will be droves of people exiting cities and towns ASAP like in disaster movies when the roads are all chocker-block on the way out of city's (2012 movie? + many others) il be on my way into a town when this happens....my lane will be empty with not 1 car in it.....il be swerving left and right only because il have the entire 3 lanes to myself for 100 miles in each direction as all the sheep will have lost their marbles and all be stuck on the exit-out-of the now 'obvious'-"Alien" invasion HA!!! I Cant wait!!! Il be on the other side going the opposite way, doing Hero-size bongs steering with my feet sitting out the sunroof on my way to the most expensive Hotel I can find which will be empty....but the bar wont, I don't drink, but I will do....and il dig out a bottle of 300yr old Remy-Martin and have a few quick 'drams' and some bongs before the EVENT which will come soon after the EBS ends – they won't drag-it-out after the EBS as there's no point doing that, there's no point people discussing anything as there are no words to use to discuss the impossible or what's happened post-impossible, they just need to see-it-to-heal and then ZAP – 'Kansas'. People will be all-sorts of broken, every spectrum of 'broken' you could possibly imagine, you will see with your own eyes. Just do your best that's all you can do – everyone will be okay after anyway it's just how much trauma they will endure, having not researched anything and been laughing instead, they will soon realise they picked up the wrong end of the 'shit-stick' and there's no water to wash it off with. There will be some nice Arcturians and Andromadans in Y557 (Mars & Venus will also be used as healing realms) when they 'land' there and they will have 5D-Tissues & water to help them wipe the shit-off ..

I went to see Christian again a cpl days ago, another surprise visit when i got there he was on a call with Greg Cayer another super awake geazer who woke-up like we all did....after a vid of Christians back last year – no one was 'Awake' Awake till September 2022...well say October 2022. So it matters not who woke up 1st as we are ALL fresh-out-the-box with this new Info - I thought I was awake as do most, but I wasn't – I was just a clean-slate for the new fresh-truth installation – I was lucky because I'm normally wrong about everything anyway, so to find out that nothing that exists in my paradigm is real/true either, is just water-off-a-ducks-back for me and hardly a surprise, more a curiosity than anything and a very exciting ending as I now know awaits me/us.

The Pineal gland of a human child is the parasites #1 priority, it is their currency and commodity, and it is the main reason they are here in the 1st place, well, a joint 1st place for the reason that they are even here is the fact that they can use our hosted body's with a demon or Vril (type-1 reptilian) inside, to gain access to other circle environments whose frequency-gate needs a human soul in order to enter it – the human soul is still present in a hosted being, having been crushed by black demonic magic it is still in there helpless while the demon/vril takes over the body and life of the soul – it's the reason why you have to physically sell your soul, they can't just take it, you have to agree.

Fig. 86 Soul selling is a contractual agreement

"Smart Choices", being the reason that Ricky Gervais gave that speech at the golden globes….Ricky Gervais is 'One of Them' himself but told to say that by the Whitehat's who would have given him an option "do what we say and have a quick death, or die or you can die slowly? it's up to you?"…that's something how it goes. Yes, I too thought Ricky Gervais was a good guy for calling the audiences celebrity's-out for being nonces, but it was all part of the 'show', because Ricky Gervais was promoting the covid bioweapon and ridiculing people for being against it…..see how 'professional' people have been your downfall? We put our faith in them as they are respected, for some as yet unknown reason?

ALL our technology is off the backs of our children…..let that sink-in…..9+ million children per year die so that you can have the latest iphone etc….all of it way back to the start of 'Technology'….when was 'Technology' invented….???? Mid 17th century we started using electricity and Benjamin Franklin invented the 'Electrostatic Motor' in 1747….it was a device of wound copper that powered itself from static electricity in the 'aether' / air as it was then known and known more accurately back then by that name. Free Energy since 1747…..Ben Franklin was likely working from a Tartarian concept, being that 1747 was that last 'days' of old 'Great Tartary'. The Tartars didn't use petrol, they harvested free energy – please see 'mind unveiled' on YouTube for an excellent 8-part break-down on Tartaria – you will get the idea of the 'World Fares' and Great Exhibition's from the late 19th century-onwards to the 1920's…..Tartarian cities and parade walks all immaculate buildings in the 'Colonial-style / Romanesque' and all gone….wiped out after the World Fares ended these 1000+yr old buildings were torn down to remove any trace of Great Tartary in the new re-set paradigm – they were torn down "Because they were only temporary structures for the expo" knowing full well that the public would forget it all in 3 generations, the memories of the handed-down accounts of Great Tartary, blown away by the sands of time, and it would all soon become another Fairy-Tail-Myth of days gone by where people believed in silly things like witches and giants…. it almost did become another myth. These spectators at the worlds Fares were the babies of the last reset….mind-wiped and re-looped back in here as a clean-slates ready for programming with the new paradigm that is whatever the Draco/parasites wish it to be. Each reset is different in terms of what they do to us physically – the suffering is the same and the torture camps etc, but we are physically changed each time in height as they are always making us smaller and smaller hence the dwarfism program (yes that's also designed, it's not an accident that there are dwarfs – no accident in 'Primordial Dwarfism' either, no accident in Jacobsons syndrome or any other "Syndrome"….these are all human testing, victims. ALL of them.

The Custodians (Etamines) 1st entered the lands of the Draco, by accident as they didn't know where they were as it was the 1st membrane that they managed to penetrate – it kicked-off big time and there were huge losses on both sides – they then sat down and decided to join forces instead – later the two found the Anunnaki, and after that, the Greys found the Custodians….the Greys need the muscle power of the massive and powerful Custodians, and the Custodians needed the brains & extensive knowledge of the Greys – The Anunnaki fucked-up and accidentally got the Ruler of one of the 9 species of Greys Killed by humans and Giants, so the Greys were outraged and no longer gave time to the Anunnaki, who were forced to create the 'Zeta Reticulin' type Greys – the Anunnaki were like…. 'well we will just make our own Greys if you abandon us?' – Greys were like 'Sweet, crack-on u can all fuck-yourselves now you went and got 'Grand-Pappy-Grey' shot in the head you mugs what more do u expect?' The parasites are just that, out-4-them-selves as individuals yet working towards a common goal, which is 'anything negative', the whole demonic agender is to be the opposite of Source-Creation.

The Builder race, as discussed above, were the previous versions of the Anunnaki – YOU have Anunnaki DNA in your genetics and so do 'most' other species as the Anunnaki were among the 1st beings created. It was likely the Anunnaki who created the Aplha Draco / Omicron Draco from the DNA of Dragons – the Negative faction of Anunnaki created the Etamines, or 'Custodians' as only a killing machine, barbaric and ruthless with no emotion whatsoever, hate-filled beings covered in demonic attatchments feeding of the loosh.

The pyramids on ALL worlds were a gift from Ea & Annu, the benevolent Anunnaki rulers who are still alive today and spearheading the GAA take-down of the parasites, who were championed by their own son (Enki or Enka, I forget?).

'Pyre-a-Mid' "Fire in the Middle" refers to the energy that is stored within a pyramid and in fact Restructured water as made by Dan Winters Super-Imploder (I had one they are amazing and they work trust me) the natural structure of the make-up of a water molecule is pyramidal in structure, the super-imploder (magnetic array of high power 3,300 Gauss on each plate) forces the water that's been polluted, recycled thru peoples piss, rain and sewerage and all sorts of chemical process, although now cleaned, it is 'Dead' water with no cohesion at all – the imploder makes it 'pyramidal' in structure again by the magnetic array & torsion-fields as it flows past – it removes chlorine on the 1st pass and I use them recirculating to grow cannabis with and also drink as its high alkaline and the magnets push up the ph from 7.5- to-11ph which is amazing by itself as cancer cannot survive in a body with a Ph of 7.5+ (ideally 11ph for great health) – but I digress, sorry – All the top truthers are under NDA's….this is nothing to be proud of! Its to control them and see what they do – they all fucked-up…..yes all of them. GREED. The 7 Deadly sins: PRIDE – GREED – ENVY – WRATH – SLOTH – GLUTTONY – LUST, LEAD TO JELOUSY – SELFISHNESS – HATE - COMPETITION – FAKE BEAUTY – DEBT – ALL THIS COMES AT A GREAT PRICE…..YOU HAVE TO BUY YOUR WAY OUT OF THIS PIT OF DISPEAR, JUST INCASE NO ONE NOTICED……

There has been a war going on: under the ocean, in the air in space on the surface in cyber-space & a silent war with "Vaccines" – and it is safe to say that more people have now died of a conspiracy theory, being the vaccine itself, than died of Covid + cancer + heart attacks combined…..how can a conspiracy theory kill so many??…..because it's not a conspiracy theory….if it looks like sit and smells like shit…..it's probably a government psy-op which 99.9% of 'News' actually is….the news is the 'Pied-Piper' playing you like a fucking-Piano since you were old enough to listen to the story book on your nans knee. People are so lazy that they want everyone else to think for them, make decisions o for them, chose for them….im surprised blokes don't want other people to sleep with their wives as its too much hassle to make love….phone Uber to get someone to stuff your Mrs as its too much hassle???….well worse than that you let other people inject pharmakia into your children which is FAR WORSE than paying another bloke to stuff your Mrs….let that sink in. What is Pharmakia, anyway?: The Greek word pharmakeia appears in 'Galatians 5:20' and 'Revelation 18:23'. Terms from the same root word appear in 'Revelation 9:21', 'Revelation 21:8', and 'Revelation 22:15'. These are typically translated into English as "sorcery," "witchcraft," or "sorcerer." Ancient Greek uses of pharmakeia closely mirror the generic modern English word for drugs; the same Greek root word produced English terms such as pharmacy and pharmacist. What does this mean to the public in simple terms that children can understand…? The 2013 'Tripple-Shot MMR "Vaccine" contained: Mercury – Aluminium – Barium - Polysorbate 20 & Polysorbate 80 – Latex Rubber – Pig Blood/Urine/DNA cells – Monkey kidney cells & DNA – Dog Foetal Cells & DNA – Sorbitol – Anti-Freeze – Formaldehyde – Giutendihyde – E-coli cells – Spermicide – GMO Soy. These work together in a totally non-random way to produce the effects that they are looking for – you may wonder what dog urine would be doing in a needle in a baby's arm with pig blood and DNA mixed with formaldehyde…..and you would be well right to question that as it sounds a little-bit-suspicious does it not? – well it is well thought-out and its certainly NOT random or another conspiracy theory. To be honest if someone even says that word to me, "Conspiracy Theory" I know I'm in the wrong room and need to leave as my time is being sapped-out-of-me by a fukin idiot with a child-like, actually no that's incorrect as children are way faster than this type of Grown-up, sapped-out of me by a fool, basically….if we are past November 2022 and anyone says "Conspiracy Theory "then it's a good sign of their ultra-low IQ and imminently-new postcode.

Remember the witches in story-books casting spells with "Eye-of-newt & Leg-of-toad – puppy-dogs-tail…" etc etc etc….well that's true Aswell….that IS Pharmakia / BIG PHARMA…..this IS 'Modern Meds' and it IS the reason for brain damaged children. PERIOD. You Brainwashed NHS can argue the toss all-day-long if it makes you feel safer but the truth is the truth…..you have been duped….ALL OF YOU HAVE BEEN DUPED. SUCK-IT-UP. ITS GUNA GET MUCH WORSE FOR YOU IF YOU ARE STILL THINKING THINGS LIKE 'Some vaccines must be okay???' – 'Trumps a fool' – the Earths a Globe…..listen….sort yourselves out….it's like when you're at a party and there's really cool kids there and you come out the toilet having wet yourself before you went in and wiped shit up your own back by mistake, with a 2' trail of bog-roll hanging out of your trouser waste - Humiliating is a total understatement.

Modern use of the word sorcery evokes images of supernatural power and spells; biblical use of pharmakeia doesn't fit well with such ideas but as we well know, the bible is a Draconian concept of control, control of the good people of that demographic of that religious section of the realm….that's all it is/was. It was YOUR 'patch-code' or system update to ensure you carry on pleasing a non-existent entity which leaves you in the 'Free' choice to chose to do that which was ordained for you by the parasites. that is exactly where you are wanted, whilst you believing in your free choices and even maybe believing that you are indeed a rebel yourself whilst tightly conforming thru dress and interests thoughts feelings and actions etc etc….they control us thru each section of the community, look at LGBT-Clue-less for an idea how this is achieved whilst the

To repeat again as it is important….The Draco et al knew their time was up C.2020 so they engineered all this chaos for now for the vacuum they leave behind, as much chaos as possible….which is why some there's so many people online with so many conflicting versions of EVERYTHING you can think of – Gender / UFO's / 5D ascension – Globe Theory – Astronomy - Monarchy – Politics – Health etc etc etc etc etc yes and that's exactly as they wanted it to confuse the fuck out of YOU. They don't want you ascending properly Jesus Christ they would rather you were tortured to death for as long as possible, of course they are not going to want you to ascend to true-5D….its ridiculous to think otherwise.

The 'Bloodlines' do the dirty work for the parasites behind the curtain and that's how it all works and that's how its always worked – the parasites have their own inter-species-issues and wars and problems, and the power structure of these groups is in constant fluctuation (was in constant fluctuation) – as mentioned they're e all now gone for ever.

There was 2 species of 'Martians' who were both amazingly loving and gentle intelligent species….UTTERLY DESTROYED as the Parasites needed Mars as its right next to 'US'. Mars is now re-terraformed ready for the 'old' family back again and all the humans that will go there to heal - Mars was needed by the parasites as a base to attack us and keep an eye on us from close by. Remember Mars is a disc next to us…..not a spherical object in the sky – STARS in 'Space' are not what we thought. Above EVERY SINGLE ANNUNAKI PYRAMID, is a Star.constelation….just like Robert Beauval worked out with his Orion Constellation mapping on Gizeh based pyramids of Chufu Khafre and Menkaure (Cheops / Chefron and Myceneros) to the corelation theory the Al Natak / Al Nizam and Mintaka – but its not just that …..they found more in Angkor wat and Angkor Tom….but not just that…..ITS ALL PYRAMIDS….. and this is because they are charged-up when the Anunnaki know they may need them for a reset or a war in another realm as don't forget that there are 14,000 other worlds affected by the parasites and the parasitic occupation and therefor there are many many pyramids throughout gateway-10 – now to be repurposed, not destroyed as if they were created in 5D they will remain here after the EMF as Christian said they were made elsewhere and transported here….so 5D objects can exist in a 3D simulation but not vice/versa and the pyramid itself is not a negative structure, it's what it was used for that was negative – There IS ONLY ONE PATH ON THIS EVENT – ONLY ONE CORRECT PATH BACK HERE TO TRUE 5D ASCENSION….it's not a multiple choice scenario…it's not a 'I'll hedge-my-bets and get a copy of the Koran and the King James Bible and a Dead Sea Scroll or two and a Talmud & a copy a the Atrahasis and then iv covered all bases'….no no….that's not going to help – there's only ONE PATH and there's only ONE PERSON with the map of the thought-process's stepping-stones to get there being back home, thru the wardrobe back to Narnia……Narnia's characters and scenery are al real, expect to see that sort of shit daily when you have finished healing, or for the awake.

No one will "go off" anywhere until they have healed as they will perish outside of realm Y557, it wouldn't matter and it may be for the best if they do as they will be born again after source lets them go and be reborn with full past-life memory's intact to carry on as before the parasitic occupation. I honestly don't mind if some vessels die of shock during this….its fair play if you ask me. Cristian is the spiritual one, I pick up snails and slugs and worms so they don't get squished….and Christian cares about the humans……I think they have mostly ALL let themselves down hugely in the most obnoxious and arrogant way, like the sycophantic cast in that Catness Paradine movie 'The Hunger Games' it reminds me of that…it's a 'Hunger-Games' society. These people are those pathetic sycophants without even realising it, that 'above-everyone-else' mentality, can't think for themselves and just follow others opinions being whoever-the-fuck is on TV who sold their soul to get there….see how fucked it is? Was? If you follow Christian21 then there HONESTLY isn't a mistake that you have made in your life…..even if you 'think' otherwise or are told otherwise….don't forget that you will think this because of the projected expectations of others, and manipulations of others to draw you into their reality and judge you based NOT on how they view THEMSELVES, BUT Thru Their Own bias opinion of WHO THEY WISH THEY WERE, not what they actually are, don't forget that these are the type of people who define themselves based on a non-existent version of who they would like to be…. – they are unable to be true to themselves or as good as their word and will blame others or something else, anything else for every opportunity they failed to seize themselves and these people will assess your worth based on this flawed measuring apparatus – don't fall for it!!! – fuck them – sorry but it is what it is – its waaaay too late in the day to be drawn back by idiots (sorry but it needs saying people) it's about to go off LARGE STYLIE left right and centre all over the flat-as-fuck-planet and still people out there are saying silly thigs in public little bit-of-this-&-little-bits-of-that and all sorts of unexplainable hotch-potch ideas on what is, or may be going on right now, all woven out of the pubic-hair of a room-full of idiots whose total lack of knowledge leaves them stuck mid-theory with media / whistleblowers / fake truthers / crypto & gold dealers / religion / perceived intellect etc, holding them in 2 worlds simultaneously, or just in the singular old paradigm. Its fucking painful now. The EU is Gone – NATO is Gone – The CCP is Gone – The UN is Gone – The Stock Market is Gone – The World You Thought You Lived in is Gone, along with the world you thought you were going to live in …..there's much better as your 3D brain which only knows what it has been presented is unable to fathom that which were our true origins - we are at a point in humanity's story that's akin to the cartoon character 'Wyle E. Coyote' in the "The Road Runner" who carries on running for quite a while off the cliff as he runs out of ground, then realises and looks at the camera and plumets thousands of feet to the ground below in the canyon…..that's what's on the way for the jokers who have been laughing, and because 6,011.9yrs ago I apparently got suckered into this by Christian….apparently he said it would be great and itl only take a sec common 'Kai' itl be a right laugh bruv….million%"….."well be back before 5D-Gyro day bruv straight-up" – I said to him the other night on my 2nd surprise visit, after taking his laundry to the laundrette as its 2 miles away and freezing out….he was on a call to Werni who I can assure you is 11 MILLION% REAL and apparently someone said she's fake?….no no, she's well real and she's well beautiful!….he's proper fell on his feet there mush I'm Telling you million %…..I was thinking that when I was watching Christians 'Y-Fronts' do 180's in the pound-a-minute-dryer at the end of Fratton road in the launderette…..he's the 1st couple to reunite and she is real its not made up iv spoken to her many times on zoom and Celecia is dropping info in her head fast tracking her to a wake-up….it's all true I assure you it's not fake and made up to help his fantastic story…lol….PLEASE….FOR ONCE IN YOUR LIVES, DEAR SLEEPERS….PLEASE CONSIDER THAT THE DEPTH AND SOCIAL MAGNETUDE OF CHRISTIANS REVELATIONS, IF YOU HAVE WATCHED MORE THAN 3 X 1H VIDS (CHOSE ANY 3 YOU WANT) HOW IS IT POSSIBLE THAT CHRISTIAN WHO CAN HARDLY READ & WRITE UNTIL A FEW YEARS AGO, AND OBVIOUSLY HAS DONE NO RESEARCH AND YOU DON'T NEED TO WORK FOR SOCIAL SERVICES TO WORK THAT OUT, HOW CAN HE HAVE TOLD EVERYONE A BILLION THINGS THAT NOT ONE SINGLE OTHER PERSON HAS EVER TOILD YOU?????? ABOUT EVRYTHING FROM YOUR ORIGINS TO YOUR DEATH AND WHAT 'ET'S EAT AND WIPE THEIR ARSES ON? HOW CAN HE POSSIBLY BE MAKING ANYTHING UP AT THIS STAGE??? IS THAT NOT REALLY REALLY OBVIOUS??? IF ITS NOT BLATANTLY OBVIOUS THEN YOU HAVENT SEEN AT LEAST 3 VIDS AND ARE BASING YOUR ASSUMPTIONS OFF A HALF-LISTERENED-TO VIDEO AND YOUR OWN SUPPOSITIONS PLANTED

WITH THE SPADE OF SELF-DOUBT AND WATERED WITH CYNICISM. HE HASN'T LIED ABOUT A SINGLE THING OR EXAGERATED ABOUT A SINGLE THING….HE ONLY DISCUSSES WHAT HES SEEN AND EXPERIENCED HIMSELF AND IF HE DOSENT KNOW THEN HE WILL IN A FEW SECONDS TIME – LOOK….GET OVER IT, HES REAL, 'WERNI' IS REAL ASWELL – END OF CONVERSATION THERES NO WAY HE'S FAKING ANYTHING.

Anyway I digressed again……"….I looked to my left in the launderette and saw a little old lady sitting there she was in her 90's by t he look of it….she was also watching Christians pants going round & round in the dryer…..i'm thinking could this be my soul mate maybe?....should I talk to her? or just pull her head back and full-on snog her?. we had a lot in common at that moment…we were both watching another mans pants in the same dryer…that's like quantum entanglement or some physical shit like that…..i didn't pursue this crazy notion although maybe I should have done?

Don't forget that ALL the top 'truthers' are wittingly or unwittingly like 'Dean-G-Code' ha! (GeneDcode) Kerery Cassidy – Nino Rodriguez – David Wilcox (who was himself a Luciferian having been born into it) Corey Goode – Nickolas Veniamin – Michael Jako Unleashing his Intuition Secrets…..you can buy a Mug with Jakos face on it and a T-shirt which will both pixelate when the EMF comes but itl make Jako a few more quid with to buy a new laptop with – Davis Dubleck (?) – Scott Mackay – ALL WHISTLEBLOWERS….ALL LEADING YOU ASTRAY…..AWAY FROM THE ONLY PATH TO TRUE 5d. STOP WATCHING THAT SHIT ITS ALL FAKE-AND IT WILL PULL OU OFF TRACK WITH "what if there is a QFS? – what if the sun is a ball of gas? – what if the moon is still there?....come on people wake the fuk up If you are reading this now, then you are supposed to be reading this now – YOUR 'Guide'/s AKA Spirit Guides / Ascended Masters etc etc etc are just your soul family…..nothing else….listen to them and try make contact with them, they have never left you thru all this time they have been ever present loop-after-loop, they are there when you are eating, sleeping, dreaming....always there watching over you putting thoughts and ideas in your head to help you as it's the only interaction that they can actually have with you, same for the demons as there are laws that must be observed, so thought-planting is the best they can do without getting killed and triggering another re-set

Mostly they sit there with their head in their hands in utter-dismay at what you are up to....while your balls-deep in some Tranny called 'Nong' in Thailand and think its just you two having quality time together....well think again....your whole soul fam are sitting there watching you. Just as you sat down at the Bar and met 'Nong', your guides were like "Naaa bruv that's a geazer.....naaaaaa.....BRUV THATS A GEAZER honestly it just looks like a bird.....he isn't your Soul-Mate, he could well be your Cell-Mate in a cpl hours tho if you go buy anymore meth together & get nicked on the way back....please don't propose to him.....please go home to bed...please.....?." - But because our spiritual apparatus, our pineal glands are calcified, we can't hear them SCREAMING..... "NOOOOOOOOOOO!!!.." just 3" away from your face at the top of their voices..... just as your about to..... half-convinced that it is actually a bird. Il be honest with you, I'd rather be doing that than sitting in a fkn cave for my whole life meditating to hit Rainbow-Light-Body at time of death, only be reborn immediately straight into a housing estate in Peckham, south London – il be like naaaaaa chuck me the trannys and lets crack-on & get this loop over & done with ASAP – after all....i volunteered for this apparently & I'd rather deal with the shame of bare-backing Derek from Thailand than I would waste a whole life in a fkn cave waiting for the impossible to happen, only to be utterly disappointed immediately after my long awaited 'death'.....not even I can put a silver-lining on the 'cave' option...? I'd Rather spend a loop with Derek from Thailand, at least Derek will get a silver-lining, that's about it though. After, il explain to my TwinFlame "Listen love....it's not how it looks.....I was trying to help Derek's soul get back home...Dereks different babe, she's one of us...." ...."Don't be like that darling..[as frying pans are on their way to my head across the dwelling narrowly missing The R2D2 maid cleaning the Holographic cat fur off the see-thru couch...."it wasn't easy to tell Dereks Gender in that dark Bar babe.....'sometimes good people have to do bad things to save their specie's.....you know how it is babe, Dereks a lovely Lady I was merely a victim of my circumstances.....its these bloody chemtrails darlin & you know how I get when I inhale Barium and Aluminium nano-particles, so let's just leave it at that now, can we please?.....how is your mum these days, she okay?"..... if she don't drop it il just tell her that "Clearly there is something wrong with your Telepathy sweetheart...it's obviously because you haven't been using it for 6,013 years, you must have forgot how to do it.....well talk about this another time okay?...." "I gave Derek an 'Amazing Moment', a 'Silver Lining' and a 'Happy-Ending' – At least I tried if she still doesn't leave it.... she will 'Earth-Bound' for 2 years healing anyway cos the silly cow fukt-up, probably wrote a book about it or something....il just open Dereks portal.... "Smart Choices" - as Christian says.....il be like 'Dell-Boy!!! So pleased to see you again bruv!....has your new body got real tits this loop Derek? How's your mum doing these days?" obviously il say it all telepathically....wouldn't want anyone to hear that conversation would you! Be well embarrassing. Maybe Derek will have been put back in a woman this time as maybe Derek was a wrong-vessel-soul?.....one can merely postulate Dereks 5th Density Gender – well see how my soulmate reacts 1st that will dictate how quickly I open-up Dereks Portal.

Peace-Out people and BIG LOVE – lets Fuck-Off home can we now please???? Iv not even got 2 weeks of shatter left now.....so we really do need to get this rolling-on, fun as it has been. xxx

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Telepathy in the 3rd Density is basic and limited, made worse by the chem-trailing – the Chemtrail program 'had' many purposes. One of those purposes was to keep a constant spread of fine particles between us and the Sun – this was to make the sun's rays harm us, burn us and give us skin cancer, it's also great for spawning a multi-billion $ sun-cream phenomena and superb to worry-the-fuk out of parents who cover their children in carcinogenic creams and lotions petrified of them getting melanoma's and such, when it's not the sun causing it – the suns rays are changed as they pass thru the clouds of invisible nano-particles between us and the sun – these nano particles heat the suns rays as they are filtered thru it….Brown Colour skin did not evolve for a solar reason in this realm, maybe other realms but not here – The Caribbean people come from the constellation 'Carabea' and brought their genetics here with them….sorry I well I digressed, I guess your used to that now(!) – Telepathy in 3D is basic – the calcification of the Pineal Gland guarantees not much telepathy will be available to most and the vaccine program ensured that the majority of births post 1980 would guarantee only a handful of kids may slip thru the net. So knowing this….just think for a minute…Christians got 'help' and a constant clear link to his team, to Kalo in particular who is there 24/7/365….to be able to have Kalo there constantly Christian has a clean pineal gland thanks to 'Apple Cider Vinegar' with 'Mother' (NOT Celecia, but the 'mother' in the apple extract, 'Mother' in this context is the natural goodness in the apple to make the apple cider vinegar, usually the 'mother' would be removed)..so unless 'Foxes' Biscuits are able to decalcify pineal glands….think about Christmas and Halloween etc etc….when thousands of children are tortured every minute all over the world….Christian has to hear that clear-as-a-bell in his head….all his fukin life……that's how he knows the torture has stopped because the screaming stopped in 2019 and hasn't returned – that means if Christian could hear the screams of the dying children, then so can our soul fam up there…….thy can probably tune-out, but they have had to endure that as well for 6,013 years….listening to their families get tortured over and over and over….and iv got dumb arses posting 'sweets for fat people' on my fukin page and I can't remove it, and everyone I know all-barr-a-handful…well no actually not even a handful, are all in comas…they can see the coffee machine in the corner, with one-eye open, but they haven't smelt it yet. It's the most FRUSTRATING thing EVER.

They really have 'executed' the most EVIL plan ever created….they actually 'ticked-off' every point on the 'Rothschild Secret Covenant'……and the two most hated men in our realm were spear-heading our salvation….Trump & Putin. I know Russians and Americans who hate the pair of them…only because they had their eyes burnt-out with incandescent-lies and just can't see it. The truth is THEY WERE ALL BAD…Trump, Putin, Kim Jong Un…ALL OF THEM WERE BAD….NOT 'some' OF THEM…..ALL OF THEM – After 22 November 1963 when JFK was removed from the public eye, he was the LAST PERSON WHO GAVE A FUCK about his fellow humans…..let that sink-in.

People are asking good questions now more and more….with very real & valid concerns - you have 'my' questions! like what happens to people in a plane, car, train, boat etc etc during the EMF?? ….well it doesn't matter because the EMF will hit the entire planet at the same moment and during the 30 seconds while your body's being repaired, the entire 3D simulation environment is going to be replaced - this means that for instance the plain you were just sitting in will disappear before it even had a chance to crash….the car will cease to exist before it comes off the road….don't forget at that moment you will be in 'Light-Body' and therefore not in any danger whatsoever – "Because we were enslaved….why not just free us?"…. if the positives just came and freed us, it would be a fukin disaster like all the other times they tried 1561 in Nuremburg Germany as one example – The Draco have 'Sky-Net' and highly advanced detection equipment (had, sorry) and they also had 77% of 178 worlds, or 14,000 civilizations under 'The Great Dome'-dome area…..they had massive fleets patrolling this gateway and anything near it….they could also wipe-out any one of a number of other realms with a weapon from the air and destroy entire species if they felt threatened….its way way too risky to roll-in and start fighting….The' Morris Butler Plan' was always to gather information for a few thousand years and infiltrate slowly isolating exit points before resets and getting people who 'believed' as back then many didn't believe this also and no doubt different areas of Great Tartary were slowly told different things about 'reality' and the icewalls were forgotten about as myth, even back then.

The Giants having the best technology as they are highly trusted by Source , have awesome portal opening technology….the animated film World of Warcraft?? Is it? Ogres and stuff with the evil ones opening portals to let the darkness in…..that's all real as well…..even the characters are based on real beings – the scenery and animals that inhabit it are also real – the way of life differs and there is no killing and the technology is beyond your wildest imagination…..but its all real. ALL films in the fantasy scifi space, are all based on real tech and real places and real people…..THEY HAVE TO SHOW US WHAT THEY ARE DOING AND WHAT REALITY ACTUALLY IS LIKE, EVEN IF T IS PAINTED IN A SCIFI FILM….ITS STILL GIVING US 'INFORMED CONSCENT' IN THE TWISTED-EYES OF THE PARASITES. EHY CAN THE BENEVOLANTS NOT JUST COME AND FREE US? they did just come and free us…..that's just it….they came en mass and destroyed the Draco and all the parasites, even kicked them off their own realms…annihilated them totally…all of them are gone now - The only place you will see a Real Alpha-Draco Prime anywhere Gateway-10…is in a Taxidermist shop next to the Gator-Skin Wellies….a stuffed Omicron Draco, in the window with glass eyes.

"Surely our lights have dimmed during this process?"

Our lights have dimmed that's a fact, but so has EVERY light in the universe because of what happened here. We are NOT SELF SUFICIENT in anyway shape or form - they were originally going to do this differently about 2,000yrs ago at the last resets start they were going to have a fuk-off battle kick the parasites arses and rewind the simulation to the day before the Draco came, and mindwipe everyone at the same time and just pretend that nothing happened - but that could not be done because when this started we were only a few thousand people….maybe a few hundred thousand….but over the years the Draco brought souls in from everywhere all over the universe to incarnate in their lunch Parlor here on earth (H.E.A.R.T of the Gateway = E.A.R.T.H), so to expect billions of souls who now interbred with every other species non-genetically you have 300+ species all now in human form and a separate human family.....this has never happened on this scale before....its unheard-of, to extrapolate all that out into the universe would be utter chaos if reset and mindwiped to the day before they came....there would be strings of residual memory and connections because of the amount of new souls that were not here when they 1st came – how to put billions of souls all back in the original bodys after they all had about 600 lives! - so they chose this method.....Shock & Awe.

"If we have been used and abuse so long then why make us earn our freedom?"

we have been abused and we shouldn't need to be treated like this, but if we dont get treated like this, then because of the abuse we went thru and because of the dimming of our lights, we are in NO POSITION to have a cake-walk with this ascension...no no no. BECAUSE....'Dave' who cant be fucked to even help a stranger in Dia-trouble as "why should I? no one ever helped me"....needs to understand & 'KNOW' what happened and why.....put Dave back home in 5D....wouldn't last a milli-second - now that's not Daves own fault per-se, but its Dave's conundrum, Dave must work out why when he picks up the phone to call Uber for food as its grazing-time for the cattle that theres no one there.....Dave can't cook unless it's in a packet & he's lost the ability to communicate with others in the last 20years thru vaccines and a lack of basic understanding about food and health, once again following the easily-led 'Herd' on important matters of health and children's welfare....Dave may even think he is at the top of his tree in life and his own hard efforts have got him where he is...cheating on the wife, no time for the kids, drinks too much and gambles....cos he deserves to be able to unwind after a week at work, he's got an identical tattoo to that what 'David Beckham'

Dave is fucked when this EBS comes and THATS HOW IT NEEDS TO BE because this info that we call 'New Information'....all it is, is the actual truth....but it's been made on purpose to seem like utter fiction - thing is that people are now waking up faster and faster and faster....people don't mind waking-up when they find out that there are no losers in this even the vaccinated who thought they were guna kark-it so were happy to stay asleep...we even have those 'ears' now as people are well pleased when they realise that they were worrying for nothing as they only found out 3 weeks ago about Graphene oxide and the spike protean etc - there IS A HUGE LIGHT AT THE END OF THEIR TUNNELS now and what this means is that these people will take less time to heal on Y557 and therefore make it back here faster where they are required....we are all actually required to be here (ARB201 = HEART = Earth) and they are "Late for work" -....just NOT DUE to unforeseen circumstances as they were told a billion fukin times already. Their 'lesson' so that this NEVER EVER EVER EVER HAPPENS AGAIN....i say 'their' lesson, as its not mine....listen i couldn't be bought after the age of about 21-ish i had strong morals even then and I learnt all that shit young, I was lucky - I was also a thoughtful child - I was the minority back then and still now - I knew other kids didn't think what I thought about much and I didn't care as I knew it wasn't me doing the 'not thinking' - that's how I got on Religion at age 4½ - so its them that needs to learn lessons....not us awake we are all the same type of person help anyone for free, save animals and just generally do the right thing at every opportunity, even when not under observation, because we 'want' to. If this is you, your probably a star seed / indigo as well 😊

we agreed to come here and make it beautiful, not sit on the edge of the bed crying about a pocket-full-of-pixels - you know what I mean. This is so more serious than anyone understands....we only just found out we are 'not alone' for fuk sake but there's billions of other species that depend on us for their existence and way of life - this is bigger than the worries of the ill-informed....it just doesn't look like that yet from our viewpoint which is like wearing glasses that got covered in mud, if your vision is already quite poor, you may not notice the mud – but they soon will…..that's why we have to earn our freedom….they have literally wiped our arses clean so there's no shit running down our collective legs as we walk thru the 5th Density gate home…..if people were a little bit awake then they would be enjoying this like we are….. cool tips for a clean ascension.

All those times you forgot your phone or wallet and had to go back to get it, or took a left and was meant to go right at the junction – split up with the wrong person or thought you had fucked-up…..You haven't at all…..'3D' seems that you fucked-up, lost the job, crashed he car or spilt the milk, but everything you have done in your life, was done in a fake-3D simulation….it has no worth and you can't take-away the fruits of your labour, being 'cut' gold and glass diamonds with you anyway.

You knew more 'on-the-out' than you ever learnt in here…..and soon this will all seem like a really bad dream. Every shit thing that happens to you, look straight away for the silver lining…there is one there I assure you, no matter what it is, it has a silver lining, probably several or 'lots' , keep focused on the silver lining and don't look at the other stuff in the background, like walking a tightrope, you don't watch the ground, you focus on the other side and your balance interacts with the rope – do that for 5 or 6 shit-things in a row and you have worked that 'muscle' and it will kick in automatically – you will find that you are looking forward to shit things happening next, to see how you handle it…..be careful tho cos I got into that & it was like 45 years of me looking forward to disasters that I so got to test my disaster-compatibility algorithms again to see how I was doing - I'm immune to any kind of depression or low feelings which is awesome as you can imagine, but its fukt-up cos I was a disaster magnet for many yeas and I didn't know why until recently …..I told you guys I'm not the sharpest knife in the box, but it depends on what other tools are in the box…?…it's okay being a blunt knife….if the only other tools in the box are a set of 'Allen Keys', then your laughing. I got the nick-name in Spain of "Final Destination" as I had several ridiculous things happen where death was a fact yet I was totally unscathed….it gets really expensive when you keep blowing yourself up in different locations around the world & coming off really high cliffs with nothing to hang onto except hind-sight.

Everyone wana think themselves lucky in this…frustrating as it is - Christian had to know all this when he was 9yrs old…..he had to see this thru the eyes of a 3D child…..not a soon-to-be-9th Density adult – imagine taking your 9yr old son to watch at a sacrifice…..every few days for many many years…..after you have seen your 27th 4yr old have its skin peeled off with no aesthetic and tortured having their pineal gland ripped out with a crow bar……it must surely get tiresome. People wana be grateful that Christian can't hear that screaming anymore…….im grateful for my high-pitch tinnitus…..id turn it up if I could so I don't have to listen to idiots anymore.

When people think there is a haunting or a dead relative near, maybe things might happen that are unexplainable and sometimes people smell a strong scent, like cigars or flowers – this is because Grey's smell like excrement, literally as they excrete their waste thru the skin in a tank, weekly, suspend in a mist-like gas that draws the shit out thru their skin pores – that's why you smell Cigars for instance when a Grey is with you / near you as they are 'physically' there, you just can't see them as they are invisible, and I do not assume they are in 'light-body' per se because if you were in light-body…..how are you going to smell? If you were in light-body and you farted…..your external soul that's now 'out' of body…..I don't see how you would smell a Grey ET in light-body form? Il ask Christian one day – so the greys must be invisible in a different way? One assumes? BUT, they do travel about in 'Orbs' and its these 'orbs' that are spotted on DLR camera and by some peoples eyes – these orbs in haunted houses were not Dead people, they were ALL Grey ETS's.

You will not see an invisible-Grey unless you have a DLR or later camera, their smell is physically overpowering and disgusting to ones olfactory senses so they make you smell whatever it is they want….it may be your deceased nans favourite perfume – they will replicate that aroma.

LOVE 'True Love' does not exist in 3rd Density. you may feel that's wrong, but you haven't done the 'Pepsi Challenge' with it yet….after ascension you will remember what Real Love is and so will everyone else – I know what love is….but how can I know what Real 5D Love is as I don't remember a single thing about it….not a 'bolt' about it. I would die for my son without a second thought, and until my son was conceived, id have died for your daughter as well. In 1977 I was 4, I never ever told anyone this before in my entire life, but its relevant now, so I will: I was just off-to-bed after watching 'Tom & Jerry' cartoons (my fave back then) that came on b4 the 6 O'Clock News on BBC1 – I caught 5 minutes of news before sleepy-sleepy-nite-nite's, and it was a story of 14yr old boy who had died falling down a concrete stair-well – the important bit for me was that his girlfriend had a heart issue and was dying in hospital waiting for a donor, and the dead boy had previously told her that he would die for her if he could…..and he did, accidentally. But that did shit to my head as a 4yr old, that story was one of my shaping moments growing-up and I thought I'd really like to die for someone, back then for me it was a girl at school called Donna Brewer, I'd have Sautéed my own liver for Donna Brewer in 1977 – I'm not sure if many kids think like that, as I'm not 'many kids', but I wasn't suicidal or anything… I was really happy as a kid….same as now, but I liked the idea of doing that and I had no idea why? I used to question myself over the years back that news clip, and after I was in my teens, I was totally unaware why….because that's how I am – I'd rather give than receive and I feel empathy / sympathy probably too much for here, as its always fucking-me time after time – my mum used to tell me I'm too soft on people years ago, and my reply was "Why should I have to turn into a Cunt to fit in with everyone else? It's for others to stop being Cunts, I don't need to change, they do". So I have been right, seldomly in the past about 'some' things, which is comforting at least I'm pleased I'm like I am though and so glad I didn't change, I don't think I could change if I wanted to?

TWIN FLAMES: The interaction between two twin Flames is the 'Turbo-Charge' that Source added to the creation starting in 5th Density (another reason why there's no other 3D realms and very few 4D realms either) is the energy generated between 2 twin flames which is extraordinary, building up over sometimes days, the friction between the energetic fields of a couple in a 5th Density simulation is nothing whatsoever like anything you will have felt in 3D these feeling are not available in 3D….this energetic field is built up via sensual love-making separated by resting and music, bathing and cleansing, then back to bed to carry on building the energetic field so-to-speak….after a few days the climax is like a Positive 'Hiroshima' and this is the energy that fuels the Ethers of all worlds turbo-Charging them – it is this love that generates the simulation parameters of your world….colour, sound, scent, taste, variety, diversity of flora and fauna, it creates an extension of possibilities that are available to you and also symbiotically enhances your experience of that simulation. Just as Morton William Cooper (Bill Cooper) said in the 90's*…"You are all naked standing in the middle of a battlefield in flip-flops, and you don't even know that there's a War going on"*……The only member of the public who wasn't privy to insider Naval/Military intelligence who knew what was going on, was our Man C21 – some silenced celebs knew some parts and some masons knew other parts and some elite knew even more than the rest…..BUT NOT ONE OF THEM KNEW ANYWHERE NEAR AS MUCH AS CHRISTIAN….HE HAS THE ENTIRE ORIGONAL MANUSCRIPT….THE REST HAVE ONLY GOT A TORN CORNER OF A PHOTOCOPY OF A PHOTOCOPY OF THE ORIGONAL DOCUMENT…….The idea with Christian (that he signed-up for) was to keep him on-ice for 46.5 years and POP! Drop him out the sky in the last 18 months of it to scoop-up as many little blue lights as possible by letting them know his info so that they can start rendering the necessary mental images and understanding the storylines of the only TRUE narrative…..the REAL Narrative that sounds like scifi, & quickly weave-themselves a new paradigm with this missing truth, before the Flash. It worked!…….job done! The ones who could possibly ascend will ascend and the sheep get a free ticket to not dying anymore & Eternal Life with their soulmate– not bad for being a 'asleep' whilst laughing at the people trying to save your sorry arse, calling them names & ostracizing them. Everyone's guides (soul-fam = 'spirit guides' & 'ascended masters' (unless they are imaginary in the deluded, as I know people who are so keen to believe that they make shit-up in their own heads to convince themselves, when all they are doing is clutching at straws to bolster their belief/opinion/feelings – some people assume that they are in contact with ET's, or some call it 'The Collective' – this is just delusion and they are assuming that their thoughts are actually messages from ET's….its child-like delusion)

The 'lay of the land' from above….the 'Battlefield' if you wish, from a 20,oooft view – we have countries more developed than others and languages that separate us less and less but are still I problem in lots of rural areas where a dialect of that country is the only known language to the people of that village/town. No point dropping Christian in a small village in rural Cambodia on this loop if he's got something important to say – he needs to be in an English speaking country to hit the widest spectrum of souls….its not just Christian, YOUR soul-fam have been doing this with you lot as well….don't forget the technology our soul fam have is beyond your wildest imagination, it's easy for them to track Werni for 22 years, like going to see your GP, he brings up your notes on an ipad

these days….Celecia's iPad has more Eyes and it can see everything really clearly – If you are reading this right now, it's because your soul fam have carefully placed you in a set of consecutive lifetimes & circumstances with the end-game being your attention here and now in this END moment of the Great Awakening process because they NEED YOU BACK HERE even if you're not sure right now if 'Back Here' is even going to be a 'thing' – they need you Heald as much as you yourself do – that's why you haven't made a single mistake in the last 6,013 years…if you made a mistake in previous lives it matters not anyway as we were not 'ourselves' & we are excused – so the fact that we are doing this collectively and paying attention, means that your soul fam are OVER-THE-SPACE-STATION-WE-CALLED-A-MOON with joy at knowing your digesting this it means that their efforts were not wasted and their tears were not shed in vein. The mistakes you thought you made this life, like losing the ideal partner for instance, or job etc was likely for a reason that would prevent you from being awake right now, say if you could have been swept-along with this partners ideology and missed the opportunity to 'stumble' across Christian21's Revelations….what if your new dream job meant that you wouldn't have time in 2022-23 to sit and listen to the videos even if you had heard about C21…? You see how it goes? – turning left and making a stupid mistake that you wouldn't normally make, is in all likeliness your soul-fam deciding for you …. 'Opps….if Kevin goes left here, at his current velocity he will hit that old lady who shouldn't even be driving as she's reversing up the exit off a motorway, we better turn Kevin Right and by the time he does a 3-pointer that old Doris will be out the way when Kev gets back to that part of the trip…' This is going on all the time ALL THE TIME but you think its just you forgot or having 'blonde' moment – Same as a demon, they can plant the same seeds…..you have the Devil sitting on one shoulder and your soul fam on the other shoulder.

YOUR AWAKE status is like a beacon of hope to your soul-fam – they are sitting up there nervous as fuck, little piles of Blue-finger-nail clippings all over the carpet on Celecias Mothership……Packets of 5th Density Ibuprofen & Diazepam all over-the-place – Theres an empty pallet of 'Fidget-Spinners' in Loading bay 9, and only 5 boxes of stress-balls left, and the floor in Kalo's room is littered with empty JD bottles, he'd been hiding them behind the Replicator since September 2022 ….poor Kalos worn out the dining room floor-boards pacing up and down for 6,013yrs and he's started smoking Marlborough Red's as well the poor sod – so it hasn't been an 'amazing time' for our soul-fam either.

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Dinosaurs as we know were mostly made-up, but what about cavemen? What was a 'Neanderthal' or a 'Cro-Magnon' 'man', exactly? All our "Cavemen" and women were created after the flood that was used to wipe us out, the same flood whose waters were frozen creating the icewalls and then the centre thawed, as mentioned in previous synopsis. They needed to down-size us and reduce our brain capacity, height, & intellect - before repopulating the planet with their "new" version of 'Human' they needed to make sure that our telepathy was disconnected, but then how would we communicate without our telepathy? At home in 5th Density we only use telepathy….Christian only ever uses language with Mother and Kalo, normally here in 3D. At home telepathy is much faster and easier to converse with – as mentioned previously we can 'tune-in' to any other species to converse with them making spoken language, not obsolete, but tiresome and unnecessary – so after the flood during the period that they back-engineered us, they went thru developmental stages that we know of as the Palaeolithic period. Cave men were the point in our development where they had worked out how to reduce everything about us, but we needed to communicate with each other now, without telepathy, so what we call the palaeolithic period was just the era of our speech and vocal cord development and linking it all-up to the brain in a 3rd Density being, lets not forget that 3D doesn't and hasn't existed before for billions of years, so there was a time of trial & error - and because they made us a little-bit-too-stupid on the 1st few attempts, they needed to make us less retarded to be able to form social networks and build shelter first then onto city's– the trial period of working out how we will communicate with each other to form bonds, technological development and industry, an industry carefully thought-out and time-'delivered' to us resplendent with its own 'back-story', in exchange for children – the requirement would gradually increase over the century's as our civilisations grew – to start with we were thousands….now we are billions…..they would have come along at the start and been like: "hey 'Cavey'……bit cold in there bruv init?……my names God by-the-way & I made you because I'm very nice – I'm partial to children I need to let you know, so, here's some fire and il show you how to reproduce it……you can heat-up that cold damp cave with it…..BUT….it's going to cost 200 children a month….BUT you can cook on it as well, so il throw cooking in for free and teach you how to kill your own children in the fire to bring rain for next season as well, but don't tell the other tribespeople….. but we need you to do that for the demons who help us and they eat 'loosh' so that's why, that's between you and me tho"….that's 300 kids a month…..if you want a bow-&- arrows then that's 800 kids a month….and if you wat our help in battles with other tribes, which we guarantee will happen as that's what we do, then its 100,000 children per war, don't worry we supply our own men who look like you so no one will know….and I need the 1st born of every family to take away with me today, and here's a free pen to sign our soul away with…".

Something like that…after they perfected 'Homo Erectus' from the previous 8 or 9 failures, they were on their way to global domination with the most fucked-up-twisted-disgusting-perverted version of 'life' you could ever conceive. A 6,000+yr plan to slowly build multiple civilizations and reset them each time changing the version of human – strangely, it has been noted by several narrators that Tartarian dwellings/castles / huge sprawling manor-houses….all had no toilets and the chimneys we not blackened with fire. How strange that the architecture of these building we could not afford to replicate today due to the cost of materials and labour, plus the ostentatious style….what…… and they never thought to make something to shit-in in the winter?...they are curiously omitted from these buildings dating back a thousand years+……..they never had to curl-one-out as often as we do, that's why, they ate less – like Christian says, in 5th Density we don't hardly eat at all, once a month if you feel the need, but we live on sunlight and water, just like plants, so hardly a shock to think that the Tartars, who were a lot taller than us, didn't eat that much, is it? Visit 'Mind Unveiled' on youtube – it's an awesome breakdown on Tartaria.

The rise-&-fall of civilizations that our archaeologists, palaeontologists, astrologists and astronomers, Mathematical Historians, Art Historians, Chemists, Alchemists, Geologists, Geographers, Arche- astronomers, Historians and historical Archives, Library's & learning centres.....Plus the sciences, 'disciplines' and theories that are used to uncover them, are looking for a pot of gold at the end of a constantly and consistently moving Rainbow made of lies.....to filter reality so that we never realize what's gone on here before the next re-set.

That's all 'History' or 'His-Story' is for – it's not there to give us an accurate chronology of our past, no no, His-Story is there specifically to make sure that we never discover the truth and it works really well as by the time we reach 100yrs all we knew for certain....was nothing whatsoever. So how can we ever become a threat being mind-wiped? We were only ever required to build with our own sweat-equity, the infrastructure of our own demise whilst populating that fiction with the realm's biggest asset.....our children. We are led to believe that the children are being protected at all costs....yes they are being protected at all costs.....by the child-killing paedophiles who abducted them - because if anyone finds out what they are up to, we will collectively rip their heads off. Well, the head-ripping already happened. 4yrs ago. It may not look like this at the moment, but it is 1 million % true.

During a re-set, negative beings are invited here to help with the slaughter – it's the biggest Festival in the Malevolent Callander, a re-set at Gateway-10 – don't forget they love a re-set – they HATE us, they do not merely dislike us, if they had the option they would rather we didn't die and that they could torture us without killing us, indefinitely for eternity in constant agony– but luckily for us Source Creation built in a switch that if we are in terrible terrible pain, then we will have a heart attack and die, relieving us from that pain. The parasites up-graded our pain threshold also as they didn't want us to die too quickly – the vessel you are in now has a good pain tolerance because during the upgrades/downgrades made to us after resets they change many aspects of us, they modified our pain threshold so we can take a beating and live in the cold longer, its better for them if our suffering is intensified – this time we were going to have a high sugar diet and a very unhealthy menu because they knew that they would be inventing 'Big Pharma' & petrol and now with the advent of these new 'tools' they can introduce things like cancer and diseases - Tartaria, for instance, used Free Energy, to some extent - we were not to have that this time. But we were to have a series of great wars which would ensure the need for a 'Baby-Boom' or two before the next re-set……which was due in 2021 known as 'Agender21' (changed to Agender 2030) disguised as a good idea for the planet to save the planet and put the planet 1st….when in reality all it was doing was giving a piece of rock the size of your little fingernail, more rights than the man or woman holding it. Literally – the vaccinated now fall into the homoborgensis category or 'trans-Human 2.0' melding man-with-machine which the vaccine nano-tech was for amongst several other things, that's why peoples arms now have a mac address if they got the real "Vaccine" The people who this would have worked on were going to be few and far between, worked for as in 'for them' – the parasites – they do this all the time…Thalidomide - 'Downs Syndrome' – Birth deformity's – Dwarfism – etc etc are ALL testing and research. Like we test on animals for research…"if only we could make that lion smaller / faster / less savage or more savage….think Jurassic park with the designer dinosaurs. They have been cloning people for 80+ years so 'Dolly' the sheep was just a joke to let you know 'in plain sight' that they are using cloning:

The progression of technology, lifestyles and products on the Martian surface are in sync with Earths progress – the only difference is the technology created on Mars by the sell-out scientists is hugely advanced because it was all created by the top human intelligence, yet it does not filter back to earth for many many years....thats why this image of a genetically modified Sheep was taken at least 40 years before we ever heard of a successful clone of anything.

– the other way they show us in plain sight is in sci-fi films and series as we all know (most of us, anyway) you can see why Christian says that he's "seen people's faces and its not good" referring to during/after the EBS with the revelations it will bring. People who 'know' what life's about, are about to have the worst shock you could possibly imagine – speechless will 'not touch the sides' on this shock – catatonic with overwhelming iridescent and incandescent shock…….Paraplegic with-shock / incapacitated with shock, are better descriptions – buckle-up as it's only a short time away – The problem for them will be that ALL THIS INFORMATION is going to come-down on them in FAST succession and they won't be able to process it fast enough – like trying to fit the water in the 'Hoover Dam', down a garden hose…….its Guna split the hose for sure. 9.9 billion people with a split hose and 12 people to help patch it up after……hey….lucky we have some help….that was incorrect….lucky we had quite a few other species saving our arses in its entirety. – this was going to be the 7th and LAST RESET. PLEASE LET THIS SINK-IN. – THE LAST RESET. They didn't need us anymore as they were only here for the children, so after milking us dry and using us, ourselves incarnated as a food and adrenochrome source for 6,000yrs to dig out gold for the and form the fiat currency system implemented by the Knights Templar they took over the world making us owe a 3rd party (themselves) for any of our own money we asked to 'Borrow' despising us literally hating us with an incandescent rage – see "The Georgia Guidestones" & "The Rothschild secret covenant" in Appendix.i.

They had completed each step on the Rothschild Secret Covenant, it is WELL WORTHY OF NOTE. see Appendix.i.

There have been 6 previous resets – a reset is every thousand or so years depending on if anyone has leaked information from what may lay beyond the ice wall, as this info with the 100th monkey effect could easily end their reign in a few thousand years - then the reset would be sooner as explained in past synopsis. This reset was the last as they only needed 500 million of us here for slaves and facilitation of their world. Those of us left after the vaccine had wiped out BILLIONS, would be in FEMA camps for torturing and harvesting – the resets are a festival of the most appalling human suffering imaginable – families are hunted down by Draco and custodians in natural form as there is no need for them to shapeshift to hide from us and they would much rather us be in sheer terror at running from a 14′ tall reptile with a meat-cleaver chasing us at 33mph, which is what the children endure when they are given a 2 hour head-start at a "Royal Hunt" which is always done on a large estate out of the way with a no-fly zone above – the Draco (royals and 'elites') then shapeshift into Draco form, and hunt. AT a reset there is also no need to shapeshift into human form as terrorizing us is the whole point of it – so they run free about the planet raping torturing and killing – they get most excited when there are almost none of us left, its way more thrilling to them to hunt down the last few hard-to-find children and women, terrified out of their minds, cold, hungry and on the run from a 14′ tall powerfully built "Alien" crocodile that is hunting them to eat after torturing. Not much could be worse.

At a sacrifice when a soul is sold, a child is used to open the portal where the Demon will come thru, directly from the Demon-dumping-ground – facilitated by 'Lamb' who was the Grey that Alister Crowley was tutored by, and Anton Le vey, after him. Before them, the same Grey called 'Lamb' would have taught the rest of the prominent 'magicians 'of the day, their dark art – Lamb was 'Head -Grey in charge of the Demonic 'lessons'. Lamb is based at the Demon Dumping ground during the demonic transference between the dumping ground and the victim in our realm and was taught this craft by the demons themselves – Lamb only has to teach one person in each country and that 1 person will go off and teach the rest who will go on to school the others in that era & pass-down the techniques.

The proliferation of this knowledge filters down in a diluted fashion through the age to the 'modern' era as mere remnants of a lost art, which is not lost at all….they would want kids using Ouija boards without knowing anything other than hearsay…that's ideal for them as these dumb kids can accidentally get in a lot of trouble and invite a demon into them from this naive interaction with the unknown. demons mimic and 30 years ago my friend Katharine related a story to me where she fell in love with a 'spirit' by using a Ouija board, strange as that may seem, the demon convinced Katharine over several months to take 200 paracetamol and join him in the afterlife…..she did, she ate 200 paracetamol to be with this 'spirit' in eternal happiness. Now I think of this story I can see what happened to her, but at the time I was clueless. 200 paracetamol is a ridiculously high amount and more than 12 paracetamol can give you irreversible liver damage, so it's a miracle she is now in her 40's with an 8yr old son.

The sacrificed child is used to open the portal at the ceremony where the soul-selling will take place. The Loosh created will feed the demon, who enters the room thru a small opening, a portal created by Lamb, above/near the altar with the soul-selling-sell-out laying on it. The portal opens and Lambs fathead is seen in the opening – a demon comes in thru the portal and as it passes into the 3rd density thru the portal it takes on the appearance of black 'dust' as it enters the victim. There is a period of a few weeks where the demon is learning to mimic the victim, and a clone of the victim is set out in the public with a 'Handler' who could be publicly the celebs husband/partner/father etc etc as with Gretta Turnburgs father (Gretta Turnberg is a Male Rothschild, its not a young girl, it's a young boy) when in reality they are just the handler making sure the clone doesn't malfunction, stays on cue. An idea of how 'menial' a demons powers can be used: World Snooker Champion Ronnie O'Sullivan is a good case…….demons use magnetic forces to make sure that the snooker ball goes exactly where it is desired……people may say that snooker balls are not metallic and therefore can't be moved in this way, but I have used the word 'magnetic' to create the image in the readers mind – the forces used are frequencies and magnetic-like forces.

The 'star' closest to the moon (to the right) is the device that generates the hologram over the 'Death-Star-Looking-moon. The moon as said previously was destroyed a few years back and the hologram is now projected onto an 'empty' space where the moon once was. Its why moonlight is colder than moon shadow, if the suns light was reflecting off a solid moon....moonlight would be warmer than moon shadow....but it's the other way round proving that moonlight isn't a reflection of sunlight – there are many other ways to work this out but that's the quickest, you can do it yourself at home.

The Death Star appearance of the moon, in the previous synopsis was accurate, except the Death Star on Star Wars was much better looking....our moon, behind the hologram, was potted and rough....very 'un-moon-looking' with a death-Star type entrance at the sides/top. The 'indent' on the Death Star in Star Wars (Dish-looking feature), was also actually a real feature on the moon, this was the 'harvesting'-type apparatus used to collect the loosh generated at sacrifice/torture / general morose of populations and the angst of war and suffering – the storage 'Banks' in the 'circuit-board-city's' relay this loosh from the planet's surface to the moon via the Northern Rock / Mt Meru. The aurora borealis was when the 'valve' was opened at the centre pole (Mt Meru) and the loosh is syphoned-off by the moons technology (was) The moons entrance at the top, winds down and into the surface of the moon, turning left and right as in a burrow – the tunnel is huge and so are the areas inside and there are cavernous openings where there are hundreds of thousands of children stored in cages, with torture rooms and other areas set aside for adrenochrome extraction (like on Dark Crystal) When you realise the level of lies, deceit and belligerence shown to us since this started all that time ago, not by the parasites themselves, but by their minions, who are our own people, you will start to see the pattern of infiltration. Today we call a large sector of these sell-outs "Celebrity's" - look at the symbolism that they portray for photoshoots and on their social media pages…..doesn't there come a time when even the most ardent sceptic must surely think in the back of their mind 'Hang on a minute……iv seen pictures of about 200 celebs with a black-eye including royalty….600 pics of the famous making pyramid 'eye' signals with their hands over their face…..the 'silence' hand gesture with the right index finger-to-the-lips, countless hand gestures for photo shoots and also private shots, and publicly…….what you still think it's just a coincidence? That the popes (plural) make the 'Sign of the Beast' and so does the Dalai Llama….? All the way back to paintings of popes hundreds of years ago? Strange that there is a video of the Dallai Llama French-kissing a young boy in a public setting with people laughing and clapping at the spectacle……. isn't that UTTERLY disgusting? What about the recent pictures of Jefry Epstein torturing that 14-year-old naked girl tied to pegs in the grass, torturing her with a magnifying glass in the sun, literally……that isn't a little bit strange??? How about the young baby's with 'Panda' eyes bruised as a side-effect of the sodomy they endured the previous few days where 1-to-50+ men, 'Elite' podophiles we know of as 'The Government' 'CAFCASS' 'SOCIAL SERVICES' THE POLICE – THE JUDICARY…..senior NHS and local councils…..all 33+ Degree masons with a whole lot of terrible secrets to hide from 'us' the public, were abusing them as part of their religious sacrament? because if we found out what these EVIL TRAITORS were up to for the last few thousand years……we would ALL go FUCKING NUTS AS-FUCK….which coincidentally is what's about to happen when there is a 'sudden' power-cut for 3 days followed by an EBS straight after.

The awake have been waiting 4yrs for this fukin power-cut…..jesus christ. we have had to wait for the 'poor-little-sleepers' who don't fancy waking-up just yet as its uncomfortable and interferes with their programming at every angle…its just too easy to shrug-off with the herd mentality of "were all in this together".

Understanding the level of lies and understanding the ET world, as Christian mentioned a few times, is all you need to do, it's easy & il explain why - just like being 5 and learning to swim – I shit myself at the thought of the deep-end until id got used to the shallow end, then in was sweet with the deep end - the 'unknown' dark water at the deep end makes it daunting, terrifying even – the shallow end is well light and ankle deep, cant get into trouble at the shallow end. Well the awake got in the pool 4+yrs ago and made their way to the deep end…..very soon, the whole world gets shoved into the deep end at the same time. The problem is that there's more sleepers than awake souls, so for this reason the EBS will be cut short…..its unlikely to last 10 days. What's the point? After 4 hours of the EBS 10% of sleepers will have died of suicide & 10% from shock and likely 78% will loose their 'marbles' (both marbles) [my rough figures not Christians, he's asleep or id ask him] So why 'crucify' them? …..worthy of note whilst mentioning crucifixion is that 'we' are all Jesus-like, that's part of the hoax, we can heal and perform what would look like 'miracles' in a 3D simulation if it were to happen here, but the story of Jesus is a made-up fake story that we mentioned earlier, but Jesus was a representation of 'us' collectively and Jesus was crucified on the cross which the cross has masonic connotations as the cross represents an un-folded cube which is itself a satanic symbol, think Kabbah in Meca - we are crucified for our 'sins' being used as food, tortured for fun, used for financial gain i.e. adrenochrome, raped, and our children eaten and sodomised to satisfy a demonic requirement for the physical manifestation of pain and suffering being known of as 'Loosh' which as mentioned earlier 'is' the aurora borealis / northern lights seen at times of harvesting the loosh from the surface of the realm-to-the-moon from the storage 'banks' on the ground, BEFORE 2018/19 – the northern lights are not seen constantly because loosh is stored in the banks to build up before the valve is activated……I digressed – why crucify them? The idea is that we all ascend in body's, these body's that you are in right now, is the body that you will have the DNA repaired from during the up-coming EMF….30 seconds white light. When you die this loop in a few thousand years after the EMF event (after EMF treatment when and as you age thought this life…THIS LIFE, FOR YOU, WILL NOT END FOR AT LEAST 500 YEARS FROM NOW….LET THAT SINK IN PLEASE, and with EMF treatment you are likely to be living 1000yrs+ This body in this life with YOUR face ….this will be upgraded to your full strand DNA from the density you were at the time – don't forget in 5+D All DENSITYS 5D+ 'mingle' as there is no threat EVER to anyone, so this is possible as no higher-Density will subjugate a lower Density being, it just does not happen.

Only the ancient demons – Anunnaki – Custodians/Etamines – Greys (all species bar 1, maybe 2?) – Draco (Alpha and Omicron) were negative, but there is also another species of nasty ET that lives the other side of the universe and does not interact out of its sector, it is highly intelligent and a proper hand-full if you bump into one – they are called the:

"T-Mantis" and are the only negative mantis/Mantid species out of a total of 4 (I think?) the T-Mantis is shown to us in the movie 'Independence Day' – that ET species is a REAL SPECIES. They are highly confrontational with all other species and do not get involved in any issues outside their sector of the universe.

The Type-4 Reptilian are the Chamaeleon shapeshifters, seen mostly as news and weather reporters/sport etc etc –

The Type-3 Reptilians are the mini-'Winged' Draco with a tail including the Alpha & Omicron Draco lines and the:

Type-2 is the Wing-less Draco with a Tail 8-14' tall with shoulders like 'beach balls' is

Type-1 Reptilians are the dopey 'Vril' lizard which has several types/casts all pretty thick but good at 'mimicking' anything that it enters from a cat to a dinosaur or a human. The 'Vril's name was used for Maria 'Orsich's "Vril Society" – Maria Orsich was a beautiful German woman with psychic abilities who formed

'The Vril Society' in the late 1930's – we are told that she contacted Alpha Draco from the Alpha Draconis star system, telepathically, and that these Draco gave her detailed telepathic plans to construct a UFO. We now know that that was a load of bollox because Alpha Draconis is not in the sky….its in Gateway-10 'round-the-corner', also, the Draco have been ruling this planet for the last 6,013 years…….and make-up the core of ALL of your royal families and Members of respective Parliaments around the world, sports players and Actors/actresses…..the truth is that the Vril society were just another Satanic 'wing' of the Cabal during the late 1930's & 40's – the thing is that the Vril Society received the plans for building a UFO and not only that but the following year/s they were in receipt of 3 BRAND NEW Draco gifted UFO's…….with the back-story of creating a break-away civilisation. So this whole version of events was as usual, multifaceted with several desired outcomes that we can guess at, such as informing us that there is actually a break-away civilisation being planned, or already in progress….Mars colony has been the break-away civilisation for 6,013 years, its always been the break-away civilisation. Mars would not have had sell-outs living their to start with, probably not until the 1st re set or after. Before that time they would have been prepping the Martian realm ready for their nefarious agender's , like setting-up an extension to your business overseas, you ship-in all your equipment and requirements, set up base and start creating and 'Vril'ing' all sorts of monstery killing machines to transport thru portals to this realm here, all created on Mars prior to 6,013yrs ago – the Dragons of Game Of Thrones were real, and what happened to them was kind of real, because what we are told are T-Rex Skulls are in actual fact the remains of the dragons used in a distant re-set – these 4th density beasts were telepathic and harmless unless you pissed them off, some are extremely benevolent, but the ones the Draco used in the previous resets mentioned when the apparent T-Rex perished….which was no longer than 6,011 years ago….not millions of years, that's all bollocks as well…..to make you think evolution by natural selection takes epochs, when in reality every 5th density species starts off highly advanced already for the reasons mentioned above. The dragons were Vrill'd to controlled & negative beings.....no ones ever found a full skeleton of a T-Rex....they found a lot of skulls though.....I wonder why?

Remember one of the Star Trek movies featuring Jean Luke Picard when he went into the 'Nexus' which was like a 'ribbon' of pink energy that passed thru a solar system every now-&-then, and when it did, if you were lucky enough to be standing in its path, you would be transported to a point in your past where you were at peak happiness. For Jean-Luc Picard, that was at home as a child in the VinYard farmhouse.....for MR & MRS NORMAL (upper-case: Capitus Demutia Maxima, or a corps-orating Corporation or a dead entity speaking, having had their rights relinquished by their Pair-who-Rents= Parents who signed them away with a birth certificate... who then themselves relinquished their own children's rights with the same financial 'instrument' birth-certificate.

The main reason that the sleepers and sheep will need to go to 2nd Earth is because quite literally, when the flash is over, soul-mates will 'magnetise' towards each other after making apologies to their current partners, children will chose themselves which parent they want to be with, or possibly neither parents, as the children are ancient beings experiencing physical life in a child's body, so they will not hang about with abusive parents, they will go where their soul pulls them, to their twin flame or remain with their soul family and not their incarnated vessel family. Sorry I digressed again, sleepers cant remain here as it will inhibit and mire the new simulations growth and development e.g. hypothetically speaking, if there was even 1 single sleeper here after the EMF, that sleeper will be very traumatised, believing in god and the QFS etc, worrying about money and where has their house gone? – well this person will soon realise that they are the minority with these feelings, they will be full of resentment and cynicism, pessimism and apathy....these feelings from just ONE person will affect the entire simulation environment for everyone else, the simulation will not be at its full potential, and soon the negativity will spread like a cancer, another being could become anxious and this will spread like a cancer….the next thing there is a breakaway society forming and a cult. That's why they need to heal elsewhere. The new simulation needs programming, and that is achieved when the 'twin-flames' / soulmates reunite in the realm with the new 'formatted' simulation, the children also with their twin flames as soulmates meet young at 'Festival's age 5+, in complete innocence, the law-of-one encapsulates this with the shared aetheric transmission from all living beings of elated empathy & love, this energy can be directed into the emotion of sympathy, and used to stimulate the biofield of another living being and heal it at close range or distance, in direct connection with a sick or hurt being, this turbocharged emotion of sympathy, empathy and love, in a 5th density simulation can heal in seconds, but not here in 3D, its not the same, by design. This was the 'in your face' abilities that jesus exhibited healing the sick, but that didn't happen here in your realm, it was another lie, jesus was a mixture of abilities and moral messages from other realms blended together and the Cross, is the same as the Kabbah, if you fold a cross up, it forms a cube, a cube is satanic. Jesus ascended, we all will….jesus could walk on water….we can all walk on water (levitation)….jesus could do 'this-&-that', so can everyone in 5th Density+ - every sentient being in 5th Density upwards is resonating at the frequency of unconditional love and has these same abilities, some far greater than others and that comes with soul-age and spiritual progression and also species specific abilities….we create, we maintain & we nurture & we protect….that's what you do back home, plus a bit of gardening, but im sure you can ask some 5D animals to help with that…. 5' tall rabbits wearing a waste coat keeping slugs of your lettuce….7' tall 'Al Paca' knitting you a new pair of pants out of its own fur……hedge-hogs rolling about in front of you picking up dead leaves from you path as you survey your land…. daffodil's and tulips bursting up thru the soil in anticipation of your auric-biofield's resonance……sparrows and starlings flying about pecking the best buds off your 50 acres of 9th Density cannabis crops, and hanging them to dry for you….ahhhh okay I have talked me-self back into ascension again, I was guna laugh it off the other day as id decided it must be well boring there in 5D without laws to break and no jobs so everyone's skint…..

What is the vivid green sky about in the northern hemisphere (which is actually the southern hemisphere) - they open up portals high up and let the green mist in - it permeates everything, it goes into your brain thru the mouth and nostrils, it goes into the retina and optic nerve - animals may start acting weird, dogs and cats especially as they are very high sensory beings who are around humans who may notice.

The fake alien invasion: This is our soul family returning, but as with everything else 'Q' its not that straight forward! – the parasites plan from day-1 was to have a real "Alien" invasion = 'Re-set'….parasites and negatives turning up to reset us like a hunt on the film 'Predator' where they literally hunt down the remaining humans and, well, you know the rest by now. This would have been to get all the remaining 'preppers' and 'hippies' that saw something coming years ago, whatever it was they saw coming.....the people who went and hid with 10yrs worth of food, as I was prepping for when I met Christian, just in case.

Whatever they thought was coming was a moving target with several options, & fluid in nature, magnitude & loss of life - thing is no one knew till yesterday just how much loss there nearly was.....all of it. we nearly all lost our lives & eternal souls, the rest of us (the 500 million) would be doomed for eternity - looping back after constant torture and slavery.....for eternity, literally. It would probably turn you into a demon yourself after a billion years of that –- So the same as with the foreign military being in hotels all over the world preparing for 'something' – well they 'were' here to mop-up the unvaccinated and move them to FEMA camps the world over – but the same with the fake alien invasion, it's not being controlled by the bad-guys, they are all gone but their plan is being stuck-to but with good intentions and a good outcome, by the good guys. Master stroke of military planning.

More women are awake than men, I think that's because of male bravado and mens need to 'already know' stuff, prevents their development because there's a super high ratio of awake women compared to men, strangely.....maybe women are more Intune with nature and reality than men? who knows? I know one thing for sure....there's a whole lot of Avatars male and female out there who will be getting a 'P45' for not turning up for work. I was 400 years early.....I'm never late you awake out there you beautiful souls who always knew something smelt funny, but couldn't put your finger on it, those of you who listened to that inner voice that you thought was your higher-self or a guide, or some strange semi sentient-compass guiding your way.....I love you!.....'we' love you! because against all the odds you remained true to yourself and true to your species, you stood your ground and you did the right thing at the right time, your still doing it……keep going for a short time now it's not long now …..

…… YOU ARE AMAZING!!! And an equally AMAZING world awaits you in a short time XXX Peace out people of the 'Known Lands'…..soon to be renamed "Heart" as it was previously and originally named.

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

During the EMF we will go from terrified humans (Blacks Law Dictionary definition states: "Human Being, a SEA MONSTER unable to own property or possessions….")

We will transform from downtrodden fat people with no hope, gumption or cognitive ability whatsoever…to what we were before all these re-sets and mind-wipes, before all the torturing and rape and sacrifice.

Everyone still moaning, myself included as i still have days where I want to execute sleepers with my bare hands, its natural in 3D to feel like this, its HOW we are supposed to feel in a 3D simulation, it's what 3D is for…..even tho the 3D simulation has now been replaced (96% complete) we are still in 3D vessels with no memory's, so we are still in 3D thought processes. 'Fantasy Land' is YOUR HOME, you just can't remember it. This is all going to blow sleepers away when this happens, they are ill-prepared for what's about to happen, and to be honest I'm glad about that because they earnt it. Ignorance was bliss, it was also a choice…..you sleepers wanted your cake now you must suck-it-up off the pavement where it lays in situ touching a lamp-post that has ominous yellow liquid in a puddle soaking into it. There is now NO CHOICE – a few minutes of easy and lazy research could have helped cushion the blow, but laughing and ridicule was more interesting. Having said that, I will still be helping sleepers scoop their sanity back-up into the eggcup that was holding it, and help them get over it, because I'm nice-as-fuck. For old 'Doris' up the road who hasn't been out the house since 1945, and I don't mean quarter-to-eight, poor Doris….she's fucked when this happens – sitting indoors with 4 masks on still cos the man on the Gramophone said 3 years ago that she's high-risk, Doris hasn't seen her feet since 1987 let-alone a meme about joe Biden raping kids for a living, or 'Fall of the Cabal' on Bitchute – when Doris sees the carpet start pixelating after finding out that the Queen is a fukin dinosaur…….Doris should have looked on Rumble….'Sibley22' Lucky for Doris if she's still alive at the event, she will experience some pretty mad shit. When the EMF comes soon (fukin dates, I bet my pal Liam 5-bag that Micheal Jackson was not only alive, but would be publicly known to be alive…..2 fukin years ago….fuk sake…..i bet £400 quid on Betfair.com that Trump would win the 2020….and he fukin did at 64-1 odds except it was a stolen election leaving me $13,000+ USD down in rightful winnings……listen its HAPPENNING and 'soon' but fuck dates.

Egypt isn't what we thought. How surprising. The ONLY REASON that mummification was a 'thing' back in Egypt and NOT ONLY ANCIENT EGYPT BUT EVERYWHERE ELSE IN THE WORLD (think about this) is for ONE REASON, ONLY. The Valley of the kings in Egypt is the final resting place of the ruling classes, Elite Priests, Kings, Queens, Princes & Princesses, Military Generals and the wannabe's of the era – the wealthy businessmen and women of their time were buried in these hidden humble-looking on the outside tombs, out of the way and hidden from grave-robbers so that they can pass-into-the-after-life with ease and grace to re-join Osiris all their possessions and treasures, even the cats and the family dog are mummified to join accompany the deceased. So we were told, and happily assimilated keen to understand these fantastic pyramidal structures, their use and purpose and how they were constructed. The 'Experts' who went to university and spent decades learning all this complex information out in the field and in dusty university library's the world-over, regurgitating text and lines by Wallis Budge and other 33rd degree masonic Egyptologists to piece together the fragmented parchments of this epoch and the dynasties therein and try to understand what Egypt was? Egypt was the Anunnaki civilisations HQ in that part of the realm that we call egypt – their HQ on other continents, are places where there are pyramids – so think that thru in your mind to all the other country's & places that you know of where pyramids exist – Every continent. The largest pyramid in the world so far, has been discovered in Bosnia – it was thought to be a natural mountain until about 20yrs ago. What do you do when there are a group of people running your civilisation, who are killing and raping your children, eating them and forcing you into slavery at the same time? These people worship a demonic entity/s and want only destruction and subjunction for you. Well, we know exactly what people do in a situation like this as we just watched this unfold in our own time.

*Fig.*93 Although Egyptian mummies are the most famous, the oldest mummies recorded are the Chinchorro mummies from northern Chile and southern Peru.

The Valley of the Kings…….AND ALL MUMMYFICATION EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD was not so that these 'people' can reach the afterlife with all their worldly possessions, no no, these Queens & Kings, Military Generals, Priests, Architects, and businessmen & women, were mummified with every single item they owned including their pets and slaves and even their remaining food from the stores….because these people had ALL SOLD THEIR SOULS……they were Adrenochrome users - The mummification process was a ceremony carried-out after executing these disgusting scum-bags, to trap the demon / evil spirit in the vessel – wrapping it in bandages soaked in a 'Positively' cursed resin & amulets placed within the wrappings – positively cursed is the only description that comes to mind whilst writing this, but think of it as a way of putting a spell on the vessel to entrap the demon therein. 'The Mummy' Movies series explains this pretty well, that was what ALL MUMMYFICATION WAS FOR THE WORLD OVER. No other reason. The reason that their possessions were buried along with them, including slaves and the pet cat, was because they needed to bury EVERY ITEM THIS PERSON HAD in the tomb with them, bury it all with sand and hope to GOD (had to sorry) that no one ever finds it and opens it…..releasing the demon/s back out. That's why sometimes tombs were opened and another few sell-outs were added to the collection…..” some tombs present issues as there are hundreds of stored mummy’s from all over the place leaving Egyptologists baffled. Well, that’s why.

look at the money these dead child killers have earnt the Cabal in the last 200yrs……..celebrating the sacrifice of our children, and our own enslavement simultaneously refilling the coffers of the people who are eating our children, now in our own time. Remember, the same souls are reincarnating continuously, except they get to chose when where and how they come back…….Ea & Annu are still alive, still very positive beings who are ashamed at their sons actions – when you get your memorys back you will remember Ea & Annu yourselves as we all know these guys.

the Pleiadean civilisation is just under 1 Billion people…….the whole civilisation, and HALF of them are here now in vessels….if you are reading this, you are likely one of them yourself. Let that sink-in. HALF of them are here now. The Pleiadeans are playing the characters in both sides in the media mockery movie that you are seeing on TV daily as no humans could be trusted not to get us infiltrated again – it was too much of a risk and too much at stake for another human-fuck-up. Most of us know each other or know-of each other….it’s not a small community whatsoever & it would take thousands of years to travel round Gateway-10 sight-seeing, but it’s a close community joined with the Law of One and the ethers of all realms interconnected on ONE HUGE physical super planet sharing knowledge technology time and wisdom, and the same goals……unconditional love and the furtherment of all life for positive reasons. It’s really really easy.

It’s well known that the Egyptians interbred with their own family lines to keep them ‘pure’ just as we have learned in the last 4+yrs about the Rothschilds and Rockefellers etc etc etc do the same….all the way down the 13+ family bloodlines……it’s the same people still doing it to us, we just had a reset or two in-between. Greta Turnberg was a Rothschild, Russell Brand was a Rothschild, Katy Perry was a Rothschild, Bill Clinton was a Rothschild…..see where this is going??? It's not 'Deep Space Telemetry' is it?

Pyramids, all of them or at least all the original ones that we didn't try to replicate, you can tell our attempts, they look like a pile of sand made of mud bricks – all of the original ones are situated on a salt water river/aquafer/deposit as salt water is essential for the function of a pyramid because they are used for several reasons that all utilise energy in the form of electricity. You must understand that what we are shown about our past, present or future, is shown to us collectively by the 'Elite' who we know of as the 'Bloodline Family's' who run the branches of Freemasonry all over the world – the same Freemasons coincidentally own the top multinational companies who themselves own, between them, all the house-hold brands in every industry – as an example of just one so you get the idea: ALL MEDIA….that means ALL TV / ALL RADIO / ALL NEWS PAPERS / MAGAZINES are all owned by just 6 different company's……let that sink-in….just 6 company's own the ALL the worlds media, and those 6 companies are all in the same freemasons club, and turns out to be ultimately just 2 family's own of these 6 companies that own ALL 'Media' that make-up the nucleus of what we know of as the 'Cabal' (a Cabal is: "a clandestine political sect") the same with EVERY INDUSTRY all over the world, that's how come there's poison in everything you eat, drink and breathe, as outlined in the 'Rothschild Secret Covenant' mentioned in a previous synopsis (see Appendix.i.) It will help you understand the ENORMITY of what has happened, and why what's going to happen, is slowly happening. Coincidentally, the people 'telling' us everything, are the same group of people who are sacrificing our children and forcing us into slavery whilst committing heinous crimes against our most precious family members….and strangely the people who are pushed onto the TV and Movie/Music industry thru ought the planet in every single country…are all in that same 'club' and they are all documented making the same 'Satanic' symbols….even the previous Popes going back hundreds of years are painted making these Luciferian signals and Satanic signs…..it's just a coincidence, so please don't look into any of this as you could wake-up and maybe quit your job, and trust me on this….those people needed you working paying tax, or on benefits with your bollox-held tightly by the Benefits/Social Security agency's…..if you're not working paying tax then you need to be on benefits, and if you not on benefits either then they want you in jail as they can access your 'Cestui Que Vie' Birth Certificate Bond created off your birth certificate when you were born….its a long story and I covered it in a previous synopsis & available here: https://medi-cure.uk/maritime-admiralty-law-2/

All these synopsis are available for FREE - THIS ACURATE DETAILED INFORMATION IS ALL AVAILABLE FOR FREE – CHRISTIAN HAS NEVER ASKED A PENNY FOR ANY OF THIS AND NEITHER DO I – WE DON'T WANT MONEY – I ALWAYS SAID HEALTH SHOULD BE FREE IT'S A BASIC RIGHT…..TRUTH SHOULD ALSO BE FREE AS ITS ALSO A BASIC RIGHT] and il post a link that people can share to download the complete set as I write them up which means talking to Christian and he's snoring at the mo and I duno nuffin till he explains it, so if Christian isn't talking then I'm not knowing anything new. I could wake him up and ask him about the menstrual cycle of the Arboreal Palm-Civet, cos that just crossed my mind, also how do spiders breathe? You never see a spider get out of breath, and is a spiders consciousness inside its head, or external?..... The sort of stuff you think about when you're having a poo, it's still relevant to the greater picture though, and if Christians asleep that's all I got till he wakes-up. Wow listen to this! So we woke up at 5am ish….i said to Christian "what's with the shafts in the great pyramid bruv?"……."I duno about any shafts?" Christian said...i replied "the fukin shafts in the great pyramid bruv fuk sake what you mean you duno about the shafts?"…."naaaa sorry I duno what you mean?"….then a split-second later said…."Oh yeah I do know now actually, they are valves that act like pistons for the energy that's circulated throught the pyramid, you see what happens is that the pyramid must sit on or next to a salt water river / lake / ocean / aquafer as it is the salt water that acts as the conductor – there is no 'Missing' capstone on the great pyramid, they take it away with them when they leave and bring it back when they return – the reason is that they will not want anyone using it for free energy etc while they are away. The capstone is not what we assumed – the capstone is not simply a missing piece of solid gold, no no, its made of gold and palladium and is an alloy metal extremely hard - it does not even look like you would expect it to please see fig.1 below and the capstone itself is not even pyramid-shape, its actual purpose is two-fold: as a physical 'coupling', and exit-head point when used as radiant energy. A 'coupling' 'socket' for Craft of 3 sizes will be landing on top of the pyramid during a re-set or at other times when 'hiding' from the public is not required:

: a fleet craft

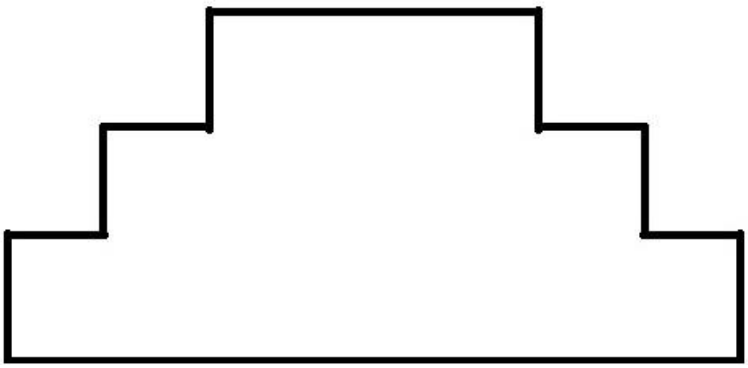

Fig.94. The Missing Capstone from the Chufu/Cheops Pyramid looks like this, and its not 'missing'

Each craft land on-top and over the top portion of the pyramid - as seen on 'StarGate' the TV Scifi series. 'Stargate' is a documentary series with slightly twisted plots to the actual reality we collectively left 6,012yrs ago, but its basically telling/showing us in every single episode, the truth - The craft land on top and the coupling is done very simply by landing on the top, the weight of the craft pushed the entire top capstone down, activating the energy flow to refuel the craft. But why does the craft need refiling if they are ET are you telling me they haven't invented free energy yet?....no no....it doesn't work like that – The parasites are ALL 4th Density beings.....we are in a 3rd Density simulation.....people paying attention to the previous synopsis will see straight away that what we can expect to see when the EMF comes? .....or what happens if we leave our circle environment without a DNA up-grade?....it all pixel-blocks as the density's do not match and the frequency's don't either, its non-compatible – so for instance if they were fighting on their home world, they would be fine as their technology works great in their own simulation, but here in the known-lands they would have no chance of even firing a weapon let-alone a craft taking-off the ground because all the energy to power your weapons and craft are obtained from the Ether of your realm.....that's what Pyramids are. They are simply the parasites energy systems to power their craft, weapons & technology whilst here in a lower density matrix. Before the parasites arrived it was the energy delivery system for the land territory's in the locale of the area the pyramid was situated in, that's why they are all over the planet.....

The Pyramids were built in the previous simulation, at the start of Gateway-10 population, or soon after. Being a 5th Density environment, their construction took very little time in a 5D-sim as the 'laws' of physics that we know of, do not pose a concern in density's above our 3rd Density echelon, making it a simple task to be left to the advanced technology.

When you have 'processed' a student from Kindergarten level upwards thru the learning establishments tentacles, and over 15-20+years, you can control the mind of your 'alumni' after they leave the 'petti-coat' safety of the academic institution that programmed them. Their self-value and their perceived knowledge is tightly woven into their self-perception, so now we are not dealing with a possible flawed theory……we are dealing with this individuals self-perception and what they anchor their personality in, so crow-barring them away from this false his-story is going to be extremely impossible. Hence 2nd Earth.

Inside the 'Kings' Chamber is a sarcophagus – this has more than 1 purpose also, the energy generated within the pyramid is stored in the granite blocks and these blocks act like batteries storing the electrical charge which is created, most unusually, by firing energy beams into the shafts in the kings, & queens chambers, from the 'constellation' above each pyramid i.e. Skynet-1, they are not fired simultaneously, rather they are fired in a succession Q-K-Q-K-Q-K etc (Q=Queens Shaft & K=Kings shaft) this builds up the resonance frequency within the system – with the true capstone on the top, and without a craft sitting on it with the weight of the craft pressing on the capstone, this forces a huge rod made of a copper, zinc & palladium alloy down to initiate the energetic transference of energy from the pyramid-to-the-craft thru the capstone coupling. The rod is pushed down to connect with a metallic sphere that you can imagine as an inside out chrome 'ball-bearing', or a spherical hollow space, Please see fig. below its huge and situated 2/3rds the way up 'Pyre-a-mid' or Greek for 'Fire in the middle' being a pyramid, hence the metallic sphere being located at this position. The hollow metallic sphere has 2 rods moulded into it see fig.2 and 2 huge ball-bearings inside. The sphere is a sealed unit and the two moulded rods are a + and a – or Negative & Positive.

The beams of light from the two 'stars' which are in actual fact 'Satellites' and yes satellites are real and exist, but we don't get to see or use them, they are only for the negatives and their nefarious agender. The beams of light are fired from the two stars into the shafts as mentioned above, this excitation creates a resonance build-up and causes the 2 Ball-Bearings inside the spherical metallic unit 2/3rds up in the pyramid to spin around the moulded +/- central 'Rods' creating electricity. Immediately Under the base of the pyramid is a 3' space that fills with salt water from the Nile when huge blocks are lowered from inside the pyramid displacing vast amounts of water that are forced upwards to fill a 3'-Gap at the base of the pyramid that spans the entire 14 acre site-footprint. The salt water is the electrolyte, and the pyramids actual construction blocks are the 'batterys' that hold the energy. The 2 other pyramids and the satellite-pyramids surrounding the great pyramid, are external storage batterys that back-up the main pyramids energy. The coupling at the top is used only when they are here for a reset – the Draco & Co's motherships land in top to recharge – a constant turnover of craft filling-up for the next raid on a village / woods / town / mountain.....its nasty. Its far worse than you see in a disaster movie, far worse being hunted by a group of Draco, than watching a film about it. People can't wrap their heads around this as it sounds waaaaay tooooo far out – but it's meant to. We only know what we have been presented – we can't think outside of our paradigm, those that can, are reading this now and understanding it, those that can't think-outside of their paradigm are the ones trolling and getting angry. What's about to happen to us is straight out of a fantasy movie, literally straight out of a mixture of all the scifi films you ever saw, blended with all the fantasy films you ever saw.....made into 1 scenario that's called YOUR NEW LIFE – handed to you on a plate as a gift for the slavery you were just saved from. As a present you get a new body and all your memory's back.

When I was a child, I used to think that what use is reincarnation if we don't get to remember our past lives? I was thinking this from age 14 when I read that book I was talking about before "The Children That Time Forgot" by Peter and Mary Harrison- I read that in 1989 and it made me think about reincarnation, and there is no point to it if we are unable to recall those lives and experiences.

Everything, every single thing you 'learnt' (misnomer) ever in as many lives here that you have had, about any subject you can think of, is a lie. A purposeful lie to deceive you. In Genesis, the 1st book of the Bible it explains where you live and who deceived you – you live on a fixed non rotating plane under a firmament with stars that were put there by the 'Lord' whose name was YAHWEH (Demonic Anunnaki child-killer) and a serpent (reptile/Draco) deceived you. You were naked at the time as you were too stupid in this new body to even know you had nothing on, untill a Draco Prime whispered in Eves ear pointing-out this obvious fact.

The Anunnaki were extremely positive to start with, a hugely benevolent species with high technology. Ea & Annu (to save any confusion the names of these people have been changed many times over the years to confuse researchers – the person in reality who we understand as 'Thoth' from the Egyptian pantheon, is synonymous with Enka's Brother, who are the same person, but in 'mainstream' Egyptology & consensus-history they are separated by a time and civilisation gap – also, the names of all have been switched around and even fake-'real' papyri have been left in tombs to further add to the confusion. His-Story is just that, his story. A tiny bit of truth germinated on a damp tissue of perverted lies grown in the darkness of deceit – that's what our history is. Get over it. If your career has been studying the history of anthropology or anything connected to unravelling our past…..your in trouble soon, so adapt now to the changes that haven't changed yet……that means considering the preposterous as a serious possibility.

Enka/Enki is the reason we are all in this mess In the 1st place. Enka's mum & dad, Ea & Annu, are hugely positive beings, as were all the Anunnaki – they looked after their people and made sure that everyone in the empire had what they needed, they were rulers 'for' the people and they are dearly loved. The Anunnaki are a highly advanced civilisation at the peak of 5 th+ Density experience (they are likely 9,10th density at the moment. They helped in the construction of the original pyramids here in our realm before the parasitic occupation, the pyramids are the Anunnaki's hallmark as they are the masters of pyramid power, although many other species build and use them. Enka, one of their 2 sons, was moving in circles of high power friends who had encountered a powerful Alli – this Alli came in the form of ancient demonic possession/s. Ea & Annu explained to Enka that he was not ready to rule the realm (their own realm – Nibiru) they did not know he had machinations of taking the realm for his own and killing his mum & Dad – he decided he was ready to rule and decided to take matters into his own hands after the demons advised him and showed him his possibility's, drunk on power & longing for adoration – he hatched a plot to use demonic help to overthrow his parents and win him the kingdom giving him everything and totalitarian power with it. He got his brothers help who we know of as Thoth, for a short time until he realised how bad this was going to end - This was unusual….shit like this doesn't happen out there in the positive world, so galactic 'eyebrows' would have been raised, for sure when this news got out. Beings don't do shit like that, go off killing their parents for fame and fortune isn't how one conducts oneself in a 5+D simulation especially with aspirations of attaining a Density higher, at some point in the not-too-distant-future.

Poverty is essential as it makes selling your soul an easy option. You then create a 3+ tier class system and start wiping minds…..easy to set up a situation where people who are now not telepathic and can lie undetected, for them to feel the need to sell their souls to break-out of the poverty trap….its a vicious circle of destruction.

The tiny dots of light high-up in the stratosphere, sometimes moving quickly, sometimes slowly, they criss-cross the night sky – they are there in the day but it's too light to see them. I remember these lights explained to me as satellites by my father in the 1980's – These lights are actually craft for transporting parasites and their co-workers to various other Stations such as Nibiru, the moon etc. they are not satellites as we are told.

The 'Sky-Net' security system of the parasites - are monitoring satellites that are used to control the entire realm. Every single realm that make-up the 77% of the 178 realms or 14,000 civilisations consisting of billions of peoples from thousands of species all living under our great dome – the parasites are not just paranoid, they are literally psychotic-curtain-twitchers petrified of being shafted on a deal by their partners-in-crime, or more importantly, shafted by someone in a realm they are infiltrating/infiltrated, which is what happened to them in the end. 'We' infiltrated 'Them' for once….. Sky-net is 'most' of the Stars in the night sky, the rest are part of the pyramid-charging system that looks like constellations to us down here – no doubt the star system Alpha Draconis is actually in that part of the skynet, but those are not suns out there defining that system, some may be planets (flat discs where the progenitors of the Draco originated) The Draco's world is Beautiful, one of the most beautiful worlds there is – the Draco were not negative, they used to be all positive until the demons got out and turned huge factions negative from Vegetarians to savage child killers 'This' was meant to happen 2,000 years ago and at the last minute we got infiltrated by the negatives….incidentally whilst on this topic, that's what 'Moses' was doing – Moses was from the line of Enoch, Enoch was good and so was his entire family line – when the "Watchers" and Fallen Angels came – the fallen angels were actually 'Vril' Type-1 reptilians which the Draco released from craft in the sky when they came – the eyewitness accounts were accurate….the Vril have wings and can fly….'Falling Angels' (falling 'messangers' because 'Angelos' = 'Messanger'– Moses was placed there to be found by pharaohs daughter wrapped in swaddling, but not in a reed basket. He saw what Pharoah was doing and the demonic sacrifice was ramping up, so Moses had an idea….he had been contacted in his head by some unknown voice offering help…..he thought he was mad but the 'help' seemed to be offering good advice – worthy of note is at this time in those parts it was widely known about the Vril lizards who take a host at night whilst the unwitting host lay sleeping, they also knew about the Greys, who they called the "Watchers" because of their large eyes and silent mouths. Moses was well aware of all this as it was the period of his lifetime – don't forget, what we know of as 'Biblical Times' seems a long time ago, seems like its embroidered in myth and legend with fantastical Giants like Goliath and all these unusual happenings, some are true and some are false and some are a blend of both, 90% of the rest is a complete lie. Moses was real and so was his family line who were loved by the Andromadans and some other benevolents helping us out at the time back then. Moses was leading the people out, away from the Luciferian Anunnaki overlords who ruled Egypt – Moses was like "look guys….it's looking bleak for you lot…..pharaoh wants more of your children from now on for sacrifice and your days workload is doubling from Tuesday afternoon…im hearing voices in my head that seem to be from some good ET's telling me to get you guys to the red sea and wait……don't ask what for as I duno either?" Moses knew full well that this was NOT GOD, he knew they were ET's – they were Andromadans because Andromadans were helping you 1 st with several other species, the Pleiadeans joined after – Moses convinced the slaves that they should listen to him even if they didn't believe him, it was better than staying where they were considering what was about to happen – they agreed and went with the voices in Moses head. They got to the Red sea and sure enough, Moses wasn't going mad, the waters started to roll-inwards on itself faster and faster and began to separate rolling higher and higher until there were two tsunami-like walls of water , and Moses and the Israelites were able to walk across……the rest is 'his-story' as they say.

The man who we know of as Jesus who has inherited the face of the illegitimate son of pope Alexander 6th , & whose uncle was pope Calixtus IIII and who was brought up by Cardinal Roderic Lancole De Borgia of the Spanish Argonese House of Valencia, we know of as Cesare Borgia, was himself of the line of Enoch, thru the matriarchal line of Mary - Mary was of the line of Moses, the Enochian bloodline which was all pure and good were chosen by the Andromadans at the beginning of our enslavement. 'Jesus' didn't have a beard and didn't die on a cross, the actual character of Jesus was an ET incarnate from Andromeda, he was a healer…end of story. Many people were also ET incarnate healers spreading a good word to advise the peoples of the 'new' 3rd realm fenced-off with a pristine and quite new ice-wall – the benevolants were sure that it wouldn't take too long to free us at the start, a thousand years was tabled as a date to free us - but it soon became apparent that we were in for the long haul. There were two other attempts to free us, one was in 1561 as mentioned before in Nurenberg, Germany…..hey I well digressed, so sorry…..where was i?....Skynet……I was saying is 'most' of the stars in the sky, they ALL have purpose and none of them are distant 'Suns' or any such kind. The 'Constellations' we shall soon see are also multi-purpose. Example: The constellation of Orion. As we know the 3 stars in orions belt, Al Nitak / Al Nizam & Mintaka all align up perfectly with the pyramids on the Gizeh plateau Kufu / Chafre / Menkaure (see the Orion Mystery by Robet Beauval) but it doesn't end there! EVERY SINGLE pyramid complex in our world also has a rotating set of 'Stars' above it, for instance, the 3 stars of Orion's belt match up with the 3 pyramids, but the other stars in the constellation of Orion are also 'active' - The southern shaft in the kings chamber points to 'Sahu-Osiris' or 'Al Nizam' – the central star in the belt of Orion and the northern shaft points to Alpha Draconis – the Queens Chamber southern shaft points to Sothis / ISIS / Sirius and the Northern shaft, if extended, would point to the centre of Draconis and these 'Stars' are what fire-up the pyramids. the pyramids with no capstone, that are completed pyramids, are storage banks and only the main pyramid in the complex will be the generator and energy dispersal part of the apparatus. Pyramids can charge a Mother ship up in a couple of seconds – the craft lands on it briefly exerting slight pressure and immediately takes off again fully-charged for many many hours flight in our simulation to carry on enjoying their reset.

Gargoyles in Churches are not there to ward off evil spirits, no no, Gargoyles are there to invite evil in to witness the ceremonies, gargoyles are there for 2 reasons to 'advertise' to wandering evil spirits that this is somewhere they can have fun and possibly find a host to attach to, and the internal gargoyles in churches are there to keep the negative spirits in. A church wedding is probably the worst thing you can do if a 'Blessing' was the end result – Church weddings are designed to cause hassle in the future and the intention is that the 'happy' couple wearing a Satanic Ring (the ring of Saturn/Satan) will be able to take some entity's home with them to stay with them the rest of their lives or until the goal is achieved….i.e separation / divorce / murder / matricide / patricide / infanticide….helps with the Loosh procurement targets.

So what happens to the people who sold their souls and harmed children? This is the BEST BIT! their fate is way way worse than just dyeing. They were tried, sentenced & executed….for the sell-outs their soul was contained after physical death, by the chamber or technology, and a portal will be opened to the smallest realm held by the negatives….likely a small realm that the Greys occupied that's now vacant…..there will be a 'doom&- gloom' simulation in 4D and NO VESSELS to occupy….think this thru……you're 'Nigel Farage'…..just been sentenced to death for crimes against humanity, your walked to the chamber and executed inside it with a pulse of electricity and at the moment of death your soul remembers everything the vessel it was in, did and you are now overcome with grief and remorse because ALL souls are pure, none of us were bad, the parasites made sure we were bad mindwiping and resetting us, getting us to police ourselves whilst mocking us and poisoning us at every angle eagerly awaiting the next reset so they can really let their hair down – so at the moment of death the soul knows what it did, how many kids it killed, it can hear the screams and see the faces and the destruction that the soul jointly caused whilst united with that vessels warped 3D fake personality embossed on it by the need to seek adoration, fame & money – these sell-outs will spend ETERNITY trapped in a 4D simulation in the smallest realm, millions of Orbs flying about looking for a body that will never arrive, ever – they will be in light-body and therefore have full recall on every-single detail of the offences that they were party to, and they will relive that despicable torture for eternity over and over with no hope of dyeing, ever. Because we are pure love until this occupation, the 'raw' soul will defo be devastated by this revelation of what it did.....it will want to die.....but it never can I'm really pleased about that no one is getting a 'Rommel' death, fuck-off fukin Rommel death don't e so fukin ridiculous, a Rommel death is condoning their actions. Lets not forget that there have been NO POSITIVE NON-Satanic Humans in a position of 'power' for over 35years– they had it sewn-up so well that the woman serving u coffee at StarBucks, was a reptilian.....& the Weather Girl of a local TV station, right-up-to senior military of every country.....yeah its everyone you ever heard of – every single famous person and non-famous key figures were all working for the Demons, ultimately – All because 'Enka' got delusions of grandeur and was the 1st person in 'modern' times to sell his soul (15,000+ years ago is modern compared to your true soul age) so don't worry, you should suck-this-up like the eternal beings you are..... we as a planet, were run entirely by a nefarious & Demonic Empire with NOT One SINGLE HUMAN WHO HAD NOT SOLD THEIR SOUL – that's means in simplest terms that we were TOTALLY FUCKED. Had Christians mum & dad not stepped in with 1,013 other species backing them-up, then we would not be here now – we would have been reset ages ago for the LAST TIME and your souls would have been extinguished via the negative tech in the 2nd "Vaccine" come-'24.

I can't digest information for someone else, I can explain it in the easiest way I can for others to either resonate with or not whatever the case may be – but the same as the last re-set…….there were people who didn't know the icewalls were there and they didn't believe there was salvation behind these non-existant walls, just like we don't now, and the same sleepers from last reset are likely making-up the same sleeper population from this reset – last time it was to their detriment, but this time they are saved anyway so it doesn't actually matter for them in terms of being sacrificed again or mindwiped & reset. But coming back here is the Goal for your soul even if You don't recognise that fact, and it's also the goal of your soul family – as said before THEY NEED YOU BACK HERE and there's only really one way to do that – That's why Christians here doing this now – what I find strange is that in the last 16 months, a geazer from Portsmouth with not a pot-to-piss-in who has no hot water in the flat, a flushing toilet or lights in the ceiling, rather 2 old cannabis propagation lights illuminating the room of which 3 walls are completely covered in the most amazing amount of sense that you eyer took-in in one whole-eyeful – Writing up these insights from a man who didn't go to school, couldn't read and write properly till a few years ago and hasn't got a clue about technology and laptops who only went online a few years ago…..my mum knows more about computers than Christian does…if you saw my mum holding the laptop upside down, that should give you an idea. I've spent a lot of time with Christian this last few months – if we are awake it's pretty mental to be honest we loose days in talk I done 4 hours in what felt like 10minutes yesterday on this Egyptian 'shenanigans'. What we are shown as the interior of ANY of the pyramids, is not what they actually look like inside….all we get see are drawings and computer models of the interior of these edifices….all compiled by 33rd degree freemasons. They forgot to show us all the 'gubbins' that makes it work, and trust me they are well aware how it works. Theres still rooms for people to find in the great pyramid and the only thing missing is the incongruous capstone….they would have been using that capstone in 2020 if Hilary Clinton had have won the election, the Fake 'Alien' invasion would have been a real one and your children would have all been preserved, as red shoes after torturing and raping, for the few remaining 'Elite' to wear at the 'Draco Summer Ball'- Elite is another word for a 'Half-wit-inbred-transgender-paedophile-with-more-money-than-sense'.

Information and revelations
A brief synopsis
By :Leon-George: Sinclair

The Martian colony isn't quite what we thought – we saw lots of films and series about what Mars looks like….we all know what the Martian Rover beams back from the surface of a spinning planet sitting between Earth and Jupiter, 4th planet from the sun, there's little water there and some ice at the poles. Mat Damon showed us in the movie 'Mars' what to expect and if you go there take potatoes as you may well need them. Maybe there are some rivers under the surface and apparently some insects live there - some SSP whistleblowers confirm this as they went there and fought in wars there between these insects and there are all sorts of bases there, corporate industry mining rescores off the moon and powerful financial interests set-up and colony's running since the end of WW2 after Hitler went there etc etc etc etc ETc. then we find out that the pictures of Mars are filmed in Greenland and colour filtered….because we haven't been there After all? When you understand the level of lies that we have been fed, I'm not joking, I have a strong stomach, and I felt 'ill', that's not with any satanic sacrifice stuff, no no, that's just off the revelations of today about Mars….im pretty sure this part-10 will help joining dots-up with a whole lot of other stuff that some people may have trouble with……..Mars helps at a higher level next-level-dot-joining…..listen to this, it's one of them moments of clarity you guna have on the path home, it gets stranger and stranger, trust me. The sell-outs from this realm who get the golden Golden ticket, along with their family, like Admiral Richard E. Byrd, apparently got the ultimate prize of going to live on Mars, which as we now know is a flat realm joined directly to this realm, it's our closest neighbour, as mentioned previously it is not possible to go there without a 5th DNA strand upgrade to handle the 5D matrix simulation, so all these sell-outs get that upgrade and about 45% of what they were promised when they sold their souls. So how big do you think the Mars colony is?…….remembering all the SSP whistle-blowers are 1 Million % lying, so factor that into your approximation. I thought the mars colony would be like a couple hundred people maybe a couple thousand? And the colony I assumed to be maybe half the size of the UK in land size…….no no…..the colony is an island, but it's the size of the USA and there are hundreds of thousands of sellouts living there likely MILLIONS. Don't forget these people live to be about 500 years old….Those 'Faked' photos that you see online, with a couple standing with a sasquatch in a mountain area….obviously fake because the Sasquatch is posing for the photo with a man and a woman as if all present in the scene, are friends, big smiles everywhere – These are not Fake photos, we just assume they are fake as they can't possibly be real…..so unbelievable that they 'must' be fakes. These apparent Holiday Makers trekking in a mountain somewhere wearing T-shirts and sunglasses were in fact Scientists who are working with the Sasquatch on Mars. That's why the closeness in the photo. Working with Sasquatch???? Yes…..sasquatch is a highly intelligent being/s. other images show a man and a girl next to a giant…….the girl is the 'Wife' of the nonce-scientist, not his daughter, and the giant or the creature next to these people will be either their creation or colleague in whatever nefarious plan is being carried out. Have a look at the photos and decide for yourself…….I saw a photo that I am trying to re-find of a sheep in what looks like Victorian times with a large group of men standing around it….The Sheep is about 30' tall and maybe 20' wide and is a lot larger than the barn next to it…..obviously fake….OBVIOUSLY FAKE….we don't have a 30' tall sheep…….or do 'we'???? – we may not, but over on Mars you can carry out whatever genetic testing you feel is appropriate in your demonic goals….. every person there was a super-sellout…..the Elite of the Sell-outs get this opportunity. Some pictures of these aged scientists look so bizarre, but that's because we have never been presented with anything remotely like this before, well we have but only in 'Fiction'. The fact that these images are so real-looking, proves them to be fakes without any scrutiny required In the thought process – you can tell is a fake image as it features a 30' tall sheep ….you don't need a Phd in clever-shit to work that out. But its not like that we assume they are fake as they are totally fuera de nuestro paradigma.

What was Satan? A deceiver. Well Satan didn't exist, but 'evil' itself is a deceiver and 'evil' is synonymous with the demons, it's how demons trade, their currency lies and deceit. Don't forget, a demon is the 2nd most knowledge'd entity in the universe after source creation itself……and we have only a 2.2% brain……a demon can run rings around the entire combined parasitic species, so what chance would a stupid 3D human have with a 2.2% brain pitted against a Demon?... ZERO. So these images of Mars, we would never ever in a million years associate with the 'Red Planet' because Mars isn't a Red Planet….its a lush green flat disc that adjoins our realm – Mars is the closest planet to us (jesus christ I love being alive right now!…..you couldn't make this shit-up – its bloody obvious now having been told what's going on on Mars….it fills in all the gaps about why tell us 30yrs ago about Dolly the sheep? You wanna see Dolly-The Sheep's Great-Great-Great grandfather? Created on Mars about 150yrs ago by the look of it. Don't forget, they will not be living like the 'Jetsons' on Mars, that's why the clothes and homes reflect our way of life & the era of human civilization from the time we associate the images with being about 1850-onwards. Some of the beings look rather incongruous and out of place in their own body, this is because the scientists next to these beings were responsible for designing they hominid form as some of these beings didn't always walk upright…..the human scientists on mars have been working on the most unusual research that makes what we think of as "Science" a total joke….look how old some of these photos are….humans working with ET's and sasquatch on Mars….sound ridiculous doesn't it?....well it's supposed to sound ridiculous…you are to think it is preposterous so that you laugh and never look into it..well….you wouldn't have looked into it anyway because you know for a FACT that mars is a red planet with no life on it. All these images above (fig's. 56-74) are taken from Mars over the last 150-ish years. The 'Robot '-looking things are the 1st A.I intelligence that 'we' humans started creating – you saw the Boxing match photo of a bare-knuckle man apparently fighting a robot in black and white image that looks like it was taken in the 1920's…..yeah it was, on Mars where this research and genetic testing has been going on from day 1. Have a look at the 'Transformers' above…….these are real – these machines were all real and created by humans on mars for various reasons – the idea that sparked the 'Transformers' craze in the 1980s, was taken from the research being done on Mars. In the image with an Indian man in a turban standing next to a gawky-looking ET, is likely a servant of a scientists household who lives there - most of the sell-outs in the Mars colony are scientists of various disciplines – they have a great advantage as they will live for 450-500yrs on mars in 5th Density (arguably 5th? Maybe 4th?) so they can get much achieved in one lifetime. Strange contraptions are seen in some of these images, some mimicking real life, and you must have seen the Fighting Robot?….this was early A.I, from Mars….not fakery from Victorian Massachusetts in the early 20th century…no no….this was all on Mars and all real experimentation. When you realise the level of lies and deceit you will become enraged. That's why the foreign military are out on the streets in the UK and every single other country……because when people realise that they have been lied to, that they have been destroyed from the inside-out by a negative alien species who desires only their childrens blood….when they work this out and they realise that not only their pathetic life now this loop, but that of all of their ancestors right the way back to BEFORE RECORDED HISTORY EVEN STARTED……all of the strife / resets / mindwiping / subjugation / poisons / lies & fraud,…….all of it IS ONLY TO KEEP YOU BLIND FROM THE DEMONIC AGENDA AND THE SACRIFICE OF OUR CHILDREN.

On Mars it's a free-for-all in terms of scientific moral-restrictions Think about this….what did Christian say about 5-D…?."Yeah yeah your pets at home will grow about 2 or 3 times their size and live twice as long"….so…..on Mars in 5D Animals are a lot bigger, a cat will look like the animals seen in these images below…. You have probably seen pictures of the mars colony, and you will be very surprised to find out where you have seen these images because there's no way that you would associate these images with MARS!!! No way in a million years. Most people look at these photos and assume they are fake as they are so good quality…'some' of these images are fake, but lets say 95% are real…..Q released these images starting a few years ago, people assumed, wrongly that they are A.I artwork or clever trickery – some seem to be absurd pictures of unusual-looking 'Aliens'……these images are bizarre, and real – some of these hominid ET species shaking hands with men in suits, were negative species who were helping the scientists, some are scientists helping the ET's, for instance, these ET's are hominid form…..but they weren't always walking upright – remember that we humans are particularly intelligent, its one of the reasons for calcifying our pineal glands and downsizing us in height and brain capacity etc, even with a 2.2% brain capacity, we humans are pretty amazing and the cabal have had ET's come here and kidnap scientists to work on projects for them back engineering stuff and making it better, the negative Draco are thieves who create little and steal the rest the get tech that they want to be improved and so they give it to a human scientist to improve/back engineer, and come back 5 or 10yrs later and the human has made the device 10X better than it was – Also the Victorian era sepia-brown dog-eared photos taken on a 'camera-obscurer' and other black & white photos taken in the late 19th century, of what looks like an early fake-photo craze from when the cameras were 1st invented…..il show some examples below, but you will recognise these images from the rounds online over the past few years, they seem to be a device that can help you talk to a dead person, or at least portrays the ghostly image of a dead person – no no…..these devices are also mostly from mars and some of these pictures can even be from a different time-loop, from this realm, but from another era in another loop, because each realm is on a time-loop – as mentioned previously, if the GAA (Galactic Alliance Association – all the other pseudonyms from the truth/mystic/medium circuit are incorrect, its called the 'GAA' and is made up with over 150+ positive species, with 50 of those species actively involved in the awakening process and IRO 100 on stand-by they haven't need the 100 on stand-by yet)

The early scientists who sold us out get to experiment in anyway they want to – they have been experimenting for a few hundred years….experimenting on what? EVERYTHING YOU CAN IMAGINE – the images below are a a little bizarre and seemingly 'unreal' due to being a bit too unusual looking – but they are real, and they are what's been going on on Mars for the past FEW THOUSAND YEARS. The people standing next to these ETs are for several reasons: They ALL INVOLVE only PEOPLE who have SOLD US OUT, in some capacity – moving to mars is not for your average sell-out, no no, you need to be an important sell-out for a Martian ticket – they have the same clothes as us, same food (mostly) mars is a beautiful realm, only some of it is uninhabitable due to the Draco wiping out 2 benevolent species so they could use the closest realm to us as their main base –

Mercury / Jupiter / Nibiru / The Barnard Star /Mars (Mars in the sky) etc…… are not stars they are fully equipped Draco / Parasite bases.

JFK Assassination: Never happened as we know – the 'Zapruda' footage clearly shows the driver of JFK's motorcade, Mr William Greer(deceased from throat cancer in the early 90's) firing a gun from the driver's seat of the vehicle with his left arm There were several story's to placate all the audiences around the world, time delayed bull-shit story's for every angle:

The Normies got the 'Grassy Knoll' Lee Harvey Oswald story – then there was the History channel version that presented multiple shooters x 5 In various buildings, then there was the alternative 'Greer' version where the gun used was an electronically operated gas powered weapon developed by the C.I.A for the specific purpose of assassinating JFK with a small bullet that had a toxic sea anemone venom/poison in it, which explained why JFK's brain was removed before he was admitted to hospital… .all very convincing indeed and suitable for every stance on the apparent assassination. But its all made-up bollox.

The 1st Lady, Jacqueline Kennedy Onasis, sold her husband out helped by Frank Sinatra - JFK was in the car and the entire thing was set-up by Pleiadeans. It was a technology that made it look like JFK was shot in the head, it was a holographic display that covered his face in blood....not his actual face being blown off. JFK was in the car and it was not a body-double – the holographic technology used was a small 'chip' placed under his chin, and one in the hairline of his fringe, this displayed the real-life injuries that were seen. That's all there is to it.

NASA doesn't own a telescope, not even ONE - why would they? They know what the stars are, and the Arecibo telescopic array and all the rest are nothing to do with listening to the universe for life, they are built to throw off the scientists, only – their usage and purpose will be for something other than listening to the cosmos – the Vatican telescope named 'Lucifer' is only for communicating with Skynet and the other bases mentioned above…..don't forget the cabal know that we live under a firmament, so they also know that there's no point trying to look at anything with a telescope because you will never ever focus on it. and as I said in a previous synopsis, when Trump said that "Were going to put a flag in Mars" – he meant the flat realm, not the Military Auxiliary Radio Station, or maybe that as well, who cares? – I got something else wrong as well, I misinterpreted mars as a desolate Mad-Max Shit hole, but its not – there have been wars and conflicts, and originally there were 2 species of benevolent ETs, they were wiped out completely by the parasites and the 'Martians' were replaced by negative ET's and genetic testing, it is also where the SUPER-SELL-OUTS get to go and have age extension to 450-500yrs, and a privileged way of life – the genetic testing has been going on since day one.

The Anakim Giants are the largest of the 7 species of giants – I made a mistake in a previous synopsis where I said that there were a couple of negative species of giants – that was incorrect, I misunderstood what Christian said….there are NO negative species of giants, but some were used / 'vrill'd / hosted to become negative. The story of the 'Kandahar Giant' that was encountered by American servicemen in Afghanistan, if indeed a true story, was a negative vrill'd/hosted giant. (il ask Christian in a minute as he's outside on the phone) – and the mummified giants found in 'Love-lock' cave in America (?) Lovelock canyon in the Grand Canyon…? You know the Giants I'm talking about, ginger hair 7-9' tall all wrapped up mummyfied and killed after the native Indians got fed-up with their kids being eaten……they were negative/vril'd etc that's why they were mummified as mentioned in part-9-

Mermaids – Mermaids, as you probably guessed already, are real – they are hugely positive and highly telepathic – I was shocked at this revelation as I was under the impression that mermaids were all bad and didn't like humans….if they like us….why try get sailors to jump in the water and die? Christian explained it:

Mermaids love humans…….but if you are a demon, then a mermaid, for you, is the jackpot. That's why sailors jumped in the ocean to certain death….told to by a hosted mermaid who controlled the mind of the sailor. WHEN YOU REALISE THE LEVEL OF LIES THAT YOU HAVE BEEN FED…….YOU WILL BE VERY VERY CROSS INDEED. A Brief Synopsis

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Because each realm is on a different time-loop, species can decide to keep a certain time-loop for their entire existence – just like when you buy a new Game Consul or a Video game, you set it up for your own preferences, X / Y axis on the controller, Brightness, contrast, colour, haptics & game play experience etc – the same in the realms simulations, the parameters are all adjustable in the artificial simulation….it has to be artificial otherwise everything takes too long, like waiting for your dad to take a crap when there's only one toilet in the house – you know what dads are like, they wana read in the fukin toilet….go get a library init.

When Christian was a child and he used to get upset at seeing children being tortured and eaten on a daily basis, Kalo used to suggest he has a little 'Dance' cos it makes him feel better……so when Christian was pissed off the other day in the flat, about his flames absence, Kalo suggested he has a 'little dance' - "Come on Christian…you like a little dance it cheers you up" Christian was like "fuk sake Kalo that was when I was 9 bruv, I'm a grown man now"…..well, it cheered me right up seeing that conversation unfold, I nearly fell off the airbed!.....he's been lonely for 700 years and Kalo's advice was to have a 'little dance' – Dancing, however is and was and always has been used to raise vibration – that's why Tribes people dance round a fire and dance at gatherings – dancing elevates the mood and the mood of those in proximity, so when your manifesting…….take Kalo's advice and have a little dance! Dancing can help manifesting & concentration, especially when mixed with local native herbs and spices like LSD, Ecstasy & amphetamines - I digressed again, sorry…..sepia images of strange ghostly-looking shit – what these contraptions are actually for was research into contacting other dimensions & other times, communicating with others who may be in your past/present or future – they are not dead spirits in these images, they are 'live' Realtime glimpses/interaction at different times in the past present and future, but we assume they are ghosts as we all know that ghosts are real don't we? Well, They are not! Ghosts are fake, see part 5 I think? Ghosts and poltergeists are literally ALL just a group of Grey's known as the 'invisibles' they make shit happen and do poltergeist'y stuff) These devices all have in common a magnetic array, usually at the top & sides if not a complete circle, and an emitter at the bottom – don't forget these images were taken, if from our time-loop during the era we know of as 'Great Tartary', the end qtr of the 6th re-set, the Tartarian period ending in C.1870-1890 – don't forget all the books on history are just that….'His-Story' and they are there to keep you blind to the truth – what is the Truth??....the Truth is a Lot Stranger Than Fiction, that's what the truth is, and your ability to wrap your heads around this truth and process it swiftly with a pragmatic mindset is what will save your sanity come the imminent lockdown, and after.

Notice the Masonic 'hidden-hand'

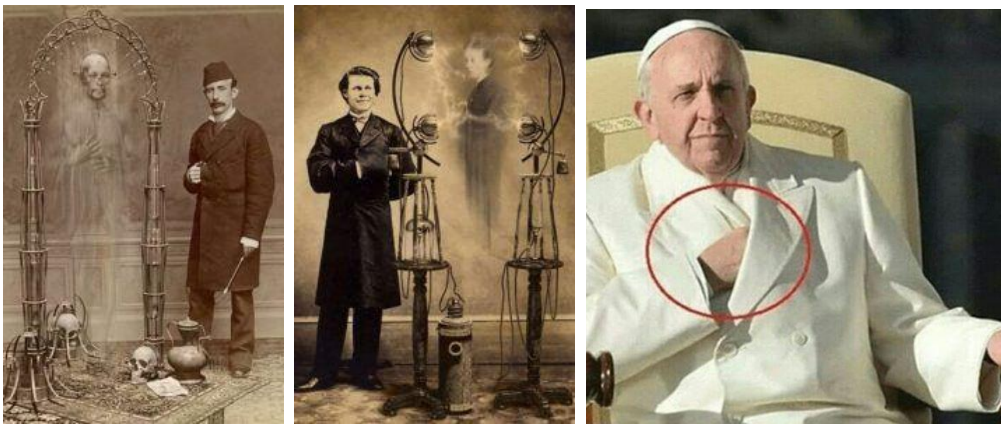

Fig.100, 101,102 t he Masonic 'Hidden Hand' symbology is prevalent thru all societies

The love between two twin flames is the energetic exchange that will 'paint' the walls of your new world very soon. Children playing and laughing, people being happy and helping each other, twin flames spending time together and sexual-Healing…..is what turbo-charges your simulation experience. It creates the world you inhabit, and it drives the flourishing flora and adds tangible beauty with vivid colours to the entire experience - the environment you live in is linked directly to your emotional state and feelings……if you're walking about chuffed-to-bits with everything & happy-as-fuck, then in 5^{th+} Density you will be feeling like everyone else is, im like that all the time anyway……I'll be sweet 😊 . This is the reason that in the sky over Norway the other day, will soon spread out around the realm – these colours are in actual fact, frequencies, and they are the actual 'Paint Palette' for the new simulation –

'The Black-Sun was removed recently & the Aurora Borealis has come back to its true form – the coding frequencies that we saw as a green night-sky a cpl of weeks ago, is the simulation code for the 5D matrix – remember the green sky In the Wizard of Oz, and the green 'coding' lines in the film 'The Matrix'? this is what they were showing you in 'plain sight'. The only thing that can match the energetic field of 2 twin flames, is the love that children emit when they are happy its these vibes that will decorate the parameters of the simulation on contrast and vibrancy, colour and magnitude, size and vibration of all the plants and furnishings of the simulation environment, the waterfalls and vegetation near them will be ordained by the frequency of unconditional love and the law-of-one. Remember it's a simulation, it's not a naturally occurring world and it's not accidental, the big bang did happen, but it was an energetic explosion of light, and not a physical explosion of matter. It took a really long time, that's the reason you now live in a simulation, we have ALL been living in a simulation for trillions of years…..evolution by natural selection did happen once, eons ago, so Benoit De Malliet was right in his theory in the 16th Century, that the Luciferian freemason Erasmus Darwin stole and gave his failure-of-a-son Charles, to go off and 'prove' in the Galapagos Islands.

the only difference now is that the war cost billions of lives from hundreds of species and there have been great losses amongst our neighbours, some species have been totally annihilated by the Draco and parasites (the two species of indigenous Martians, for a start) so this time round….THE SHEER EXCITEMENT amongst your soul family is beyond the imagination of anything except source-creation itself (and the ET experiencing those feelings!) so this realm-creational-re-boot will be different from any previous manifestation – this realm will very quickly become the most amazing realm there is in Gateway10. ……when the event happens, its guna be a bit unusual, just a bit out of the ordinary – because it's going to happen very quickly – after the flash, the new simulation will drop-in, resplendent with trees and countryside / waterfalls / vegetation / flora and fauna will all be 'dropped' in, in the blink of an eye – but the simulation will require the multi-spectrum frequencies of love, kindness, excitement, passion, respect, honour, empathy, sympathy etc, to embroider the simulation and define its parameters, you live in a simulation - remember the Star trek episode where they had to keep a native village of "Aliens" on the Holodeck and let them carry out their own self-fulfilled prophecy?....well that's us right now under this dome, one big 'Holodeck' with the new Earth = H.E.A.R.T signature which will be a multi-faceted compilation of the physical experience that each etheric soul reflects back into the simulation from its individual experience, programming it quickly in Realtime before your eyes– don't forget that 5th Density is something never ever presented to you before, or at least, not as it should be, not even the concept of 5D has been presented to you - only the 'fictional' characters of the fantasy films and scenery that adorns these fictional worlds that you see in your entertainment, reflects where you came from. These worlds are wrapped around a spherical lie in cinematic scenarios with ever greater special effects to keep you concentrating on the Heliocentric model, to stop contemplation about an ice wall that doesn't exist – so complete was their plan that it beggars-belief at the complexity they went to keep us unaware – credit where credit is due, they pulled-it-off for a very long time. We have never, as humans in 3D, experienced or been presented this type of information, concepts & thoughtforms before in a coherent way, & Christians lived with this since he was 9, so its Hardley surprising in retrospect that he is so matter-of-fact when he's explaining such vastly gargantuanly-paradigm-altering truth bombs....it blows me away it really does – he's is UNIQUE for many reasons and it's an honour and a pleasure to have met him again this loop, I say this loop as I mentioned before, we spend a lot of time together 'on-the-out' and apparently I was there when he was taken out the ice, I was removed from the ice at the same time too, apparently.....and I came in-&-out loads of times as well, apparently....and apparently I've had a lot to do with the information gathering process, with Christian, that was done over the last 6,013yrs before it was even known as the 'Moris-Butler Plan'.....thats soooo fukt-up – I can't wait to remember all this! – its mental because on conversations like this with Christian, it can go on for 20+ hours and he's remembered all this amazing info about what happened then and after waaaaay back, and some even further back in time with dreams of other lives as aquatic Sealife…..and the pair of us sitting in Costa coffee in Peterborough couldn't even remember that which we were just talking about a millisecond earlier, it happens constantly 11 times per hour, actually il tell you something funny…..I'm an advocate of "laugh at yourself before you can laugh at others" so that's why I'm sharing this, plus it shows my dedication, plus no one would make this up and say it publicly because its well embarrassing…..but last year after my 3rd zoom call with Christian, or this year maybe I forget? anyway, it became apparent that he is even worse than I when it comes to forgetting-mid-sentence what we were talking about, and the calls were like 5 hours of the most mental stuff you could imagine, anyway I was busting my nut for a piss one time so badly I thought it was appendicitis and that I may die ….well Christian was talking about really important stuff that no mortal being in this realm has ever heard before in 6K+ yrs….and I knew million % that if I cut him off to go for a piss then he and I will definitely both forget the topic in discussion and il be devastated if I've missed anything as it is irreplaceable, so, I did some advanced human calculations of Gain-Vs-loss and took a piss on the tiled floor while still on the call……I didn't say anything at the time, or since to Christian as it wasn't normal human behaviour to do that and i quickly justified my 3D actions, but my thirst for knowledge far outweighed the need to act outside of normal 'human' behaviour….if Christian sees this he will probably say "here Leon I thought you was taking a piss m8 but I didn't wana say nuffin….." he must have seen my facial relief at the time but it was too embarrassing to talk about since then, but the ducks lived in the conservatory at night under my chair and I used to tidy and bleach the floor daily anyway because they shat everywhere and they grew up in the conservatory in the summer and it got cold in the winter so I let them live in there….you know what ducks are like init they make more mess than I do, so these were the calculations I was doing at the time weighing up weather to piss on the floor or cut him off?....it was a no brainer, although if the conservatory floor was carpet, it would have changed things. That's how important I see this information as, I can't miss a thing with it……I am fully house-trained tho, normally unless it involves information unheard in the history of our species – because this info is at 1st a little 'Alien' (sorry, had to) its awkward to allocate a pigeon-hole in the psyche for its long-term storage, and rather it sits outside, parked on double-yellow's in the mind like a delivery truck that exceeds the Max-Headroom of a carparks entrance barrier, in most people, unable to match-up fantasy with reality because ethe chasm is to great yet they are viewing it from the polar opposite vantage point to the clear view of actual reality, which isn't a point of view, reality is one thing only, reality is itself ONE thing and not a hotch-potch of many different people's opinions, that's where reality's change into our personal paradigms……. This is the sieve that separates the wheat from the chaff – if the building blocks you created YOUR own paradigm out of, i.e the way you took-in information when growing-up & analysed it in the way that YOU yourself analyize anything else that you assess, if any of that info is fabricated from lies and misrepresented-qtr-truths, and if you are unwilling to drop all that like a tun of cat faeces, then this is going to be a really hard time for you. How you are treated when a child, dictates how you process and assimilate information during this whole life / loop – thinking and reflecting on YOURSELF and how you interact with others, how you talk to them, the tone & countenance, the words and passion you may or may not add to that interaction, if you can put yourself in someone else's shoes and see it from their perspective….if you can monitor this in yourself in real-time as a force of habit, then you can reprogram yourself to adjust to the paradigm-shifting reality that we are in right now, well in a few weeks time – if your older than 10yrs then you probably need to be doing this inner-work as 3D-life robbed you of it –you will know if this is you if you are not feeling on 'Cloud-9' right now? If you're not BUZZING your nut-the-fuk-right-off right now, you need to look inside at what YOU actually think…..? and why YOU actually think it? There is and always has been an alternate paradigm superimposed over this one, the barrier separating those two worlds is created in your mind and isn't really there – its thinner than a human-thought but it is stronger than the hardest Granite, its impenetrable if you try to breach it with the wrong attitude, you will never break-through.

There Are 4 main cords to cut, to ascend back here, just 4, and they 'lock' you into 3rd density:

1. Religion

2. Finance

3. Perceived intellect

4. Being a cunt

Fig.105 Can you cut the 4 strings?

Work on these 4 points over the next few weeks – e.g. regarding finance, 2 weeks ago in Portsmouth I had 140 quid to my name and I went to the ASDA supermarket down Fratton road & and saw two blue-lipped homeless people trying to sleep in the frost in blankets, it was fukin freezing & I gave them 20 quid each – that was 1/3rd of my entire worth & they probably bought smack with it, but my satisfaction was far greater than theirs because although they obviously needed it more than me, I knew I had just given away a 3rd of my planetary value and I felt a million % about it & it's not the 1st time I've done that, I've done that twice b4, not given money to homeless as I've done that untold times, but when I've had nothing at all, gave away big chunks of that 'nothing' on two occasions I gave away my last quid (£) and I'm glad I'm like that and I've always been told I'm a push-over because of things like that, but why should I have to turn into a cunt to fit-in? isn't it for people who are cunts to change, and be, not cunts? Seems reasonable to me.

I, like Christian also pick up snails and slugs and even worms off the pavement and put them to safety even going past on my bike il stop and go back – I've always done that, thinking if I was a worm I wouldn't wana be killed, so I better move him out the way…. It also reiterated to me the fact that I was right when I was 12 and my mum & dad used to say to me "Andrew….you have no concept of the value of money whatsoever" after I spent my life savings again that week on another pen-knife for 9 quid in 'WG Farmers' in Colchester in 1987……I didn't give monkeys about money……money was just tokens to buy pen-knives with and Amstrad CPC464 computer games, & sweets, obviously – I was right, what's the point of storing it, storing it causes delays in satisfaction, it's a bit of fukn paper and represents nothing except slavery…….Indian people wipe their arse on rupee notes in my local curry house in Colchester, that's how little value money has - it got closed down about 20yrs ago because they found 7 types of male seamen in 1 dish when the HSE was tipped-off in 1995/6….that is so wrong – Lol iv never been in there, it reopened under new management and is still open….but wild horses wouldn't get me in that restaurant even if I was dying of hunger…..having said that we have all been eating the corpses of our own species thanks to fast-food outlets and multi-national corporations that own the business interests that are interested in our children, the interests that decide and govern those who own the rest of our 'Free Choices' that are made freely on our behalf for us whilst making it look like we ourselves are choosing, and in full control of our aspirations….You can think what you want, but your thoughts are chosen for you

- thats the hard bit to swallow……like a RubyMurry in my local Curry House after 7 blokes knock-1-out in it, it's not guna chew-well for the sleepers the poor bastards waking-up to 'this' the same day it all kicks-off simultaneously……is the reason we came in here to help wake you all up….I heard Mc Donalds had dead children between those buns in 2005 but I didn't stop eating Mc Donalds until the penny dropped that that was actually a real conspiracy, in 2019….that's 14yrs of Mc Donalds……often at least once a week if not more…so I've eaten a lorry full of kids myself over the years because I trusted 'They' as well like everyone else does/did….how could anyone possibly do such ridiculous things it has to be fake…..obviously as no human would think of killing another human and eating it…..maybe in *caveman times, let-alone torturing a child for up to 4 days….3-4 hours per day of being flayed alive and having their faces cut off with no anaesthetic, or anaesthetic just as they are about to die from the agony, just enough to keep the heart beating.

No one is prepared for what's about to come, its never happened before and will never happen again…..make the most of this shit situation and be grateful for your own participation, whatever way you look at 'this' to draw a silver-lining……you cant polish a turd….but you can roll it in glitter, so 'glitter-up' you shit people because this is a one-off….next time it will be you out there the other side of someone else's bowl helping them, don't forget the universe is a big place, the demons are gone from Gateway-10, but there are many out there still, causing pandemonium wherever they go, there's also Etamines, Greys, Negative Anunnaki & Draco, also still out there – this is what you will be doing in a couple of years with your children, if you fancy taking the fight to them, you get a gun and a badge and a sick whip (vehicle of transportation) Military units are made up of family clusters in 5th Density (think I'm repeating myself? It can take me half a day to find where I 'was' when I lose my train of thought especially on this almost 500 pages now, going back thru correcting errors, its fucked-up as I'm so easily distracted, ….re-reading these is mental cos it's like I only now understand what Christian meant about getting help with these channelling, I thought I'd just got proper clever all-of-a-sudden, but no, Christian was defo right about that as well cos re-reading some of this ('some'…il take some a bit of credit thanks Kalo bruv u been mugging me right-off lately m8….thanks for the new house tho bredrin…..it's sick – ive moved into a stately home, I live in the cottage at the front in turn for 5 days work upkeep and renovation…..theres a lot of house to paint, lawns to mow…..lots of lawn

upon, that they had worked out with DNA alteration and poisons to disconnect entirely facilitated by the 3D matrix parameters –

'Tree-Hugging' in a 5th Density simulation has far greater effect than it will do in a 3D sim, a tree, like you, is an antenna the aether around you, the 'Northern Rock' in your realm regulates and modulates this energy created not kinetically but generated thru the emotions of love and empathy, sound a bit odd, but imaging a 'stick-man' see fig. :

Fig. Stick man can only look left, right, up & down, and stickmans field of vision is limited by his 2-Dimensional viewpoint, left and right, up and down, stick mans aperture or 'window' if you will, of visual field is only as wide as the edge of the paper sheet he's drawn on, so if stickman looks for instance, straight ahead as he is doing in the image above, he will see all in front of him, but is he looks 'left', or right, up or down, his field of view is limited the width of the grain of A4 paper that he is drawn on, see fig.

So, for instance, imagine stickman looking left as in the image above and notice the width of the sheet of A4 paper, enlarged for the purpose of the thought experiment, now imagine you are holding the sheet of paper that stickman is drawn on, in your left hand, imagine stickman is looking to his/her left, now with your right hand, pass your fingers past the edge of stickman's field of vision……what does stickman see?? He doesn't see your hand, he see's 4 skin-colour segments that could be anything, then a larger skin-coloured mass, being the palm of your hand…..stickman's perception is not accurate & a 'True' account of reality because he exists in another dimension/density to which you operate, so this is why 'ancient' reports of unusual technology is given different understandings by the paradigm of those witnessing the event/s Ezekiel's 'wheels within wheels' and flying beasts etc – its also why its so very difficult to think outside of your paradigm…..how can you possibly think outside of the container you are in?....it's easier than you think…….you need stop in your mind and step-backwards out of yourself and walk off to the side, either side it doesn't matter…..look at the situation with totally fresh eyes from a 3rd person-perspective, and look at it without your own emotion involved in the analysis process, whatever the situation may be, a car crash, or the Great Awakening (ha! 'Great Analogy' more like lol) once you have ascertained that the world is actualy flat, and that ET's exist……then you back-work the education/indoctrination system in Health the same way, it leaves bag-full's of jigsaw pieces missing from the puzzle…..and Christian21's information covers that in great detail…..microscopic detail in most cases…..that's never been seen before from one person so much truth all in a year……the Discovery channel make hours of highly believable crap about 1 silly topic, like the Gobleki Tepi situation mentioned previously, as one example, or the Pyramids….or the Maya….you can explain it all in 15 minutes if everyone was on the same page, but they are not, most people are not even in the right library let-alone on the same page, they are holding the wrong book upside down & back-to-front, the library they should be in is miles away…..to understand whats gone on you need to forget what you know, just for a minute or 10, just look around you and think that every famous person you know of, from the past or present, since before famous people were invented, and just the local rich had power, and even prior to this, Child sacrifice is the key to this whole process because the demons want the loosh from the higher frequency energetic fields of human children/adolescents …..then they will do whatever you ask of them, at a great cost to yourself and the world around you – the more power or 'luck' you want is determined by how many children you are able to sacrifice in a predetermined timeframe, doing this will feed the demon his favourite loosh that can only come from the fear of a terrified child, a human child's energetic spectrum of fear 'tastes' better, and therefore this is the demonic currency required for a demon to help you - the purest adrenochrome comes from the byproduct of that 'terrifecation' process (I don't think that's a word either? But you get me) to feed the demon its nourishment, & fee, the lifeforce slowly drained out of the dying child, drip by agonising drip. We kill cattle less painlessly than these beasts do our children - The carcass is collected with the many thousand of sacrifice victims the world over and processed in central 'hubs' that supply your fast-food outlets, to be fed back to you.

This 'revealing of that which was previously obscured' is going to be very problematic for the electorate when the EBS is called soon……this ONE topic alone would end civilised society overnight, if aired today….this is but one of thousands of topics to get thru in a very short space of time…….lets see how quickly they can rip-thru it all before everyone ignores the lockdown and takes to the streets looking to vent insanely incandescent & 'out-of-the-box' rage wielding revenge at the ghosts of the perpetrators, stay in people……..dont go out and get killed……

Fig. 108. 109 Red nose, hair, shoes mouth is symbology for the blood during sacrifice

Telepathy is not the same in 3D as it is in a 5D simulation, and with Pinel gland reductions and poisons sprayed on us throughout his-story, and added to water, we are de-telepathized (probably a new word but you get me) They reduced the oxygen content in our realm immediately as this prevents ripe old age as we need oxygen….lack of oxygen in bodily cells is what aids cancers spread also, plus it helps us stay small and easily manipulated, like most men born after 1975 by the look of it……fukinell…..because what we 'learnt' at school had no substance or point to it, learning a fake history, for a start – because our soul knows, but can't communicate its thoughts on the subject to us because our spiritual apparatus, as mentioned many times before is reduced in size and calcified with fluoridated water and toxic foods laced with metals, we are spiritually stagnant and reliant on the perceptions of others to validate & accept our own perceptions of ourselves, but the perceptions of others are themselves governed by the media……which is all owned by just 6 companies who are NOT-coincidentally well-established Deep-State/Cabal family bloodlines. It's starting to get exciting now…. can you feel it now? - make the most of it it's never going to happen again that's a fact When covid came along, 'they' the so-called-and-now-executed-deceased-'Elite's KNEW that THEY had won and that our time left was short. The Great Reset was just about to happen along with agender21…..so they started 'upping' the symbolism in-your-face with celebs and footballers with satanic goal celebrations & all sorts of blatant perverted demonic shit popping up everywhere at a greater speed from the Olympics to the Baftas – all the way thru society - This was soon to turn sour when Trump, who was even then being played by a positive (having been long taken-out b4 2016) who is the twin flame of the woman I mentioned previously in part 9 or 10 (?) called Celecia, who is the leader of the peoples of 'Pleiada' – these guys are in full control of the entire situation in this Galactic War that all the fake-truthers understand as a spherical-conundrum involving 'Space-Aliens' form a great distance away – for us to reach them in their home world, we are informed that it would require, at our current stage of technological advancement, years and years of stasis on ships with sealed rations and dehydrated food……like Mat Damon in "The Martian"……oh dear……..this really is the best time EVER to be alive…..if you work for NASA, then it's not a good time to be alive, at all, but for anyone else who cares who they actually are or where they actually came from…….when you realise the level of deceit your guna be really stunned. That's easy to say but I have had some 2nd hand glimpses of this shock and I know I've got some of my own on the way to deal with - they will not be forgotten by your soul and that's the whole idea, so this doesn't happen again……when you understand the level of lies and what those lies were covering-up….well this is why it will be such a complete shock to the system for everyone – but the option was to a lot of death and destruction, not just on our realm here but the 77% of the 177 other realms out there on our super-planet known as Gateway-10 – that's 14,000 other worlds who could have been partly or fully destroyed if the Celecia & Rapheal had have acted sooner with the 150+ species of really really positive benevolent ET species that actually love you more than they love themselves, but in a few weeks' time your Stockholm syndrome will kick-in and you will be wanting the government who enslaved you to free you from your new perceived threat, your own family!! Your own soul-family & friends who have been worried sick about you and watching you constantly, are coming back in a minute, safe from the parasites as they are well gone 4+yrs ago – it took this long for several reasons, to prevent a greater loss of life galactically, and also the advent of social media to wake people up we needed mass communication for it to be as smooth as possible….'as possible' – this IS the smoothest way that it could have been carried-out – the sheep had the opportunity to look at this just like everybody else did, so the only people they can blame when they are running for their lives in a few weeks' time, is themselves – ignorance was bliss, it was also a choice – if you smell smoke & the house is burning down and you're on the top floor with the kids, rather than sit there and wait to get burnt to death chanting "were all in this together", would it not be advisable to look for the nearest stair-well….? A recent survey carried out between my own ears, shows that over 98% of people would rather burn to death with the children than bother looking for an exit BECAUSE the Government told them that the smoke they smelt, was just their imagination.

Downsizing us wasn't just to stop us becoming a threat – the parasites always make sure that EVERYTHING THEY do has at least more than one benefit to them. Like Chemtrails serve several purposes, to make the sun's rays harmful, to damage our spiritual apparatus (pineal gland) to reduce life-span and to cause premature ageing, infertility + other reasons….same as downsizing us – make us easy to control and less of a threat if we woke up accidentally, but also because they can fit more of us in the realm – I'm a cannabis farmer so I'm well aware of the thought process involved in working out 'Crop Parameters'…..you are the crop under this firmament……and they didn't want huge plants taking up loads of room – they can fit 10 times the amount of vessels in the 'larder' if they shrink us a few meters 1st.

The Anakim Giants are the largest of the 7 species of giants, as mentioned earlier – I made a mistake in a previous synopsis where I said that there were a couple of negative species of giants – that was incorrect, I misunderstood what Christian said….there are NO negative species of giants, but some were used / 'vril'd / hosted to become negative. The Anakim and 3 other species of giants (maybe a 4th?) swore an oath to Source Creatin in Lemuria, which was the inception point of the 'New' humans. In return for their pledge and oath, the 4 races of Giants were bestowed the honour of being in charge of the Portals on this world and in return they can have whatever tech they needed – the Giants are massive and can punch a Draco battleship out the sky with one hand – so the Draco are loath to confront the Anakim unless it's essential and a battle with them is pointless unless part of strategic advance– YOU ARE ONLY ALIVE AT THIS EXACT MOMENT IN TIME BECAUSE 2 reasons: 1: A SPECIES OF 30 METER TALL GIANTS …….WITHOUT THE Anakim and *Archon Giants we could not have been able to gather the evidence required to turn-the-tables on the parasites because the Giants are the ones who protect and activate the portals. The Giants are on our side, yet there numbers are too small to aid in a pointless battle as there are only about 300 Anakim, they keep their numbers small and only have children when their population goes below a certain number. The Anakim live for many thousands of years and do not require EMF / Medical Chamber (in 3D we call them 'med-beds') so to lose 250 in a battle is synonymous with the extinction of their species – they did however help us constantly, as we came in-&-out of this realm taking as much intel about the parasites that we possible could, back with us to help with the 'Plan' unfold stages of information that would help plan a way to retake the realm with as little casualties as possible…..this is what Admiral Butler & William Morris were doing after they reached the ancestral republic, slipping in and out with many others back-&-forth between the icewalls in realm 2 – as mentioned previously in a prior synopsis, Earth-Quakes are a technology, they are not 'Tectonic Plates' because, you guessed it….tectonic plates are fake, it just sounds good – something else that sounds good, is aircraft windows……if you're on a passenger jet, like Christian will be in about 16 hours' time, and you look out the window you might not notice the fish-eye windows……..the windows in aircraft are designed to make it look like the earth has curvature – notice the double-skin glass and the Perspex inner panel, its just in case you happened to see anything flat(….don't you just love being awake and alive right now!! Its fukin awesome!) sorry I digressed again – Giants – The Anakim live in houses that look like Tartarian Mansions (acquaint yourselves with a Tartarian-style building and just explode-it-out in your mind so that the lounge is roughly the same size as an average city….HUGE dwellings – as mentioned, they need not construct these edifices themselves because whatever they need is given free as part of the treaty and oaths that were sworn in Lemuria at the new-humans conception.

2: 150+ BENEVOLANT SPECIES OF ET'S –

The leader of the Pleiadean civilisation is a woman named 'Celecia' – her husband is half-Lyrian and his name is 'Raphael' - Raphael is her #1 Military General and the pair are here saving your arses. The Pleiadeans / Andromadans / Articulate / Arcturian & Mayer, plus 46 more that I duno the names of, came together with 100+ other species, 6,013 years ago and hatched a plan. The plan was to take the realm back within 1,000 years – but although they obviously knew about the mind-wipes and resets and everything else……they didn't take into account that the poor humans now trapped in a 3D realm are going to sell them selves out no-matter-what happens to secure themselves a better 'lot' ,mainly because they don't understand the bigger-picture– these ancient souls were already so traumatised by what had already happened to them in the original occupation conflagration and the that 1st reset, that the desire to 'help' anything else but themselves, was severely limited. Survival mode became the new-normal for just a few souls and only a few were needed by the parasites to infiltrate the entire realm they only needed 1 soul to sell their species out - and with no telepathy, came reduced empathy and a contaminated dilution the sympathy 'gland's excretions. Over the ages they have destroyed the humans way of life, making you think that to be the best you can be, means owning more than the next person – money is a measure of worth…….utter perversion. "Tier 1, 2, 3 Redemption Bonds" ….PLEASE WAKE UP PEOPLE….. There are no Tier 1, 2, 3 bonds… …because, Poor / Middle-class / Rich (proletariat / Bourgeoisie) is a Draco construct……is that not a little bit obvious right now?....class division is Draco control tactics..people are so used to being lied to that they believe NOTHING unless what they are being lied to about involves the hope of financial gain….then they are happily lied to….everyone knows that a lottery ticket is not going to help them get rich, but they will buy one anyway because "someone's gota win it"….yeah probably a Rothschild or an illegitimate Rockefeller will scoop the jackpot. The QFS was your road into the "You will own nothing and be ze happy" the QFS train would have pulled-up right outside your FEMA camp chalet-front-door, as that was its purpose. All these thick twats mincing about in the public trying to sell crypto & gold……here ill give you a spade to dig a bigger hole for yourselves. The genetic testing on mars, as mentioned previously, has been going on for a few hundred years, don't forget, Tartarian's sold-out Tartarian's, also – so some of the images show some Tartar Sell-Outs, and others if you look closely show a guy in a Puffa jacket who was either a cabal sanctioned time traveller or a visitor from another time-loop see image below:

There are also our distant ancestors living there, the 'Cavemen's ancestors still live there and look pretty similar to how we imagined them, just a bit more

'human-looking' – they probably know nothing at all about us, but they mix with the normal sell-outs and other weird shit that walks the plain of mars openly demonic – it makes so much sense that mars would be like this – and so much sense as why try keep publicly reiterating the quest to find water on the surface of mars? keep pressing that to our face so that we never even begin to formulate an query about mars other than "hey found any water yet?" its complexity has its own hall-mark that is easier and easier to understand the deeper you go down that burrow.

The idea of the pyramids Sarcophagus was to do several things, as was the pyramids purpose – negatives and positives always use tech that does several things at the same time, whether that be frequency, chemical or biological based – the sarcophagus itself was used predominantly as a Med-Bed, and also to charge Armor, the Armor is 4D (obviously) and therefor requires a 4D simulated energy which is what the pyramids actually are when owned by the Anunnaki – the other rooms inside were also used to charge weapons and equipment during resets - don't forget that Zechariah Sitchen was a 33rd degree-Kiddy-fiddling-cabal-member, so don't listen to what that fukin nonce says, I wouldn't trust him to make me a fukin sandwich let-alone translate the front page of the 'Sumerian Daily Herald'……lies lies lies…..all lies. Like William Thompkins said on the Casidy interview……."I've just forgotten what he said as I was about to write it!!....fuk-sake…I haven't had a pipe for the last 6 days as I left my shatter and rig at Christians when we went to sort out the passport…and I just got back and had a the-pipe-of-all-pipes to make up for the 6 days straight and now I forgot what I was guna say! – il come back to it later after another pipe, as that pipe will probably help me remember) The scare-event/s are needed, that may not seem fair considering you have been held prisoner and abused worse than a script from any horror film that you could pull-up in your mind's eye, but the reason for the scare-necessity is because you are all in this mess because you sold each other out right from the very beginning of the parasitic occupation….so just like the reason I'm scared of spiders, well I was, strangely till a few months ago, I was helping a thirsty spider out a few days before the police kicked my door in a Cpl months ago, there's a fuk-off harvest spider that iv known for a while, it lived near my desk at the time, months it was there, it used to go walkabouts all-round the conservatory and I found it on the floor a few months ago , it looked a bit down and unable to walk, so I took it some water dripped out of a bottle-top & it drank some – we built quite a rapport over that few weeks, go to know each other a little better, I forgave its species for helping torture me….duno when but they defo fukin did the spider fekers – anyway the scare event is ESSENTIAL because like an irrational phobia such as arachnophobia, each soul must be SO terribly TERRIFIED and SUFFER GREAT TRAUMA that the soul will NEVER EVER EVER forget what SELLING YOUR SOUL, LEADS TO. That's why you need crap scared-out of you….your turds will be booking flights on Space-X website, to go to the moon when the sky-event kicks-off, that's a fact – Q said there are no coincidences……Q wasn't wrong….whoever she is? Mc Donalds, The Clown, Red Shoes, Red Nose…….red mouth-and-lips-and-chin….red hair…: The red mouth-lips-chin is indicative of the blood they get on their nose and chin when they are eating your children, raw – the red shoes are obviously made from children's skin, as is now common knowledge, the red hair is obviously blood – these freaks bath in blood at these sacrifices……people don't want to hear about Justin Bieber doing stuff like this, or a children's TV presenter doing WORSE THINGS….CBBC presenters are the same as the rest, why do you think there is a statue of a child performing a sex act on a man, outside BBC HQ….? bit of a giveaway. Sir David Attenborough…….you would not think that 'lovely old boy' would have killed thousands of children, would you?……..or Estha Rantzen…..but they have and did. Hey I have my own troller! Lol! Little 'me' has someone who cares enough to bother to troll! I'm glad they are putting the time in, id like to see a bit more dedication tho…..it makes me feel important that someone cares enough to put energy in to me, I want some more cos I only got one…..but 1 is better than none, because to have a troller of your own is like a status symbol…..you aint no-one if you aint got at least 1 troller I'm guna keep it, incubate it and feed it with love and compassion, and in 6 days it will grow into a 9'-tall and very apologetic ET whose cheeks are rouge-with-embarrassment if anyone sees my troller walking thru cyber-space on its way somewhere, please be nice to it because the nicer you are, the greater the disabling effect will be, like when a Grey Alien can make you turn a gun on yourself & shoot yourself in the head, with telepathy. There are over 100+ species of highly advanced ET's waiting on stand-by in case they were required, but they were not, as the main species listed above had it under control from day-1. You could not have been saved until now as It required everyone to wake up and understand what happened…..that needed to wait till the advent of social media – social media was the tool for our control, except it worked against the Cabal and not in their favour – we used it to wake everyone up….well not everyone because everyone doesn't think for itself, everyone cant tie its own shoe-laces, everyone can't cook a meal for itself and neither can it understand obvious truth – Everyone is held-captive between its own ears, in a cage made of wrought and tempered Stockholm-Syndrome-stainless-steel. Well, everyone can go fuck-itself. Us crazies were right on every-single point right back to the start that's why the sleepers are getting angry - if I wasn't so embarrassed by it, it could be really funny but its more inevitable-embarrassment than humour, that I personally feel. now they are 'cooly' tying to admonish any fears from the covid enquiry as if it's a nasty scent in the room, like when someone farts in a theatre, no one makes a big ostentatious public fuss about it….they just step sideways a couple of times, sleepers are stepping away from the foul smell of truth because THEY NEVER EVER THOUGHT THIS DAY WOULD COME…..THEY ARE NOW REALISING THAT "TRUST THE SCIENCE" was a posh way of walking you to the gallows, unawares & OBLIVIOUS. Don't trust the Government…..I

cracked that chestnut when I was about 7…..actually, for me the thing I'm most shocked about that doesn't involve SRA (Satanic Ritual Abuse) and its still shocking me repeatedly 4yrs later, is 'my' view, of 'myself'….I was in the bottom set at school for everything, I know what I like and know but I agreed with everyone else about me…."I must be wrong" cos 99.9% of the time I am and its common knowledge….so I believed everyone, even knowing what interests me…..i didn't give a shit anyway cos I like thinking what I think about, and I noticed early on that I don't get bored, I'm bored-proof because even as a kid I had loads to be thinking about and no time for boredom – Because we haven't got our telepathy, we can't tell who the plebs are cos lying and mimicking positivity isn't just something only the demons do…..humans are well good at it! But now it's EASY to see who the plebs are……they will be the ones looking a little un-ecstatic, if such a word exists.

*('Archons' are a species of giant – people talk about Archon-Overlords….is a misnomer in some uses as there Arcon's, who are negative reptilian-looking things, but the Archon' are a species of Giant smaller than the Anakim – the Anakim are the ones represented on Game Of Thrones) and are the tallest. The story of the 'Kandahar Giant' that was encountered by American servicemen in Afghanistan, if indeed a true story, was a negative vrill'd/hosted giant. (il ask Christian in a minute as he's outside on the phone) – and the mummified giants found in 'Love-lock' cave in America??? Lovelock canyon in the Grand Canyon…? You know the Giants I'm talking about, ginger hair 7-9' tall all wrapped up in a mummification process having been killed after the native Indians got fed-up with their kids being eaten……they were negative/vril'd etc that's why they were mummified as mentioned in part-9-

Mermaids – Mermaids, as you probably guessed already, are real – they are hugely positive and highly telepathic – I was shocked at this revelation as I was under the impression that mermaids were all bad and didn't like humans….if they like us….why try get sailors to jump in the water and die? Christian explained it: Mermaids love humans…….but if you are a demon, then a mermaid, for you, is the jackpot. That's why sailors jumped in the ocean to certain death….told to by a hosted mermaid who controlled the mind of the sailor. There must always be truth in all myth because to even have a 'creation' of something, for this example let's say a dinosaur, a velociraptor was real, and from that one dinosaur many hundred were envisaged, all different colours and all different sizes - but the T-Rex was a dragon skull, and the rest made-up [that's what a dragons skull looks like] imagine a Vril'd negative fire breathing Dragon and what that can do to help destroy the last humans remaining in far off islands scattered about the realm in the 1st & second resets – as they developed better understanding of how we work and function as 'their' new species of freshly-created miniature disabled versions of our former selves, they developed better understandings of how to scare us, as it's all about the fear with them, they don't want to eat a human who wasn't terrified before it died like the Koreans won't eat a dog unless its beaten to death and scared out of its wits beforehand, same reason, the meat is crap is it's not full of adrenalized blood.

Conception in the ET world is a very special occasion the family-to-be are lucky to be chosen by a soul when the time is right, the mother and father will get to know the soul intimately over a period of time, the souls likes and dislikes, wants and needs, maybe the new soul to join the family has idiosyncrasy's that need addressing before birth, or desires from the new mother and father, and a preordained set of aspirations to achieve in the new life, this stuff is discussed before conception takes place. A woman will only ovulate when required, it's a self-control aspect to the 5th density – there are no contraceptives in 5D.

Thors hammer is a real weapon, an energy weapon similar to a mobile pyramid in that it generates its own power continuously, that travels thru the handel and acts as a devastating weapon – a small 'tap' on a rock will crush the rock, a heavy smash will 'dustify' it on impact.

Special thanks to my good pals 'Taffy' in Dundalk Ireland & 'Rico' in Colchester because without even knowing it, you both played a major part in 'Our-Story'….not 'His-Story' OUR FEKIN STORY for a change!…….you two helped without even knowing what that meant at the time, and what you both helped make possible facilitated the close of one of the last chapters of mankinds story - Big Love people and hold-the-line – don't forget this is guna look very authentic (the sky event, I mean)– enjoy it for what it is…..your salvation – keep the children close and stay tight – don't panic as the only thing that will harm you is another human…..not one of those guys up there….remember…..they are the ones who saved you, they are the ones who want you to wake up and land back here in this realm after ascension, they NEED you here for your blue little-blue-light, if nothing else – your vessel (personality this loop because of its disconnection from the pineal gland, I'm not going thru that again!) your vessel has damaged firmware & corrupt files on C: Drive, you need to be reinstalled to a previous version of Human 1.0 with a DNA upgrade, then your good-to-go best thing to do when the shit hits the fan, is stay indoors out the way – if you wana help people then please do – I will be because I'm nice as fuk.

The sepia images of what appears to be people summoning a deceased spirit with a contraption/s of varying description, are also real images – these devices pictured below, were created either on Mars, or possibly from a different time-loop here from this realm, the former is likely more accurate – but the latter is a possibility, maybe some of them are from this realm, who knows? NOW THE IMAGE PRESENTED, BETWEEN THE EMITERS, IS LIKELY TO BE ADDED AFTER, DURING PROCESSING AS QUITE LIKELY THE PHOTOGRAPHY EQUIPMENT AT THE TIME MAY NOT HAVE PICKED-UP SUCH ETHERIC IMAGES – THE PICTURES ARE REAL THO AND THE EQUIPMENT WAS NOT FOR CONTACTING

THE DEAD – WE JUST OBVIOUSLY ASSUME THAT FROM WHAT WE HAVE BEEN PRESENTED. It ALL boils down to understanding "What we have been presented" is only what we have been presented, NOTHING ELSE– well, we are just about to be presented with all the other stuff that wasn't previously presented - taken away from us collectively all that time ago....on its way back with an energetic momentum built-up over 6,000 years to come all at once like a thunder bolt from the sky. Just quickly, the previous images on my posts of Mars, with massive animals and giants etc etc....some people are saying they are fakes, and yes you would assume that, but with the back story and new information not previously known, if there was 500 pictures and 300 were faked....what would that cause the 200 not-fakes to represent? You see the Draco were well aware of this.....really really aware of everything....they operate in a density above us, of course they thought of everything – including getting men having sex with men and women wanting to cut their own breasts off to be masculine. A few fakes thrown into a debate, will, for the uninitiated be enough to stop further research in a nano-second – I was one of them doubters 5yrs ago so trust me I'm well aware of it and the impact that can have in decision processes – but a few fakes out there does not mean the real ones, are not real. Christians guna be landing shortly - I miss him big time he's left a cold flat and a vacuum of knowledge.....I might have to book a flight to the US.....I miss him now I've lost me new-best-oldm8 again.....shiiiiiiiiiit.....never mind its only a week max respect people hold that shit together on Christmas!!! - and see you on the other side guys XXX

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

The Voynich manuscript The Voynich manuscript is a 4th density catalogue from the beginning of the occupation when the Draco needed to vegetate the new 3D realm just created. Why on earth would the Draco need a battered old book with a strange written language in to produce trees and flowers for a new realm?.....because as discussed, there is no other 3rd density realm in the entire universe, so where would the Draco go to get 3rd density vegetation from? They can't get 3rd density vegetation from anywhere else as none has ever existed, so they used vegetation from a 4th Density simulation….where's the closest 4D simulation?....right below their feet, in inner earth – Don't forget Inner Earth is 2-3 realms mostly in 4th Density but there are 5D areas within the inner earth – there is no language in the inner earth as telepathy is the chosen form of communication (as discussed in a previous synopsis) 'The Labyrinth' was in an inner earth, the Demons and other 4th density beings like 'Critters' and gargoyle-looking creatures lived down there in blissful negativity, cynicism and hatred – my ex would love it down there, she would be right at home and unlikely to want to leave – demons like it doom-&-gloom so does my ex, so they wouldn't need to kid-nap her, just point her in the right direction. So the Draco got some humans from the human-cellar and said "Right, go down there, speak to the tall geezer with a beard & leaves in his hair, he will help you make a book of plant life, pay attention to what he says, here's a language you can write it in and here's a box of crayons, then start planting that shit on the surface as detailed in the book' – the Draco couldn't take 5th density flora up to the surface as it will not flourish, 5th Density plants will not grow well in a 3D simulation.....but 4D plants will take root and produce fruit. Lots of the plants in the manuscript are for the ocean. The manuscript was likely one of the very first writings from our new realm it could be a copy-of-a-copy-of-a-copy but its IRO 6,013yrs old, or at least, the information it contains is – the language the Voynich manuscript is written in a language that will never be deciphered because it was a one-off language for this purpose only. Don't forget that there isn't 'language' anywhere else but here in this 3D realm – no one else out there takes 'notes' or writes books, about anything whatsoever – telepathy and images are how EVERYONE ELSE converses.....so there will not be anyone alive who can read that text – but don't worry as when you get your memories back, you will know this also, to be true. #

When traveling thru a portal, if you are exiting your own density into a higher D, you will need a 5th strand DNA upgrade – a 5th because its bleak in 4D, nothing much going on, lots of 'creatures' will exist in 4th Density and there are realms out there that are just 4D with just animal life - On the fabled old maps from the Dark Ages there would be small drawing of a dragon and the words "There be Dragons" marking the boundary.....the boundary to what? the ice wall, obviously - sailors who made it thru one of the portals, and back again, which was double-hard, would write of the dragons they saw flying about in realm 2.

The Dark-Ages, so named because it saves 'They' from having a load of explaining to do regarding the previous re-set/s……they could easily admonish-away most of the rest of the world, and skirt a conversation on what a 're-set' might entail, but in many places they could explain away huige chunks of valid history on a cloak known of as the "Dark Ages"…….they had free energy back then so it wouldn't have been all that dark – probably had laptops as well……the only thing that was dark was what they kept us in, for 6,013yrs…….fed shit and kept in the dark like a mushroom factory, digesting our dead neighbours as we ferment in society's stagnant pond of devolution – asking silent questions in our mind as we age, as to why society seems so disjointed, it's almost like the Government are working against us, not for us? - don't forget it's not broken……it was built that way – loosh is harvested from many points of origin, a couple rowing over a later date, a child being scolded by its pair-who-rents, a war, the grief a burglary causes an old lady lamenting for 3 weeks and dying of a broken heart…..or a child having its eyes cut out by Jon Podesta with a Stanley Knife, all this negative 'Aetheric' energy is harvested for their negative demonic feeding sessions, via an array of means all hidden within the cities layouts, cities are based on a circuit-board-lay-out, that's not a coincidence, coincidentally. The flow of energy from sacrifice sites is controlled thru demonic and masonic blueprints and symbolic key locations – 'Listed' buildings are all satanic sites, 'Listed' as a way of mocking us like a dog pissing on a lamppost. No other reason, there's no historic value in a modern building erected in 1199AD as that was the 'other week' in real-time, as in 'out there' real-time. – the listings are for our mockery, adding prestige to a property that was used to torture many hundreds and normally thousands of our human children, for adrenochrome. – don't forget that the Egyptians were well versed in extracting adrenochrome and adrenochrome is the reason for the parasitic occupation in the 1st place, so obviously 840AD in southern France, they were well skilled at adrenochrome extraction. The energy (loosh) harvested, stored then relayed to the moon, this loosh is used for several purposes, this negative energy is what helps draco stay in human form, shapeshifting and walking thru walls etc etc.

The film 'Venom' shows how a demon will manifest after taking a human host – if you are unfamiliar with this movie, watch it, it's another example of a 'Plain Sight' reveal – no one would suspect that the film Venom shows anything resembling a semblance of reality, yet it does.

When a demon takes a host as described in a previous synopsis, it is facilitated by 'Lamb' the Grey who tutored Alister Crowley and that other pleb whose name escapes me right now? Anton Le Vey! Him, that pleb. Lamb will be on the demon dumping ground and a portal is opened at the sacrifice site, where will be a gathering of nonces and at least one dead child which is the payment for bringing the demon here – you would think they would jump at the chance of coming here by invitation and would do it for free, but no, you have to slaughter a child before a demon will allow you to let it in and destroy your entire life I the process. The demon comes in as etheric black 'dust' as the portal closes and Lambs fat-little-head disappears from view, the demon enters the victim-sell-out via the mouth and starts crushing the soul (little-blue-light) inside the sell-out. Black magic is being carried out from start to finish to facilitate this transfer and subjugation of the demon entity into the host victims souls dominant location - just like the nefarious Goa'ld in 'Stargate' will do exactly this via a snake-like creature called a symbiont, that enters the human host thru the mouth and dominates the soul of the human, taking up residence by permanently attaching itself to the spinal cord and cerebral cortex– the demon does not care what type of host it has as long as it's a host here in our 3D sim.....their preference would always be for a transgender host and this is, as mentioned earlier, the reason for the LGBTQ 'movement' - I've seen more movement in a pensioners rectum - this is what is being represented in tv and cinema, different variations of 'hosting', presented to you as fiction/horror/phantasy/scifi……this isn't even a difficult 'dot' to join as most people have seen a TV before, so should be able to relate to this, unless on life-support with a digital-pulse? (the digital pulse of the MSM sent thru their eyes and ears by fibreoptics because Satellites don't exist, well they do, but its not 'our' tech – it's called Sky-Net, funny enough –

Skynet 1 is: 'Most of the stars that make-up what we down here understand as "The Constellations" it is a security system and communication network that all realms have, but normally for positive reasons, our 'Sky-Net' was back engineered into a negative control system.

Skynet 2 is: What pilots fly thru when they reach altitude for the duration of the flight a whole bunch of deception and smokescreens, portals to reduce journey times because the world we live in is actually a lot different than we previously assumed based on what we were told, after being born again with no past life memories. We can't remember how fascinating we actually are, we are shit-hot.

You don't need a Passport to exit realms, so it was well 3D when Christian & I went to get his bloody passport.....what a nightmare that was, just getting it, we had a proper laugh tho, cant not really with Christian, he's a bit 'Christian'. It's a shame to have to say this as it's something we all know only too well when it concerns ourselves directly. Let me explain. Mathematics, for me is a no-go zone. It was when I was 5, it still is now I'm 50 – it's not going to change and it doesn't need to. I can't do the most basic simple arithmetic in my head or on my toes – sometimes I have 12 toes and sometimes 7.....I can't do maths and I honestly know 5yr olds who are better at Maths than I.....but We don't assess the value of a fish by its ability to climb a tree, and no one is good at everything – so when I see people in comments saying "This must be a scam because if someone was going to America they would have done all this weeks ago" I just laugh. Some people think Christian and I are schills!! That's the funniest thing I ever heard in my entire life.....that's like a geazer who doesn't have hot water in 2023 – that's like a geazer who is on the run, but doing videos and posting them on bookface not giving a monkeys, calling out the police & Kiddy-fiddlers for what they actually are, and spreading the word of your true origins and birthright.....helping people understand that not only is there an icewall.....but YOU yourself have a family the other side of it.....but strangely, the Stockholm syndrome is so indelibly etched-into their psyche that these 'trollers' (it's even a strange word) are turning on the people who are trying to help them.....this is EXACTLY why it's taken so long to free us.....BECAUSE MOST OF US DON'T WANT TO BE FREED, the faux-feelings of security they feel from the lies emanating from the TV & media are like the sweet music from the Pied-Pipers-Pipes, like the 'Bisto-Kids' they are unable to turn their heads away from the reassuring tone of normality that subdues them. To keep that normality, they must animate in some way either vocally or with text from the anonymity of a keyboard.... helping the digital War, from the wrong side, hoping to score own goals, like 'Bluewater' himself is at the moment for some reason – a good troller would have its own website, or channel with facts debunking the so-called schills, but there's none of that, they just say singular words and repeat them with no due-diligence often hiding behind a façade of righteousness & having done not a jot of research.

Remember the Rothschild Secret Covenant……"We will make them police themselves…" (see appendix. i.).....yep they did and they got the unwitting help of some un-witt's called trollers, Without realising it these trollers are supporting the tyrants who govern us - You couldn't make it up – it doesn't sound like a dystopian movie, it is a dystopian movie, and it's about to end very publicly in the near future, with a final scene out of Battle Star Galactica, right above your heads.

Im on the run thru choice, NOT necessity, I had the option to conform and be a good-little-boy doing what I'm told by the Paedophilic Child-killing-Luciferian-Judicial system – it's an important decider. I chose not to conform anymore even in that way, and what better example to choose than an incarceration?? people would rather loose money than freedom.....not I, I do not consent. End of. If the police wana talk to me, they are welcome to, they have my email and phone number.....why not reach out?....if they really wanted to find me, if it was actually that important, I'm not even that hard to find……I'm not wearing a disguise and I'm going about my daily business as I always have. I'm making videos from known locations and posting them on Facebook. If they want to talk about something, I'm sure they can talk to each other about it because arresting me for their perceived licence re-call, will end in the magistrate being arrested for Gross misconduct in Public office, aiding and abetting in a treasonous act, Malfeasance/misfeasance/nonfeasance in public office. I got nicked last year on an 18 month re-call, for 4 kilos of weed and after punching two coppers in the mouth when the broke into my home and assaulted me for asking why they were here? – I was only in the cells 10 hours after they realised that to put me in front of a magistrate well be synonymous with a visit to the job centre in the morning with a 'P45' for them, and the magistrate being found guilty of the above charges and serving time in jail themselves/s. I explain this in detail on my website:

Last time I was on the run a few years ago, I didn't even know I was on the run, I did at the beginning, but I forgot .....I went to 13 countries thru 1st lockdown for work, and after 6 years when I got arrested in 2019 I was told that I have had 3 live warrants active for my arrest since 2014 - so surely if you're on the run, why do they let you travel out the country even? They are not very good at it is the answer. If people didn't hand themselves-in, and without 'Grasses' / 'Snitches' the police would be fucked as they are really shit at finding people without grass-troller-sellouts, and other people keen to help the enemy of the people, the police would now nothing whatsoever.

Trollers I love you too! I will be helping you in a few weeks time so don't worry, I've got you, and I would piss on you if you were on fire, so please don't worry! its well funny that I got a troller! That's more outrageous to me than Christian asking Kalo to get his feet out the other night....I asked Christian if Eldo had fingernails?, so there was a discussion for a while about feet and hands, Christian said "Go on then Eldo get your feet out mush....show us your feet come-on bruv?" he does have fingernails, but not quite like ours.

2023 the police are not what they used to be – in the UK now the police are made up of school-leavers who wanted a job with security and a ladder, or LGBTQ supporters who feel powerful in a group of sympathisers & the need to 'defend' a little bit extra for 'Lucy' (Lucifer). 'Fashion' is more of a concern for these police than Law – they make-up the law as they go, they are used to it working for them like this, and their seniors get the results that the station needs for next year's funding, so no one changes it. In the higher echelons of the Police, anything needing a cover-up is quickly augmented to save the force any embarrassment. The more they got away with it, the worse and worse it got.

Then Q came along…….. The plastic mirrors on a FEMA camp Challet wall are not as clear as the glass ones in 'Laura Ashley Home & Bathroom', but they will still be able to see the tears of sorrow reflecting back as they fidget nervously with their charge-sheet Infront of it, straightening their top-knot & applying the last drops of 'Beard-Oil' before going before the Military Tribunal. They are closed hearings so don't worry, your mum & dad will not be there to see your shame, or to see you hang, some of you police, teachers, CAFCASS, Social Services, GP's, Doctors, Nurses, Judges…..etc….some of you are going to hang, and we will get to see the footage after, which I am quite looking-forward to . Your family will get a little box with your belongings in to take home and put on the mantlepiece. The police Globally, (or 'plainly') have been given standing-down dates which are not all on the same day as that would look suspicious, just a little. So, they will be taken out in stages the closer we get to the event. I know the police themselves know this because it was confirmed to me by a member of the police who I am good friends with for many years, he took early retirement 2yrs ago as he saw this all coming himself.

To find an awake member of the public is very hard, but to find an awake policeman/woman……well that's nothing short of a fucking miracle, because they are not allowed to contemplate these topics socially, for fear of being ostracised which also delays 'ladder-progress', so they are swept-along by the river of lies which opens-out to the sea of bullshit that you experience as 'modern living' - you woke-up after a nap on a little rubber-dinghy out there in that ocean of deceit, all alone and just realising now that there seems to be a storm brewing on the horizon and you just noticed that you cant see the shore anymore & it's dawned on you that both the oars fell off somewhere a few 'knots' ago while you was kipping in the sun……all you have is a laptop and a social media account & the only thing that springs to mind is to start trolling! you could use that laptop and social media account to paddle-yourself to shore with and maybe help some others on the way…..but noooooooo, that would be an admission of fault - good people have been lost their lives to try to explain all this information to you……and now it's too late to 'know' it. You can hear it but there isn't time to process it as you will need, fastest way, a few months…..longest way…..a couple of years to process this new paradigm installation. It takes thought and time and questions to understand this new reality as it is absurd at first encounter – we, I am here for you and your question on this subject and the subjects of Commonlaw and how to free yourselves from fraudulent bills/contracts/tyranny until the EBS is called – this is for your peace of mind so that you do not have stress and intimidation before the actual event, you will be empowered by this information found here: https://medi-cure.uk/maritime-admiralty-law-2/ and health and homeostasis advice with natural intervention techniques and protols to cure many, if not all cancers, for instance, are found on the same website: https://medi-cure.uk/ - for wake-up memes and bare-cannabis related images see my Instagram: https://www.instagram.com/cannabinoid_intel_agency/ https://www.facebook.com/LeonGeorgeSinclair

Musk was made to put star link back as it previously was before he was executed - before the Draco arrived. The Star link/Starlight system is real, but Musk didn't invent it, its ancient. And usually, it controls all positive aspects of the simulation & the realms security system, but it was back engineered for nefarious reasons. All realms have a "Starlight" satellite configuration – it's the astral-Swiss-Army-Knife of security and stability for all the realms.

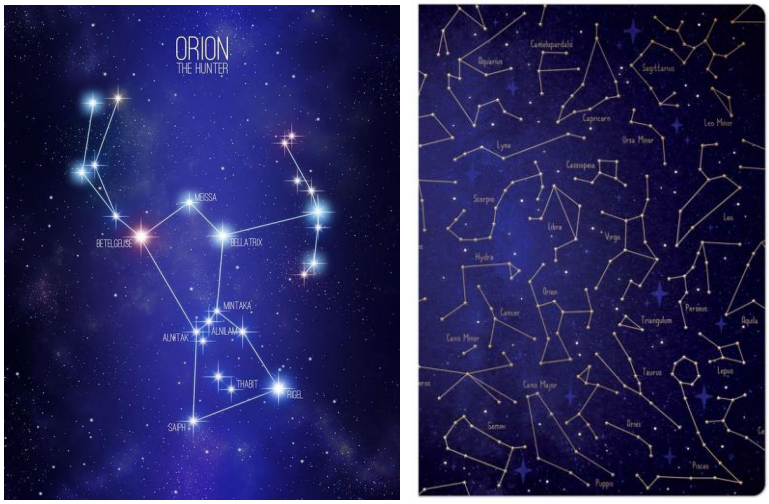

Fig. 112 & 113 'Sky-Net-One' is the constellations (mostly) some of the 'stars' are away-stations and bases, like Saturn & Jupiter, but the rest are all serving a purpose, they are not naturally occurring 'things'

Lots of ancient sites like Gobleki Tepi in Turky and others dotted about the world, as mentioned before, are placed there to throw archaeologists off the scent – large 'sacred' sites were built and never inhabited or used and constructed with out-of-place techniques for their time and / or incongruous depictions of animals, like dinosaurs, that didn't actually exist – don't forget that there were no vegetarian dinosaurs.....dinosaurs were created by the Draco/parasites and used for the specific purpose of wiping out the last survivors of all of us here now, but in our original bodies, that we never experienced a death in, until 6,013yrs ago – the dinosaurs that were real was about 3% of what they tell us existed, and these 3% were carnivorous, obviously as they were designed to hunt and kill us in our 5th Density body's as the Draco are no match for us in 5D with our 9' tall athletic build and full telepathic abilities, they are not stupid, they don't enter a fight that they are unable to win, so they created dinosaurs and vril'd them (Vril being a Type-1 Reptilian that lives under ground as deep as possible – remember the flying angels in the bible, and the flying monkeys in Wizard of Oz, and the flying Monkeys in Flash Gorden....? That was the Vril, as in a reset, the Draco throw them out of Craft as they have wings and their flight down to the ground was recorded by eyewitnesses as Falling/fallen Angles (Angels / Angelos / Messenger = Falling Messengers – in other areas they were recorded by eyewitnesses as taking a host a the dead of night in Bedouin tents and Camal traders caravans – they were not openly talked about for fear of bad luck and being taken by one, just for discussing it, which is a good way to make people stop discussing it – grandma cutting you off at the table when you ask her about the green lizard who lives in the caves?

The Falling/Fallen Angels were part of the team of 'world-takers' - the Vril made it possible to take a host quickly and easily without all the pomp-&-circumstance required at a sacrifice to summon a Demon, and without the need to set-up a cloning facility etc etc, its fast and easy to vril someone/something, a Vril can slip in and take a host while the host is asleep.

The dinosaurs were mostly Dragon bones & Skulls that were given a new provenance & history as a terrifying Dinosaur called a "Tyrannosaurus Rex" in the minds eyes of the in the mid-19th century public, who were only just crossing the threshold of the last re-set themselves - these bones and skulls of the 'pre-historic' monsters who were created to destroy the last remnants of the 5th Density hominids (us lot) were then extrapolated upon by the fertile imagination of the 33rd degree masonic interests that were already prevalent in that time.....the Rockefellers / Rothschilds / etc etc etc....these people were the wealthy super-elite right from the end of the last reset-into-this one, and the prior re-sets before them, so naturally the Carnegie's / Paseurs / Astors / Bundy's / Rockerfeller etc etc etc were already 'The Wealthy' even then, 'Old Money' as it's known - they were the people who could afford to erect large buildings, museums and learning establishments - working from an age-old hymn-sheet....take a small bit of truth, and smother it in fabricated lies to morph the target into the goal by careful manipulation and several generations of time - so a Dragons skull from a Fire Breathing Dragon killed 6,014 yrs ago when they turned-up for the occupation, was assigned a new provenance & historical back-storey to hide the truth, lead us away from reality, cement the new His-Story in place & spawn a lucrative industry to help blind us from reality, because with a few real bones and a set of guidelines from the Draco about what they wanted to be reported about these Dragon remnants, the Heliocentric Newtonian universe model starts to look a bit more realistic given the age of the Big Bang and the time to evolve. Yet it is all Horse Shit.

So the Voynich Manuscript, a mystery spanning several hundred years and baffling thousand of scientists, historians & lay-people alike, was worked-out and 'put-to-bed' 3 days ago by two geezers in a Flat on a housing estate in England's oldest recorded town.....Colchester. BIG LOVE PEOPLE!!! this one's short as we are proper busy at the moment.

The Voynich Manuscript – 4th Density garden manual for a fake 3rd Density simulation, 5th Density vegetation will not grow well in 3D, but 4th Density Veg will be sweet in 3D, and the closest 4th Density environment, is below your feet in 'Inner 'Earth' so the Voynich manuscript was written with & on 3rd density materials and parchment & ink etc, but was in a language that was not spoken, and unless used for the task of this instruction manual only, then it could have been an old language from the mists of inner earths past –

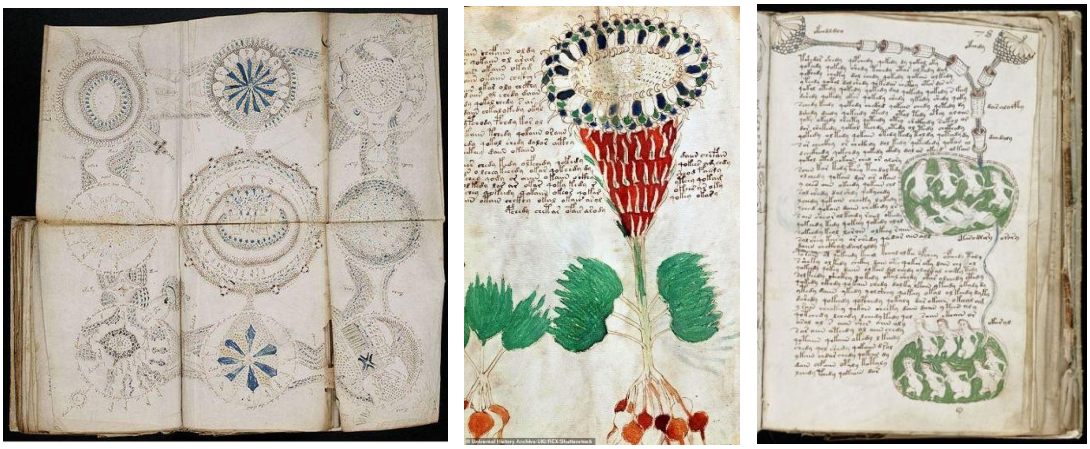

Fig. 114,115,116,117,118,119 Votnich Manuscript is a 4th density catalouge for the new 3rd density realm (earth) the nearest 4th density location is below your feet in inner-earth. 4th density plants were used here, as 5th density vegitation doesn't grow wel in a 3rd Density simulation.

13 is the luckiest number, not the unluckiest , as you can guess they lied about that as well - the Templar were disbanded on Friday the 13th October 1189? (from memory maybe 1169?) and that's the reason we are told that Friday the 13th is unlucky, when in actual fact they chose to 'disband' the Knights Templar on Friday the 13th SPECIFICALY because it is the LUCKIEST NUMBER....and for the Knights Templar, it was - they were held on charges of sodomy, idolatry and blasphemy, which was all true as they are a bunch of child-killing-shirt-lifter, so Friday The 13th being unlucky is just another act of mockery on us, because they were not disbanded whatsoever, they are still alive and well, mocking you right up until 2019. connecting the dots should now be easier than connecting your iphone to the internet.....

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

"The truth will set you free" – it will, if you let it……that means paying attention – which is the only thing the poor can actually afford to pay for. The rich have no excuse, but the rich are preoccupied with worrying about how to keep the wealth and protect it, it's a vicious circle.

This information is /was not to 'tell' you anything, but give you the chance to hear unspoken and unknown truth in its raw format, from the Horse's mouth unfiltered and un-embroidered by the Crypto crew & Gold dealers embellishing on that which they do not understand – who is the Horse? His names 'Kalo' and he's a fucking legend – he's 4' tall and blue, with no hair, he's Kristens right-hand-man the other side of the bowl & they have been best friends for millennia.

'Haven Bay' asked some questions on our Vessel / pets / environment / finances in 5D / basic 5D needs and cost of living – some others I forget who asked some other questions that are addressed here also.

So your vessel will be fixed during the event, you will remain in your body because they thought further about how best to do this from a children's perspective, & not to be even more scared than they already are milliseconds before the event started – being 5 and coming out of your body after seeing your 'pair-who-rents' lose their marbles completely in front of you & wonder off into the darkness with a fractured-mind & semi-naked, is going to be bad enough, so seeing your body being repaired from 5 meters above it, probably will be enough to trip-most-kids-properly-the-fuk-out, so they opted for keeping us in our body's during the repair, so you will be looking out of your own eyes the whole time. (I cant fukin wait!)

You will be inside a whirlwind of multi-coloured-mini-orbs flying about you, like being in the eye of a mini-hurricane – you will grow rapidly to your original size so maybe 9' if your Pleiadian, or 4' if your Arcturian etc – your vision will be 10x improved (or way greater) smell & taste, you will be faster and lighter able to do 'super-human' things like levitate and telekinesis, telepathy, astral travel at will – you will be reinstalled with all your memories, or as many as your frequency will dictate that you can handle in one go, don't forget that everything is frequencies, everything – so they can measure your entire worth, weight, thoughts, ideas aspirations, goals, needs and desires in milliseconds, and they can do this with their mind, they don't even need technology for this, although technology is being used for this purpose, its only for ease of volume.

Demons only look like we assume they look as they take-on the apearence of something they will know that will scare us, no other reason – that's why they mimic the Etamines (custodians) 'on-the-out' i.e. the other side of the bowl, demons just look like energy frequencies in flux, lower vibrational distortions, and have no appearance other than this unless manifesting in a 3^D sim. When a demon comes into 3rd Density, it will look just like black dust, or black powder/smoke as it hits the lower matrix density it forms a 'cloud' of black particulate matter.

Y557 is a 4D realm (4th density and 5th in some places, my mistake, I thought it was 5D, the humans going there soon will have their 5th strand of DNA repaired, but they will be in a 4D simulation so they will not have the same set of abilities as the ascended who land back here immediately after. That's very fair I feel, as why should a selfish conceited lascivious sycophants who went along with all this nonsense…..why the fuck should that pleb get true 5D ascension?? Well, they won't, they get 4th Density till they learn again, which will not be that long in reality, don't forget the children saved from the DUMBS are now teenagers with new lives and all 'fixed-up' after 4yrs of medbed treatment, so you will also heal fast as well, likely a couple of years tops for most sleepers, it depends on them as individuals.

Your pets will see the same, they will all be fixed too, even the hamster and the pet snake, even the ant-farm in your son's bedroom all the ants will see the same. Animals will not be going to little earth as they do not need to heal and will remain their happy positive selves throughout the event – little-earth (Y557) has animals and pets already there for the didn't-listen-almost-ascended as their pets will ascend back here to this realm, all animals here now will ascend back here and be 3-4 times larger and live pretty much 4 or 5 times longer than now, but with medi-EMF tch in every home, you just stick your cat in the micro and give it 3 minutes on defrost and its good for another 70 years. You will be able to communicate with all animals and plants as 5th Density vegetation is next-level in beauty, and its soul will reach out to you as you pass. Animals will follow you about and may decide to live with you permanently? It's their choice after all as you were born to look after them and the children in your realm. Men are there to protect the women and children, woman are there to lead as they are not stupid in 5th Density, Children are there to create and experience, and it is this homogeneity and fluidity of the system that creates the beauty of your realm – as mentioned previously, it's the energy emitted by Sensient life-forms that fuels your way of life, and because we have never been presented with this information before, it seems a little unrealistic because all we have as a frame of reference for this data is children's stories about Peter Pan, or the BFG and Hansel & Gretel etc etc but this is who you are and where you are from, its what you do and its why you do it, but the amnesia vortex is a cruel necessity of a parasitic occupation, as without wiping our minds/soul memory each birth, they would never have been able to have done what they did to us…it couldn't have happened as everyone born would be born awake and therefore very very uncooperative……to say the least, and at the start of all this there wasn't only thousands of you here, not millions or billions, but over the millennia they ramped-up the breeding program and also brought other souls in here to populate the new vessels, from destroyed realms and other kidnapped slaves.

The 'Cabbage Patch Kids' craze form the 1980's was born from the antiquated photographs of the 'Foundling' era, which was itself the 'baby-boom' of the last re-set (5th-to-6th or C. 890 AD-to 1890 AD) see figs.

Fig. 120 - 124 'Plain sight' showing you that children are 'grown' in labs, after a Re-set which is roughly every thousand years, that's why your his-story is a lie, to explain away the re-sets.

These images were that era's way of showing you 'in plain sight' that they grow children, in labs, not in people gardens. See fig. as this is more realistic as to what it actually looks like:

It's easy to see why people will loose their minds soon when the EBS arrives…..all of the information in these pages will not be shown or revealed to you as fact until the actual EMF itself when you get your memories back, but the sheer disgusting nature of the parasitic agender is stomach churning….these beings are so fucking dark that 'under-the-bed' is scared of them. And the poor sheep & sleepers havent got a single clue. I was talking to someone just last week, who hadnt realised that Joe Biden is not the original character…..this is why I don't like going out, its fukt-up when you see 'normal' people…..how can you not know that? How can you think that the bloke on telle who looks nothing like Joe Biden, is actually joe biden…??

All the carefully thought-out lies that form the barrier of the parameters of your paradigm, are just that, lies……..it all starts off with a kernel of truth rendered in lies and miss-truths, painted in colourful tones & held together with a tapestry of ornate and complex thoughtforms woven of the intestines of your children – the lies are needed to throw us off of the path to reality, a reality soaked In untold generations of your most precious assets blood, your kids.

Every single Truth you learnt so far this life / loop, is a lie. That will be the hardest thing for 'most' people to absorb - the foundations of the paradigm that you are standing in right now, are made of the rotting carcases of your realm's children, and everything you learnt whist here, was a lie to hide this fact. The EBS is to inform you of this.

'Our' role (the Awake) is to give you lot a heads-up 1st in the hope that your frequency will be correct at the right moment, when it matters most. That means listening to these words and using them, using each element of this new thought-model that is admittedly a little akin to a children's bedtime story mixed with high technology….yet it is your reality, and remember it, you will.

For Billions of years you have mixed with, and know well all of the 'fictional' characters that make up all of your children's story's, sci-fi movies & fantasy films, and by the end of this book hopefully you will be able to piece these 'modules', if you want to call them that, together to form a lucid & coherent model of your true history and origins, even if only to start the foundations of a glimmer of memory recall. You are amazing and you have no idea of what you are capable of, you make 'Superman' look like a smack head on ESA (translation = 'you make 'Cal El' from Kripton, look like a heroin user on Employment & Support Allowance') in capability, you honestly do and soon you will return to where you were stolen from with these powers returned. It sounds so ridiculous, but it was always supposed to.

Poor / rich / elite……. Cheap / Expensive / extortionate there is a 3-tier-class system to keep 3rd Density ticking-over 'nicely' The poor can afford fuck-all so they can buy the cheap bath taps made in Taiwan that will last a few years as the metal is soft and the chrome plating thin, the rubber washers will perish after a

5yrs with hot water on it daily……the rich can buy a set of tapes and have a more expensive set, they can afford a set of taps from a British manufacturer with kite marks on the box and even a plumber to come and fit the tap that they bought in a Bathroom shop, not a hardware store – and the elite, well they can buy a set of solid gold tapes with an effigy of their 1st-born moulded into the spout with the water flowing from the effigy's phallus, costing more money that a whole street of houses in the UK, and they will likely tip the plumber ostentatiously for his work as rich people like to be extravagant and flamboyant with their wealth, this is the yolk of the parasitic occupation and this is how it works so well for them, by division. Create a situation where some people are 'worth' more than others and you have an enslaved species because the plumber in London who fitted the Billionaires gold taps last week and got tipped a huge sum after installation, he's well chuffed because he can soon afford to go put a deposit on a huge house that he doesn't really need because his wife whose 20yrs younger, has already fell in love with it and started looking for new kitchens like the neighbours have, there's nothing wrong with the kitchen, but Kevin & Wendy from next door have an IOT kitchen….. and the rest he can put on finance, and in his mind, his own status has elevated closer to the shadow that the billionaire casts when he bends over - the billionaire customer paying him to install the taps is also over the moon because he feels even more important now he's paid out over $1 million for a set of bath taps and he got to show his wealth in style by tipping 20 grand to the man installing it – the man installing the taps is very pleased but left with a longing in his heart to be that wealthy and be able to give away such a huge tip, this man wants to feel like the rich guy, he wants that "made it" feeling but he's just a builder working for the rich, BUT…..he can get a similar car to the Wealthy and he can himself get a nice set of taps for his own bath, and a that 20k tip he can put down on a Bently Tubo to take the kids to school in and keep the younger wife sweet…….so the Bently goes on finance…..on FINANCE – that's it…….that's all there is to it….doesn't matter the country or the demographic, the product or the price….there's always a division and always a low-cost – medium cost – high cost option, and now and elite option as well – there's even class systems within class systems so they mid-range option may have several sub-options….it's a never-ending merry-go-round of hope/despair/hope/despair/hope/despair and when in despair, there's always distraction creating more hope. Theres always a longing for more/better/faster/newer…..the gap in your chest is the same gap for everyone rich or poor, the rich have everything except happiness and the poor have nothing – the rich are still empty, as empty as the poor except they have the luxury of whimsical distraction – they can wave-a-few quid about in the air and the family's chasing happiness on holiday, or with a new car….but it's never the car they wanted because they can't afford it…….it's never the destination they wanted as they can't afford it…..it's never the Club-Class seats on British Air, it's the economy on Easy Jet….but they can put it on finance – you see? To be honest if you don't see by now then it's pointless, you'll be fine, so don't worry – go back to sleep.

So you actually think that 150+ species of benevolent ETs spent 6,013 years fighting a battle with the most determined and aggressive "Space Aliens" that you can possibly imagine, Who themselves are in league with a group of ancient Demons who can themselves 'pause' time & mimic anything whatsoever, shapeshifting and deceiving as they manoeuvre themselves into a position of Galactic supremacy enslaving the entire universe as they progress in a war costing billions of lives from hundreds of species……and you think that our benevolent Extra Terrestrial family's did all this so you can sit on the fucking beach in Thailand with your crypto wallet out on the laptop calculating todays profits from your Tier-1 redemption bonds? After a 'PadThai' and a 'cheeky' G+T you may be bothered to leave the infinity-pool for a quick 5 minutes in the medbed to fix that chesty-cough you picked-up off 'Nong' in the bar last night?….. Don't be so fucking naïve, short-sighted, selfish, complacent, stagnant, apathetic, lethargic, repugnant & OBSOLETE. Obsolete, because if this is YOU im talking about, your going to Y557 because to create a new realm we must start with only pure intention as don't forget that only the frequency/feelings of Unconditional love and empathy, can create will create beauty beyond your wildest imagination, but sadness, guilt, despair, cynicism, spite, hate, denial……anger that God was fake, for instance….these feeling are amplified in a 5th Density simulation, so if you are not at the right frequency then this will be a problem for everyone, not just you – the simulation you enter with the wrong mindset will change that simulations parameters EXACTLY the same as a glass of Springwater……if I had a glass of spring water, and there was a bit of dog poo on the floor, and I dropped an ice-cube that landed right next to the dog poo, not touching it, but very close……I would not put that ice cube back in the glass of pure spring water if I wanted to consume it – not even if I washed it 1st…..why not? It hasn't got dog shit on it, and I could easily wash-off any dirt that attached itself to the cube?……but no one would put it back in the glass, and drink it, would they?…..you see what I mean?…..you cant taint purity with negativity, not even a little bit….not even 'nearly' as it will lead to an upset stomach / realm and species, as that negativity will grow, quickly and spread like cancer, which is what negativity is, a form of social cancer that can be highly contagious.

Food, shelter, water basic needs and all needs are met for you, you can have what house you want and live where ever you want, you wont want a manor house if its just you and your twin flame, you are not stupid back in 5D and will only want what you need to have and use – no one wants more than they need back in 5D and therefore you may have more than you need and want something smaller, or less land?

Finances are all taken care of by the fact that there are none to take care of. There is no money anywhere else in the UNIVERSE….NO WHERE ELSE OUTSIDE OF OUR FAKE 3D REALM HAS A CURENCY OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER…., With the Exception of Mars.

*Fig.*126 Martian coinage – Mars had a similar lifestyle to earth's, just different inhabitants mixing with mostly humans who sold you all out over the years. The ET pictured & featured on the coin and image is a Maitra, or 'Maitrax'

Mars had a currency, and you may have seen the coins floating about online with a Grey Aliens head on it, these are coins used on Mars. But that's all stopped also, the Genetic experimentation being carried out on Mars was all the horrific stuff that you see in films and series with a mad scientist creating monsters and Chimeras – on Mars this was carried out openly – every kind of experimentation imaginable that was banned on Earth, was welcomed on Mars – don't forget mars isn't a spinning desolate planet millions of miles away, it's our closest neighbour to this realm/disc and its green and lush, mostly. So all finances are abolished and our needs are all catered for – we are all self-sufficient, that's one of the reasons that most wont ascend, because most millennials (not just millennials but everyone after them and a lot before them) these days think meat comes from packets and are totally unable to fend for themselves without the trimmings of Uber & Just Eat…….we don't have shops in 5D and everything we need is either manufactured at home with technology, grown, created/manifested by us, as in 8D+ we manifest directly into our hands, that which we desire. EMF tech which is medbed tech without the bed because medbeds are for a 3rd Density simulation and were used only by the elite. We do not have medbeds in 5th Density that's why there are none on the way as when the event comes, you will get a new body, so what the hell you want a medbed for?

Fig.127 a medbed – there are several variations, and you won't see any of them because we have EMF tech in 5th density.

A medbed will pixel-block / pixelate also when the EMF comes as it is 3rd density tech entering a 5th Density simulation environment and therefore it can't exist there. Medbeds were real, but they were for the bloodline families, only. We are getting EMFs from now on which make a medbed look like an 'Iron Lung' form the 1950's. it gives people hope though, till ascension, then it won't matter anymore anyway.

I thought id found out all the stuff we weren't supposed to know, I thought I'd worked out most of 'it' yet all I found was the lies that they knew I would latch-on-to being that they knew how people like me thought and felt and knew what to present and how to present it.....their net catches every possible inclination/desire/want/need/requirement.....the net is so tight that it's not even a net, it's a water-tight sack made of Kevlar, and there is nothing going to seep-thru it, you may think you slipped thru the net, but that's just an illusion, do not think that you are a rebel until you have stepped-outside of the 3rd density matrix that your thought-schools refer to as 'the box'. You will never truly think outside of the box all the time you refer to it by an erroneous name.....it's a simulation, not a box but your mind is placed in a box, think 'Jack-in-the-box', that's you, trapped in a box within a labyrinth of deceit a maze of mirrors & illusion reborn with no memory's of what you were

If someone is talking about 'Lunar cycles' / Planetary Alignment / Nebulas / Galaxies / Parsecs / CME's etc etc then they are either misleading you to sell you a 'Reading' or paid to lie i.e. ALL C.I.A "Whistleblowers" and SSP "insiders" are all collectively lying, deluded or just stupid. There is no other reason/s. Its all to emboss several important lies:

Heliocentrism, this is important as it disaffirms an ice wall.

The fake 'Alien' invasion, SSP eyewitness accounts 'prove' there is a negative faction out there who may & do pose a threat to this realm's future, which ties in nicely with the faux-apocalyptic scenario of an invasion by unseen agressors.

Further control, through fear and the desire to be governed during crisis by the safe hands of the wolf itself.

Truth in plain sight, they can show us about cattle mutilations and glandular removals helping 'out' the truth in a semi-subtle way.

The QFS and crypto / gold / silver is all a total scam, the gold and silver are all stollen anyway, so you bought stollen goods, its worthless.

Very soon when the power-out comes for 3 days, the servers will be switched off with the global black-out, at that exact moment ALL CRYPTO ceases to exist forever, so hoarding a trillion BTC is pointless, maybe it brought you comfort over the last 10 years knowing you have an asset that's shooting up……buuuuuuut, you should have sold it and spent the money on Crack and hookers as it would have been a better investment, at least you would have had a lot of 'Happy-Endings' in that 10yrs and now the servers holding your crypto are going to pixelate the same as the Dog's water bowl will, during the event. The environment will be completely different……completely. Immediately after the event you will notice outside has waterfalls everywhere, plants and trees that you have never seen before (well, not recently) You will wake up looking at some very familiar faces that you know you know them, but you can't quite remember who they are?.....after a few minutes it will start coming back to you, these people are your family, your mum and dad, brothers & sisters and children……you have been gone quite a while but they have not aged at all, they will look exactly the same as they did 6,013yrs ago, they have not died even once in that time but you have been about 600 other people in separate lives. You will have just woken up from the worst nightmare imaginable, and you will be safe, at last, and forever.

It's going to be quite emotional when this happens – these people that you have been taught to be terrified of for the last 6,000+yrs, but they love you more than you love yourself. These people have not forgotten a single thing about you, they have been crying daily for thousands of years lamenting your plight. You don't need to be afraid of these people – they would rather kill themselves than hurt you – that is a fact. They haven't lost their memory's, it's just you who can't remember all this.

The un-self-sufficient will adjust over time – they will have some 3D things, not 3Rd density items, but services possibly to remind them of home (wrong word but you get me) such as possibly a form of currency for a while? 'Possibly' some form of shops or services being reminiscent of the realm they just left….a few minutes previously. After time these things will be taken away as people become accustomed to the new way of life.

All membranes are separated by ice walls, but in the last 6,013yrs the tech has changed and no longer is ice necessary to use as the foundation of a membrane/firmament – the tech improved in that time, so now the lush vegetation can extend all the way to the edge of the terrarium instead of 800 miles of ice between you and the next realm – this is the case for ALL REALMS both on Gateway-10 and outside the Great Dome itself.

The different Haplogroups and blood types are obviously part of the trials for various reasons, remember that the parasites always desire several benefits for each course of action, as mentioned before, Chemtrails are a good example as they are a topic on the lips of many angry people and have been in the public mind for about 40 years now…chemtrails: Help dumb us down – give us dementia - reduce libido – cause eye problems – lung problems – skin cancer caused by the rays filtering thru the toxic mess sprayed up there, the suns rays alone do not cause skin cancer, sun cream does tho – Chemtrails also lowered air quality and oxygen levels even lower so that we are shorter lived – there will be many other points also but they escape me right now as I'm rushing to get this out as if I don't finish it today then no one will get to read it!!! …problem is that everyone kicking-off about chemtrails now, should have been doing that 20+ years ago, as now since 2016/17 the only chemtrails you have seen in the sky are positive 'Pos'-trails (for want of a better word) Positive Chemtrails that reverse the damage that the last 40 years of spraying us with toxins – the new Aurora Borealis seen recently is a sign of the fixed air quality – since the occupation started we had our oxygen % reduced greatly which helps our short-lived-life-cycles stay short and aids diseases such as cancer, cancer can't survive in an oxygenated alkaline system with a surplus of energy.

The haplogroups, haplogroup 'X' in particular are a conundrum no longer – haplogroup x caused a stir because it is prevalent among native American Indians……and ginger haired Spanish people living in the Basque country in northern Spain (some in north Africa and a few in Asia but the greater percentage by a long way, is the Basque and North America)….scientists were baffled by this, but haplogroup X was just another type of genetic trial with mtDNA (mitochondrial DNA) and blood groups, that's all. 'Out of Africa'…..the only thing out of Africa was its wealth and natural resources – to expect people to believe that 'Black' people somehow changed into Chinese people &, Caucasians……and people say this with a straight-face.

I don't care if the Earth is Flat or round, what difference does it make to me?

The reason that it matters if the earth is flat or round, is so monumentally important that someone asking that same question in a few weeks time, is going to feel really really stupid. EVERYTHING is behind that ice wall…..everything – everything that matters, is behind that wall. You know all this anyway, and after the EMF when your body's fixed, you will have your old 70% brain capacity back again and the memory's that are stored in your souls energetic storage 'resonance' (it's all frequencies) will percolate out thru the new 68% of added extra storage-space between your ears and you will remember why it's so important to know what you live on and what shape it is and where it came from and what it's for and what you are for in connection with its whole purpose. YOU are here…'were' here, and will again be here to create, tend to, heal, nurture, and take care of this realm. That's what you are for. You get to experience physical life for multiple billions of years traversing 15 density's to return to Source Creation at the end, to either stay with source or go off again, creating.

All Source wants is a detailed and thorough breakdown of every single feeling, emotion, thought, action and deed that you ever experienced - which Source gets thru downloading 'you' after physical death, which is usually no less than 500yrs and even 3 or 4 times longer with EMF tech that you have at home – imagine the 'Transporter' off Star-Trek…well you have that but instead of transporting you, it heals you instead, in a beam of light.

Martian coinage – The wartime coinage we see online with a depicting a Grey ET's head on the reverse, as if some kind of joke, are in fact real currency, used on Mars. There are some fakes out there, you will need discernment in the selection process, and fakes are seen via etching marks, they are real coins repurposed, but the real ones you will notice have been minted, not etched.

You will notice that some of the coins feature a Romanesque relief on, as if some Byzantium-era Grey was the ruler of Mars 4,000yrs previously, and indeed it was as Mars has been a satanic playground for the last 6,000+ yrs having had the original Martians wiped-out so they can use the whole realm of Mars as a genetic experimental lab – the sell-outs from our his-tory get to live there with a greatly increased lifespan to 400yrs (with the 5th strand DNA upgrade necessary for exiting our 3D simulation) I don't need to ask Christian this question…."Did Werner Von Braun get a golden ticket to Mars?" (I'm 2 million % sure he did, his Earth grave is probably empty) They live in the same style of building as we do in our time frame here – mars is like earth, very similar and the sell-outs will only know about Mars, they will not have a clue about the 176 other discs all laid out next to them……they will also think that they travelled off world thru 'Space' to get to mars, when all they did in actual fact was walk thru a portal and get transported side-ways to our nearest neighbouring realm, Mars….not 'Up' into space, to mars.

These plebs all thought mars was in space too! (fukin idiots….yeah you're a super-scientist at the top of your tree, who thinks mars is millions of miles away….. so these ultra-sell-outs sold you RIGHT OUT so they and their family's can be 'Safe' (living in a satanic holiday camp can hardly be described as 'safe', but you get me) and live for a few century's longer than you….they get to live with ET's on another planet, and they get to have selfies taken with sasquatch. These people are all dead now (at last) and so are all the monstrosity's they created there in 6kyrs - I'm looking forward to finding out about all this! We will do soon after ascension – we will get to see the Galactic war start from day-1 6,013yrs ago, we get to see it all right up to the event that hasn't even happened yet the sky event starting in a few weeks' time - ALL the war was recorded….all of it – ET tech recorded THE ENTIRE WAR – that's how come they can arrest the Police, who, for instance man-handled me a few months ago….those plebs are probably already in FEMA camps right now wondering how the hell I knew all this 3 months ago?.....because me new best m8 is 'Buck Rodgers', that's how, and he didn't just tell me, he told everyone who wanted to listen. The bit that most people don't get with this, and we all know they don't, is the fact that this is ALL BECAUSE OF ADRENOCHROME and child torture.....it's for the children, not for you – this didn't happen so that you can get the Gold you deserve or the Crypto that you feel was your birthright, it didn't happen so that you can work less and pay less tax having more time to relax and drive about I a Bently Turbo, 'Covid' didn't herald-in your new world especially for you to claim your beloved Tier 1,2,3 redemption bonds, because just like covid-19, these do exist, but only in your mind. Profiting from information that was meant to be free for the entire species, is a sure way to get 'unfriended' by any benevolent's in your vicinity who were trying to help, because as 'New-Trump' says…. "Smart Choices" – i.e. you are a talented singer, approached by the cabal to sign your soul over for fame & fortune….you are offered adrenochrome at a party held in your honour as you are having smoke-blown-up-your-arse big time by the agents of the record company's…..a smart choice would be to refuse the adrenochrome, say 'get-fucked' and go get a job in Tesco's singing to the cornflakes in isle 9. Better than what they sold-out, into, their soul crushed by black magic at the ritual, now hosted by a Draco / vril / demon / they now have no control over their own vessel, they don't even get to use the vesels brain, they have to sit there watching out of their own eyes as a Draco / demon / vril carries out the most unnecessary and pointless suffering…..on children…….so knowing that your local weather girl on CNN or BBC, who sold their souls to become a fucking weather girl of all things…a weather girl…? Youd sell your soul for that? It's like selling your soul to become the Tea-Boy on a building site, so these peoples fate is absurd and they are already there…..an empty realm full of souls who sold us out, flying about for eternity, with no vessels to inhabit, and now in their original 'pure' form, to say they will be disgusted with themselves is a total understatement, they will not be able to kill themselves to be free from the torment as they will be in light-body-form, reliving every single second of what they did to all those children over and over and over for eternity. There is nothing worse than that…….if they could volunteer for soul destruction, they would but it's not even an option available to them, so…..fuck them, I think it's a fair punishment.

People selling info that's free for humanity, are not going to be helped by benevolent ETs the moment they fall off the path, they are on their own….embellishing and creating a whole load of tripe – look at Alex Collier for a start……waffling on about solar systems and galaxies……the only 'solar system' you will ever see, is the one on your neighbours roof. Just think about it, process it, realise its true and get over it. – so you can spot a faker offering 'Readings' a mile away as all they are reading is your ability to pay money to hear what you want to hear sprinkled with a tiny bit of what you hoped not to hear, then you can go back next month to pay again to see if what you hoped not to hear, will be heard again this month – Facebook is awash with it, 'Seekers of the light' with Rei Rei is one example, 'channelling Arcturians' apparently….."Im not cheap, but I am very accurate" Rei Rei says (lol) accurate at duping punters with solar systems and planets lining-up?

The emptiness felt by the poor, rich and elite, is the same emptiness that everyone else feels, it's a shared emptiness – the maintenance that the tap-fitter above has to pay each month to keep him in the fake delusion that he is 'doing alright' strapped-up-to-the-eyeballs on finance desperately putting all the hours in as next month his wife who is 20yrs his junior wants new plastic eyes next month….that's another 30,000 quid to find by the end of January…….all it takes is

I myself am just starting to see what my part in this is/was….honestly it's the strangest feeling ever, surreal doesn't touch-the-sides – when Christian explained to Linda Paris in September 2022, changed my life – he explained what 3D-to-5D actually was…..no one else could even explain what a 'Density' even was let-alone what going from 3rd – 5th entailed, or why there's no 4th mentioned? NO TRUTHER has been able to do that yet until Christian came along, not ONE. I saw all of them discussing it tho "were going from 3D-to-5D", Charlie Ward used to say, and everyone on the show just nodding like the 'Churchill-Dog' and agreeing "yes Charlie 3D-to-5D…..3D-to-5D……3D-to-5D…..echoing around the zoom screen with 4 excited participants eager to claim a stall as the market of truth passes thru cyber-town. I was just an innocent bystander looking into this mess trying to work out how come so many people fell for it so immediately??? I was well baffled by the bog-roll exercise….that was by week 3 of the 1st lockdown. Honestly I shit you not, I flew into Gatwick from North Macedonia where we had a Pharmaceutical cannabis cultivation licence and extraction facility spanning 20,000m2 and designed to be able to produce a GMP API product for sale in German pharmacy's that I and Liam & Greg had just spent a year designing & the 4 previous years looking for 2.5 million quid for, & we got our series A funding of 2.5M Euros, but coincidentally were booked to fly back that day….the 26th March 2019. Before we landed I had worked out that there wasn't a virus and that this must be a dry-run for a real virus that they were probably bringing out next year, that was my pre-touchdown thoughts on covid – after week 3 of lockdown I was at Colchester General Hospital for an unrelated incident with a friend, and we saw how empty it was…..tumble-weed blowing about on every ward whilst I noticed people outside their front doors, clapping at 6pm every night for the fucking NHS who I had just seen that day sitting in empty corridors, feet swinging lethargically two & from under a piss-stained wheel-chairs seat…..what the fuk was going on?? What are these people clapping for? Honestly the 1st week we landed, I was at Liams on Scarlet Road in Colchester, smoking shatter and doing cool shit as is normal, when we heard outside in the redbrick Victorian row of semi-detached houses, lined with a few medium sized trees, the biggest commotion you could imagine…..we immediately looked at each other and thought simultaneously said…."Old Bill"….as is normal to assume in a situation like this ('Old Bill' is how we say 'Police', in American) But as we peeked out the front window on our hands and knees….we saw an old man walking up the centre of the road waving at each side of the row of Victorian Red brick terraced houses……an old man in his 80's…..bowing and waving as he slowly made his way up the quiet-locked-down-street…..we looked at each other again in awe at this apparent Legend of a man making his way slowly along, soaking up his glory…..what must he have done to have the street giving him a ticker-tape welcome like this?? We were like 'Bruv he's a fucking ledge is he or what?'….all night we were like "who the fuck was that old boy he must be a proper hero to get that welcome?".

We found out the following morning – the old boy was just walking up the centre of the street, he was on his way home……he wasn't a hero that day, he was there by coincidence – the clapping was for the NHS…..I almost spat my tonsils out of my fucking tear ducts when I heard that….the N H Fucking S….now explain that??….because I found out it was true….the same NHS that I had just seen sitting there bored as-shyte and looking at TikTok videos….even worse, making TikTok dance routine videos…..long choreographed coordinated dance routines rehearsed for many hours at work whilst 'On Duty' in empty hospitals the world over – an inverted sense of moral compulsion, almost a silent spiteful revenge, in some, I've seen it several times in NHS nurses in the UK and on Instagram reels of overseas hospitals…we have all seen these clips….spiteful hateful NHS staff happy to be 'enforcing' for the feeling it brings them of power, even if only short lived - that type of person would enjoy enforcing anything, so long as its 'something'.

The herd wasn't thinking straight, the sheep believed every single word of it, and somehow a % of the awake either smelt-a-rat straight away, or like me saw thru the whole thing with Xray vision before the actual lockdown had even happened, I hadn't even landed in the UK and seen it in 'English', on English Telle yet – I'm not a detective and I neither was I a conspiracy theorist then either, and I even thought the earth was a sphere, as well. But lucky for me I listen to myself, not anyone else, unless it's obvious - I never listened to the others all my life – I kept most of what I thought to myself, only because no one wanted to listen, their opinion and thoughts must be more important. And do you know what? It's still like that, people still don't listen to me, and only this last two weeks I found out why……cos I'm not like them, I don't think and feel what they think and feel, similar, maybe, but not the same….my thought processes are the same as the other awake peoples thought processes, that's why, and it's this way because there are so few awake people - I only know 3 or 4 personally, the online wider community with all you guys pushes that up into the thousands, but personally I know hardly anyone awake because the information is for them, still a fictional fantasy beyond the realms of scifi. It still trips me out that I was 'Billy-Bottom-Set' at school for everything cos school was proper shit, boring as fuck and I wasn't stimulated – I assumed that cognitive ability was what was being measured by the exams we had to do at school? what on Earth else could they possibly be for if not for this reason? Well, as it transpires, the exams are to work out the sharp-kids who will do well in a class room situation, its these children that will not cause trouble and be boisterous, these children can be well 'rewarded' for their recital of information and they will receive it gratefully and their confidence will be boosted – that rush and thrill of achievement, the strive for excellence is what drives them for a good job or career, and the validation of themselves in their peer-group & social network, their little-place on the 'globe' etched-out with diligence, observance and determination, a well-earned 'Degree' – I also noticed early on in the covid crime, that the more degrees you have, the more likely you are to be wearing a mask, shitting yourself – 2019 for me, was a real brain teaser, I know people with more degrees than a box of protractors and they are all fully vaccinated and still terrified of a virus that never actually existed outside of their minds. Then you can see it start to materialise in front of you a few feet away from your nose…….this is what Nursery school, School, Uni etc is for……..literally all education system is for is to prepare your mind, to program it so it works for their benefit….everything must be for their benefit, whilst you think it's for yours. If you do not know that you are in prison, you won't be looking to escape, will you?

What drove these decorated students to the walk-in centre for a sleeve-roll was the same orchestrated peer cohesion and herd mentality that saw everyone else go get a bioweapon…..society's wiring-loom tightly woven around your pre-programed brain like a mesh-bag stopping any thoughts oozing out that conflict or detract from the Rockefellers schedule for the 7th re-set…….7th and last re-set. The need for herd validation outweighed 'common sense' and everyone let themselves down in the most degrading way imaginable, with their lives and health, the threw their health in the trash, or their lives in many cases, for a blatant lie.

Time travel is only possible with 'Project Looking Glass' – we don't call it that back home but that's what it is called here in 3rd Density – 'Looking Glass' is a computer program that plugs into the simulation and can go back or forward in the simulations program - A Craft (a UFO) can time travel, all craft can do this, but *within a simulation itself, a 'time machine' will not work in the way we assumed – you could create one, but because you are already in the simulation, there is nowhere to 'travel' to – so time travel in a simulation can only be done with what we call 'Looking Glass' and that's how come we are now in the dept of people we call "Aliens" who are in actual fact just our own personal family members that we have been separated from for over 6,000years.

*I need to check that with C21 as I think iv fukt that bit up?

They didn't just free you, they saved your soul from permanent anhelation, they had found a way thru demonic pharmakea and technology to permanently disable your actual soul – this means every time you were born, you would be as an autistic child is today, yet you would be able to carry out tasks as ordered, like a perpetually lobotomized-soul stuck for all eternity and beyond – there would be no other option and no 'death' to bring respite.

The technology that now will replace the ice walls, and has already replaced the ice walls in all other realms, is a 'cold' technology that works similar to the soft drinks industry – some soft drinks has a molecule or chemical compound present in the ingredients that helps the liquid inside the container within the fridge get even colder than the lowest fridge setting – imagine that but in Rocks….the type of rock at the perimeter of our new simulation will be able to remain freezing temps ice-fee – so now you will be able to approach the wall and open your own portal, you wont need a Giant to melt the ice and allow you safe passage – a Giant because the Giants had the contract with source to protect us new humans and also be the ones to activate the portals in this realm, only, that's why the Draco had to keep the Giants sweet as if they fell out with the giants, it wouldn't be the end for the Draco, but it would cost them dearly, so they allowed the giants to carry on operating as they did – the Giants signed a treaty to say that they will not let humans in and out of portals, and everyone knows that a benevolent will NEVER RENEGE on a treaty, that's how the Draco sewn it all up knowing that a positive ET will never break a deal, it's never done EVER – you may say that's silly? Having your children eaten and still refusing to break a contract? They can't renege on a deal as this is how their civilisation will fall and they are well aware of that fact. BUT …….this time was different – Celecia and Rapheal, along with 150+ other species of benevolent ET's and the entire population of the 'Unknown Lands' - the ascended masters who created this Universe on behalf of Source Creation itself, live here in these unknown lands, and this is where Christian21 is from, and myself, apparently…..

We were saved because all the 14,000 worlds on Gateway-10 who the parasites had a hold of, all of these worlds knew to renege on their contracts at a certain time on a certain date all at the same time – it was planned 1,700+yrs ago and the plan was executed like clockwork – don't forget that all the 14,000 worlds have their own 'Looking Glass' interface….all of this data needed collation to set a specific plan into action, like one big fuck-off galactic clock the size of Gateway-10 itself, with each realm as one small cog in a huge time peace of diversity, empathy and love.

Comic relief & Red Nose day is a celebration of adrenochrome harvest and the money collected from this mockery of our children is kept by the elite, none of it has ever gone to any children, Live Aid raised $45 BILLION USD in 30yrs from the 'Feed the World' malarkey, yet it all went to the Federal Reserve to pay Africa's Debt off….Africa's debt???? Are you taking the total piss???? Africa had more resources than any other country……so how the fuk are they in debt? Don't be stupid, you were all happily conned of your time, resources, sweat-equity & lives in a terrible game that you could never win, the odds were stacked-against you so high that breaching the container was impossible – there were about 1,500 people who actually made it out, each re-set, thru the icewall helped by the Anakim giants, just 1,500 people per re-set, which is such a small number, but at least some got out

"LightLanguage" – the Angelic language that angels use to channel you: Is just the mental health of the participant, light-language is a human delusion – people worked out that they can chat bare-mad-shit in a way that could sound almost credible, like Alex Quinn (joker) There is nothing to 'light-language' whatsoever its childish play-time ramblings of the mentally unstable, or just con-men/women reeling you in for a 'reading' after working out that they too, can babble crap in a way that sounds semi-coherent.

Alpha & Omicron Draco like Oprah music, this is the reason that all the gangster films have Sicilian 'old-school' (venetian) characters listening to Oprah music – reptiles like Oprah….Oprah was fond of a few reptiles also, she gave bill Clinton and 10 other freemasons a blowjob at a nonces party a decade or so back. Its strange to think that the Royal family in the UK, being reptiles, are the lowest cast of reptiles hated by the Omicron, bossed about by all the other draco lines….yet we have little old ladys still waving flags for the old bag, 4 years after she was executed already…….the depth of lies is unrealistically abysmal and the masses will inherit, via their eyes & ears, a de-stabilising of cerebral processes & functions, a breakdown of all cognition, unable to rationalise thought patterns into coherent sequential stages, even in simple tasks like risk assessment, anger will pervade and all common sense will go out-the-window…..this is another reason that it would have been a good idea to wake up sooner rather than later.

The power system and structure of the occupation: The Malevolent Anunnaki created the Custodians, who were created as a negative species for the purpose of being one of the armies of the negative faction, the custodians penetrated the membrane of the Draco and it all kicked-off, the greys were looking for the custodians as they were already aware of their presence and thought they could benefit from the muscle of the custodians in return for their fabled and highly detailed knowledge base – it was a fair deal – the Greys had a leader who they all worshipped, and the Custodians accidentally let that Grey 'king' get killed here on earth by the 1st generation humans & Giants, hugely pissing off the Greys who then fell out with the custodians – The Anunnaki always sat in the background pulling the strings of the greys and custodians - The Draco who had turned bad by then thru working with the Anunnaki who were themselves entertaining Demons, the Draco got embroiled with the demons and the Draco approached the greys with a deal: 'Work with us as we have always been good to you and never let you down, we will be #1 and you #2, we are going to take mars and then take earth – you can do whatever fucked-up genetic testing you want and have access to any of the realms we have in Gateway-10 in return you work for us' – so the greys left the Anunnaki and custodians, to work with the Draco. This pissed off the Anunnaki who then went and created their own version of Grey…what we call the 'Zita Reticulin' grey, was a design and fabrication of the Anunnaki. So they took mars and earth and had a treaty agreement where the custodians and Anunnaki still got their cut of children, gold & natural resources, but the Draco were running the show now, with the greys. Not long after this the Omicron Draco showed-up in ARB201 and informed the lower-cast of Alpha Draco that its now an Omicron Draco show and everyone works for them now, usurping by cast-default the Aplha Draco.

Fig.128 The 'Bogdanoff twins' – these hideous pair of cunts are/were hosting 2 senior high ranking Omicron Draco 'princes' for want of a better word. Pair of total cunts if you ask me. Prick on the left looks like a cheap version of David Dusseldorf who played Knightrider from the 80's TV series. Interestingly, demons and draco do not really care what they look like in 3rd density, steven Hawking the Polio Professor was hosted by a Draco (or demon? I forget what Christian said?) so Steven Hawking was still able to kill kids and participate in the despicable way of life these parasites preferred and was able to walk just fine…..

There are only 4 parasitic species, and although high in numbers, many fell in battle, at the point they were approached, none at the table could afford not to be 'at' the table, they all distrust each other and back-stab & renege on every deal they do, but there's only 4 species, and 'we' are over 150+ species…….can you see how lucky they were? If it wasn't for the willingness of the humans to sell their own soul to be better than the next person, then this would not have happened, if it did, it wouldn't have lasted longer than 1,000yrs tops – but because of the selfishness and the separation from our spiritual apparatus and the Law of One, we almost lost our entire species, and for a period of 35 years after JFK disappeared from the public view……'we' were on our own being run entirely by a Demonic system with NOT ONE SINGLE positive human helping us.

"The Amazing adventures of Little Barron Trump and his Dog Bulger" with the story's of time travel by the Trumps…….is actually pleaidien / andromedin intervention……Tesla was Andromadan & Q is made-up of Pleiadeans & Andromadans & Lyrians, mostly - Q was a human idea to give us the illusion of free choice during the final reset…..this is a horrible bit to write up people but it's the truth so you're getting it. Q was another folly in the Problem-reaction-solution game-plan of the cabal - Q was woven into the tapestry of deceit a long time ago using Looking Glass, for us with our tiny lifespans and even smaller brains, but just the other week in the Parasitic Callander – Q was put in place by the parasites as they knew people would wake up because they knew that people would get a bit fed up with the antics the end of this reset, so Trump was wheeled-in as a 'candidate of the people' and he's going to "Make America Great Again" MAGA is like the highest echelon of the Luciferian pyramid (don't quote me on the definition of MAGA as I write these from memory with notes and do not google anything for answers – you can google MAGA in Satanism and see what it is – we don't need editing / expensive studios / CGI and scripts to get a message of truth out to the population as truth resonates like a bell in your chest, so if this info isn't resonating, go back to sleep. Likewise there is no research whatsoever done for these Brief Synopsis, I write the descriptions of our 'accepted' history, from memory only as researching lies is pointless, so if the reader wants exact dates and not my memory's failed attempts a date recall, then we suggest you Google the point in question using what I can recall as the subject to persue.

BUT .....Q was infiltrated by Pleiadeans & Andromadans probably sometime in the 1950's, maybe earlier, maybe later.

And here we are in end of 2023 (March 2024 in the Gregorian callander....not long left before the new year which actually starts on April 1st or 'April Fools Day' so named as we are the fools for believing new years eve is December 31st – as we skip-into 2024 soon, our paradigm will slowly be replaced by truth, love and light. Happy new World People xxx

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Here we are just weeks away from the largest event that ever happened in the history of the entire universe…..and over 99% of the population is utterly oblivious to any of it. I am gobsmacked at the apathy, Christian is shocked, but ET's are over-the-moon tho as they didn't even expect so many people to ascend, as will be, but to us down here it looks amazingly small amount of people – the Avatars that came in to help number 1.5 BILLION……..hardly any of them woke up either……they will ascend tho as they came here to help humans, and because their body doesn't need to be repaired as it's in an Avatar Chamber on a ship above us, or in Russia - unless they drank adrenochrome or harmed a child whilst looping here, which is very very unlikely because Avatars are more closely monitored than normal humans are and it just wouldn't happen, even tho they are unaware that they themselves are avatars.

Immediately after the event itself, after the whirlwind of coloured lights whizzing about your body, the magnetic wave will sweep everyone harbouring negativity, away to Y557 or 2nd Earth / 'little' Earth…'little' is a misnomer as Y557 is a massive realm, one of the biggest realms in Gateway-10. It needs to be big because 'most' people are going there – there are 10+ Billion people here and over 9.5 Billion are going to Y557 – to give you an idea of ET populations, the Pleiadeans for example have a population of just under 1 Billion and they live on 7 planets…. just under 1 billion….. and we have 10 billion souls, on 1 planet. We were a farm – a genetically modified farm, nothing else.

Forget all your hard-earnt 'wisdom' in this loop or any other since the occupation, because you…… are a Tin of Salmon and you don't even know that for sure because there's no label on your tin, so you have to open your own lid, to make sure you are actually a tin of salmon, and not a tin of 'Pedigree Chum' dog food.

When women find out, women in particular because a big % of men are properly stupid and unable to form a cognitive chain of progressive thought coherently, on any given topic other than Bread-&-Circus for the 'most-part', I'm just saying what I see so don't get angry, you think about it for yourself……who decides to vaccinate kids? The female – because the male is clueless about it & deems this topic suitably positioned under the umbrella of women's roles & responsibilities – trust me I know this for a fact as I carried out my own survey on it in 2018 when my sons mum conceived, I asked many people I knew who had kids, their opinion on the childhood immunization program? Not 1 man knew anything whatsoever, didn't even know what the childhood immunization program was….and……99% of their female partners went mad at the thought of someone else's child not being vaccinated…"Fucking hippy mothers not vaccinating their kids could give my child measles" – I heard that from 2 mothers, to both I replied "but if your childs vaccinated…..how can they catch measles?" 'THAT'S NOT THE FUKIN POINT!' followed by more madness and nonsensical ramblings of guilt-ridden women, x 2.
So that's why I say "When women find out…" find out that the childhood immunization program was specifically designed to harm children, not prevent illness…..there's going to be an un-civil war……forget the red-fukin-shoes just the vaccine agender since the end of WW2….please think about this because it is monu-fukin-mental what's about to happen. No one out there is even aware of anything about to happen, it's the most surreal feeling possible.

Its looking like every family In western or industrialised countries, has ONE awake 'black-Sheep' / lunatic / conspiracy analyst member making up the ranks of that family unit, and it looks like these black-sheep are all the Avatar starseeds who woke up early…..don't forget that most Avatar Starseeds are still out there getting 'Oasis' Tattoos & cueing-up for their 7th boosters……that's why there's 500 MILLION Pleiadeans here to help dilute the stupidity in the human gene-pool of ignorance and apathy

Those poor bastards laughing at you calling you 'crazy' and a 'conspiracy theorist' while they arrogantly snigger into their Pimms & lemonade, and we all know this is happening as we have had untold messages and conversations over the last few months with so many people all saying the same thing "my family think im nuts and don't talk to me anymore" – don't worry….they will do soon, they will be kicking your front door in begging for answers and resolution, direction, guidance and "What was you saying about the alien invasion?"

Outside our individual domes, there are planets with no membrane / firmament / dome, before you get to the Great Dome itself. These are 4D realms with vegetation and animal life – there is oxygen because of the protection of the Great Dome itself – some ET species are unable to go to these realms because of the oxygen issue, but many species have 2 sets of lungs, as your new body will also have in the upgrades of the last 6,013 years you have had several amazing upgrades already in your absence, and 2 new sets of lungs are on their way to you as a prize for participating in the Great Awakening 😊

The human colony on mars that has existed there for 6,013 years, has the cream-of-the-crop of human scientists living there, so it's pretty funny that they too, like most other people think that they walked thru a portal to Mars (or thru a stargate on a craft), being a spinning planet millions of miles away, when in actual fact they walked thru a portal and went to our closest neighbouring realm – Prof Emery Smith, the Geneticist who worked on the Atacama Hominid's DNA, who worked in Black-Budget special access projects, went off-world thru portals as part of his work. 'Some' of what Emery says is true, he had a message to get out on several points, to put into the minds of people to contemplate, such as his recollection of traveling thru a portal to a world that looked like an 'Avatar' world, if this was true, it was likely inner earth, or just a different realm, not a spinning planet somewhere out in the cosmos – it would have been either in inner-earth here, or another Draco-controlled realm elsewhere within the great dome – and if true, Emery would need a DNA upgrade to go there, so its unlikely truth, but who knows? None of the rest of the Gaia "Cosmic Disclosure" whistle-blowers are real though, all of them are C.I.A plants, even the ones who are "from the public sector" are C.I.A plants and it's all to keep you understanding your paradigm in a heliocentric cabinet on the desk of a dusty freemasonic study in some 33rd degree learning establishment – the solar system hoax….because as mentioned many times already:

If you live on a spinning ball, the largest wall that you will know about was a wall in what is now called 'China' – the Great Wall of China was built by Tatarians, not Chinese. Great Tartery covered Russia and China as you will notice on the meme with this post - there are literally hundreds of maps still knocking-about depicting this fact….what the trollers guna say its fake? ha! don't be silly. the maps say Grand Tartary on them because before the last re-set (ended C. 890AD-1890 IRO) that's what it was called. Whilst on the subject…….the pictures of giant animals on Mars, are real. Period. Just because it does not fit your paradigm does not mean that they are not real…..'Some' of those pictures are fake, and some pictures of UFOs are fake…. How stupid do you need to be to throw the baby out with the bath water? how stupid? I'd like to see the vaccine record for these trollers…??…..i think it would be quite revealing!

On Mars for all that time, life would seem normal to those living there, but to us it would be like a dystopian nightmare with strangely shaped 'Aliens' walking about and old women, human & dressed in 18th-century clothes cradling a strange ET baby as if it's totally normal. It would be totally normal to the people living there as this is their way of life and all that they have known for generations and generations some of these people have been there as long as we have been here, they just live to about 400yrs of age.

Project 'Looking Glass' was taken off the Draco immediately when the benevolent decided enough was enough - Looking Glass was then reworked back into a positive mindset and used to finish off the movie with like we are seeing now. That's why the Amazing Adventures of Little Barron Trump etc are there with the Ingersol Lockwood / Louis Carol / Tessla connection/s….it was all Pleiadian / Andromedin intervention with over 150+ other benevolent ET species contributing to the largest show in the universe….the closing scene of a 3rd-dimensional theatre production called 'Life' that you would almost expect to hear the Luciferian puppet 'Sir' David Attenborough narrating (all 'sirs' are paedophile child-killers as mentioned previously) narrating the performance…..but he was executed 4yrs ago along with the rest of them - the reason that 'old' people like Attenborough don't look like they physically benefit from the age-restoring properties of the adrenalized blood from terrified children, is because David Attenborough was well over a hundred years old, he sold you out donkeys years ago, so he was benefitting from the age restorative affects of adrenochrome, but we didnt notice because he was a lot older than we thought by the time we were accustomed to hearing his voice on Radio, then in the 1950's on TV. its the same with all of them.

All the top truthers are strangely silent about children, everyone's waffling on about "The Children" "The Children", but only superficially. There are no links on Charlie Wards website, or any others, to vaccine-damaged kids, or homeless children or children brought up from the DUMBS that everyone keeps on about - top truthers all talk about the dumbs, but no one is collecting money for those 3 million children, who will all be ascending back here with us, they have had 4years to heal in medbeds with ET intervention, these traumatised children are now in perfect health and no longer psychologically damaged by their trauma, so they will easily be able to enter the new 5th-density with only love and positivity in their hearts.....there's more saved children from DUMBS ascending back here to 5th density than there are human adults - that's really embarrassing for all human adults, but soooo well deserved for the children 🙄

The fact-checkers that help you conclude that your crazy conspiracy theorist pal was clinically insane, are the same entities seen during WW II with the same purpose, but back then it was known as "Censorship" instead of "fact-checking". You must be able to jump this obvious hurdle? its kind of really really obvious.

Fig. 129 – says it all, really…..

Super intelligent people are to be hit the worst only because of the perceived wisdom….. an icewall and a flat earth are going to sound way too far off reality to an educated person, as that's the whole point of the education system in the first place…..to throw you off - not wanting to seem stupid, people don't enquire further as it's an extremely 'unintelligent' topic to pursue socially in a world where intelligence is measured by how much money you have. and that's exactly what you were supposed to think.

Is it not really embarrassing to be thinking thoughts that are ordained by someone else whilst giving you the illusion that these thoughts are your own? well they are your own thoughts, but the progressive steps to conclude the modules of the thought process, in general, are already there for you to make your 'Free-Will' choice from, carefully placed along the path to be there for when you need them….so you can choose your house / food / entertainment / employment / agriculture / Healthcare / education / sport or 'poison' etc etc etc from a choice of options that are presented to you. Your supposed & assumed 'free will' is nothing but a flimsy illusion…..your free-will has less of an option than the pine needles that fell off your Christmas tree last year, 3 weeks after Christmas.

Don't forget you are under observation - yes I know it sounds strange, but so does the idea that children would be harvested for adrenalized blood produced from their own terror at the hands of those psychopaths that you all trusted so implicitly……trust me, the latter sounds far stranger than the former. Your actions, thoughts, deeds, & your pain, sorrow & pleasure are all being closely monitored by the benovelants ET's who are in craft above your heads right now as I'm typing this. They are working out who will end up where after the event, separating the last wheat-from-the-chaff to make sure everyone is catered for. My humble advice: be the best version of yourselves that you can possibly be. Just do that and all will be fine. xxx

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

It is so difficult to superimpose true reality over that which we have come to know as our paradigm…..they are so inextricably different, like two magnetics repelling each other to keep separation – there is nothing similar about our paradigm, to actual true reality – nothing whatsoever, that's why we have a genre of scifi & fantasy films. It's easy to come up with story lines and plots for these films because these plots and scenarios in these movies & episodes are taken straight out of 5th Density lifestyles & the power struggles between the warring factions in these films, is showed to us from the sands of our own history. What we think are ancient ruins, you probably helped build that ruin 4,000yrs ago in a previous life.

This is why it will be so shocking for most – its soooooo totally "Alien" and ridiculous…….how can the QFS possibly be fake? How can the QFS be the road to what Klaus Schwab referred to as… "you will own zee nuffink and be zee heppy"? – for everyone on their millionth cup of coffee in this awakening process, its starkly obvious now, but for those who just turned up a bit late……this is what David icke was talking about with 'problem reaction solution' modus operandum …..its why London was burnt down to introduce the Birth Certificate, and its why we had every pivotal moment in our fake 3rd density illusion known that we understand from pre-school, as the rise-&-fall of civilisations.

To understand the 1st point…….we have been lied to about everything, everything, not just some stuff, or 'most' stuff, but EVERYTHING – your language has been reversed since the last re-set at the end of Tartaria, for instance, the word 'Black' meant "Pale of skin" in other words Black used to mean White. That's one example of TRILLIONS of examples, but you get the point…..' Nothing' is what you thought it was, and nothing you learnt is real – it doesn't matter that the bloke who 1st "discovered" 'it' was in 1799 and here's a sepia photograph of the moment he discovered it……"He" would have been a 33rd degree mason and likely a bloodline member, whoever "he" was and whatever industry / field or Background he harkened from. It's the exact same blueprint for ALL of our "Inventions" and "discovery's" we actually invented NOTHING ourselves because they gave us the illusion of invention whilst in reality they were merely exchanging really old tech, for our most precious assets, our children…..your only reading this synopsis now because your own species gave the Draco 9+million children on a particular year in the 1960's & every time your finger hits a key on that board, you are unknowingly connecting with that loss – the same with EVERYTHING you use on a daily basis. It's actually far worse than that because okay, maybe the iPhone cost 9+ million kids, but to upgrade that same shit phone to a newer version, isn't free….that's another 9 million children – they don't just give you tech to help you….they are not here to help you, the only thing they will help you do is harm yourself on toxic foods & products whilst you swap your future for a glass of polluted water because its thirsty on that long 75yr walk up-the-garden-path that leads off the cliff of existence, where you will join your ancestors in an immediate re-birth so you can carry-on again on that rusty-hamster-wheel incarnating loop-after-loop utterly oblivious to your situation. Honestly what you have been thru is far worse than any plot of any horror story, you don't even know (neither do i! im just sayin) but you don't.

*"What they don't know wont hurt them".....*yeah... that old chestnut.
We are human, mostly – this can't be real, people don't eat kids, and people don't torture a baby for any reason, okay maybe rarely someone with mental health will do that every 100 years, but you can't ask a sensible person to take you seriously if you are going to say that a group of nefarious people in government actually worship Satan and killing children is part of their "success" plan?....well unfortunately that's basically it. The people who are in charge of your happiness, sorrow, guilt, wealth, success, stability, health, science, religion, finance, your sports and leisure.....the people who educate your children are the same people eating, raping & torturing them. But they are not "People" this is the problem for most, as "Aliens" live lightyears away and it would take them so long to get here.....Mmmmm.
The "people" doing this sold their souls a long time ago before your grandmother's grandmother was even born – the entity inside that "people" can be from various sources as discussed previously, but they are all working towards the same agenda which is the next re-set and all the accomplishments that they hope to procure before that time comes, which is every thousand or so years – they have a business plan for us and always have, it has quotas on it and detailed forecasts of profits and loss.....not much loss until Mother turned up with 50% of our civiliseation and 150+ other species inhabiting 14,000 worlds, tho – they lost a lot during the initial battle and millions up till then but they have been sweet for the last 6000yrs mostly – now they are all but annihilated – if they had only have been nice they would still have their own realms and could be happy.....but they all got involved with ancient demons.

Lilly Savage and Dame Edna Everage, the tyranny's from back-in-the-day, were carefully placed pawns in the cabals silent & invisible chess game – only the cabal knew there was even a chess match going-on, we were all oblivious to it – the gradual public acceptance-into-adoration of a man in women's clothes, going waaaaay back to the 1st Tranny of the new re-set, was put there because in a few hundred years' time they need transgender-ism to be a 'thing', they just omitted explanation of the actual end goal and played it like it's a cool funny act at a show in the 1900's….a cabaret act in a bar in the 1920's, and some other famous tranny from the 1940's and 50's when 'Gay' was also programmed into the reversed nefarious-looking-Glass tech – the Draco used looking glass like everything else they do, they reverse its purpose or intention, so good-to-bad-light-to-dark-positive-to-negative etc – so by the swinging '60's people were becoming more openly gay even if only to close family members….and male seed sleeping with male seed and vice-versa……but by the social mechanics that we live within are governed by, they were able to use the 'gay'-stepping-stone to achieve a consensus reality with a wider scope as they do with all silent-weapons in this quiet war.

A gradual acceptance of the transgender goal that they had planned over a thousand years prior….or longer, was coming to fruition. Women normally lead the civilizations out there, it's not men running the show, men protect the women and children & everyone protects the animals…..it's what we do, normally….so to insert a male soul into a female vessel is a serious galactic crime…..stepping on a snail is a serious Galactic crime, so you can extrapolate the rest of the results of that thought experiment, for yourself.
'Drag Queens' or Drag-Man or Dragon Men….are Draco, Alpha Draco / Omicron Draco….Raul Paul….A 'Drag-Queen' is a Draco – they love it. As in your face as they can get. Draco / Draygo / Dragos / Dragon is all a synonym for Dragons highlighting the heritage of the Draco species.

They keep highly accurate records on every single child abducted. When these kids are sold, they have a provenance along with them listing where they were taken from, their background, blood type genetics, how long they were tortured for and how much adrenochrome was obtained, who took them off the street….any scars that they have and pictures of them….everything about that child is recorded as the people buying these kids want all this info – its shockingly absurd to even consider that this would be the case, yet it is….also……every single penny in tax that you have paid, and genetically all the way back to your most distant relative, is all recorded and detailed, these documents relating to your historical families tax line are all held in Venice (were held in Venice – more on this on my website here: https://medi-cure.uk/maritime-admiralty-law-2/)

A child is tortured 3 times per day, for about 3-4 hours per session, for about 3 days before it passes away in unparalleled agony. Each individual celebrity will need to sacrifice at least 2 children per week for their entire career……so Phillip Schofield……35 years in tell-a-vision……52 weeks in a year = 104 children a year minimium 3,630 children in a 35year career – that's a minimum amount its likely over double that figure OR HIGHER….PER CELEBRITY……..let that sink-in please. THATS WHY 9+ MILLION KIDS GO MISSING PER ANNUM…..60% ARE TAKEN BY THE WORLDS CHILD PROTECTION AGENCIES…..EACH CELEBRITY ONLY KILLED 8,000 KIDS IN 35 YRS (INCLUDING CHRISTMAS FEASTS & HALLOWEEN ETC ETC…….THATS 16,000 IN 70 YEARS X 2.5 MILLION CELEBS IS OVER 32 BILLION CHILDREN IN 70 YEARS…….THATS WHAT "THIS" IS FOR…….

During the start of the "covid" era, teachers and GP's, Nurses & Police…the good ones took early retirement, or quit – but we never got to hear about these heroes as they were silenced on their respective social media platforms right at the start, you remember, when people thought that fact-checkers were actually checking factual information from somewhere out there beyond the fibreoptic wall-socket, but no, fact-checkers are just modern censoring tools in a digital age, tech makes control easier and easier…….look what a carrot on a stick does to a dumb mule…..that is just stick-&-String tech……like the 'doughnut-4-a-jab' that so many fell for (!)

The new, more keen replacements to these roles in Public Office, in the pre-covid-vaccine-vacuum of staff who all bailed seeing this for the Genocide that it actually was, their oaths or unspoken moral responsibility immediately shone thru – the rest……well……they thought this would never happen, thought that they will seek automatic refuge behind the petticoat of their employers……who were by that time already all arrested and/or executed. This is a big curtain to fall, and it has been falling since the 1960's, just very slowly.
Personally I think the pre-ascension jitters are mostly born out of the fact that even the sheep know in the back of their mind that something HUGE is going on, even the most dormant sleeper, for whom this awakening process is designed to move at their speed while the rest of us had to drop-a few gears and sit there, head-in-hands, till now. Now is the final test in the 6,000+ year exam that old science labelled as 'evolution via natural selection', but the Great Awakening will know it as a system restoration & re-boot, with the latest software available on the galactic market –
Everything you have and know and do, everywhere you go and see, everything you eat, drink, think, say & want……are all pointless distractions and unnecessary to 'life' and living– real success is not measured in FIAT currency or on scales in a jewellers, its measured by how well you integrate into your surroundings, how you deal with stress and trauma, how you are willing to sacrifice your time, happiness or own life to help or save another/s or to improve theirs…..if you are Rich in spirit then you have true wealth and only pocket-full's of this currency will pay your way thru the gates of ascension, and that is a fact.

Instead of being grateful that the 3 million children who were brought up from dumbs, have been treated on medbeds the last 4 years and are now fit-as-a-fiddle running about playing with other children, instead of breathing a sigh of relief at this good news, people out there are either oblivious to that topic in the 1st place, or moaning like fuck about what they want, why it's not happened how they wanted it to yet – these poor kids were housed in FEMA camp conversions, the ones who didn't have families to go straight to – that's where they have been this last 4yrs, having had the trauma removed from their psyche, they will join whoever lands back here…..so will the twin flames of those children….so will your twin flames……also if you are ascending, and your twin flame isn't….you will both ascend because you are needed as a pair here to create…..you can create on your own, but the lucky break for non-ascending flames is that if their flame ascends, then they get a semi-free ride – the chances are that the corresponding twin flames are also awake and make up the ascending number already anyway, but for those who don't, they will heal way faster with their twin flame by their side.

Channelers and mediums…… there's thousands of them out there…..they all charge money for letting you know important stuff from ET's…..why are they unable to talk about any of this information?.....why has no other mediums/psychics or Channelers come forward to report on their guides info on the situation behind the icewall at this essential period in human 'Our-Story'???? This is a very pertinent question because almost every paragraph of a couple of hundred pages of information that I have been writing-up for Christian this last few months, every paragraph has information in it that would, if released even just a year earlier have spawned 3 books per paragraph and several history channel documentaries PER PARAGRAPH plus the movies and scriptwriters would be crawling all over it looking for fame and a fortune on the Luciferian ladder…….this one book (the compilation of these Brief Synopsis), if released earlier than September 2022 would have gone thru the 'Truther' tinsel-machine & cherry-picked with glee, extrapolated wrongly by those ill equipped to understand the new paradigm as they are viewing it from their 3rd density illusion, or to put it more correctly, to remember the Old paradigm, and it would have been torn to pieces, disjointed with some people hearing half-truths yet again distorted and confused more than ever, and everyone would still be clueless – most still are, but they have the option to at least receive the information in original format, complete with cursing (has no one noticed I don't swear anymore? 😊 I'm 5-D-as-fuck now)

This information that has been brought to you by the most caring soul on the planet yes that is true, Christians Face Book thing says that, and when I first saw it, I thought 'how bold a statement is that?....but after knowing him just a short time, before we ever physically met, I'm sure, I knew that was true. So this free information that hasn't been heard before, that hasn't cost a subscription or needed an account to transfer money into, in order to receive – this information brought to you via a series of short videos and a documented explanations and breakdowns in layman's terms (unlike Ashyana Dean) for anyone to copy & past into any language.....this info was explained on a cheap laptop camera with no external mike, no rehearsal, no research, no editing.... nothing except some coloured chalk and a tin of black paint for one wall, and a tin of white, plus 3 coloured felt-tips for the other wall....and it is the entire TRUTH of your existence – a truth starting with the time Source Creation created itself, how, why, when, and this information covers most of our historical turning points and achievements, it explains vast tracts of unknown mysteries that have baffled scientists and laymen alike for hundreds of years and its content covers not just this realm but at least 177 other worlds and the societal interactions between them, idiosyncrasy's, lifestyles & history's of a big percentage of Gateway-10's realms & populations.....and the other day I saw a post from a troller saying "oh that's all off scribed, I saw all that on scribed its just copied and pasted from there..." I just laughed!! I don't even know what scribd is? Is it like redit or something? Iv never used either – I replied to that post that if its on scribd then it was copied there from here lol....then my pal mentioned that hed been posting the synopsis on scribd himself! So it was Christians work anyway.

People receive information based on their experience as humans growing up here, that's why its sooo important to bring your children up correctly showing love and empathy so that they too can understand empathy and love and pass that on – a child shown no empathy is unable to reproduce those feelings if they are not available = learnt/shown – I personally know unloved children who are abused yet this is not seen as abuse or acknowledged, it goes under the radar and produces an damaged child with a dysfunctional awareness and just as designed, this kid will go on to a string of dysfunctional relationships, which is what was desired, alongside many other "unfortunate" by-products of dystopian reality....."it's just the way it is".....no....no no, its not. It was created only to hide the real reason they are here....our children's adrenalized blood.

Think about this:

Why does Q mention ascension 2 times (in November 2022, ONLY, EVER) and why did Q say in one of these two posts that there is a war on for your DNA...?.."Ascension" – 3 weeks later in the same month Q mentioned ascension again.....Q has never mentioned God....or Jesus.....why might that be, do you think?

What is coded in your DNA?
Who put it there?
Why?
Mankind is repressed.
We will be repressed no more.
Information is knowledge.
Knowledge is power.
Information is power.
How do you protect your DNA?
There is a war for your DNA.
Protect your DNA.
Ascension.

Christian has spear-headed disclosure for the awakening process – think about that also – who else knew any of this? We heard of Roswell etc etc etc for 50+years...every poxy-documentary on ET's had Roswell on it.....jokers – look at the industry Roswell spawned.....look at the con-people going into deep trances "Ohmmmmmmmmmmm" & all that other malarkey - it's all not going-off in a 3rd density simulation anyway….don't matter how hard you try. Some people spoke of microcosmic aspects of the shard of truth, but no one knew the full story, till now, no one was even close to a mock-up of it…..for VERY VERY GOOD REASON……to avoid another re-set, so that we can all ascend as ONE species separated at the end (and throughout) by a set of exams that we knew as 'daily life' giving us decisions to make, especially in this last loop, for ALL OF US TO MAKE…."Smart Choices"……the lessons of life, we attended with every waking moment……i didn't work that out till i was 36…….see I'm not the sharpest knife, that should have been obvious to me when I was 6, but I learnt that 30yrs late!! Never mind – it is what it is…..onwards & upwards – we have a realm to create very soon, & "fortune favours the bald" they say, and I am bald….i even shaved my nut-bag a few days ago for ascension as I don't want my twin flame choking on a fur ball when I get in…."Hi honey! I'm ba'ak….sorry it took so long babe, I honestly thought Christian said 6 years, but he said 6,000 apparently? Doh… Silly-Ol'me ….never mind, its flown by….hey look I shaved my bollocks for you as a special treat babe….can't be long as I've got an entire realm to create in a minute, hows your mum getting on?…..is my Golden Fleece still in the wardrobe babe?…."

To 'Win' your own personal war and ascend instead of Ass-ending….you just need to be aware of the lies, the truth and the reality…..it needs to percolate thru your ears down into your chest……when you are walking about pissing-pure-truth up every lamp-post regardless of the views of your peers, you know you guna be sweet…. and you also know they guna need you soon.

Make the most of this unique time in 'Our-Story'……you are now the true masters of your own destiny….at last……..and you are also creating your own reality…..so wield that power wisely.

The pre-adamic pre-Adamite civilisation that Cain (Caine & Able, that Caine) left and went to live, married and had children with a pre-Adamite female apparently, the pre adamites were You……they lived in "the land of Nod" where the children's character "Noddy" comes from, its another mockery of you.

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

(I didn't write part 16.....i forgot and skipped to part 17, so part 17 is actually part 16 – sorry!)

The net being used right now to ensure that only the right souls ascend, has the same diameter as single intention – it's your thoughts that are being assessed at this time and what you are really like as a person, being the focus of the test. Your 'true' self - How you think-your-way-out of situations that may normally present an obstacle....how you judge yourself (or not) before you jump out the car after someone rear-ended you, being their fault as they are behind you, how do YOU deal with that whilst in shock and especially if you are unharmed?.....How you react angrily / aggressively from embarrassment or humiliation when you yourself may have orchestrated it….do you project that anger out? and humiliation….do you realise in that nano-second that its best to laugh and make light at your own error, stupidity or lack of thought?….or do you deal with the humiliation in an even more embarrassing way, casting it out flamboyantly as a deflection? Only you and those close to you will know these truths and weather you identify them and make changes in your mind or not, if necessary, to how you deal with situations like this now, & in the future……think about it? The last 4 years have, even for the sheep, been a bit unusual no matter what country you live in, your last half-decade has been 'different' to any other half-decade that you have lived thru to date – now link-this-up in your mind for a moment:

All our historical prophecies and myths all talk of an 'End-Time' or Judgement day, the end of a great cycle and the beginning of a new one – all continents and all cultures have this common-theme running thru their his-story……..take a look at the date we are in now…the 1st part of a new millennia where much *prophesy was focussed on….think back to all you have stored in memory's regarding something that sounds related to the book of revelations?, The Rapture?, The End Of Days?, the 5th Sun of the Maya?, the Great Tribulation?, or the Hopi Indian story's that may have stuck in your mind over the years?….. then go and take a look at yourself in the mirror in the bathroom, feel your face with your fingers, pull your cheeks out and massage your broughs……YOU YOURSELF are here right now at the end of all the myth & legend, occupying a vessel that had/has a set of decisions to make upon the seemingly mundane interactions that contribute to the daily schedule of tasks & chores, roles and responsibilities that we do each day, whatever they may be - a set of tests that we are all going thru at the same time – REALLY AWAKE people are messing-it-up because of mini tantrums and lapses in certainty – don't be swayed by the media at a time like this……jesus christ now more than ever, turn the TV off & don't listen to 'truthers' because they are lying or misinformed - jog-on these stupid crypto dealers who have paid for their faux-ascension with their misguided-belief that their digital QFS Blockchain future bought safety and security……your guna be well gutted in a minute when that power goes, because so does all that digital currency you have saved for a rainy day…that 200 million Dollar super yacht you were looking at as a serious purchase option the moment the crypto repeated the last quantum-leap in value in 2015, will pixelate along with the android smartphone in your pocket that your Lobster Wallet is on, when the event comes - the crypto itself will disappear a week or so earlier before the 3rd density evaporates forever, when the power goes in our realm, it will not return again….Starlink will supply power from the only satellite system we have ever had, it was there before the occupation and it is still there after they were removed and destroyed, which was before you even heard of 'Covid-19'……yes its unfortunately true, you have been so terribly lied-to, more so in the last 4 years than at any other time in your history, you have been incarcerated in your own homes and denied access to your dying relatives, you have been poisoned and subjugated more now than you ever have been before, but the last 4+ years have been for a very good reason

There's guna be a biblical shitstorm in a few weeks time that not even an ark of god can protect you from, as this great flood will come from withinside you, a flood of torrential emotion, pouring out of you like a breached-dam, emptying you soul of all its light – the reason we are here is to try and make that a little more manageable for you…..it may seem like we are pissing in the wind, and I must say it certainly feels like I'm getting covered in my own piss, but in reality IRO 200,000 humans will ascend from the public because of this information from Christan…..altogether including the Xiaolin monks and Tibetan Yogis etc, thats 600,000 (iro) human souls who will make it back home – 600,000 is not many out of 10 Billion souls, but it is a lot considering you almost lost your entire species….literally….even your souls were to be 'lobotomised' as they could not find a way to destroy source creation but they could find a way to destroy its function, permanently. Let That Sink In. Every incarnation that destroyed soul would ever experience would be a life of zero-possibilities in a semi-vegetative state, like most of the UK is in right now, coincidentally, so they probably wouldn't even notice anyway.

By the way, Tony Stark from the 'Ironman' series, played by the Luciferian Robert Downey-Junior, the pretentiously obnoxious little prick who was executed in 2018

/19 as well as the rest of the scum, well think about what made iron man shit-hot…??? A little-blue light in his chest, a light that gave him special powers and energy…..its mocking you whilst showing you in plain sight what is real, wrapped-up in a fictional story……you are all 'Ironman' and your little blue light is far more powerful than the one in Tony Starks chest.

Mat Lucas who played 'George Daws', and 'Andy Pipkin' from "Little Britan" – remember his Boyfriend died about 10-15yrs go?.....you guessed it….that was a sacrifice as well…..you think that there are societal mechanics at work in your world, linking your experience here whist alive, into the well planned and thought-out think-tanks of Government, Industry, Finance, Travel……Education, Sport, Leasure, Agriculture, History, Science, Mathematics, Astronomy…….Food, medicine, Geography, Industry & manufacturing….everything falling within the boundary of human existence – you think all the new and cutting-edge benefits in these fields and industries coalesce at some point in the minds of those governing us by popular vote, to be discussed at some point, sat at a table in Downing Street for instance, working out how best to serve, educate, feed, clothe, house, employ, care-for, placate & entertain the electorate…..when in actual fact, the glue that holds your society together is made from the blood of terrified children, lies, deceit and suffering…….everything else in your world, everything that you have come to know and love, hate and despise, is all just a distraction from the Demonic agender that ruled & Governed your existence for 6,013 years. Its gone now and there are only idiots in the public left….the only danger on this planet post 2019, is the stupidity of the humans cohabiting it – that's all……and this is only because of the programming they underwent after being born again here with no memories of the life they just exited before this new birth…..it's that SIMPLE it's not even complicated…….it's just never been presented to you in a coherent way before, until now….. when you allow your mind unfettered access to contemplate the impossible, endless possibility's present themselves to you & a 'guide-rail' forms around your psyche as each new bit of info resonates to the next, but it won't happen if you do not let it, and letting it means to allow yourself to assay it from a nonjudgmental viewpoint, judge each point on its own merit individually, then as a whole – soon the paint on the walls of your old paradigm start flaking off, then falling away in large sheets. The flaking paint reveals a wall of ice that very few have penetrated in the last 6,013 years – it's always been there, we just didn't know about it to even contemplate it, that's why its sounds so far-out, because no ones ever been presented with this information before – no discussions outside of high-ranking freemasonry had any data on even the shape of the earth, let alone the other realms that Freemasons themselves are unaware of, they only knew the earth was flat, nothing else.

Fig.131 The Ice Wall that doesn't exist – there is actually video footage of this ice wall going on for hundreds of miles, the video ending before the end, if such exists, is reached – Captain Cook reported that he sailed antarctica with the coastline on his left (I think?, may have been on his right?) for 60,000 miles....yet on the map it shows antarctica as only 10,000kilometers in circumference - another explorer whose name escapes me, sailed the same route as cook, 3 years later and reported 57,000 miles as the circumference of antarctica...that's because they were sailing the entire circumference of this realm, not a small island in the southern ocean....its all trickery and illusion, always has been.

To ALL the NHS staff that carried on jabbing and the jobs-worths and Great-Reset lovers and to all the people who got used to wearing a mask and quite liked it.....your lascivious sycophantic personality that you downloaded gradually thru life, from a multitude of sources from the aether of this epoch, is the beacon of your own demise as you compete for validation in a morally corrupt society, vying for social acceptance from birth-to-grave as you slip slowly further away from source-creation, pulled out into an ever decreasing arena of possibility's with ever diminishing options, created & augmented by the whimsical desires of the sycophantic pied-pipers that you are all following like a bunch of lost sheep, trotting-along behind the socially inept idiots that are in front of you as if their lead is synonymous with a beneficial outcome, yet they are only following someone else in front of them and the fact that there is over 10 people in the Que means they must be collectively on to something?– lets face it, you only like what you like because its popular among your peers, too uncertain to conclude your own desires, you need reassurance, validation and acceptance from someone else, anyone else, as you care not where that info came from so long as the source you are hearing it from now, fits the social template for the type of info being relayed….see how easy it is for them to fool you??...put a suite on a paedophile and he becomes an eccentric but wise teacher, give a Stethoscope and glasses to a nonce and he becomes a celebrated children's Gynaecological expert who is coincidentally a 33 degree Freemason, as well…….you would never ever in a billion years think that a Childrens Television Entertainers and presenters such as BBC's 'Mr Tumble' would be sacrificing several children a week and raping and torturing them to remain in the public's eye and at the top of their careers tree, would you?? Likewise you would never take someone seriously who says that the Queen was a shape-shifting reptilian, would you??....Like you would not believe a bloke on Rumble who never went to school, so as to avoid erroneous 'program' code, who reports graphicly complex and detailed knowledge of a way of life greatly different to our own, located behind an ominously cold wall that we were told does not even exist….I have seen this wall so do not tell me it does not exist (Brad Olsen, you only saw the bit they wanted you to see, so stop waffling on about how you "went to Antarctica and there is no ice wall" - you mug – I liked you till you said that)

Tinsel-Town is a bit quiet this last few years has anyone not noticed?..... 'ideas' to shock and awe the public are running a bit thin now, and post-covid no one seems to give a shit – even the sleepers are bored with celebrity now the new fads and trinkets losing their lustre as the light on the old earth fades, and the old earth fades with it, each day that passes more and more wake-up to this fact– soon all this will seem like an embarrassing nightmare, but only for a small handful of us…..unfortunately that's the way it is as the rest will still be so traumered by what's about to happen, that to see someone looking in the state of catatonic despair that these poor souls will go thru in a minute, is reminiscent of the old black-&-white footage/remastered colour of shell-shocked soldiers that returned from the 1st & 2nd world wars – you know them old videos of young men in their early-to-mid-20's, unable to string a few words together, looking 'thru' the enquirer as if still on the battle-field & not safely in the ward of a psychiatric hospital in the Kent countryside – the History Chanel put out several graphic documentaries of the horrors of war – scenes like this are always part of the aftermath of any conflict, but what's about to happen is not your average apparent 'conflict' and what the sheep are unable to now 'know' due to time required to absorb this info, Is that there is no actual physical danger coming…..no no…..BUT, and that's a HUGE "BUT", what they are about to experience is the palpable terror of an actual re-set without any real "alien" boots-on-the-ground so to speak, so the terror the sheep will be in as far far worse than any 1st or 2nd world war shell-shock could even come close to replicating – the past centuries heroes of conflict and the brave men that fought in these fierce battles were fighting a known enemy, a human and understood foreign but terrestrial enemy that ate and drank the same foods and looked the same as us, traveling in the same vehicles, whereas the fake "Alien" invasion you are just about to bare witness to, will be, by its sheer obviousness, an unknown and faceless alien aggressor……if you're a sheep…..your fucked…..totally totally fucked. Sorry but it is what it is – that's why it matters to us, because when you have soaked-up enough of this new info to see the bigger-bigger-picture, you can start to see thru the vessel and just see the soul….the little help-less-blue-light spitting venom and cynicism as it trolls its path along kicking & screaming their way to the gates of Judgement Day on the 11th hour of the old world…

The word "Apocalypse" actually means "The revealing of that which was previously obscured". Not "The End Of The World" but the END of THEIR world…..because the Apocalypse IS "The Great Awakening" a revealing of that which was previously obscured is synonymous with the end of their world and the birth of a new one.

That's why Christian feels sorry for the sheep, I feel sorry for the children of the sheep, the Lambs – I couldn't give a monkeys about the sheep, and I can say that as I tried way harder than most to wake people up about vaccines etc etc etc, starting in 2018 with the childhood immunization program in the UK – I found out how much a non-subject this topic is for discussion among medical 'Professionals' here in the UK. It's the most heinous taboo to question the NHS staff or website on this subject.

.....i went to hospitals and schools in groups and on my own to talk about the vaccine roll-out and other health related natural interventions and protocols for illnesses such as cancer, epilepsy and M.S, Chron's, Auto Immune and the fact that people are, and have died and been maimed because of all vaccines especially the sars-covid-2 "Vaccine", I was laughed at, shunned and ridiculed.....so..... fuk em, all of them, as I spoke to soooo many people about it that were of a professional capacity within the 'Health Care' industry that my evaluation is is 100% of the people I approached towed-the-line and didn't have an opinion of their own referring to the collective hive-mind of the National Health Service.....you faceless retarded algorithms.... Shame on you. Il help as many as I come across as that's in my contract and I will genuinely feel sorry for them, I think?.....Maybe not?

Nostradamus, was also a Luciferian child-killing-rapist, just like all the other celebrities that you ever heard of, or saw – Nostradamus was an Alpha Draco and 'Looking Glass' was used to look forward in the realms loop data to see what was going to happen and when, they could pop forward in time or back, to know the exact moment of any death, event or 'vision'....."Pigs Will Fly" is a term we use daily for the last 100 years....."Flying pigs" came from a Nostradamus prophesy of Spitfire pilots in WW2 wearing Gas Masks in the cockpit of their fighter planes, resembling the snout of a pig – hence 'pigs will fly' – your entire fake history is a his-story of the down-trodden.....blessed are the downtrodden for they shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.....yeah right.....the 'kingdom of heaven'...'Heaven' is a few places – for Enoch, Heaven was a mothership in the sky (The Book Of Enoch is unambiguous, that's why it is not part of Biblical Cannon….its bait-as-fuk for them to let us see what Enoch wrote) , for others Heaven is a plethora of places physical & metaphysical – But in reality, after all, we are in the days of 'Revelations'….Heaven is not even close to what you left when they came here…..'Heaven' for you, could never possibly have existed, aside from a few thoughts generated in your mind towards the possibility that you have never done anything 'that bad' to warrant hell or purgatory, so heaven must be a serious option?....

Some people will start looking elsewhere for truth on what heaven may or may not be – 'Truthers' as they are called at these end times (its more like a beginning than an end, though) and 'whistle-blowers, who seem so credible in the scenario that has been sowed pre-&-post covid……5-Star 'Ex' Military Generals, Rear Admirals, Flight Commanders, Tactical Response Unit Commanders, Forensic Aviation Experts & Ground control crew, Military Medics & Surgical staff……the slow drip-drip of post Roswell "Alien" information a 'soft disclosure' was geared specifically to allow its percolation thru the psyche to allow a plethora of outcome scenarios, all of which were as wrong as the next, but because there were so many options, you wrongly assumed that the truth must be in there somewhere?.....obviously it must be in there somewhere because the level of these whistle-blowers is extremely high and the emotion flowing out of these retired wartime heroes, is palpable to say the least. There are so many SSP whistleblowers and ex-Military and 'Ex'-C.I.A operatives floating about, that some of them will resonate with you for whatever reason – maybe you just like them? Maybe you relate to their deep-seated air-of- humanity (Staff Sgt Clifford Stone, as one example) or maybe you resonate with their Rank, title or personality, but they are all there for this time now to confuse you……they all discuss a solar-system universe….which does not and has not ever existed…..that's how you know that they are all lying. Dr Steven Greer from the 'Disclosure project' was himself, an Alpha Draco (was till his execution in 2019 or before) every option of something to 'believe-in' or align-yourself-to, is as flawed as the next item on the list of possible possibilities, for a very good reason….to stop as many souls ascending as possible, that's all.

Jesus Christ, it was really easy for them to do that because you lot all welcomed

it with open arms, couldn't wait to greet this demonic agenda with glee-full delight because that's what it looked like everyone else was doing…….that's what the media are for, to make it look like whatever they want it to look like, as long as you are following the herd, the herd is controlled-as-fuck so that's where they need you, and you are guided into this position by quite obvious societal programming techniques….. they can have you worshiping Sam Smith in some weird demonic Numpty-outfit, or a horned Madonna with blood oozing out of her mouth…..can you see? Why do you think they have 'Film Sets' in conflicts these days?....in real wars you see footage of front-line exchange of fire from both sides day and night…..if you don't see that on the news, it's because that war is yet another montage of fakery & deceit, like everything else is….NASA don't own a telescope….why would they want one? So they can look at 'Sky-Net 1'? that's all your guna see if you were the other side of the membrane – the constellations…..think about it it's easy to do in the mind…..if we are a spinning ball traveling around the sun, which is itself traveling around a huge orbit taking *21,160 years dragging moons and other planets and debris and gasses about…….after a few billion years……Polaris is still the same pole star and everything else is in exactly the same place it always was…….Mmmmmmm – leave the aperture open on a camera pointing at Polaris overnight and you will see clearly that the stars are all in the same place night-after-night…..after-nigh….epoch-after-epoch after-epoch all revolving around a stationary Polaris. Its because these 'Stars' are Skynet-1 the security system that was already here before the parasitic occupation even started – all realms have a 'sky-net', but used negatively the Skynet can be used to facilitate our subjugation & control, the constellation hoax being just one example – these 'constellations' are in actual fact highly advanced security/defence and attack satellites…off-world bases/stations and information exchange satellites……they are the Swiss-Army-Knife of a realms security program –

Each constellation, such as the constellation of Orion, is made up of its visible stars, however many stars that is, in Orion its 7 main stars and 10 further stars with planets, apparently, but just count how many you see with your eyes, as that's how many there are, there may be others that are not illuminated, but its irrelevant right now. Each point of light will have several different purposes and for some their function is to charge up the pyramids during and before a re-set because their 4th density weapons and craft need 4th density electricity, basically – weapons and Armor also need charging and they too are 4th Density weapons and Armor. Before they were back-engineered from their original Free-energy dispersal purpose to simulate a 4th density energetic-system, like needing your iphone charger on a planet full of Samsung phones, or having a gadget that runs only on DC as oppose to AC, it's the same with density's, the aetheric simulation reacts differently In different density's so 4th Density craft will require 4th Density power. The Anunnaki gave you pyramids as a gift, they are mostly benevolent until the demonic partnership started, now all the negative ones are gone, helped by Ea & Annu, the parents of Enki & Enka – Ea & Annu are positive and helped in the war against their own children.

Don't forget death is a myth so these people are still alive and always will be, just like you will be….your last death happened on the same day you were born this loop. Not one soul has returned to source creation since this started 6,013 years ago, not one – all are reborn immediately here again after death to occupy a vessel that is to be used for food/sex/testing/organ harvesting/slavery/cloning/selling/torturing/genetic experimentation/MK-Ulktra programming or just to live on the surface paying tax in a shit job, hopefully you will have kids, and hopefully you will have them taken off you by social services….that's actually what 'They' would rather. Sat at home watching TV or Tell-A-Vision while they complete their goals for each decade whilst you are oblivious, watching bread & Circus getting excited because Chelsea beat Liverpool last night and your proper happy about it while they are eating your kids at sacrifices to garner more respect and attention from the Demons who give them ultimate control and bring along a skillset second only to Source Creation itself – They feed the carcasses of your children back to you in your fast food outlets and multinational corporations and conglomerates that own all the other 'options' you have for every aspect of your society - the only thing that wasn't fast was the slow and agonising death that these poor little souls endured before they finally died of a heart attack.

The 'Barnard Star' is where the 'Barnardians' come from and are real and have their own realm, a flat disc also, as all planets are, but they do not live on or near that star system, Mercury and Venus also being spherical space stations of the negative 4 species that enslaved you, oh, and fed you your own children's remains after extracting their lifeforce, their adrenalized blood, in fast-food outlets the world over. Why do you think McDonalds meat doesn't pass a DNA test? It's not nice but it is what it is, as they say. Best you start thinking about these topics because they are coming to a TV, android and smartphone, near you very soon. I have eaten dozens of human children and probably many hundred full grown adults……we all have……that processed meat in the glass cabinet at the butchers outlet, the big lump that is obviously some type of 'ham' is most likely the fat off of some old lady's back, or a room full of old lady's….the left overs from all these sacrifices is literally what all the large multinational food outlets feed you. It's not a conspiracy theory when you have the facts. Its not just burger outlets either, its ALL multinational food company's putting human remains in 'most' if not ALL of their products.

*I think? I think its longer than that but that sticks in my head as a 'Great Cycle' of the Maya? As I said before there is no research in any of these synopsis, they are what comes out of Christians mouth explained to him on the spot by Kalo, explained by me after I asked him what the fuk he's on about, he explains it again & I digest it and write it so that hopefully others can understand & that's why I apologize on things above that I may or may not be right about, like the 21,160 year thing, I could google it easy in 3 seconds, but we don't 'research' anything - any of the 'other' data/information that sounds familiar is what I remember from my own historical interests since a kid, so I think its right but it doesn't really matter about the 21,160yr thing)

The Avatars and ETs sent in to help will automatically ascend as they came here to help the rest of you, some of us incarnated here, and some of us are in Avatar chambers in Russia – some of us have been here longer than others, hence the speed in waking-up to reality a lot faster, as our minds have not been thru as much trauma and soul-memory-wiping, our body's will not need to have a DNA repair because our 'normal' bodies are semi-external to this simulation, entering the 'arena' of experience at the time of birth, I wasn't dead immediately before this birth, I went into this body I'm in right now directly from the chamber in Russia, on 7th august 1973 at 23:23pm. I'm looking forward to getting it back as that body isn't short, fat and bald, that body didn't have a crack-habit and get up-to-no-good as part of the daily schedule……that's because I wasn't doing 'this' from day-1……no chance, I didn't even know why, I just wasn't conforming to anything and even thought about giving up cannabis farming if they made it illegal, back in the early 90's before I found out it was part of our immune system, I wanted to quit if it was legalised as what's the point of doing something legal? I was meant to be here to break the law and rebel, not conform….these were my adolescent thoughts……iv been blagging banks and changing my name like you do a pair of sox for 35 years, growing weed for 37 – apparently I've been here oblivious to anything for 50 years especially to document Christians information for the Great Awakening audience, not just in this realm but the whole of Gateway-10 and beyond, at these times we are in right now. How strange is that? 'Little me' is doing this…… If you knew me you would agree million %. On the way to drop Christian off at home the first time he stayed at mine, I thought as I drove off…..'wow…..Christian21 just stayed at my house'…..the only person I have ever heard say anything half believable in an unambiguous way, is everything that Christians ever said since I 1st started listening to him on Linda's platform….and he'd just stayed at my house and id just dropped him back off…..it was like a dream when I got home again…..it's only got stranger since that day. Iv always had really strong morals, I do not and never have backed-down from danger or aggravation, in fact, its me doing the mad shit that everyone else cant do, like flying about with a cpl kilo of cannabis extracts in my luggage or going on-the-run just to prove a point about what I believe in, and that will no longer tolerate now I know the truth…..'You gota be as good as your word' & 'You gota be true to yourself'……no matter what, and you 'gota put yourself in someone eses shoes' – I wouldn't ask anyone to do something that I would not do myself.

These 5th Density entry-exams that we are going thru right now, the problem for most will be that these tests are not new and for now, only, no no, they have been going on since you were born, each and every loop – these tests are called 'Life'….. what unknowingly unites us at this time in our realm is that we are all going thru the same psychological assessments & appraisal's at the same time, and at this time they are CRUCIAL– the Billionaire in Saudi Arabia, smoking-about in his Bugatti Veyron, has the identical set of appraisals that most of you are also oblivious too……The beggar in the Yemin and the shopkeeper in Scotland are going thru the same evaluation as every other soul here, whether they realise it or not. The evaluation is a frequency-based-selection process, as mentioned before, it is designed to ensure that only a vibration at 'X' frequency+, will be able to ascend-back-here. Why would that be? it's been said a million times already, but for the newbies just reading this for the 1st time……..

The new 'Matrix' simulation will react to the souls vibrational frequencies within it. If you're wondering about the parameters of the new simulation, its reach and depth, it is defined by the perimeter of your membrane/firmament - everything within this firmament from the ground-up, is the arena of that density's simulation experience. Outside the firmament/membrane of each realm weather on gateway-10 or a separate disc outside the great dome itself, has an invisible Cube going from the ground surface-up to above the firmament, this is the true parameter of your simulation because the invisible Cube (Cube-ish….not an exact cube, more of a 'box' than a cube per se)

3 x membranes / firmirments
Cube / Box encapsulating the simulation environment & holding the gateway in place with levitational forces
Gateway-10
levitational forces

Fig.132 The image above is slightly wrong, I put 3 firmaments over the whole of Gateway-10, but there's only 1 membrane over the entire gateway, earth has 3, soon to become 2.

This invisible cube is the frame of the projected simulation, like the lighting-rigs in your theatres illuminate the stage in the same way that the cube encloses everything within the performance 'arena'....Gateway-10 is held in place, just like every other disc planet, from the magnetic frequencies projected from within the cube/box, so, your dissatisfaction/disgust or despair that you have been wrong all you entire lives and about EVERY SINGLE POINT in that life, from believing in gods that don't exist, paying fraudulent tax's and consenting to your own incarceration & allowing your children to be lied to, poisoned & have Child-killing paedophiles presented as their idols & heroes on a daily basis-to-believing that free energy does not exist and that the earth is a globe....the negative emotions you will experience as you discover that you have only lived in a lie, not a modicum of truth to be found anywhere about anything you cherished as 'Knowledge' garnered in this, or any other lifetime since the occupation started over 6,000yrs ago - after the EMF and once in your new simulation, your biofield will interact with what you see in the sky and known as the Aurora Borealis or the Northern Lights, this 'light-show' is no longer the optical manifestation 'Loosh' being the physical pain and suffering from all the sacrifices, war, murder, and trouble we experience every single day– this lightshow will eventually be planet-wide when we are in true 5th Density - even the collective disdain of 5,000 motorists stuck for 4 hours in traffic-jam grid-lock, even this negative resentment is harvested by the demonic systems circuit-board-city layouts and schematics of the metaphysical science that we believed to be the ramblings of an eccentric era now past, are in fact a technology that we were all very very familiar with for many millions of years, if not Billions of years – YOUR biofield will interact with this new 5th Density's aether and create a realm based on the collective and internal desires of the simulations participants…..that's if you come back here after the EMF, whereas if you go to Y557, this is a 4th -5th Density realm, then the realm will be set up for you in advance, there will be less interaction between your biofield and the aether, as it can't be trusted not to start being negative all-of-a-sudden & for no reason.

Feelings and emotions are what create your world, literally, in a 5th Density simulation…you do indeed create your own reality, instantly……you can't imagine this as this does not happen in a 3rd density simulation, plants need water and sunlight + time to grow, and take a while to do it, sometimes even years or decades whereas the 5th Density environment is feeding directly off your biofield to create simultaneous augmentation of the reality unfolding around you based directly on your current emotional state, plants will grow extremely fast and flourish and retain the state of floration & perfection for their entire existence. There can be no room for a single negative intention, action, thought, deed or act, no room for apathy, not a decimal point of negativity and certainly no prolonged or sustained machinations of revenge on the now-long-executed members of this despicable & nefarious sect. THEY ARE ALL GONE AND THERE IS NO ONE LEFT TO BE ANGRY AT. GET OVER IT.

One Grey ET on its own, is more intelligent and knowledgeable than every single member of your entire species combined….let that sink-in….also, there are 9 or 10 species of grey and there are billions of them…..and that's just the greys….there were another 3 species of negative ET and a whole bunch of ancient demons….you didn't have a collective chance at surviving this, not one of you would have escaped and the Draco would even have wiped out the greys after this 7th and last ever re-set, as they didn't need them anymore……

After the hate-filled-sheep land on Y557 full of resentment, despair, anger and negativity they will soon realize that they are not on 'Earth' any longer……this could be quite funny, because after watching what looks like a full-on invasion of re-set "Aliens" battling in the sky for a week, there will be a bright FLASH and all the sheep will wake up on another planet!! Lol! So, in a way, for them it was an "Alien" invasion 😊 and the "ALIENS" kicked the sheep off their own realm! HA! "Bye….see you in 2,000 years guys and don't forget that you can redeem your Tiers, all 1, 2 & 3 of them, at the 1st Galactic Council meeting on Y557, you can take it up with a very sympathetic Arcturian named 'Kevin', he will give you special glasses to wear that will catch your 4th density-eye-precipitation quite nicely, because you will run out of tissues if your still thinking the QFS is real before the event.

Things that 'die' do not rot in a 5-D sim, they desiccate without rotting, they then turn to powder – there are no flies, or decomposition of any material there are no flies, gnats, things that live off the rotting flesh that does not exist that density, there are also no harmful insects or animals, they too are all 5th Density and do not have venom, 'sting' or bad intention. These negative and dangerous attributes are all created and engineered by the draco to cause us harm – they took harmless insects and augmented them with toxins to kill and irritate– they would have brought dangerous species in here to downsize and possibly make less-lethal, just to cause us elevated risk & danger. The experimentation by the greys, also at the mar's colony guaranteed a never-ending supply of possible adversary's both real and imaginary.

There is often higher density agriculture in lower density simulations because that aids breading and the general well-being of all densities based on the success of the previous in past time loops in that same simulation– we are not just all one in this, or each density, no no, all the densities are also one-and-synonymous all the same, that's how come there are past-present-&-future selves of your present self-available for your interaction and conference with, as even all the 'times' are looping and available to travel forward and backwards, into or out of – your limitations are limitless, you have more power and ability than all the Marvel comic characters combined, you just can't remember, yet and some will deny it for decades still to come, but they too will heal and re-accept a reality long forgotten, they will return from the sojourn in the post-supernatural world of the 3rd density hell we all accepted as normal – what a strange turn of events….its bewildering to say the least. I'm now well versed in this material, and with not ONE single memory of any of it, and I find it utterly bewildering – fuck knows what you lot make of it? Its beyond awesome, outside of anything that you could associate with as exceptional, even – in my life, everything was properly normal for me in 2019, normal-as-fuk……next thing I knew the insanity of society was laid bare & proven unequivocally overnight, bizarrely via a blatantly fake plandemic. The next thing I knew, living in Buck Rodgers flat in Fratton Road, Portsmouth knocking about with Chewbacca & The Mandalorian like I've known them all my life and I have discovered 2 sisters who are half cat, holding meaningful conversations and discussions about linear/lateral-exopolitics based on a completely different universal model to anything ever discussed before, not the type of exopolotics discussed by Dr Michael Sala with the fake SSP liars & frauds, the deluded attention seekers and CIA plants selling books and talks on stage, you can even book them to do your wedding……they don't mention anything whatsoever to do with truth or reality, not 'JP' meeting the 'Ant King' in the desert, not Dr David Adair with his 'Pythlom', not Clifford Stone with his Green friend 'Kronor', not 'Tactical Tim' from the German SSP with his detailed ambassadorial interactions with Greys and their desires to relay important spiritual information to us….not Dr Pete Peterson with his parental connections into SSP science divisions and his privileged life was likely just the son of 2 mars-sell-out- parents, yet all highly credible people and there's about 2,000 more floating about out there still, probably more including the 'unknown' deludes in their millions, the youngsters who think they are the transgender offspring of vampires and werewolves, not in the least deluded whatsoever they discuss their vampiric lineage as if they live in a comic of reality, going within not from choice but from the massive social pressures brought onto children to be "something" like everyone else is right now, choose a pronoun and start sucking cock you'll be fine shitting in a litter tray and licking piss off of nettles on the way to collect your disability payments after you graduate from adolescence with 3 fingers on each hand because for the last half of highschool you identified as a fucking Sloth and now you can't hold a pen let-alone write your own name or tell the fucking time.....people need to wake the fuck up this is getting fucking boring now, I've got shit to do and my Avatar chambers misted up with my anxious breath as I sigh deeply a rasp of exasperation at watching these bloody sheep take themselves-off to the slaughter house, no need for a black-sheep to lead way cos these cunt's are willing to follow anything whatsoever, 'Black-Sheep Matter'.....these tard-sheep will follow a fucking bus ticket blowing down the road as long as at least one other person is chasing it - Parents make this worse because they long to be 'involved' and 'cool' and at the cutting edge of their child's educational 'experience', not being able to form cognitive chains of progressive thought in the search of question-formulation, such as why is there a Cat Litter tray in my child's school toilet?....they bolster their beloved child's right to a hysterectomy at age 3 cos all the other baby's in nursery are having it done..."how cool are we? Our baby girl has no womb and it's her choice, gosh we are such cool parents aren't we?"

So your kids are celebrating a satanic festival of child sacrifice on Halloween, wearing a Red Nose for a week on Red-Nose-Day and carrying Pudsey Bear the Satanic One-eyed mascot to school as company, then coming home and having a treat "Mc Donalds tonight kids, you lucky little munchkins..." then they can plonk in front of the TV and watch child-killers tell jokes and see cartoons with subliminal messages in and panda-eye characters mocking the disgusting and humiliating sodomy that these poor children endure as play-things of the elite monsters that are taking your own children off you, into the care system.

My conversations used to be filled with cannabis and the technology required for extracting plant essence's....now my conversations are about bizarre things like 'James Cobbles' from Realm 2, or the oxygen density and air pressure of a membrane-less disc, and how there's only one of the '5 masters' left.....the '5

Masters' were 5 members of a species of ET known as the 'AKTUN' who created the 'New' human vessel out of 100 species of advanced ET the Aktun chose 22 species and created YOU. Theres only one of the 5 left now, 'Brian Aktun', sounds like a BeeGees reunion.

Fig.133 The AKTUN created your vessel, both times

Burial is never done in 5D-up….burial causes poisons gasses to be emitted from rotting corpses in densities below 5D, so the idea was adopted thought all worlds as its obvious….given thought, but who knew to contemplate what ET's may or may not do with their dead, before C21? PC=Pre Christian……and AC = After Christian, so PC = is everything in the last 6,013 years up till September 2022 when chriatian started doing vids with Linda, and AC = after September 2022 lol 😊

The crypto kid waxing lyrical about his recent rise to success blowing-smoke up his own arse about his way of self-promotion, assuming that money can replace their personal inadequacies, personality or morals in the 3D fishtank you live in - a big % of these Neuvo Riche, are bloodline legitimates placed to be organically 'discovered' by chance with their origin and provenance certified by the fake implantation of their persona in the Piranha-like social media feeding frenzy for recognition, validation and acceptance, the patina of time darkened by the pain and suffering of others around them is masked by the brass & glass of their apparent success, little time is spent in thought of how to elevate the status of those around them, those that run the shops & fill the tanks of the cars that cost more than the combined salary of 100+ Nurses – but there's nothing seriously wrong with society, is there?, the unsavoury side of success is obviously a side-effect of progress.....obviously it has to be that way or there wouldn't be an unsavoury side?? It depends on what you think about? or if you even think? Lots of people don't even think anymore, they don't need to now as society has reached a point of supremacy where we have the luxury of having others who dedicated their entire lives to devising ways to keep each person alive here as far away from the truth as possible for a maximum period of 100 years, within which time to find ways to make your life harder and less beneficial to yourself, serving their own purpose climbing over the sciatic nerve of whoever is in the way as they behead you as a gift to your cadaver like they are doing you a favor as they execute the move....'they' are called the Government and they have been doing this a long time. They are not very good at it, but they don't need to be because they have you doing the hard bit for them, like policing yourselves....this is one of the mechanisms of the class-system as detailed in a previous synopsis.

When Christian said to me a few months ago that "here Leon my mum Celecia mentioned you the other day...." – I cut him-off, I said "WHAT? YOUR 'OLD DEAR' WHO IS RUNNING AN ENTIRE CONSTELATION for her entire species....MENTIONED.....me...? Oh God I'm fukt then.....I knew something like this would happen, it always does, Celecia was probably up town in 'Sterope' in a 9th Density Shopping Mall where you can manifest shoes & a perm simultaneously with your 3rd eye, and saw a wanted poster of me, pinned to the wall in the lady's loo's in bar off of StarWars, Celecia was probably looking at brochures of where to go and get a 'Total Recall' Holiday experience in ARB201.....I mean if she's been looking after Christian for the last 6,000+ years, she will definitely need a holiday, she's probably in Cyprus or Thailand on the beach with Kalo who has to pretend he's a kids toy to evade suspicion that he might be an Arcturian on vacation.....if you saw a blue geazer on the beach with no hair and only 4' tall it could only be someone from a housing estate in Basildon, Essex UK, or an Arcturian….theres only two options. Then it transpires that Celecia is actually my own Mother…..what the actual fuck?.....it gets even stranger, I'm half Lyrian/Pleiadean, which is a coincidence as when my ex was pregnant a few years ago, if it was a girl I wanted to call her 'Lyra' after the constellation…..which is where I'm half-from, apparently.

Come to Realm ARB201 (Earth = H.E.A.R.T) to have you mind wiped and your children eaten…why not its free …it'l be a right laugh……" well I fukin fell for it big time….now I'm sitting in a freezing cold van, in what feels like a carpark at 'The Fist of The First Men', after a severe reprimanding from Sersi Lannister this morning because she wakes up with the right arsehole, plus I saw an unopened-box of jam-rags on the radiator in the bathroom last night……, that's a harbinger of fukin-doom that is I can tell you – I left Brandon Stark there chatting to 'James Cobble's' on Messenger, still in Realm 2 James is bless him, he's well excited….have you ever seen a 60 meter tall geezer jumping up-&-down in excitement?....me neither but its more real than a 'Natural' Earthquake is, that's for sure.

….so now its just me, Tirion Lannister on me 1's in an icebox writing up part 17 – good job my real body's in Russia right now, the quantum entanglement must be helping with the cold as even this laptop has Frost-byte.

(there are over 500 patents for extremely efficient 'Zero-Point' devices and free energy was used widely in Tartarian times – don't forget your last re-set ended C. 1870-1890, your 'History' since that times is a mix of fabrication, deception and adrenochrome mixed with a grain of truth - lies are born and live-off of truth like the fur on a mouldy sausage, it spreads-out making the sausage look like not a sausage anymore)

*Prophecy is all fake and 'foreseen' when the Draco had 'looking-glass' or were using time-travel -don't forget this war has been fought using reincarnation technology, time travel and 'Looking Glass', And if it wasn't for over 150+ species of highly intelligent "Aliens" (so fukin funny….fukin Aliens….WE ARE THE FUKIN ALIENS (sorry Cynthia….. I couldn't explain it using different words – I did say that may happen sometimes 😊)

I was 36 when it dawned on me that 'life' is the lesson - each day, each second, each thought, each scenario & each action you deal with, is the lesson. It sounds a bit 'Confucius' but it's true. Quite embarrassing to be 36 before working that out….id heard it many times in the past, but the penny didn't drop till I gave that statement serious thought. Amazing things can and do happen when you give something 'serious' thought…..you should try it sometime. Most people do not know how to give something 'serious' thought as they think that that means automatically delving for the 'programming' data their mind retained about a chosen topic, a very good & pertinent-instance is "Vaccines" (all of them, not just covid)….. 'serious' thought would have produced a different set of understandings than the NHS website would do, and therefore a different set of outcomes would materialise. Do not be told when to 'Fear' - you should decide these important emotional triggers for yourself, not have the projected onto you by others who:

A: Do not even know you

B: care ostentatiously……

…..but only superficially, and only in an occupational capacity, underneath the smile of greeting and learnt-demeanour adapted from the humile faces that taught them the same when they were themselves being tutored for the role, there is only an eagerness to finish the shift and go home……they care about themselves and immediate family….that's why they were still jabbing you well into 2023, because to speak-out, even then would be bad for employment status. all the good ones quit before the roll-out, and all the evil ones in senior positions were executed in 2019 shortly after 'The' Covid was launched.

Christians last video, about the Child Procurement Mechanism, lays it out as it is – I think everyone awake already knows about Mc Donald's, its all multinational food companys not just Burger King and McDonalds, its all of them - that's why I've not eaten one in 3+yrs.....it's full of dead children and pensioners. It's a global network, and your fake life with all the unnecessary trimmings of desire, like new lips & eyes, or the sun cream that's giving your children skin cancer as you slap-it-all-over-them, layers of micro-particle aluminium oxide and various other minute noxious particulate matter, designed the same as the vaccine rollout from the '50's onward, to augment several-to-many negative changes to your mind and body at the same time, over time.

your word for Pharmacy is derived from Pharmakia. 'Pharmakia' is witchcraft and spells, even in the 'Legal' system this same witchcraft is used that's why you are 'Summoned' to a court room – only the dead can receive a 'summons' and as every school-kid knows, you need a Ouija-Board to contact dead people (the dead people that don't actually die....more on that later, or I think it was in Synopsis Part 2 or 3 I forget?) 'Capitus Demutia Maxima' IS YOU DEAD LEGAL FICTION WRITTEN IN BLOCK CAPITOLS it has no standing in court, BLOCK CAPITOL TEXT is to be disregarded.....dead script...Dog Latin - like you are admitting to the fraud and claiming it as your own since you died at sea aged 15yrs 9 months old, when you received your N.I number.

'You' get something out of it and you get the option to create your little environment, you little space for you and the family in this realm known everywhere else, but here, as Hell....you work hard at school you too can be better than the person standing next to you at the moment, you go to school 'here' and you get to mix with society's next industry legends and academics, but its guna be expensive to go there....especially if you have 2+ kids.....

the Draco didn't really get 'excited' it's not a Draco emotion unless in depravity whilst feeding on our children – but they did really like the idea of our 'super-slaves' or those in society paying 50+% in income Tax....the DVLA own your car, Your house is owned by the Queen and your children are owned by the Government via the Birth Certificate scam - and you do exactly what you are told, when you are told to do it. You even had a Bio-weapon injected into you because they made you fear something that wasn't real.

Are you shitting me?

Enough yet?

BIG LOVE PEOPLE XXX SEE YOU ON THE OTHER SIDE XXX

A Brief Synopsis

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

'Blemyeh' – 'Panoti' – Giant Trees that are no more – EMFs – and other things.....

Devils Tower and all the other incongruous tree stump-mountains dotted about all over the world.....again it's no coincidences that these mountains resemble felled-tree stumps, it's because its exactly what they are/were.

These humongous trees were here from the very start of gateway 10, and these trees can be found all over the universe and in every realm (most) – Giant trees are there to create oxygen for the realm/s, there was many such trees before 6,013 years ago – when the Draco turned-up here they hit the trees with energy weapons, the same energy weapons that the Giants were also hit with at the dawn of the 1st re-set, turning them all to stone as well. Sounds incredible but where do you think the fabled stories of old stemmed from? The Medusa / Lion Witch & The Wardrobe…. Jason & The Argonauts……..you chose the film…..there's a myth behind it and the myth is rooted in fact, observed by the peoples of the time who were explaining these incidents to others, not present at the time, with the only tools their paradigm had available to conclude an explanation. The Giants that look like mountains, were indeed Giants, 'Anakim Giants' to be specific, and because of the Anakim, you are now free – it would not have been possible to free you without the help of the largest species of Giant. Remember that.

An energy weapon that turns living cells into stone, is a reality. The Rockefellers, or 'Rock-Fellers' got their family name from being the family who removed the gargantuan remains of these trees, from the countryside, and also the his-torical record. These histories moved further and further away from us as each reset occurred, turning to stone just as the subject matter itself did. This is why we have the word 'Petrify' when explaining a situation of fright, as petrification is the process of turning matter to stone, and this saying is referring to this in a situation of extreme fright.

"Blemmyes" & "Panotti" are also mythical beings from your fantastical past. These beings were also real and likely there's still some of each species in Realm 2 just behind the ice wall - lots of 'everything' has made it out of here since the occupation started, lots of birds and animals went straight to portals by instinct, and also went underground. Blemmyes and Panoti were the same as Cavemen in terms of their origin, they were just experiments in downsizing us and changing different aspects of our physiology for research purposes. Blemmyes had no head and neck, yet its face was in its chest – highly benevolent and spiritual, were the Blemmyes. The Panotti had huge ears and another version had large feet, this is likely where the 'Hobbit' got his feet from, except Panoti's feet were way out of proportion to its body, its ears were also massive.

Much has transpired in your realm, under your nose and before your eyes, yet the re-sets and mind-wipes have bestowed on you yet another reality, a reality that didn't happen – it's called your History. Unfortunately none of your history happened the way you have been told, and most of it is simply complete fabrication, made-up events and people – the battle of Hastings in 1066 for example, was just a large punch-up between two warring sides, it was not anything as described to you, so in essence the Battle of Hastings wasn't a lie, but what you were told was so far from the truth that it may as well be a lie, there's more truth in a Marvel Comic, than what you learnt at University, no matter what university you attended, or in what year.....not ONE BOOK IN ANY SCHOIOL UNIVERSITY OR LIBRARY HAS ANYTHING TRUE IN IT, and as a result of the revelation on this fact, its making people really angry because this info is true and therefore it resonates, even with trollers, that's why they are trolling, well, the unpaid trollers are trolling because of this despair whether they acknowledge it or not. To debunk something, like flat earth for instance, you do actually need to research it, otherwise how can you possibly know what you are talking about? You can't honestly expect anyone to take you seriously if you can't back-up what you are talking about, can you?? Trust me when you have a 'Globey' infront of you, you know they are where you started at a few years back and you know ALL the lame complaints… "frame of inertia" "Gravity" …..flat earth is ridiculous, until you put it to the test. Trollers cant, so they try rubbish-it-off, or try and say silly pointless things to refute contest & rebut…..hey…..didn't you notice the info that you have never ever heard before?? Information that, had this info been released just 12 months prior to September 2022, then all the sell-outs like Dean-G-Code and the other numpty's leading you up the garden path, would have been able to plagiarize the living daylights out of and regurgitate back, wrongly and full of errors and more red-herrings.

Trollers just troll without looking at content, trolling as they heard a word, sentence or phrase that goes against social-programming parameters…..the cabals carefully-thought-out-Stockholm-Syndrome MK-Ultra programming that you all thought was 'normal' did its job, and you close-ranks on those shedding light on the lies you accepted as truth – it's part of your programming to defend the collective at all costs, hence…….NHS NURSES warbling on about "Safe & Effective" - "we are all in this together" etc, as an instant pearl-of-wisdom uttered as they passed a colleague in the hallway discussing the vaccines to a new 'potential'.

That's why I got no joy with midwives and nurses in 2018 when my son was conceived, all 9 midwives, 3 surgeons and several GP's visually-looked-horrified at my questions of vaccine safety over that 9 months - they reverted to programming-protocols and I debunked each one, then they all realised I knew what I was talking about and they all became very uneasy, fidgeting and looking left and right at each other for confirmation & validation…..they only knew what they are 'allowed' to know and research, that's why a lay-man like I can go into hospital and tie them all up in knots about vaccines, or cancer. They are all clueless about both topics….so what else are they clueless about??? EVERY FUCKING THING, that's what. If I broke a bone, I'd go to hospital, but not for any other reason, and depending what bone I broke, I may not even attend a hospital but rather fix it myself. I'd advise you all to do the same as well. Hospital are there to make you sick, sell you drugs that are paid for by your 'Cestui Que Vie' bond……that's all. Yes, they saved great grandma a few times, but why did we need hospitals when they have themselves been using 'MedBed' tech for the last 85years while you die young of cancer and they beg thru the media who are the same people in the same club that they created for themselves way back at the start – and don't think you are overpopulated, that's another lie to get you to accept the '15 minute city'-prisons they had planned.

During a re-set, they shield the buildings that they want to keep and the contents therein, removing anything that could be useful to the next humans of the new re-set, items that they may need to explain future 'inventions' and the natural progression of design, for instance Leonardo De Vinci's fabricated storey explained many 'advanced' concepts, advanced for us viewing this from a mind-wiped post-re-set paradigm, but not advanced for the peak of the Great Tartarian civilisation made-up of many many cultures…..all destroyed with the faintest recollection by only a few…..the few who remembered these facts, were coincidentally 33rd degree freemasons who wrote the original children's story's and tales that are immortalised in your myth & legend……all of your old Bard's were singing from the same masonic-luciferian hymn sheet…..you had no escape……it's as if a portal of lies and deceit had opened in your realm and unilaterally engulphed all truth as the progression of time moved forward in all directions and the historical sands of the previous era were overwritten by a new re-formatting of the available data to fit a frame of fraudulent purposeful misreporting of historical events to warp the minds of the populace for many reasons both present & future requirements of a guided public oblivious to the subtle changes in their society generation-by-generation these changes were set into motion to grow and be nurtured by the sinister minds of the nefarious criminal gangsters who are the actual people who control you above the governmental level, and the control mechanisms are now so finely tuned to accept the illogically perverse dystopian future that we are witnessing the still-birth of at this very moment in time, its as if Q has made this beast give birth thru its fucking neck, without an epidural, such is the blatant nature of the obvious disjointed public confusion, lack of cohesion and fluidity of the fake stories that are the actual amniotic-fluid of this failed and forced abortion, a miscarriage of a Baphometic birth of a potentially destroyed realm and all the souls therein.

If you look at the great wall of China.....the turrets are facing inwards if the Chinese built it.....there's lots of signs that his-story is wrong, uncertain, lying or just incorrect, with all the leaders in the field being freemasons and building the future of their science out of fallacy to ensure the cover is kept right up till the following re-set....and their plan worked perfectly well, it wasn't perfect, but all you need to do is kill anyone who works anything out for themselves as they are human and nice, wanting to help their fellow humans out....but their fellow humans who took on the new information / discovery / revelation / technique's inventor, if they were unwilling to become freemasons, they were set-up, killed, or discredited and their invention, technique or discovery would have been consumed by osmosis, like a capillary tube drawing information into the whole.

They live for 400 years on average nd if they are 'special' they can more than double that age with the old medbeds – this was all done off your sweat and toil and then they live like kings while you die young after they punish you in the most faceless-way, they are cowards, even the Draco, utter cowards and 'Grasses' (snitches) when Elizibeth Rothschild was arrested shortly after trumps visit to Buckingham palace in 2017, she was shitting herself terrified out of her wits....trying to broker deals with the Whitehat Military on their way out the realm, humiliated, physically homeless then decapitated. Decapitation was invented, or should I say the guillotine was invented originally to decapitate reptiles, Draco to be specific as you must remove a Draco's head to kill it, anything less may turn out to be ineffective, they are extremely resilient and hard to kill.

They all shape-shift when hungry, scared, or during a hunt – each Draco will need to eat several children per day, one baby is a small snack, not a meal. Queen 'Lizz'-ard de Rothschild was dead long before you saw her 'Micky-Mouse' funeral while throngs of you joined "The Cue" what a mockery of you….how many joined this ridiculous "Cue"? and what on earth for? Utterly ridiculous and when you realize that the entity in this decrepit reptile was the same reptile in Queen Victoria…..you can start to imagine the impossible with a little more clarity, and slightly easier, its less of a shock to the psyche if you have heard something before its major news, it reduces the impact a little, which may just be enough to help people like trollers, not to top-themselves when confronted with this new/old paradigm and all the memory's that go along with it of 6 previous resets and the multitude of mindwipes after your repeated and orchestrated 'Deaths'….you're getting the memories of all the lives that you have lived here in this realm since the occupation started 6,013 years ago…..those memories were stollen from you to stop you working out their true agender in your allocated "Three-Score years + 10" or 70 years alive. Death is simply a device called an "Amnesia Vortex" & soul wipe system, not to 'Format' your soul, or to blank it permanently, but they can section off your mind so that although you have these memory's imprinted on your souls un-delete-able memory, but to hide these memory's from you in your own consciousness so that they are un-retrievable, these old memories are so detailed and vast that you would not be unable to remember them anyway as like a crashed computer when you run out of storage on Drive :C, your computer may not operate at all – same with your tiny little brains….they couldn't possibly have the space to store this data….without augmentation of your brain, which is going to happen at the EMF along with everybody else's at the same time. You brain capacity will go from just 2.2%-to-50-70% in just 30 seconds to allow you access to these past life memory's so you can remember who you truly are and remember your true past, and start healing from the trauma.

The Flat Earth reality, is, after all a reality & not a 'model' or theory – the necessary proof now required in this 'argument' if you wish, is now focused on proving that the Earth is actually a Globe…..try that one out…..thats the other way to prove the Earth is flat, try and prove its oblate-spheroid-ish-ness…?

In the first few pages of your Bible, it explains everything to you: The Earth is a flat non-rotating plain, unmoveable in its foundation, you were created by a guy called 'god' whose name is coincidentally *Annunaki in origin ('Yahweh') he controls everything that you experience, & that you live under a firmament …..and that Serpent deceived you in the garden of Eden. That's all true, the rest…well, I think you can all guess a sprinkle-of truth to fire-up the obfuscation mechanism orchestrated by the 13 bloodline families and delivered by a world-wide network of Freemasons and Jesuits that transcend all the clubs and establishments in all the towns countries and villages, thru all the churches and official buildings that were left from the last re-set that started a thousand years previously…….thru all the fraternities and all the masonic systems that were cemented at the start….they have had you dancing about like a bunch of puppets for a very very long time, they had a good run at it, and now it's all over……4 years ago.

The Anunnaki created most things, they are extremely ancient and have been thru many upgrades in their vessel's stature and appearance over the epochs. The negative Anunnaki created the Custodians species to be a warrior for them, they fell out and sided with the greys, the greys fell out with the Anunnaki, so the Anunnaki created their own species of grey we know of as the Zeta Reticulien Grey (yes the Betty and Barny Hill story was either fake entirely, or a real grey abduction for the purpose of misinformation, it matters not as they did not come from a location on a star-map showing a constellation In the sky, they came from the Laboratory of the negative Anunnaki who manufactured them in a separate disc and possibly that wasn't even on Gateway-10, but out there somewhere else in the universe.

Any parasitic species will need a grey species, as mentioned previously, the greys collectively are the masters of knowledge for a negative intention and they are the perfect partners and bring a lot to the table, but what they lack in muscle they make up for with that fat head they have, greys are clever-as-fuk and can control you telepathically to walk outside and turn a gun on yourself, if they wish, and have done many times. It's the ideal 'suicide-death' of a murder.

The Anunnaki used to look completely different epochs ago, but as each ascension stage, their love and humanity, empathy & sympathy blossomed out of them shaping their facial features as the eons passed, with the beauty of the individuals soul creating the external symmetry and position of the facial features, the muscles and nerve endings that create the nuances of the laughter & ego, joy & pain, humiliation and embarrassment, are all created by the souls imprint into the vessel and its climb up the spinal chakras to spread throughout the mind and create a consciousness. The soul's 'signature' is the face and eyes of the vessel it inhabits., not just the eyes but the entire face.

Akhenaten was the father of Tutankhamun, the Egyptian boy king who sparked my imagination in ancient Egypt 46years ago – Akhenaten radicalised Egypt by returning it to a monothetic religion from the polytheistic, worshiping the sun as is the only 'thing' to worship, the portal 'home' to Source Creation, after death. Sun worship is not Satanic, it's the original form of showing gratitude to Source Creation – Source Creation is not something to be in fear of, or afraid of, no no, Source Creation is your best 'm8' your confidant and caretaker, Source Creation will do everything for you that need, but you must be in accordance with the law of one, you must observe the few small stipulations that Source Creation has desired you to adhere to, and these few stipulations are not for Source Creations personal satisfaction, they are for your wellbeing and the wellbeing of every single other being in the universe……You are ALL ONE…..if you kill another being, you have killed a part of yourself, if you hate another being…..then you are hating an aspect to yourself……..if you fear another being, then you are fearful of yourself. Thru the parasitic system and indoctrination processes, you have become a compartmentalised soul, you all have, its unavoidable in a 3rd density sim…….the justification processes that we all go thru with negative & positive scenarios can 'flip' back-&-forth in the justification process, leaving us a little confused as to what we ourselves really think? As one minute we can be agreeing with the other, the next minute we can have a different clarity of vision, and disagree, with an internal battle going on inside us – it's a very subtle process caused by the compartmentalisation of our psyche from a very young age, where we see others themselves doing that which we are told not to do – this 'do as I say, not as I do' or hypocrisy starts off when we are children and we learn to accept this and pass-it-on as we learn to speak a language…..remember….be true to yourself and as good as your word….this way you cant fail, but its so hard to do because most of the time it causes detrimental effects in our own life i.e. we are trying to 'get-ahead' in our job, life, project etc, but to remain as good as your word and true to yourself & putting yourself in the shoes of others during confrontation or disagreement, when the opponent or adversary is NOT being as good as their word or true to their selves, poses a problem….you must decide to break your Oath to yourself and try and 'win' this intellectual skirmish, or adhere to your Oath and end up out-of-pocket, yet with your integrity intact. The choice is yours and the outcome is certain.

Akhenaten was a benevolent Anunnaki and his people loved him dearly, his son though, was a selfish Luciferian child-killing paedophile, hence his burial in the 'Valley of the Kings' along with all the other 'cursed' demonic child-killers of the era. The Mummification process the world over, was to entrap demons and negative entities within the bandages, using spells & witchcraft, amulets and counter-curses. These 'intentions' work because of the skill and understanding of the person carrying-out the curse, spell, incantation, both negative and positive aspects. In a 4th Density sim spell casting and general 'Warlock/Witch' magic is a lot more pronounced and effective because of the upgraded matrix simulation eases facilitation of these manifestations & spells within the 4th Density martrix, whether for negative or positive outcomes – All that spell-casting is, is an augmentation of the simulation by pure intention, to gather the energy required to commence what you would understand in a 3rd Density sim, as a quantum field fluctuation, with your 'intentions' manifest by the protocols of the ceremony's items, amulets, tinctures & 'Spell's, give energetic momentum & gravitas to the desired outcome from a distance ("Spooky action at a distance" as Albert Einstein proclaimed about Quantum physics) for one or more people to focus on a specific outcome, action or deed whilst 'loading' the spell with intention, for instance to trap a demon within the deceased pharaohs mummified corpse, is a science, it's not a meaningless fictional exercise with no tangible outcome……it was, and is very real.

This time their destruction was more complete in its execution, being as this was the absolute last opportunity humans actually had to not be completely annihilated and even have their own ETERNAL soul damaged beyond function, not destroyed but a total and utter spiritual lobotomization that cannot be reversed……you do not YET realise what this would mean for you, so we will accept all apologies very graciously and courteously, after, and as mentioned previously, if Clinton OR TRUMP HAD HAVE WONE IN 2016…..you would have been RE-SET already in 2018-19….so you would all literally be dead now anyway, so we wouldn't even be having this conversation in the first place, if the trollers were correct 😊.

This war was won by Pleiadeans, Lyrians, Andromadans, Arcturians, Articulates, & THE Mayer, plus about 150 other species of 9th Density benevolent Extraterrestrials who stepped in as there were literally no positive humans running your world anymore – JFK senior was the very last one, the last human in public office who didn't want to destroy you for his own personal gain and career elevation…..LET THAT SINK-IN.

Aetheric construction materials in a 5th+ density simulation, connect directly to the aether of the realm, the same aether that your individual lifeforce, or soul energy will be contributing to for your realms 'health' and homeostasis - the aetheric field that, as mentioned previously, energises your entire simulation experience in the matrix you exist in – traveling to another matrix simulation, or realm, you will need to be at the same density as that simulation code functions at. This is how you can 'bullshit-detect' any SSP whistleblowers and 'insiders', as if they report a way of life off planet, if that planet is a sphere outside of our world they are misinformed, or lying, and if they say they have been there, they are also lying, as you need a DNA upgrade to go there from 3rd, to at least 4th as all other worlds out there are at least 4th density simulation environments, as said many times, here is the ONLY 3D simulation environment in the UNIVERSE and therefore that is the reason you will not be using money in the 'New World' when you land there soon.

Think Apple Mac / Windows, you won't run Mac software on a Microsoft Windows operating system, and you can't play an 'X-Box 360' Game on a Generation-1 X-Box *console..... the same for your vessel in a matrix, you're in 3rd density matrix right now, and you're going home to a 5th Density matrix...(hence going from "3D-to-5D" which is a term you may well have heard in the last 4 years)...this is the only 3rd density matrix in the entire universe....it was created solely to control you as a food product, unsavoury, (pun intended), as that may sound, it is 1 million % true and your about to be shown this reality in the coming weeks.....

*Console / consol = 'Conned-Soul', or to Con-a-Soul.....the 'con' being the game you are playing...think about it.....you are being controlled within a simulation whilst controlling an avatar on the screen within its own simulation....a 'Jack-in-the-Box-in-the-box' and you are 'Jack'.....'Jack-&-the Beenstalk' once again You are 'Jack'....and you were worth 'Jack-Shit' to the parasites, your only worth to them was the ability of your young, to produce an excretion from their glands when in extreme terror and knowing they will die whilst being skinned-alive - We all have the ability to produce Adrenochrome, all animals do but from a fully sentient human child, the potency of this adrenalized blood is the most valuable form of currency in the demonic realm, the demons get 'fed' with loosh-energy during the sacrifice, and once taken, its effects will kill you unless you continue to feed the habit, you become reliant on human-derived adrenochrome after the 1st usage, you must take it or you will die of 'Kuru' – see Angela Merkel's shaking hands a few years ago (well documented) CoVFeFe also means "Cobolt Vanadium Iron Iron" and it is these elements which your body becomes depleted in after taking Adrenochrome, it is this 'CoVFeFe' that trump tweated when he said "Just going for a nice cup of CoVFeFe" during the arrests in 2019, the media jumped all over him saying he's lost his mind & cant spell…..but he was referring to the Adrenochrome withdrawals, it wasn't a spelling mistake for 'Coffee'.

This is dark-side of 4th Density (up to 4th density) and the 'ses-pit' society of negative 4D beings & their warped power structures ceases to exist at the crossover into 5th Density……many of us here are 9th Density, 5th density being just the term used to denote that all the density's below it, are proper shit, and going to one of these density's is going to be very problematic for a 5th density being as they are not used to the totally unexpected occurring…..that's why Kalo will not want to be anywhere near me & likely why I don't have a guide….i get whoever is passing at the time if they are bored then they stay a while I guess? It's too traumatic, my life is filled with things catching fire, exploding and falling from heights……the unexpected runs thru my viens and my immune system seems to be powered on distilled unexpectedness…. "Spontaneously unpredictable" I was called once, and a "Fucking Nightmare" has been used many times in reference to me. I like it like this its boring otherwise, "if your not living life on the edge, you're taking up too much room" my old pal Duzy used to say.

I digressed again, sorry where was I…?? Errrr…….

Your soul fam loving you…..the parasites despised you in jealousy and hatred, they can never be who you are let-alone what you were, so they are stuck in hatred and cynicism….but not, luckily, to your soul family, to them you are priceless, a work of exquisite beauty and perfection whose flawless understanding of the natural laws & the nature of nurture, of empathic and sympathetic symbiosis with the greater universe and all life that lives therein, connecting with the true nature of all things, to your soul family you are AMAZING beyond you're understanding of that accolade…….but me, personally I think most people out there are total cunts to be honest, individually I love you, want to help you and see your sincerity, naivety and shrouded shame, but collectively when you bunch-together like you do with the other fools, it pisses me right off, please don't do that anymore its horribly embarrassing to watch and have to bear witness to, it shows no thought, don't think you cant be seen as its well obvious by all the facial features and mild-to-moderate contortions. Sort yourselves out. Theres nothing to worry about anyway even if your off to Y557 it's a fucking paradise, its better than what you assigned an image of Utopia, in your minds eye, its greater than that and that's the runner-up prize:

Figs. This what you will be seeing in a few weeks time, similar sights to these images people will not be 'told' that god is fake (all gods) neither will they be 'informed' that the concept of god is fake, they will realise this fact during the EBS it will become blatantly obvious due to the time scales and duration of this demonic systems entrapment depth and scope, that there was no possibility that any such 'god' could possibly exist whilst letting 9+ million children a year be sacrificed to a fake Lucifer when their own religion is their actual tool of enslavement, it's very clever if you are in 3D mentality or simulation, but trust me, these thoughts do not occur anywhere else in the Universe outside of the 3rd Density cage you live in – chose a god….its fake. There is no religion on little earth / second earth / Y557 there are no banks, no trains, no shops, no schools, no offices, no petrol stations, no roads, no police or government…….so……..Sheep & trollers ……where will you be spending your QFS tokens? and what will you be spending them on? Food is free, homes and transport are free, education comes to you as you need to know it and technology is also free…..so what will you do?....see a niche in the market for a corner-shop selling lottery tickets and phone credit with a window full of statues of the Eiffel Tower and miniatures of London Bridge?....out the back you could start a little church and try resurrect god from the myths of your new history and get an income from donations? or go see HR at the local council on "America 2" and demand your Gold buried in your 3rd density garden be returned as your buying a new car……and taking the kids to Disney Land, STILL? but only in your fractured mind….even tho you are on a new planet, surrounded by ET's, and in a new body considerably different from the one you were wearing a few seconds previously, most of you will, moments before the EMF hits your realm, be running to 'somewhere', chasing thousands of other people who are also all totally clueless as to where everyone is actually running to?…..fleeing something that has caused them extreme anxiety and hyper-elevated concerns for their own longevity and the fate of their families who are also fleeing with them carrying anything deemed important, like their mobile phone that will not be working, their laptop and some cash, assuming the "Aliens" have already demolished their home, they will be carrying very little after the traffic jam on the M25 caused by 1 accident and one car ran out of petrol…..now all 5 lanes are blocked-solid from that moment on, so these poor souls leave their safety of their cars, in the warm…. to follow the rest of the sheep, fleeing to 'somewhere' because of a misunderstanding and because they chose to ignore the truth and stick with the media lies….. your own family members…..your soul family members, that's who will be in the craft in the sky, the only people who ever cared a toss about you, and you're going to be scarpering like terrified rats into woodlands and caves, garages and abandoned buildings……running from the saviours, so twisted your mind has become in this long war that you have forgotten your own inception here in this magical gateway that has been relegated to a mere fictional story for the bedtime ears of small children, while your children carried on getting abused poisoned and tortured so that the Monsters governing you can mock and degrade you whilst living like kings on the sweat-equity & suffering of their 'subjects' who themselves are more than happy to comply in this fraud, told that this is how your society gets education and roads and hospitals etc…..toe-the-line or seek meaningful employment elsewhere – 'Meaningful' employment. What actually backs the stock-market, is child trafficking and adrenochrome……wait till you all find that out that is also true, and on its way to a TV near you very soon.

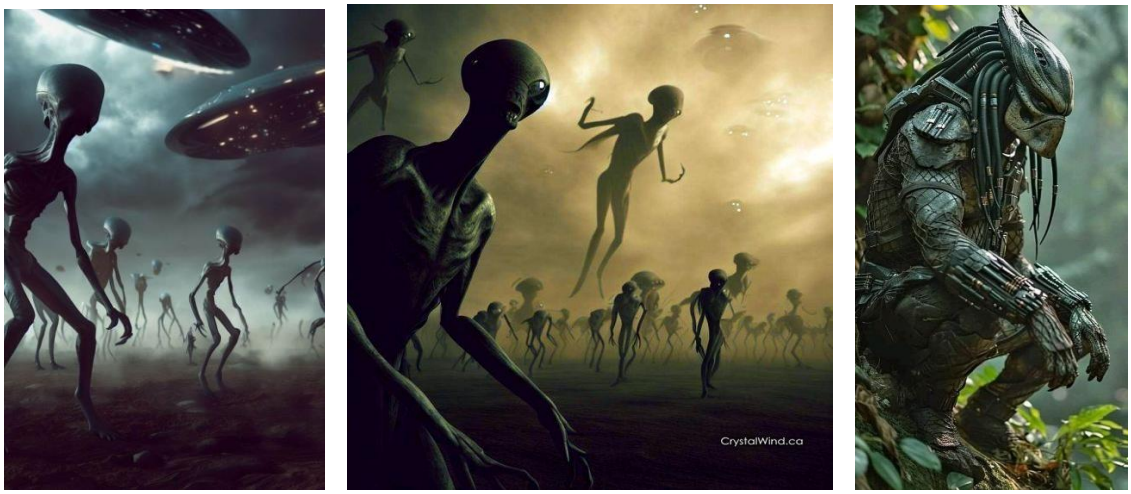

Figs164 - 166. Reset Greys and other satanic malevolent predator ET's join the fun during a re-set

In the true sense of the term, It not actually a 'fake' or an 'Alien' invasion, it's a real one carried out by the nicest group of people you have ever heard of, or could even imagine….you have never seen such benevolence projected out to the world around you before, these being care more about pretentiously superficial lascivious-little-you than they do themselves……that's amazing by itself if you think about it. The weapons in the aspect to this conflict that went on under your noses, the public version of the visible war that only the awake were even able to recognise thru the web of lies and deceit painted by the media, were literally love & empathy, the bombs dropped in this conflict were truth, and the infantry was supplied by human and ET 'annons' shoulder-to-shoulder in the digital war for your DNA, your children, your minds, hearts and souls. We won, by the way.....not that any sleeper or troll noticed, but the war was well won over 4 years ago and the EBS was meant to be 2+years ago.....but the 'Trump Train' is chugging-along at the same speed as the most dormant sleeper, and now we are almost at the end of the show.....almost.

The new arrivals to Y557 will have left a different paradigm in a cold muddy field and now be in a quiet tranquil location listening to bird song and waterfalls.....these poor sods will assume that they died in the Nuke war that the media was banging-on about so frequently for the last 70 years....WE ARE TRYING TO HELP SEMI-PREPARE YOU for what's about to come, don't shoot the messengers 😊

Some of you out there will still have these 3d thoughts and nostalgic emotions when reminiscing about a life or lives lived, in particular.....these people will be made up of trollers unable to accept this new paradigm as they were trolling right-up-to-the-EMF and the rest of the sheep who can't wrap their heads around what has just transpired, plugged so deeply into the 3D matrix, that exiting that simulation of one's own accord will crash the program. That's what Y557 is for.....it's a hospital planet for the shell-shocked-victims of the war. this planet was put here for source creation to experience physical life, this planet doesn't belong to negative and damaged humans who believe in lies and fiction.....so thank Source that these plebs are being removed in a few weeks.....I wanted that all my life anyway, I honestly thought many years ago how 'wouldn't it be great if we could just 'beam' the dick-heads off to another planet.....and that prayer was answered! They have a huge realm MILES away from this one 😊 it's such a relief.....I don't have to look at these twats anymore....the twats that I was trying to help wake up who spent 4years laughing at me instead of looking at the Info I was sending them on watsap…"Ha! Look, poor Leons lost it, recons the vaccine is killing people!! HAHHAHAHAHAHAH"…….YEAH….you guys know who you are….you're the ones with a spoon stuck to your arm right now, and the ones too scared to try the experiment for themselves so they can stay 'safely-&-effectively' in denial ….more 'in-de-Nile' than an Egyptian Sailor, the laughter has petered-out reverberating in the 4yr echo chamber, and soon the Epstein Flight Log will appear on a TV near you…..oh dear, that's going to be a little-bit well shit for the sheep & trollers……just that on its own will certainly get the attention of everyone old enough to have heard the name of Jeffry Epstein before….infamous Jeffry. Now we are going to see who went to his 'Bond-villa' bespeckled-island…..who else was there raping and torturing children?, I wonder? More telling was who wasn't there?.....likely Epstein had more visitors to that island each year than Disney World in Florida had…..except that 100% of the children that went to Epstein's island, left, but only after they had died, they then ended-up in Mc Donalds & Burger King……that's the reality of Epstein Island, you can fill in the gaps yourselves based on what you have so far discovered about Child Sacrifice, if anything? We all know that there can't be anything worse than child sacrifice, it's obviously repugnant by the term used to describe it, &, no need for an explanation, really. But the methods used to extract the lifeforce from these poor souls, needs a new word created as we do not currently have a word that is adequate in the description of the pain and suffering endured by the victims, so terrible is this pain, being flayed alive means having your skin removed with no anaesthetic….think how painful a cut on your finger is, of if you bang your thumb with a hammer?……now imagine a Luciferian child killing paedophile stripping off your skin in sheets, with a kebab knife, raping you sporadically as he does it….now imagine you are a 9 month-old baby, or a 6yr old girl, or a 14 year old boy……and you are moaning that the EBS didn't come in November?…….this is why Christian gets so frustrated at times……the disrespect being shown to LITERALLY the only people telling you anything true that you have ever heard in 6,013 years and all you can do is refute, scorn, ridicule and troll….. you will be so so embarrassed soon, it's shocking – you will punish yourselves, there is no one judging you, your frequency will dictate your landing location after a huge magnetic-wave sweeps the realm and collects all the low frequency's and moves them off to their new destination – once there you will heal at your own speed – there are no shops to distract you with the pointless, nowhere to "need" to be at 2pm….no meetings, no traffic jams…..no anything that you recognise from 3rd Density…….you're going from a Black and white cine-film lifestyle-to-a full CMYK 1080p / 4K 'Technicolour' reality……it's going to blow your shit off, and due to the negativity displayed in the "Days of Judgement" !!Hello!! 😊 You're here! That's what the tests are for….judging YOU….that's what judgement day is…..weighing your frequency to gauge several things….

A: Your soul origin, i.e. if you were from Mars when the Draco annihilated you, your soul will have been brought here also to incarnate into the Draco 'Larder' souls-in-vessels is the name of the game, not disincarnated souls pretending to be ghosts, as mentioned previously is a Grey 'job' keeping the 'hauntings' alive and scaring people, its also great for keeping the other fake industries alive like mediums and psychics etc, which is itself a multibillion $ industry, linking all the occult phenomena together in the supernatural poppy-field-of-dreams that isn't actually what you thought it was either. Nothing was what you thought it was, at least we now know this……live in truth or live a lie, chose one?….in reality there no choices for your vessel and that was already proven by the covid plandemic, you already made the important choices back then in '21, those choices guaranteed the destination for many people - its now being chosen subconsciously by your soul, your vessel had choices and didn't wake-up in time….soi to recap….YOU are just the vessel and this is synonymous with your personality in this life and this life only, because 'Normally' your soul is in constant communication with your consciousness and therefore the vessel and soul are always synonymous, but thru poisons and the targeted calcification of your spiritual apparatus with 'Vaccines' and toxic metals introduced to your air and environment, as per the Rothschild Secret Covenant, they disconnected 'YOU' from your soul and also source creation, that's why men sleep with men here on earth and people watch the suffering of others as a sport, or as irrelevant to their simulation experience – it's not how you act back 'home' - 'The Rothschild Secret Covenant' go look for yourselves, it's there in plain text and it's not a fake its well old & I saw that about 12 years ago for the 1st time before I even knew anything about Mercury in amalgam fillings and in Vaccines as an 'Adjuvant' as Thimerosal causing dementia, as one example only.

If you came from Mars, you will return there to heal in your newly adapted Martian/Human body - you will be returned to Mars to heal as that realm is now also ready for re-habitation after a new matrix and cleansing of the demonic activity going on there for the last 7,000yrs. Y557 is a huge realm, but there's only really 3 main continents, "America 2" "Europe 2" and "Great Lands Of The Deserters" – there are also a group of smaller islands known as "The Clone Lands" and another group of islands the other side of the realm to the right known as "Organ Islands". These names may well change, but I get the impression that these names are 'Q' having a 'laugh' with the almost-ascended, because these names must be recent since the occupation ended, to even have the names "America 2" or "Europe 2".....".Great Lands of The Deserters".....well, they did, they deserted their species.....they deserted their true ancestry, and they deserted their moral obligations.....so a new planet, for them is a really really lucky break. When this all hits you in a week or two, whenever our new caretakers decide they have finished working out all the micro-aspects to the shift, such-as who will likely land where, their requirements when they get there, their soul-species origin, their level of trauma anticipated and how long anticipated to heal, their past lives positive and negative deeds and thoughts, plus a whole bunch of other things such as details of your twin flame, their current location, their level of trauma, also – many factors will be assessed before the EBS, let-alone the EMF. Its like working out any other military operation, everything is planned in advance and this was all planned a really long time ago, several thousand years to be precise.

A couple of my pals literally idolise Bil Gates…..coming from the tech world themselves and at the top of this techy-tree they sit, presiding over their reality like a proud loin, masters of their own destiny having worked hard to get there, that means towing-the-line, even if only in an occupational capacity ……gutted, that's what. Gutted – but this is the most amazing thing you could possibly imagine….and it seems so 'Alien' that people are going to be negative about it! How can you be angry that god didn't exist? Or that you assumed "Depopulation through forced vaccination" (a Tellegraph quote from Bill Gates in 2013 I think? It's on my Instagram page Cannabinoid_intel_agency somewhere as a "Fact Checked" newspaper photo, I remember it when it was front page news from back them, so no it isn't 'fake' its real and he said that, so when you find out that depopulation means Genocide……well, you should be really happy that you now know the truth, at last? Surely? To be depressed because you were, and always have been wrong about literally everything, is counterproductive for your healing.

Madeline McCann was tortured by the Podesta brothers who were involved I her kidnap, personally. The actual kidnap was 2 weeks previously, but to get the story in the newspapers and media without raising suspicion about who it was 'stole' little Maddy, it was her parents Gerry & Kate set the whole thing up to elevate their status in the Luciferian system that trapped the rest of you via unobtainable desires in return for your soul…..such a waste…….you swapped your soul to become a weather Girl on CNN, or to be a singer like Amy Crack-House…..jokers, and NO 'Amy Crack-House' sold you all out as well, just because she is on the

'Alive' lost does not mean she is innocent, she is as guilty as the rest of the scum, she just shat herself and thought to be a good idea for a quick death rather than any prolonged suffering that would have certainly have come from any non-cooperation. I though Amy WineHouse was shit anyway, crap voice and head like a fukin monster, you only liked her because everyone else did – I mean who would want their child aspiring to this pleb and her shambles of a boyfriend.....honestly....GO AWAY you pathetic smack-head fools.

I gota stop swearing now as Kalo just came back from his cigarette break, he's been chain-smoking since Christian decided to take himself off to Canada for a laugh, I think Christian crashed 'Looking-Glass' when the plain took off.....Skynet 1, crashed, Skynet 2 collapsed and looking glass went like a murky puddle in the winter, so when Kalo's outside smoking and necking Sambuca's, cos he now "Has to" , I'm left sitting here with my own fingers Infront of me, in standby-mode - and I cant be trusted whatsoever not to start saying it as I think it should be said, I'm in 3D as well and I think fuck the Cabal, fuck the police, fuck the government, fuck the NHS.....FUCK THE LOT OF IT. It's all BLATANT BOLLOX.

You like these idiots because 'They' decide who you like and dislike....NOT YOU. You think you have choices, but as mentioned previously, these choices are presented for you.....they are not 'Random' selections made by yourselves, it's a percentage 'thing' and they will milk-it accordingly, it will also have several beneficial outcomes for the cabal themselves being nothing used against us, has just one purpose. If these choices you decide to opt for were not there, would you 'break-the-mould' and cut your own path in personal style? This is a flawed social model also as the amount of people wanting to shock and awe to be recognised as trend-setters / influencers for their originality is torrential and therefore the options for stylish originality are harder for the adolescents to find.....so they are just randomly shocking until they find the right thing to identify with.....or trying to be partly original with content to gain likes and * was a demonic Luciferian who used the last remaining member of the '5 Masters' of the AKTUN, the masters who created you for Source Creation, out of 100 species of ET, as previously mentioned, they chose 22 species and the only part of you that is Reptilian, is your core, or spine (your brain has NO reptilian aspect to it whatsoever, they told you that because they are gelous – Your core is because the reptilian core is the strongest in the universe, for a bipedal hominid.

If you came here to this realm as a volunteer to help free the earth humans, you will need not worry about your own personal ascension, as you came here to help……'Red Adair' didn't get asked for his passport before traveling to save stranded Oil-Rig workers, looking at personal incineration in a fireball if they stayed on the rig, I doubt he needed a High-Viz either. So at the EMF you will wake up like us in an Avatar Chamber, in Russia, or possibly even on a mothership above you right now? Your 1st moments of waking up will be strange if you're in a chamber – you won't have been in your current body for a loop or 4, and now your back in your proper vessel AT LAST….and you just started getting your memory's back……that's guna be very strange for everyone, whether you're In a tank or incarnated here. In case you're wondering why there would need be a difference, it's because of the problem of the human sell-outs….no human in a 3rd density matrix can be trusted….just ask Madeline Macan's soul when you next see her, which you will if you desire to? you can also use the akashic records to pull up all the truth in your pristine new mind using a massive Pineal gland the size a 'Victoria Plum' between your eyes – with this spiritual technology that dove-tails nicely into a 5D simulation, you are, and can do what you want, when you want. Everyone who is healed will have this for eternity, all that must happen 1st is the healing process which will be heralded in over the next few weeks with some Oprah Winfrey revelations and then the Epstein flight log……who was on it? Everyone basically….those that were not on that flight list were present at Hugh Hefner's Playboy mansion which was the same entrapment facility and tunnel system…..there are thousands of these Epstein-Heffner style facility's located all over your realm- they have been destroyed also and the sites cleansed – the rest will go in the new simulation matrix immediately after the event.

Because not one single human could be trusted not to sell you all out, our benevolent ET friends and family stepped-in at the very last option they had before you would have all been thru Klaus Schwabs 7th and Great-&-Final Re-Set. So be grateful because you are alive by the virtue of "Space Aliens" who love you dearly.

In quiet reflection, contemplating my half Lyrian heritage……..i think its safe to assume that when I wake-up in my Avatar Chamber after having spent 423 years in this bloody simulation, the first things I will need are some 'Cat-Nip' , a Litter-Tray & ball of string……il check to see if I been 'spade' whilst asleep?

literally NOTHING surprises me anymore…..nothing…….i cant even have a single conversation with anyone now except pix and Christian and our online hero's of the Awakening process……its hard interacting with society as they are all utterly clueless, completely oblivious……these 'humans' are the humans we are here to collect if we can, the awake are already awake and 'drumming' fingers on the kitchen table for 2+ years now. I can order a kebab or a burger or go in a shop, but im loathe to, and will try to avoid it if possible as its awkward – I can talk shit all day if need be and it will be interesting shit for conversation, I have a lot of interests, but talking about mundane 3D topics and services that are no longer there, like NATO and the United Nations, Hollywood and Banking…..come on……wake up……please? 'Pretty-Please'???

Sorry Amy……but, I have always thought you are a complete cunt and now I know it for a fact….i was well chuffed when I heard you died love, I was gutted when you popped up on that 'Alive list'. But hey, it is what it is.

By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Our benevolent ET friends who have been patiently waiting for several thousand years, for this time now, to slowly crawl its way closer & closer to our reality so that they can reach-out & connect with your consciousness after you resonate with this truth & unite this with your own world-view, so you can land back here after the EMF as we need you and your Twin-Flame here to start manifesting the new reality simulation into a beautiful one. Don't forget, in 5th Density+ we literally create our own reality, instantaneously. There is simply no room for negative emotion…..no room whatsoever.

The problem now is that the 'old' 3D infrastructure has been completely removed, by this we mean that, for instance who you bank with as one example – the bank is now just a building with a bank sign over the door, inside that bank is no money, gold, silver…..nothing….they function on a daily small amount of cash and you will know this to be true as sometimes in some banks the world over, you go in the bank to draw out only $1,000 they will ask you to come back tomorrow, or later that day sometimes because they will need to order that cash in…..the banks ALL have NO MONEY left and the 3D system is gone, leaving only the husk and facade of a financial establishment.

The same is seen with ALL of these 3D trappings like Religion as another example The Vatican, is obsolete, all the staff have been arrested and executed 4 years ago….they will not be employing more popes and Vatican staff. This building, along with many many others will be destroyed publicly during the FAI or 'Fake Alien Invasion'. so where does that leave the entire religion of Roman Catholicism? Long DEAD & never to be resurrected. Buddhism the same, everyone has seen the Dallai Llama snogging a 7yr old boy in front of hundreds of people, as if it was totally normal……so don't give me all that Buddhist crap, mincing about in white linen and sandals, it's a load of bollox too and the Dallai Llama is also long executed. Your religion can't come back from snogging a 7yr old boy, it's not possible, and we all know that Buddhism is one of the 'Nicest' religions, so what does this say for the rest?

The same for all the other 147 religions…..ALL GONE NOW, never to return. When the devout Christians realize that chanting 'Blood Of Jesus' is about the most Satanic phrase you can get……well…..Tears before bedtime. Any sacrifice weather it be a burnt offering or a waived offering, any 'offering' is Satanic in origin…….you 'offer' your respect to Source Creation with every breath you take, every thought you think, and every deed you undertake, If thought wisely & by habit, will be your worship to Source Creation, you cant kill something and expect Source Creation to be very pleased about it.

The Education system is GONE all the top echelon of the worlds education, are also long dead……this trend of empty offices was proven to me when I got arrested, proving several things: Commonlaw works in the most austere of situations i.e. being in the cells on an 18month prison-recall and getting unlawfully kidnapped and unlawfully detained after being attacked by 4+ constables and beaten with Telescopic weapons & assaulted with 'Parvo' (CS Gas) which is classed as a firearm in British law. Id punched two of these idiots in the mouth during the unlawful kidnap & detention when they broke in my home without identifying themselves or stating their purpose on my property….they were not there for the 4 kilos of cannabis, that was an accidental find, they were there for a different cannabis crop, that I had nothing to do with, but sold the equipment used in the grow that was busted, to the people who got busted – Im well known in the legal cannabis industry & the illegal cannabis industry, and in my local area of Essex, id often get phone calls from home owners who had just evicted an illegal cannabis farm and wanted the mess cleared-up, holes in ceelings for ventilation etc etc - and I got caught with 4 kilos of cannabis flower (that was drying after I finished the crop at my home…….I used this flower to make preparations for people with cancer, mainly, but a host of other illnesses, id cured 9 people of cancer between 2014 & 2019 and 5 of those people were 'Terminal') and after going quite politely fucking well mental at them during the detention and interview, which was me interviewing them

Our benevolent friends need you to understand that there is no going back to what was. We have passed the threshold of no return and in these next few days this will get more and more apparent, even for normies. The more awake normies will start properly smelling a rat as these next few days elapse, and at this point people will start seeing thru their fake reality for themselves – not forced to, by you being their only awake friend, but because what they are witnessing unfold will put many many 'dots' on the page for them to join-up, which they will, very quickly, a bit too late maybe, but, 'mejor tarde que nunca' (better late than never).

There is nothing left to go back to because it has all been removed….none of it will return….Education GONE, Banking GONE, Industry GONE, NHS GONE, Police GONE, Social Services…..GONE, CAFCASS…..GONE. Everything 3rd Density is already GONE and only the translucent ghost of this old way of life remains.

Apparently, so 'They' say, only 60% of people even believe that ET's exist, let-alone being part of your actual original family. So Ascension will require you to resonate with the truth, the same truth that is so utterly ridiculous to 'most' people. The people who refuse to accept this reality are the people who the parasites, if they were still alive, would be so pleased about as it means that they succeeded in their post-exit goal of hindering the ascension of the majority, and also in making the benevolent's time extremely complicated in reintegrating these souls back into the ONE consciousness. But the good guys worked all that out for you about 1,700 years ago

Portals – Stargates – Worm-Holes – Jump Pads

Portals: are for local travel, only. You can only use portal tech in your own circle-environment, you can however travel to the next realm in a portal as long as it is within your same 'disc' environment.

Star Gates: Stargates are exactly what is shown to you in the movie and series Stargate SG1, and its derivatives. A stargate is a physical metal ring as shown in SG1, it has a separate 'DHD' as shown exactly in the movie, coincidentally. Also, 'Stargate SG1' the series, all 12 years of it – every single episode on that show is showing you untold reality dressed-up as fantasy, whether it's a species, a device,

Wormholes - Exist outside of Gateway-10, not inside it. Wormholes are prolific in the universe and there are trillions of them going all over the place – none of these were controlled by the draco as the task would have been great and its not possible to police this network if you are only 4 species of Malevonant ET.

'Jump Pads' are just location-to-location transporters, similar to the 'Transporter' on StarTrek when the send an 'away' party down to a planet. They are for relatively short trips.

Chernobyl……oh dear. Chernobyl was never radio active and there wasn't an explosion there or even a leaked reactor. Chernobyl was actually in the Ukraine and a lot of the VAST DUMB under Chernobyl, actually straddled Russia. The Cabal didn't want anyone near Chernobyl as below that land is an horrific DUMB of the most unimaginable suffering & Adrenochrome harvesting, as usual. So they faked a leaked reactor then no ones allowed close, unless its at a "Safe" distance…..so we can extrapolate "Safe" used in this context, as safe for them to not been see by anyone from the public. The part of this base that was under Russia, is where Putin has been building all the advanced weaponry required for us to take out these fucks with, which they did 😊

The 'Builder Race' that you may have heard of over the years, mentioned in movies such as 'Prometheus', were in fact previous versions of the Annunaki – the Anunnaki as mentioned earlier, are extremely old and one of the 1st beings to take vessels in the universe. The Annunaki were always extremely benevolent and loving – it was only thru demonic intervention that 'Enka' fucked-it-all-up like a total idiot – this happened because he became embroiled with Demons - in synopsis 2 or 3 I think I said the Draco were the 1st to interact with demons, but it was Enka, of the Anunnaki – the demons were on the dumping realm secured via frequency fence, exactly as outlined previously, but it was Enka who was contacted by the demons from their secure location. It then got all out-of-hand. All Anunnaki are now only Benevolent left, the rest having been executed/annihilated. The same for the Draco and the Greys – The Custodians ….well, you may find one in a Taxidermist shop as a curiosity, because of their disgusting faces and stupid-looking bodys.

Gateway-10 itself was secured via a supermassive frequency fence that would not allow anything whatsoever in, or out. This was set-up to make sure not a single entity would escape execution – don't forget that outside of gateway-10 was dealt-with 1st before the parasites here even knew anything had happened, all of a sudden, they were fleeing for their lives, yet trapped under the great dome unable to move anywhere as they were contained within the frequency fence. This was required to ensure no one escaped. It was like shooting fish in a kitchen-sink with a pump-action 12 Gauge. It was surprisingly easy and executed as planned with not 1 single error.

Edgar Cayce – "the sleeping prophet" was a real character, this guy wasn't making anything-up. How Edgar Cayce was able to do his readings is well documented, by putting himself in a deep trance, at will. He found he could do this after a terrible illness at the age of 11 that left him unable to speak for a while and his family were concerned that his speech would never return. In this state, he could then 'know' literally anything he wanted to.

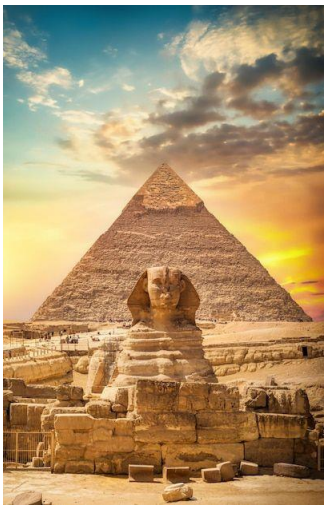

Fig.171-173 Edgar Cayce The Sleeping Profet gave over 2,000 readings on the 'RaTa' period of Atlantis

He gave many thousands of well detailed and long sittings with over 2,000 individual readings just on the "Ra-Ta" period of Atlantis (in realm 2, not realm 3, which is here….Atlantis is behind the icewall and its still there, it was only temporarily flooded when the occupation started 6,013 years ago – Atlantis sits directly the other side of the icewall, as the 'Dyatlov' portal entrance in Russia (in the Dyatlov Pass), this was the one of the portals used to flood our realm and then freeze-it. Atlantis was flooded, temporarily, as oppose to 'sank', this happened when they pumped that water back from our flooded realm here, after freezing our entire realm, and then melting it a few weeks later, back to realm 2 – The "Great Flood" and then followed by the "Ice Age".....The ice age lasted days or weeks, not any longer, they thawed it all out leaving frozen in place with tech underneath, the ring of ice we know of as Antarctica.....if Antarctica was where they say it is, it will sit slap-bang in the middle of an 800 mile wide icewall, there are 3 of them on our circle environment, and there were only 2 before the occupation started.

'Sky Fish' & 'Rods'

Another brainteaser I found when I was quite young, were the phenomena known as 'Sky Fish' or 'Rods'. These are invisible to the naked eye, yet picked-up on camera quite well. The 1st time I saw this on film was in the 1990's – a farmer had recorded several of these strange translucent and evasive 'entities' travelling about in the same location. They move at lightening speed and the video needs to be slowed-down to even see them other than a faint 'blur'. The farmer was recording something in his field, and by chance picked-up these unusual 'creatures' for want of a better word, for the first time ever on an old 'cam-corder'.

On screen, the only thing that springs to mind is a translucent Cuttle Fish, and the way that creature moves thru the ocean, seems to be similar to how skyfish, or 'Rods' move thru the air.

So as usual, this is just another example of Christian21's ridiculous ability to know shit that no other person can possibly know.....because I just asked him "here bruv what's with them skyfish and rods 'n shit?".....he didn't have a clue what I was talking about, as usual, so I found a few recent videos online, and pressed play……"One sec, he said as he received the necessary info from Eldo,…."yeah these things are 4th density upwards, they are what you would expect to see naturally flying about in most density's above our current one. Quite colourful in their natural 4+D environment, think 'glo-worm' and a dragon-fly, that type of thing - they live in inner earths normally and can make themselves invisible in a 3D sim. They are harmless. There will likely be a lot more of these about now as since (at the latest) 2019, the' Labyrinth' was destroyed, as that's where some of these creatures would have been living.

Fig. 174 'SkyFish' / Rod's

Figs.175,176,177 An Entrance to a 4th Density Labyrinth will look similar to this

A Labyrinth is demonic – its destruction is why you may capture more of these elusive creatures on film now, if you are patient.
One of the inner-earths was a 4th density Labyrinth and this is where the demons resided. A Labyrinth entrance will look very enchanting, magical, and quite inviting….. it will look like this for the first few hundred meters as you enter….a labyrinth is the worst place you can possibly find yourself…….the enchanting atmosphere down there is only to fool you. You walk in thru a beautiful entrance resplendent with colourful mushroom and toad-stools, flora and fauna such as Skyfish and Rods will be flying about you in a bioluminescent paradise – passageways covered in moss and beautiful plants with spring water trickling down the edges of the pathways walls…..after a while…..you notice it starts to get a little-bit 'Doom & Gloom', so you turn to head back…its then that you realize that it also look doom & gloom behind you where you just came from……..then it dawns on you….'Ohhhhhh shit'. It was all an illusion….think 'Hansel & Grettel'. what you just walked thru was beautiful, merely to lure you in, now you will never leave and you fate is sealed as there is now, no way out. The creatures that live in these labyrinths are known to us as several types, 'Critters', being just one – a small aggressive-looking fury shit-bag, and I personally wouldn't mind betting that these creatures are in fact what the Island of New Zealand know from folklore as 'Menahuni' or some call 'Little-Foot' (not the little-foot from the island of 'Florence' [or 'Flores' I think?} in Borneo known as 'Homofloriensis', a different creature entirely. Critters and other 4th Density creatures in a labyrinth, will not look very attractive as they reflect their environment in the doom-&-gloom atmosphere of their realm – they like it Doom & Gloom - other 'nasty-looking' creatures you see in horror films will also be present in a Labyrinth - these creatures are all mostly real and from places like this, which are all always only 4TH density environments (can't go to 5th without resonating at the frequency of unconditional love….applies to everything)

I think? I'm not going to google it to check, because as I say previously, I don't research anything after hooking-up with Christian – I haven't watched a single 'anything' not the news, not a 'truther' not a nothing since the day I found C21 September 2022, I think it was the 17th as I was let out of Norwich Prison the day previously and I went straight on Linda Paris platform. I don't research anything to check specifics because everything I learnt here in 3D was a pointless lie, just like it was for you, so what I know other than the 'official' story, is worthless apart from being the blue-touchpaper to Christians 'Pineal'-link to our 9th Density Pleiadean family, for the answers.

So we do these by me asking the answers to my greatest mysteries, mysteries that id have swapped my fukin life to know the answer to JUST ONE OF THESE MYSTERYS….let alone all 19 synopsis! Its absurd to think that anyone could make this up, it really is – I have wrestled with mysteries like this as a hobby almost from preschool, picking them up magnetically as I traversed each day of what I assumed to be 'life', just like the rest of us do, yet I was happy to drop the entire-lot when I realized we had been lied to about EVERYTHING, from the grass seed on your lawn-to-the ingredients in your food-to-the sun being "1 AU" away from us, AU = 'Astronomical Unit' being 93 million miles away, and a ball of gas….and some of you poor sods will pay 'Twitter X' $84 per month to get access to "Information from a Stargate" and "live footage of Solar Activity" being CGI of a fake ball-of-gas…..in all honesty, its only just dawning on me myself now, as to how this will feel to an academic, for instance, who put their whole life in to accomplishing one, or many fields of research what whatever discipline that may be in, because to be in this mindset 'knowing' you have been diligent and thorough, proud as punch with yourself for getting a Phd in "Deep Space Telemetry", for instance, and going on to hold the Chair in astrophysics at a major learning establishment…..you don't 'think' you are Right….you 'know' it for a fact, how or why would you possibly think otherwise? Now imagine the Tsunami of cascading particularized revelations one-after-the-other in fast & simultaneous succession (you cant have "simultaneous" together with "Succession", I know, but I'm using it anyway) this will be like having a smash in the head by 'Thors' Asgardian Hammer, as I'm sure you can imagine.

Il share something else personally embarrassing to help you see what we mean by acceptance, for instance, and just getting over it:

In 1994 I used to spend more time awake than asleep, Clubbing in London at Raves & warehouse party's, was the norm – Amphetamines, LSD, mushrooms, & Ecstasy were standard – mid week binges were common and sometimes prolonged, the longest amphet-bingeI think I broke the world record for not sleeping, as I didn't blink for 9 days and fell asleep at last on day 13. That was on heroic 10g a time amphet-'base' session….that was really good gear back then by the way, not like it is now – don't take 'modern' drugs because what you assume you are buying, is not what is going to be in the bag, and no, your dealer thinks the same as you do….kids, beware DON'T TAKE DRUGS, specially not at a time like this!!! Just cannabis please for your own sakes, not mine 😊 so anyway….id been pretty high 'recently' prior to this event, but not at the time this happened- I pulled over in the car at 04:25am in a field on a country lane near 2 villages, Assington & Pebmarsh. I was taking a piss and saw some really unusual stuff happening with what looked like creatures out of a fairy-tale book…Critters' Fairys and a talking Tree called 'Mac' with a shapeshifting Amazonian girl who I could only partly see…I lost 10 hours in a field at the edge of a woods, and all the time since that day when I walked the 50 meters back to the car and realised it was now 14:25pm but to me it felt like id been there 15 minutes, I only went to take a piss but I was there taking to a tree for 10 hours by the look of it. I didn't know it I was off-my-nut, or if id been abducted by space aliens, and this weird-shit was a screen memory, maybe?

I put it off asking Christian for a few months as i thought i might not want to know if id been abducted or not? but i asked him... he said "naaa Leon that was all in your head bruv, sorry"
HA! Heres me for 20 years worrying if id been sexually assaulted by Space-Aliens, because I discovered small haemorrhoids a few weeks later on my previously pristine sphincter ….i thought they may be trying to get me pregnant or something, for my advanced 'Essex'-Genetics…..but it was all in my head! none of it was real...What a dick-head!
HA! 'GeeDC' and 'Ty John Dunn' will be wetting themselves right now cos I told my two best pals this the next day and they took the piss out of me consistently ever since lol 😊 Im bothering to tell you this because its my version to explain to you that this is how you must feel when you realise very soon that, like that Fairey-tail episode in the woods, with a talking tree and a shape-shifting Amazonian……every single thing that you have recorded in your mind and regurgitated from your mouth in the form of your personal knowledge and wisdom learnt whilst alive In ANY 'loop' here in the last 6,013 years, is all fantasy and illusion in my/our heads with the sole purpose of keeping your attention faaaar away from topics such as adrenochrome and a wall-of-ice.

What you need to do to easily overcome this and stay at the right frequency, is treat it like I did with the incident above, or anything else I thought I knew is dealt with the same way – I well happy to have found out what a Dickhead I was. That's all you need to think, but it needs to be how you actually 'feel' about it, hold no resentment and laugh at yourself. When I was very young, like all kids I guess, I used to get really embarrassed about stuff if I was called-out on it….get all angry 'n that about it, then when I was about 5 or 6 (7or 8?) I worked out that if im guna make it thru life, I need to be able to laugh at myself…..then im sweet to take the piss out of others as there now way they can attack me 😊and that's how to avoid embarrassment, it will disappear from your life, you'll get caught off guard here and then but it's no sweat, I mean like wetting yourself in public or something, with Chino's on.

I asked Christian today, that because I am in a tank in Russia at the mo, if I killed-myself, would I wake up in the tank in Russia? "Yes, but Mother will be will be well pissed-off, so don't do that cos its cheating" . So, When I was 5 I had Bacterial Meningitis and nearly died a few times over that worrying weeks……if id have died then in 1978, and woke-up immediately in an Avatar Chamber, as a 9 foot-tall Pleiadean geezer…..having just been 5 and less than a meter tall a second ago….that would have done my head-in more than dieing….so im double glad I didn't die knowing this now – if I had have died, I'd be like "Yo, stik me the fuck back in there you mad cunts what are you fuckin playing at I'm not 9' tall, I'm 5 and Dr Who's on at 6 followed by two episodes of Tom & Gerry….so put me the fuk bak in there, also mums guna think im dead if you don't harry-up, jokers".

God I'm in loads of shit when we get home… honestly I am, I'm fucked when we get in from 'work', properly fucked…..I said to Christian "Hypothetically speaking, if I'm a 9th Density Pleiadean in an Avartar tank, not needing to worry about ascending as I'm already there…. if I kill someone, il be sweet init?"….."Errrr NO LEON I CANT BELIEVE YOU JUST SAID THAT BRUV!" I said but hypothetically speaking, I mean?' I said "if mothers really nice, shell be sweet yeah? "NO, WILL SHE FUCK BE SWEET ABOUT IT YOU NUTTER!" I'm like 'but there's no jail in 5th Density is there, so….??? He shook his head in horror….im just curious so I can explain these things to the general public, others will have the same questions, I'm certain. So basically, don't kill anyone, even if you're an Avatar, its guna be bad for some reason that il work out when we get home. So just carry on as you have been all your life, not-killing people and all should be fine? You can only kill in saving your own life, or the life of another, and 'they' will know if you're making it up saying it was "their fault", or not - as you 'spirit' guide is actually an ET & they is sitting next to you right now listening to you put oxygen to the cerebral activity created in your mind as you formulate an appropriate response during an argument, recording your live-stream thoughts that you are even unaware you are thinking at the time. So best avoid any killing, just to be on the safe side.

The Sun, and the phases of the moon 😉 6D Magic which ever Pleiadean is playing playing Elon Musk right now…..you joker! Sick bruv! keep ot coming! "Info from a Stargate" no less…..Thank you your making our job down here much easier, il buy you a 'Pint' after this bruv million % m8.

The Sun and the Moon, are, very not-unusually, nothing like what you were told either, which should now be the anticipated-expectation to anything you think you knew about everything, as we are unfortunately finding out each day since 2019.

The Sun and moon are both in Realm-2, you are in the center, being Real-3 (the false/fake 3D Simulation environment created to entrap your soul here so it can inhabit a new vessel immediately after 'death', for the purpose of them being able to 'fish' 9+ MILLION children out of your realm to extract into bottles of Adrenochrome, like a production-line, the conveyor-belt to this industrial machine is the wars and trouble you are told are going on, these wars and conflicts are specifically orchestrated to produce more displaced children for harvesting, and more money changing hands laundered thru conflict. Your whole realm is the actual conveyor-belt itself, and your daily employment, bills, meetings, events, classes, purchases, mortgages, Finance, holidays, travel, sports, music, industry, interests and hobbies, pastimes and 'treats', goals and desires,..is there as part of the camouflage to this fact.

Sorry, I digressed again, where was I? the Sun being in Realm 2….the sun has to remain in Realm-2 because they use the 3 firmaments as 'Lenses' to zoom things outside of our realm, further away from us making 'space' appear as far far away, the twinkling starlight taking "Hundreds of thousands of years" to reach you from this distant star at the edge of the known universe, is, in fact, very very close & when they drop the firmament soon, you will see that the 'Starlite' security system which is 70% of what you humans call "Stars", is actually very close to you, you could 'throw a stone at any of them, and they show you this in modern video games, the realms in some games are shown to you, also how far away they actually are…(the ones that are above you, not counting the worlds under the Great Dome, on Gateway-10) .but you think its just some game developers coding imagination….its guna freak you right-out how close everything actually is – some of the stars in the sky are actually other planets, which as mentioned several times previously, are ALL flat discs as is your own circle environment.

You have been lied to about everything, look on the bright side and please shrug-it-off….we were the collectively the Galactic buffoons. Look around you, notice whats going on….THERE ARE STILL PEOPLE OUT THERE, quiet a lot unfortunately, who actually think that Joe Biden is the president of the United States, and not only that, but that the Joe Biden they are looking at on the screen of their 'Tell-A-Vision', is the original joe biden – so you can tell immediately that this person/people have likely been present at all 6 resets, their brain is now able to assimilate information in a cognitive chain of coherent thought, similar in efficiency to pro-biotic yoghurt made of single-cell bacteria when u pass 3 volts thru it. Its not their fault tho. It's a crock-of-shit that's what it is.....its like watching a small girl in a park with ice-cream all round her face totally unaware of how it should be eaten, yet loving every moment, utterly oblivious – that's 'Everyone' who hasn't woken-up yet and what you feel when you see a kid like this, is 'Ahhhh bless it, poor little sod aint got a clue, seems happy tho' – That's what your soul family are thinking about you right now. And when you look at whats in the ice cream, it's as poisonous as any other 'food' you children have eaten here.

So back to the sun, its not a ball of gas, it's a portal back to source creation and the energy from it is the light that sustains all living things, the sun can not harm you, it cant even burn your skin until they spray particulate nano-particles, constantly to filter the suns rays to burn you and give you cancer.....by the way.....these 19 synopsis....most of what they contain, no 'human' Elites' will know a bolt-about-it, all they will know is that the earth is flat, and that would have been their 'special' knowledge' for only the initiated, to make them feel special....jokers! HA! A 5yr old could work that out, its hardly difficult, what is difficult is being an adult and being able to compute beyond the programming parameters of your paradigm.

Its changing, change with it for a less traumatic time, that's what this info can help people do, hopefully.

The Phases of the Moon are created by the 'star' you know of as "The Evening Star" lets have a gander at what this star is called?:

"Planet Venus...

Both Venus and Jupiter have been visible in the night sky over Great Britain. You may have seen a bright object next to the moon which is not a star but is in fact the planet Venus.9 Nov 2023"

Well, that clears that up, its Planet Venus….obviously as that's what "Inews.co.uk science department" has concluded, along with many others, I just copied their detailed findings for you guys here…….so now go outside over the next few days and notice that "Planet Venus" is coincidental ALWAYS in the perfect location, if you imagine planet Venus as our proposed holographic projector, being a standard hand-held Flashlight, to be creating the effects of the ¼ moon ½ moon full-moon etc….WHAT A COINCIDENCE….NOT.

Do you seriously believe that something that shines as brightly as 'Venus' and it "ISNT A STAR"??? Are you fukin serious?? What?….. a dull planet fukin miles away can shine like a fukin sun?? don't be so stupid. If you have a spoon stuck to your arm, you be arguing like-fuk that this projector is actually Venus. And now you can see why we need separate locations for those still misinformed & unready to let-go of the old programming. They will be fine. Everyone will be fine -

Look at the moon each night now for as many days as you remember to, and you be able to debunk "Venus" after day 2…but give it a week and you will clearly see how fooled we all were. You cant focus a telescope on Venus, because it isn't a distant star……it's the projector that shines the light on the moon, in the same way that Christain21 is shining the light of truth onto your 'Apocalypse' and to clarify, an "Apocalypse" does not mean "The End of The World", they told you that the word Apocalypse means this, because it is synonymous with the end of 'Their' world, not 'yours' – the word Apocalypse actually translates as:

"The Revealing of That Which Was Previously Obscured"…..does that sound anything like 'Revelations' possibly? Coincidence that Apocalypse and Revelations are concurrent themes at the end of the Draco story-book known as Bible (and no, it doesn't stand for Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth, that's bollox as well)

You have been lied to about EVERYTHING, why do you think they would possibly let you know the truth about the shape of your planet, when they even lie to you about the fluoride in your toxic water???? Guys, you really gota wake-up now, its long overdue.

Its just a very very embarrassing time to be a human right now….but don't worry as you will get your new body during the EMF, and all your memory's back and a Paradise to live in, and the rest of eternity with which to enjoy it. There will be nothing to be infuriated with, no internet crashing, no running out of data as you will not be receiving g a "Q-Phone" or any such items of pointless-ness, such as a 'charger' for anything is also obsolete. The EMF will bring clarity, peace and tranquillity. You can actually start your living your life in a couple of weeks time – even if you are 101 years old and triple vaccinated & still eating Mc Donald's & going to Church, you will be sweet after the EMF – rejuvenated to age 25 in appearance with thousands of years of crystal-clear recall on all data stored by your 6 senses since you left source creation a very very long time ago – don't forget you are from 5th density upwards to start with, so were going straight back to what we are used to, it's not new, nothing is, we just cant remember, yet.

The humans in the 2nd reset were still quite clever 4,000 years ago, and a lot taller, that's why theres 10's of THOUSANDS of GIANT remains been turning up the world over for a cpl hundred years….during the railways construction in the U.S and expansion, many giant graves were found and all sorts of sized giants, these were not the supermassive Anakim Giants ranging from 150-200 meters tall, and it is the Anakim that are turned to stone dotted around your world from the initial re-set war when the parasites arrived 6,013 years ago, but the 10,000+ giants found in the US that Abraham Lincoln mentioned as fact , which were destroyed by the Smithsonian Museum who are the Vatican of Archaeology these smaller Giants were previous versions of YOU from resets 2, 3 & 4 –

 I said that the Anakim were 30-60 meters previously, sorry I got that wrong, they are 150-200 meters tall and it is the Anakim who we see as the petrified mountains

The selection process being carried out, and the final assessment during the 'sky-event' is easily imagined by thinking of a cup of sand with a cup of 'iron filings' mixed-in with it – our ET friends will simply be moving a magnet over all our heads picking up every single negative 'iron-filings' from the mix of sand, to remove it to 2nd Earth. It seems complicated to us, but we are 2 densities below them, so its not that difficult for them.

So basically, with Pleiadean-Elon is making our life proper easy all-of-a-sudden, Christian will carry on dismantling Twitter-x and the solar system hoax with the same ease that he would take down a "Meccano" set with a DeWalt Impact-Driver. We were running-out of unsolvable mysteries like a pack of Coca-Cola on a hot day, smashing the worlds unsolved mysteries straight out the ballpark with resonating truth – we are the 'Guns of Navarone' at the moment and hopefully Pleiadean Elon will keep saying really stupid shit to help us 'Out' the original Elons's persona for what it actually was, a child killing paedophile.

I just thought to look at the number of words I have written in these Brief Synopsis for Christian, its over 180,000 words in total, in 5 months so far, and I frond this online from www.jerichowriters.com:
"180,000 words in print is about 650 paperback pages. You only get away with novels of that scale if the story has an Epic quality and the storytelling is remorselessly excellent"……..
all I can say is that I graduated school with NO GRADES, a dyslexic cannabis farmer, & Christian didn't even go to school, let-alone graduate, so I guess we can discount any of us making any of 'this' up, whilst making it fit current world events and project back in time to the moment Source Creation created itself to extrapolate forward thru the parasitic occupations entirety & covering historical conundrums and even misunderstood battles whilst bringing you the only TRUTH YOU HAVE EVER HEARD in 6,013 years, in a blatantly obvious & coherent manner with detailed explanations to use as your own framework to allow your paradigm alterations to allow you to re-Ascend back home, here…..these synopsis are your 'Ascension Manual' for 5th Density-upwards lifestyle.

The Apocalypse is happening, BUT….."The revealing of that which was previously obscured"…..is the revelations of truth that you are reading about here in Christians extensive information……join up these easy dots…… Who else is here to bring this info? NO ONE, that's who, just Christian21.

PART - 20 - PART 1
You can choose what you want....
....But your Wants are chosen for you
By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Christian21
A Brief Synopsis
By :Leon-George: Sinclair

Hopefully in a few years' time you will look-back at your time here in realm-3, pragmatically, in the same way you might remember a really nice Hotel you visited once, but where you contracted Typhoid and almost died…. you'd be like "yeah it was really nice there in Realm 3 but finding out that the "meaning of life" that we were all looking for as a collective species, was merely to produce a surplus of adolescent off-spring for harvesting into little bottles of Adrenochrome, or to end-up on a dinner plate of a 14' tall bipedal, and highly intelligent Crocodile…..or to be butchered for our glands in the neck armpits, groins, anus and elsewhere to be made into a 'battery-acid smoothie' for a bunch of multi-cultural greys…. hopefully in a few years' time you will not need *EMF tech, to deal with the trauma of your time here in ARB201, – It will not take long to heal with this technology, and with your memory's back and twin-flame by your side, you will be sweet…….just in for a bumpy few weeks, that's all. *(medbed technology, for the newbies)  'Earth' = anagram of H.E.A.R.T, which is your realms actual name – so named as it is the 'Heart' of 'Gateway-10' being the very centre realm of the supermassive planet that you live on - Remember, its not a question of proving the Earth is Flat….its a question of proving the Earth is a globe. PLEASE REMEMBER: During the EBS you will see really nasty stuff – Children being tortured by the rich and famous, religious leaders killing children at satanic ceremony's, 14' tall shapeshifting reptilians eating children, raping children and terrifying children for their adrenalized blood, known as "Adrenochrome" it costs $2.2 Billion USD a Ltr to buy, and I think it takes about 5,000 children to make a ltr (?) nasty nasty nasty….the child must be in a state of extreme agony and also extreme terror for this 'Drug' to have 'value'. The important thing to take away from all this, is that none of the children you will see during the EBS are in pain now, because they are all dead - its over now, its not happening anymore since 2019……all the kids are already re-born here again, or the ones saved have been treated in medbeds over the last 4years….don't forget that this War was won over 4yrs ago……all the dead kids have been reincarnated here on the planet in the same way that everyone else who died has been reincarnated here on the planet – the children who were 4 in 2019 when the DUMBS were finished being cleared out, are now 8yrs old and have new lives after medbed care and treatment by the most skilled people in the universe, literally – when you find out what your soul family have been doing, you will cry, you do not, and cannot possibly understand the love they have for you, that type of emotion doesn't even exist in a 3rd Density simulation, yes you can love and be loved here, but its not the same, at all. You will remember all this during the EMF when you get your memory's back. So what you will be viewing during the EBS, are historical crimes of which the perpetrators are all long executed and the victims who survived are now teenagers with new lives and new family's……all this happened ages ago, you just never knew about because the media were owned by the perpetrators during the time-span this was going on, which was for 6,013 years in duration…..i keep getting upset writing this…..i can see what's coming with such clarity that when I talk to literally ANYONE about any single aspect to this great awakening process, the fact that no one even has a single fukin clue about anything to do with it, and even the awake people I know are miles away from grasping the enormity of all this, my eyes fill with moisture. Its like a child who really hurts themselves with boiling water as they didn't realise hot water scolds, its that same naivety, just presenting in a grown-up. Its 'Twilight Zone' shit. Its rather unfortunate that the "Cradle of civilisation" in Sumero/Babylonia is when all this started…….before the 1st sewerage system was invented, before the 1st writing was formed, before paper was invented, before we had even invented copper tools…Child Sacrifice was what made this world tick……..thats not a time frame of 'all of your life'…….its a time-frame of 'all of your lives'…. plural……child sacrifice has been going on here since 'our' new-re-inception here in realm-3, all that time ago, 6,013 to be precise. 9+ MILLION children per year were stolen from your realm to be used for food and sex, dark magic and ritual torture for a very nefarious purpose/s, many purposes – the fear and terror created during these ceremony's, is the 'loosh' that the controlling demons need as sustenance. Demons do not eat food, they consume energy – this energy is manifest by the physical pain and suffering of these children during torture & ritualistic sacrifice + all the wars and conflicts, trouble and killing that have plagued your realm for so long. So yes its going to be very upsetting, which is a total understatement of the half Decamillennium, but 'it is what it is' as they say. Some people don't like that saying, but I think it's pretty apt every time it's used. "it is what it is" is not submitting or relinquishing control of anything, and it's not giving up… it is what it is, because…it is, what it is……you can't put the milk back in the bottle after its spilt of the floor….hence: 'it is what it is'. But it's all over now – there isn't even anyone left alive to get angry at because they are all dead as well. All of them are dead, so when you see the EBS, just stay indoors and be with the family, don't be tempted to go outside and join the chaos, it's pointless and you could easily get killed, or worse, you family could be killed while you are out killing other people that have a haircut like a police constable would have. Your perceived societal necessity to gauge validity, value & worth, via the parameters of a preconception ordained by your captors, is the reason you are here in this mess & up to your eyeballs. Christian could not possibly be 'Professional' for this to have worked, no way would this have worked if he was required to fill a suite and operate from a studio…..his whole approach to the Great Awakening is specifically to have come from a worse-off than most background, uneducated and home-grown. There could be no privilege for him and no easy life. When you need to have 35 separate personalities installed in you to deal with the sacrifice viewed in real-time, doesn't give much opportunity for further education and the opportunity to even need to measure-up for a suite let-alone don one. We are all programmed to accept certain information from certain sources I.e medical information will be coming from someone dressed appropriately & in a way befitting the scenario and circumstances, a lab-coat and stethoscope emboss authenticity, legitimacy, accuracy and dependability, into the equation and every word is taken as 'Gospel'– have you noticed that when anyone you ever knew who went to a consultant at any hospital in the western world, 'their' consultant was "the leader in his field" …"the best there is"…. "the #1 orthopaedic-gynaecological-optometrist ever known to mankind"…..we all hear this all the time…..in reality their consultant is without question, well trained, but not well educated because education is where it all starts going wrong – see David Adelman's book "School, no place for Children", for a start – but it's the same in any field and with any topic – the enormity is very difficult to grasp because its so supermassive in its reach – it literally encompasses everything you have smelt, seen, heard, felt, touched, wanted, needed, hated, tasted, and it incorporates everywhere you ever visited, how you travelled there, what you thought when you got there and how you paid to get there……it covers literally every single 'thing'. your emotions are governed by the same structure, all your myths are real and true. you are in a snow-globe that is violently shaken every thousand years with an appalling reset, & the boundaries of this snow-globe are your firmament and the ice walls that seal the system of your simulation environment – there is and was no hope for you whatsoever. The longest you would live after a reset is just 24 months if you managed to evade capture and stayed well hidden, they will find you, they have technology that can 'see' thru the planet and find a silver coin 70 miles below the earth surface, so of course than can find you wearing a loin-cloth carrying your 5yr old daughter to the stream to get water after you run out of 'Evian' 7 months into the reset. So when evaluating information like this, especially this information, it is important to filter the information from the source if you find the source itself unsavoury – if you were walking thru the desert in 50 degree Celsius heat, & not drank any liquid for 24 hours and you are about to drop dead from heat-stroke, but you see in the distance what can only be a mirage, a shimmering font has appeared on your field of vision, you crawl closer in the sweltering heat, the sand on your forearm has grazed your brow each time you cuff the sweat from your head, & its now sore and bleeding - you are finished and death seems comforting at this point. But as you slowly crawl closer, you realise that its not a mirage after all, it's a real spring with water actually soaking the rocks below it……what are you going to do?……drink the life-saving water and replenish your thirst……or start judging the font that the waters emanating from?…."I'm not keen on that rusty pipe, looks dirty to me"….."that doesn't look like a professional font to me, iv seen better fonts in France"….."I'm not drinking that shit water, it's not got accreditation and there's no safety data available on purity and microbial matter, and I can't see a 'RAS' certificate anywhere…..so fuck drinking that shit". It's the information that's important, not the orating-individual broadcasting it….but that's really obvious, isn't it? It was very important for this message to come from someone/s 'Down-to-Earth' no heirs and graces, no professionalism, no false façade, nothing like you are used to hearing 'strange' info from, for a very good reason….NO ONE LISTERNS TO THE HOMELESS, no one listens to the uneducated, no one listens to anyone not dressed appropriately for the setting, BUT, to ascend home, you're going to need to start listening to the homeless, not all of them, just me and Christian. We aren't your average homeless people…..that's why I am pretty unconventional in my approach to everything, and couldn't give a fuk . I'm me, & iv been trying to remain myself for 50 years and I'm very happy with this, I now know why I am like I am, and that alone is very refreshing. Shame it took 50 years. I'm not here to impress anyone, I'm not here to be 'professional', either - A point worthy of note is that it is because of 'Professional' people that you are all in this mess in the 1 st place. Professional people are telling you that your little girls chemotherapy failed for the 2nd time and she will go on palliative care next week, when she didn't need chemo in the 1st place – professional people were all telling you to roll-up a sleeve and take one for the team – Its because of professional people in media and 'tell-A-Vision' that you believed there are current wars going on in the world that the common cold (ALL 'coronaviruses' are listed in the British medical encyclopaedia 1989 as "Common Colds", & its because of professional people that you have concerns about 'Climate Change', which is totally fake. The world you live in is now TOTALLY FUCKED Because of Professional people. 1,013 species of highly benevolent ETs to stepped-in to save you….. we all have eyes, ears and a mouth, just not everyone knows how to use this equipment properly……I don't need to explain this anymore, I guess? You top "truthers" in your swish studios and guy-smiley teeth, shelling out pocket money to trollers hoping to stave-off the tsunami of truth that's effecting your gold and silver sales, scorching holes in your 'Bannerman's QFS flags and pixelating your dreams of a medbed for that bad back you got sitting in that chair for 4 years chatting bare-shit to hopeful viewers who were desperately hoping to make sense of what's happening in the post covid world……you lot should be UTTERLY ashamed of yourselves……you have literally LET YOUR OWN SPECIES DOWN……Do you not realise where we are in history at the moment? You're a top truther, you must have an inclining as to what era we are in right now??? Il remind you, its known as: "The Apocalypse" Which means: "The revealing of that which was previously obscured" It does not mean: "the end of the world" So with this in mind, maybe you can ascertain that this "revealing of that which was previously obscured" is likely to be something that no one was aware of previously….?? Maybe? So if no one was aware of it……..no one knew anything about 'it', did they?? So doesn't this sound a little tiny bit like EXACTLY WHAT THE FUCK CHRISTIAN21 HAS BEEN BANGING ON ABOUT FOR THE LAST 13 YEARS?? Maybe?? What im getting at is basically, stop being cunts and leading people up the garden path for your own financial gain, a financial gain that will disappear the moment the EBS is called, and the power is cut. THERE ARE NO SHOPS WHERE WE ARE ALL GOING, I reiterated that for Christian a lot of times now, its absolutely true….there is NO form of CURRENCY where we are all going….NO QFS, NO Medbeds, NO electric cars, NO roads, NO pollution……NO Police, NO Government, there's NO expenditure whatsoever for anything you need day-to-day – there's NO bills because money doesn't exist where we are all going. The automatic reflex to snap-back-into 3D mode with the tightly pulled-strings of: Religion Finance Perceived knowledge Press 'pause' for a moment and engage common-sense….we don't use this much anymore, because the education system requires that common sense be set to one side as it interferes with the indoctrination – students are told to "Think outside the box" but the box belongs to the parasites…its their box you are trying to think outside of…..and they are 4th Density beings….don't bother thinking outside the box, get a match and some petrol and set the fukin box on fire. Sleepers & sheep, just think freely, its fukin easy you should try it, and its also free. Christian said this wont take long, that was in the year 1599. shit-&-a-shave in galactic terms, "in-&-out" as Kristen said the day we left 424yrs ago……"itl seem like no time at all Kai, honest bruv"……he forgot to say that every day of this shit hole existence will feel like we are running thru a swimming pool full of treacle wearing spacesuits from Apollo-11……he pitched this 'Great Awakening' malarkey as if it was something really cool to be involved in, taking only 'mere moments' of my valuable time……jesus christ mush….really??? Kristen, bruv when I get my memory's back your fukt m8 I can feel it lol😊 so in the meantime whilst we are all waiting for a memory-re-installation, lets have a look at the situation…. 'Normalstorg' Square Bank robbery, sweeden 1973 'Normalstorg' Square Bank Robbery" in Stockholm in 1973 presented an interesting situation, and an opportunity to re-evaluate what this Normalstorg Syndrome actually is?: The only bit of 'research' in the 'Brief Synopsis' series of Christian21's information for the Great Awakening, is here below, as its important, from Wikipedia: "Normalstorg Syndrome, better known as Stockholm syndrome is a proposed condition or theory that tries to explain why hostages sometimes develop a psychological bond with their captors.[1][2] It is supposed to result from a rather specific set of circumstances, namely the power imbalances contained in hostagetaking, kidnapping, and abusive relationships. Therefore, it is difficult to find a large number of people who experience Stockholm syndrome to conduct studies with any sort of validity or useful sample size. This makes it hard to determine trends in the development and effects of the condition,[3] and in fact it is a "contested illness" due to doubts about the legitimacy of the condition.[4] Emotional bonds can possibly form between captors and captives, during intimate time together, but these are considered irrational by some in light of the danger or risk endured by the victims. Stockholm syndrome has never been included in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM), the standard tool for diagnosis of psychiatric illnesses and disorders in the United States, mainly due to the lack of a consistent body of academic research.[4] The syndrome is rare: according to data from the FBI, about 8% of hostage victims show evidence of Stockholm syndrome.[5] There are four key components that characterize Stockholm syndrome: • A hostage's development of positive feelings towards the captor

- No previous relationship between hostage and captor.
- A refusal by hostages to cooperate with police and other government authorities.
- A hostage's belief in the humanity of the captor, ceasing to perceive them as a threat, when the victim holds the same values as the aggressor.

In 1973, Jan-Erik Olsson, a convict on parole, took four employees (three women and one man) of Kreditbanken, one of the largest banks in Stockholm, Sweden, hostage during a failed bank robbery. He negotiated the release from prison of his friend Clark Olofsson to assist him. They held the hostage's captive for six days (23–28 August) in one of the bank's vaults. When the hostages were released, none of them would testify against either captor in court; instead, they began raising money for their defence.

Il quickly de-bunk this myself – what 'likely' happened was after gauging the robbers demeanour & countenance, the hostages realised they were in no immediate danger, the robbers likely informed the hostages that they are not going to be harmed and that the bank in question had let one of these robbers down (?) foreclosed on a mortgage or business(?) Maybe the actual branch manager himself was philanderer who had an affair with the mans wife(?), or possibly he was a paedophile(?) but I think in this instance, because the hostages were raising money for the robbers trial, the excuse of Stokholm Syndrome was used to cover something that the media didn't want reported on – as why would 4 hostages start raising money for the hostage takers….think about…..if I was taken hostage at gunpoint, and there was a single-second where I could take control of the weapon, there would be 2 dead robbers and id walk out with everything and share it with the hostages, equal split (and yes you would do too when you know what I do about the financial SCAM that is banking – it's the system of your enslavement in the 1st place) so we can deduct from this incident that the hostages were understanding & sympathising with the reason for the robbery…..had there have been more hostages, maybe this would have panned-out differently? i would suggest it was serious and worth risking your life for, so I guess someone's child was harmed by the Bank manager…..extrapolate what you wish from this, but know that the reason given for Stockholm Syndrome, is erroneous. BUT, the Stockholm Syndrome elucidation fits perfectly with what's going on right now in the world, strangely coincidental? "Stockholm syndrome is paradoxical because the sympathetic sentiments that captives feel towards their captors are the opposite of the fear and disdain which an onlooker might feel towards the captors" like I say above….very unlikely to happen, so there is, as usual, another reason that 'we' are not to know.

"Therefore, it is difficult to find a large number of people who experience Stockholm syndrome to conduct studies with any sort of validity or useful sample size. This makes it hard to determine trends in the development and effects of the condition, and in fact it is a "contested illness" due to doubts about the legitimacy of the condition."

I would argue quite strongly that the above paragraph is utterly obsolete since 2019 – we now know for certain that there are at LEAST 10 BILLION people who experience this 'Normalstorg Syndrome' – all you need to do is open your front door and the 1st person you see, will be able to ascertain that they indeed have Stockholm syndrome…. "were all in this together" "Safe & Effective" "Flatten Lives to Save the Curve", "I'm getting my 7th today", "I need to pay the mortgage tomorrow", "well book a holiday when the kids are off school next time", "If I get this new job, we will be much better-off" "I'm in court tomorrow for speeding".....This is all 'Stockholm Syndrome' in some of its many guises. And it does not necessarily come from the Victim/Captor relationship, or power struggle. Stockholm Syndrome is something we are all poised to enter into at any moment.....why? because 'we' as a species, are very nice, we want to help, we want to do the right thing we want to 'get-ahead'.....but those who sold their souls who you look up to are no longer 'our' species, they just look like us so we assume they are human. WRONG. They are not human anymore and they do not have your best interests at heart, at all, so listening to them make up rules and regulations for you to obey, while they rape and torture your children, is far from ideal. Clubbing together in emotional simultaneity to help protect each other during a time of great uncertainty & universal crisis, is what we are good at as a species, 'most' of us care, so it makes complete sense that we will do as advised by government in a time of crisis. BUT....it was a weaponization of our love, emotion, empathy & sympathy towards each other, and our own existence itself. It was okay that 'some' or 'most' people believed covid in the 1st year.....but when the rollout started.....come on be serious...."Died Suddenly" ....I was at my Godsons (Josh Crook, fukin legend) football training after the rollout started and "died suddenly" was fresh on the lips of people – there was another dad there at the footie, he had a newspaper open talking to my pal about how many pro footballers had "Died Suddenly" on the pitch whilst playing football, me and George knew immediately as it was BLATANTLY OBVIOUS, but this other dad, his stance on the fact that 120 professional football players had actually died whilst playing football on the fukin pitch!.....and this guys thoughts on the subject, whilst "Died Suddenly" was "....Well its because they train them too hard these days" That was all his mind could conjure-up – this guy must have been in all 6 resets, he probably came here straight from another reset in another gateway.....he's the 'Re-set kid' as how can someone be sooooo BLIND??? – killed by the mundane normality of this faux existence. Tell a lie enough times and it morphs into truth.

Each reset brings with it horrors beyond your imagination, immense pain and suffering and the destruction of all living things within 24 months at the longest – there's no hope after approximately the 2 year marker – their technology will find you wherever you are, evading capture, torture & rape, is a pleasant thought living in your little self-sufficient utopia, but it's a pipe-dream and you, like every other species would be best ending your own life before capture as you will kill yourself way quicker than they will especially if its an Etamine you are running from, they will take care of your slow painful death, its what they were created for.

Each time you die and are reborn immediately into the next available birth of the same sex baby as yourself, & during a live birth, there will be many souls waiting to enter the baby's solar plexus, there could be several souls needing a vessel, or hundreds of souls needing a vessel at that exact moment. Normally this process takes many many months….a potential new 'mother' will let it be known with her consciousness via the law of one 'wifi' connection of your pineal Gland to the realms aether, that she is ready to conceive. That message will be absorbed by the realms aether and promulgated out universally. The universe, although vast in its expanse, is actually like a small town in the countryside considering the full integration of the 5th Density+ beings who inhabit the universe, their technology and way of traveling, i.e. familys travel about together as military units, if you think about it, that's a very good way of doing things as there is 200% trust and considering that all obey the Law Of One, it is possible to know 'everything' about 'everything' past 5th density, and like Christian says, we are all mostly much higher than 5th density.

There will be many conversations with the disincarnate soul long before conception even happens. The potential mother will 'interview' many souls who are ready to reincarnate, and she will be in constant contact with the soul selected, as will the father, so the relationship between the new baby and the mother and father will start over a year before conception even happens. Don't forget that in 5th density-upwards there are no mistakes & no accidents. The woman will decide when to conceive, and until this time comes, anal sex is the preferred way to conduct sexual healing & prevent an unwanted birth. only joking! 😊 sorry Mother, sorry Kalo!...but I had to – (It's been one of those months for me, and I know you BOTH KNOW THAT..... FOR A FACT)..... ovulation will start when the woman decides mentally, not before. So, there's no need for contraception.

It is far easier to fool someone than it is to convince them that they have been fooled. No one wants to admit they have been stupid, unless you are me or Christian, I can honestly say, hand on my heart that I have never met anyone who accepts being wrong.

Not ONE SINGLE person other than myself, or C21 who can deal with that effortlessly, And I am 50 years old – the best I have seen apart from Christian or myself, is a begrudging acceptance and a disgruntled remark to shirk any felt responsibility in the 'wrongness'. I'm often wrong, how can you learn to juggle if you never drop a ball?

It's impossible to go thru life making NO mistakes, but apparently everyone assumes differently when they witness someone else's mistake/s....they forget that they too, are human, as embarrassing as that is right now.

The EBS is now only 'a short time' away (hopefully), not weeks, or months, & with the air-raid sirens, comes the truth of your existence, and the realisation that all of your dreams and aspirations were just a delusion of obfuscation created by the parasites to keep your mind and soul far far away from reality – if they can stop the most 'intelligent' person working out a single truth, then that's all that's needed. The brightest people who can remember and regurgitate at will, everything they learnt in their life, these people will have the best chance at working out the truth, so you went to University to 'better' yourselves (you even had to pay for this indoctrination out of your own sweat-equity)and have a shot at being someone as was 'normal' post '89 everyone went to uni as path of the course, prior to this, Uni was available, but only to the really sharp kids, scholarship kids and wealthy families. I don't think anyone from my secondary school went to University. Uni was for 'mincers' in the 1980's.

Fig.176 you cant even see the bars on your prison because we are mindwiped each death, we think this slavery is 'normal' as its all we have ever kown

Look at 'Your' day, at work, home, or leisure.....at work 09:00-17:00 you get to your desk, or workplace and you start 'work'. What are you doing today?.....'gota call at 09:15 with the supplier to find out why the last order was wrong, have to email the court to 'plead' on a speeding case from last week when you were late to pick the kids up from school and got caught doing 37 in a 30, hopefully it won't go to court, but the plea letter is guna take 45 mins to write, and you have a client 09:45 who is usually late, let's hope he's late today as well, no, he's early, typical – you secretary off sick and she was meant to be in yesterday so you're doing her calls as well, your dads ill in hospital and your sisters husband has leukaemia – the supplier rang back and your order was right not wrong, your secretary made a mistake and reordered last month's order, not the new one because shes under a lot of stress lately, herself – you get home knackered tired and stressed, your wife's had a bad day, the school rang to tell her that your sons been suspended for smoking cannabis again and you already paid for the school trip to go skiing which is money now wasted as its only part refundable so you just lost another 1,500 quid on that, the MOT is out in 3 weeks and the car needs 1,200 to pass, and you just ruined another wheel on that Huge pothole in the road that almost took your axel out, you were lucky the damage wasn't worse, so that's another 700 quid to pay out as your insurance excess doesn't cover it. You lost more money this month than you earnt, what with the issues at work and the school trip and the car – so you go online and look for a loan to bridge the gap till next month because your bank won't lend you anymore, you're at your limit, so you go for a financial option that is a little more costly with the extra interest, but it's worth it as you'll be okay again next month and can pay it all off in one go, so your wife suggests getting a 'little extra' so you can buy a new TV and she needs her hair done for her sister's wedding in 3 days and a new outfit for it, may as well pop that on finance as well?

These instances go on in everyone's lives all over the world, they are slightly different circumstances, obviously, as the cultural differences determine, yet the situation is identical….you are actually kept very very busy with the utterly pointless, for a very good reason…..you need to have your day and your time filled with things to keep your concentration 'flitting' between each important topic that is currently transpiring in your busy life – your attention must be focused on the most important topics & specific problems that, for you personally are very important, paramount such as family, home, wellbeing etc etc – you have to maintain this and the hurdles in your path are 'placed' there by design – Bureaucracy shoe-horns this way of life into existence because we 'must' obey ('must' or 'Mandatory' both mean 'May', as in its OPTIONAL, so when you see a 'mandatory face covering' sign, or 'mandatory vaccination' letter or a sign saying 'you must wear a face covering'....these are misleading as they are 'optional' and Lawfully it's down to YOUR OWN discretion, don't follow the herd as the herd can't hear, they can't see either and we have a situation of the blind-leading-the-blind.

You are lead to believe that you have no choice. Such a lot of fraud to get thru.... If you made it in your chosen field, whatever field that may be, acting, music, Industry, leisure, sports, manufacturing, science, archaeology, history etc etc, then depending on the industry, and depending on your level of success, you would be 'processed' like everyone else. As a shameful family example, my own vessels 2nd cousin is a Luciferian child-killing-paedophile who sold you all out in the 1970's.....Sir Allan Sugar (scumbag) is my mums cousin – This scumbags dad, Nathaniel Sugar was my Grandads brother. They were nice people, not like their Devil-Worshiping son "Sir Allan". ANYONE who was knighted by the queen is a child-killing-paedophile, you have to be, or you will not be knighted. SO YES, SIR MARK ROWLEY Head of UK Police.....you are a child-killing paedophile like the rest. This NONCE would have been taken-out in 2019 like the rest of the scum who also posed an imminent physical danger to all children. How many 'Sirs' are there?? Have a look online, there are lists of 'Sirs'...AND ALL OF THEM KILLED CHILDREN TO BE WHERE THEY WERE, UNTIL 2019. All of them. There are no exceptions to this, male/female young/old all killed children regularly to remain prominent in their social bubble/career I never liked Allan Sugar anyway, thought he was a cunt from the age of 15 onwards, I used to look up to him until I realised that he was an obnoxious little-prick with no plausible personality, or at least, not one that ignites a desire to replicate in emulation as a role-model. Now he's a proven Kiddy-fiddler along with his entire nonce family……lucky I was born to the other side of the Sugars, my grandparents were hard working heroes and being a 'P-SSS-A1' 1973 release, or 'Pleiadean Star-Seed Series Alpha-1'….. after 1975, probably the day after Christian was born, some bright spark the other side of the firmament thought it would be a good idea to add 'features' to the new Star-Seeds protocols…..like 'Sleep-Mode' except whoever did that forgot to put an 'ON' button in the fucking software……so they are all still fast asleep waiting for activation…..like a hand grenade with a 'pin' that's been welded to the collar preventing detonation.

Lets have a look at the top Truthers:

Charlie Ward – has earnt $400 million since 2019 & now long proven to be an actor replacing the original 'Charlie Ward' who was the 'Derek Trotter' of the Luciferian elite world. Original Charlie is long executed….and everyone watching him knows this…..so please someone tell me why you are still watching him??? Or any show that he is on, or anyone that is on Charlies show???? Its like watching someone with dementia, after you point out that they are actually drinking soapy dishwater, not tea, they acknowledge you, but carry on drinking it like they never even heard you. WHY ARE YOU STILL WATCHING A FICTION? CHARIE WARD IS A COMPLETE FICTION – REAL CHARLIE WAS EXECUTED 4 YEARS AGO.

Kerry Cassidy – CIA puppet. Full of shit, and has only interviewed about 3 people who are telling the truth, EVER. We have to thank her for interviewing William Thompkins, though. Poor cunts dead now, so Kerry, sweet bruv, well played. But you can fuk-off now luv stick your 'black goo' up your arse.

Simon Parkes – Parents were MI6……he's probably already executed and who 'we' know as Simon Parks is just another actor like we see with Phill Godlewski. So why watch these fools?

There is real truth, opensource truth available at no cost……why pay for lies? Soothing lies that comfort you as your fingernails scratch a path on the chalkboard reality that you are being dragged-away from at great personal & social dishevelment.

Phil Godlewski – Earnt $50 million since 2019 with his 'efforts' – Phill was a nonce, he's also executed and being played by an actor.

'Dean-G-Code' lol – Earnt $350 Million from lying & sounds like a cartoon character, like Emler Fudd, probably looks like a caricature of himself and is absolutely FULL OF SHIT. Hiding behind a husky image onscreen and steeping-himself in ET lore and the occult, was given accurate D.U.M.B info by the white-hats to get him started in the Great Awakening….and went rouge with it – fame and fortune accessed his 'Godfearing' façade's security system, and the Whitehat's cut him off from his info source, so like EVERYONE else he had no choice but to start making-shit-up to keep the beast alive, the beast being their hungry bank accounts and popularity. Blessing each page of his website with the longest 'prayer' to God you have ever heard of in your fukin life, bolstering his humility-appeal 10-fold. Gene, bless him said the earths a globe because he saw it when he died for 20 minutes and hung-out with God……Soooooooo, bye Dean, sorry to see you go bruv but at least you earnt $350 Million in 4 years……quickly spend it before you get to the FEMA camp. He doesn't want you seeing his face as he don't want anyone approaching his $100 million yacht moored in Cancoon, and working out who owns it. Never trust someone who hides their face from view, good people don't need to hide. Mull it over in your suede as they say in Bellmarsh.

SG Annon – I like him a lot. Hes no way a member of the public…..no fukin way. NO MEMBER of the public can do and know what he knows. The whitehats made it look like hes a member of the public, as they need that info coming out to the masses……they even got him to discuss Flat Earth!!! 😊 SG Annon is clearly a white-hat install. He doesn't charge a penny for his info and it is more accurate & relevant info than the military themselves have. Verdict: Good Guy 😊

Derek Johnson – I like him a lot for the same reasons as SG Annon & hes a Next-level military expert probably put there by the white-hats to look like a member of the public for the same reason as SG, the people need to know what to look for, and these two are the only 2 people helping you work it out, by the look of it. 😊 Their info suggests that they are install's for the masses. I haven't listened to any of them ,good or bad, since September 2022. I don't need to watch anyone since discovering Christian – he's here for a reason that doesn't involve himself, that's blatantly obvious even to a small child. The info resonates as Crystal-Clear in its obviousness when fully constructed – a flawed theory, or made-up situation can not be projected back, or forward in time because it falls apart in its own timeframe let-alone any other. Are there any more truthers out there?

Micheal Jako? the CIA guy - you don't have an 'Ex' CIA operative, they don't exist, if you were in the CIA you are always in the CIA, its not your choice. All that super soldier shit is all bollox. Supersoldiers exist but they are Hybrids, not reptilian hybrids, but positive ET creations for the front-line in conflicts like the one we just got saved from – The real super soldiers are not humans….so, Jason Rice, Randy Cramer etc etc….ALL BULLSHIT.

Nik V? nice geazer probably just swept along with the QFS and new studio? Poor bloke.

Jason Q? "1 is 9 - 4 is 6 - 2 is 11 - 11 is 4 - 9 is 5 – 2 is1 – 19 is 20 and that's the twin temples….there you have it & I don't see why no one cant see it?"……. m8, go back to your bedsit, you fukin joker.

Tom Numbers? I like Tom, but hes doing that same bollox that only he understands, and maybe Jason Q?….what the fuk is that mumbo fukin bollox? Im not saying I don't believe in Numerology as I do!!!! BUT NO ONE EXPLAINS WHAT THE FUCK THEY ARE TALKING ABOUT????? So waffling-off a load of digits with NO EXPLANATION OF ANYTHING is 'Light Language' mumbo-bollox. Its just bollox. "….1 is 9, 9 is 4, 2 is 9, 7 is 9, 9 is 9 ….Its quite fascinating really". I know numerology is real but if your guna talk about it…..you cant do it like that or you sound like a fukin cash register.

I just watched a series on Netflix called "Locke & Key", its laden with 'in-your-face' 'plain-sight' info on: Demonic possession, Light-body, Portals, Demons trapped in a location of pure evil [i.e. demon dumping realm] Witchcraft and 'spells' blood sacrifice, The Labyrinth, which is depicted as the house itself along with the with the keys activating different reality's and aspects of a demonic magic, Time Travel, swapping souls over into vessels & placing a soul in another body…..its packed-full of truth. I then started watching "Bird Box" on Netflix…….wow, they are showing you what its going to be like when the EBS is a cpl hours in, and that's how bird Box starts, I'm only 15 minutes into it …..people loosing their minds and acting crazey, crashing cars and setting themselves on fire, committing suicide and rioting…..that's exactly what's coming in about 2 weeks from now. The reason in the series, is unimportant at the mo, but its another example of plain sight – all films do this, even if in an abstract way, they have to, it's the science to their occult protocols and they 'must' do it. Which makes it really easy for us annons……really easy…..i honestly don't think I need to even explain this? "symbolism will be their downfall" is enough to make the point. I left a trolling comment once, I was just trying to think if I have or not, and I did, once about 6 months ago, I was looking on my page and saw a post "Save Vaping" the post went on to explain how Vaping isn't only better than cigarettes, vaping is actually good for you…." So, vape juice, depending on what brand has PEG400 (polyethelene glycol) antifreeze, Propylene Glycol and all sorts of REALLY NAUXIOUS substances in it, vaping is 20 times worse for you than cigarettes. "popcorn lung" (Bronchiolitis Obliterans, or 'BO') was originally discovered when popcorn factory workers started getting ill – the culprit was 'Diacetyl', which is a food additive used to simulate a 'butter' flavour in microwave popcorn. Popcorn lung isn't so rare anymore as people are getting it from vaping…..i have seen babys under the age of 5yrs smoking vapes in the UK…..i could not believe it, this was about 10yrs ago – the reason I mentioned that, is because I left a message on this post, and I used a few foul words, like "silly cunt" and "fukin mug"….it was only 3 lines long, and I got a facebook warning for 'hate speech'…..– the point is that after I got nicked when they bust in my house and attacked me with CS gas and batons, and id only asked what they wanted?.....i left a video explaining the other video of me getting nicked when it happened…..I wrote to the police a 15 page letter explaining what will now happen……common law stuff basically, but the point is that I posted that letter all 15 pages on my facebook page……In the letter (its on my facebook page 6' down near a video of me in a yellow jacket) I worded it well, as eloquent as the situation required, but I also used fowl language at every possible opportunity, I called them "cunts" about 60 times and went fukin mental – with the added wind-under-my wings of just being let out of the police cells……I didn't expect to be let out….i was expecting to be let-in (to jail) as I was on licence for 18 months left to serve, never mind the 4 kilos of weed I got caught with and the fact that I punched 2 of the cuntstable's in the mouth during their attack and some offensive weapons 2 crossbows that were loaded ready to roll in case the police came round….i didn't have time to run in the other room & grab my Cobra Adder 5-bolt repeater or id have killed 5 old bill with it and only had 3

left to worry about, if they had have come in the back door id have been sweet and there would 8 dead coppers in the garden - and the bodycam footage would have sealed their fate as they were the ones breaking the law. If you die while trying to harm me, whoever you are...its known as "your tough shit" fuck what the law says. So when I went in to the custody suite at Clacton Police station in Essex UK ..... LAW BREAKERS PAY ATTENTION PLEASE AS THIS INVOLVES YOU AND YOU NEED TO HREAR THIS YOU NEED TO BE BREAKING THE LAW – JUST CHOOSE *WHICH "Laws" you break – the more people breaking POINTLESS Law's, the sooner we fuk-off home. If you get nicked before the EBS: – digest this info on commonlaw and apply to your situation when you get nicked and they will let you out within 24h – re-call or not. I know this works cos I have done it myself much to my own amazement. Anyone doubting this, its on camera, all of it is on multiple cameras so please contact 'Clacton Police Station' in ESSEX in the UK some troller pleb said I was lying, I haven't lied since I was about 18, so please contact Clacton police station – I will find the "officer in the case" name for the 'offence' at 'Appleton', Church Lane, Little Tey, Colchester, Essex CO6 1HX, you can contact them & get a copy of my very-brief arrest and their mind-boggling humiliation. Il be honest, it was the proudest moment of my life, this loop – I couldn't work out how the fuk I was now outside the police station? I gave it my best shot, but I assumed I was pissing-in-the-wind at the time, obviously because im bang-to-rights on 4 kilo of class B plus I was on licence for 18 moon & I assaulted two old bill.....it's not possible to be released from the cells in this situation, trust me, it's not possible. But here I was, outside on the pavement wearing a T-shirt with 1 shoe on as they lost the other one. My probation officer Laura (bless her) she couldn't work it out either! Lol.

The thing that I didn't realise at the time, that only dawned on me after I was released from the cells, was that to be re-called to prison, id have to go before a Magistrate in court – the problem with that is that its not possible to put me in front of a magistrate, for any reason whatsoever – now I know this for a fact, im kinda safe :) , they can nick me, but after we get to the cells and I give them the run-down on the list of laws they are breaking……well, the police themselves may not know about the fraud as they are just doing their job….BUT….the magistrate who would need to be re-calling me to prison, they are well aware of the fraud they are committing:

Trying to obtain money by deception Malfeasance / missfeasance / nonfeasance, in public office Gross Misconduct in Public Office Aiding and abetting in a treasonous act & the police:

Section 21 GBH 'Grevious Bodily Harm with 'Intent' (minimum sentence is 18 years in jail for this offence alone) x 2 Cunstables

Aggravated Burglary x 12+

Impersonating police officers x 12+

Unlawful kidnap

Unlawful detention

Unlawfully discharging a firearm in a private dwelling X 2

Unlawful confiscation of property / theft x 12+

Armed Robbery

Just those few charges are VERY serious ESPECIALLY if you are in *Public office its 10x worse for you. So after all 15 bodycam footage and my interview (it was me interviewing them, they didn't get a chance to speak until I let them) was collated and the custody sergeant handed my case 'upstairs' to whoever had a say in what goes to court on Monday (I got nicked on Friday) when they viewed the footage of my interview and my time at the custody suite where I laid it all out, to 6+ open-mouthed cuntstables - well theres no way in a million years that any magistrate would have me in front of them as I will make the court security arrest them. It's that simple, and they know that as I told them in no uncertain terms. A magistrate will not want the public humiliation of being arrested at work by his own security team, or even have the REAL LAW quoted to him/her while they are trying to access my bond. THEY KNOW THAT I KNOW what they are all up to....so I'm too hot a potato to go in front of a magistrate, and the same in Crown Court, it's the same fraud and it's not going to work on me. Because I don't give a fuck about this crap, or any other crap, I'm actually going to court next week in Kent to be the 'Mckenzie Friend' of a litigant friend of mine who has been good to me, he's in court for a 'Driving' offence, and we all now know what that means, don't we? It means that I will get him off this charge in a few short moments after entering the court room – I will then be attempting to have the magistrate/s arrested for his/her crimes during the case. I'm still apparently 'on-the-run', not that you would know this, it's not disrupting my busy schedule in any way and I think the police have realised that I am more trouble to arrest than the benefit in arresting me and no one wants to get sued and have to sell their homes to pay me for stress and mental anguish, plus they almost stopped me breathing last time with the CS gas, so nicking me is a lot of trouble for whoever the unlucky copper is that ends up lumbered with me....so I'm left alone 😊

Usually id send 3 well worded letters (The 3 letter process for my pals driving issue) and the case will be dropped, but this time I thought we will do this in court and not let them have a 'heads-up' to the embarrassment about to befall them, instead & my friend agreed as he's similar to me but doesn't understand the law like I do, so I will go along as his McKenzie Friend, which is someone to attend court to offer advice to the litigant....my words, his mouth. And we hope to film it so I will post this if we have time before the EBS 😊 there are a few people attending with us who will record the experience for the world to see. I'm really excited as I know it's already in-the-bag, and the fact that I am apparently 'on-the-run' whilst representing my pal in a court room……well I can't turn that down can I?!! 😊 I may even dress in women's clothes just so that the magistrate can be shafted by a 'Tranny' because we all know how much magistrates like Transvestites….. And that's why I'm not in prison, and why I won't be going back to prison. If got in trouble, which is unlikely as I do is whatever I feel is not morally wrong, I'm not interested in legal laws, id have my case heard in a common law court with a jury of my peers, which is up to 26 people (12 usually) who live within 15 miles of my postcode, this way I will get a 'Fair' trial – it is not possible to receive a 'Fair' trial in a normal court as they are only interested in your 'Cester Que Vie' bond and how to access it for as much as possible……Maritime Admiralty Law is not there to protect the people….that's an illusion, it's there to secure revenue by unlawful means, only. They couldn't give a fuck about the 'victim' it's not about the crime either, that's another subterfuge, don't forget these judges were ALL 33rd degree masonic Luciferian child killers, so do you really think they give a fuck if you kill someone? of course they don't, they are killing children weekly to stay in that woolen wig (Woolf in sheep's clothing' is what that silly wig represents, its just another example of their childish mockery) all they need to do is get your signature so they can access you bond. To ascertain what being in 'Public Office' is: [it doesn't matter if the person is not in public office, it's just much more satisfying if they are as they have soooo much more to lose] In Mitchell [2014] EWCA Crim 318, the Court of Appeal had to decide whether an ambulance paramedic was a public officer. Lord Justice Leveson stated that the correct approach was to ask three questions:

"First, what was the position held? Second, what is the nature of the duties undertaken by the employee or officer in that position? Third, does the fulfilment of those duties represent the fulfilment of one of the responsibilities of government such that the public have a significant interest in the discharge of the duty which is additional to or beyond an interest in anyone who might be directly affected by a serious failure in the performance of that duty? If the answer to this last question is "yes", the relevant employee or officer is acting as a public officer; if "no", he or she is not acting as a public officer." Remuneration is a significant factor, but not determinative (Belton [2010] EWCA Crim 2857). The following have been held to be public officers:

• holders of judicial and quasi-judicial office (judges, magistrates, registrars, coroners)

• police community support officers (Amar Iqbal [2008] EWCA Crim 2066) and other police civilian employees (L [2011] EWCA Crim 1259 ; Gallagher [2010] EWCA Crim 3201)

• immigration officers (John-Ayo [2008] EWCA Crim 1651)

• elected officials (MPs, councillors, ministers, mayors)

• civil servants (including local authority officers and DVLA employees)

• prison staff (including prison nurses and those employed by private companies operating prisons)

• army officers

• Bishops of the Church of England (Ball [2015] Unreported)

• volunteer members of the Independent Monitoring Board (Belton [2010] EWCA Crim 2857)

I'd just like to say a massive THANK YOU to the hundreds of people who have messaged me, emailed & text with such humbling words.....I must have had 15 or 20 messages from people telling me they haven't "Belly-Laughed" like that for years, or some people, ever in their lives! That's the best accolade ever and I'm so glad that happens....laughter is a great medicine, the best! You know every synopsis I write up for Christian on this utterly new info never before discussed, let alone written about – when I'm writing these they are considerably longer, and when I re-read it, I think to myself 'fukin hell I can't put that in.....that's even offended me....can't have that happen because I'm very sensitive' - so I take a cpl pages out of most synopsis for that reason – I've had way more people saying "please don't take the swearing out its way better with swearing in" than I have people complaining about foul language – hey were still in 3D so may as well enjoy it as we don't swear back home, I'm sure I will, but apparently it's not the done thing. Iv had some really nice emails from worried teachers, shitting themselves actually, but it was so good to get these emails because these people are worrying for nothing....the people who messaged me are teachers who were not involved in the bad decisions and who tried to speak out but were pissing-in-the-wind, as we all were. Please teachers.....most of you will be sweet and you have nothing to worry about, the heads of your schools are in shit though, big shit. the police, well that's an entirely different matter all-to-gether and 99.99999% of you are totally fucked regardless because you have been enforcing fraudulent laws for the last 4years....and prior to the last 4yrs but it's only the last 4 that matter for you and your crimes are even more closely monitored than the publics because of your positions, elevated substantially in your own pathetic minds, of course - hopefully you will all get executed and I'm hoping to be the chosen for the job of hanging them, or shooting? I'm not fussed I just want to be the one doing it - I've put my name forward 50 times already – I'm hoping to get the 'Clacton Police Station', contract 😊 ll do it for free obviously, and I'm fine if I have to relinquish my 9th density status and I'm happy to go to little earth, I just want to help execute as many police as I am allowed to and I thik its only fair as a special treat as iv been here since 1599, that's 424 years of very repetitive scenarios……. And yes, POLICE You are "all in this together" you Wankers. If you are worried about ascension, please don't be (unless you are in the police force [force being the operative word, wankers], then worry like fuck because you are all complete shit-cunts who are about to get manhandeled into fEMA camps for your unabashed blatant crimes)– if you are for instance, a teacher you know in your own mind what you think and feel, be true to yourself and think about it….the answer will come to you – are you a good person? Or a bad one? Only you know – if you feel you are a good person who is willing to help others, not greedy, selfish, jealous…..you'll be fine, and even if you're not coming back here it doesn't matter because little earth is a fukin paradise, so is Mars and Venus…..you got ZERO to worry about. Nurses/GP's/Doctors etc….after "died suddenly" appeared in the media, that was your 'cue' to exit health care….those who stayed and were part of the vaccination program….well……that's what the military police will be doing just before the EBS is called, arresting you lot and taking you to the nearest FEMA camp – you will think that you are to be executed, and you will be lead to believe that as you will be shown the Guillotines and there are a lot of them in the FEMA camps, these 'new' guillotines are made by a designer name, I forget who? Gucci made the Nazi uniforms in WW2 (or the nazi hat/cap im not sure which?) – so for a couple of weeks you will actually believe you will be executed, but you're not going to be – the EMF will come before your execution. Your punishment is that two weeks in a single cell in a FEMA camp expecting the death penalty.

You will go to Mars, Venus or 2nd earth to heal. Don't forget, the benevolent ETs know it's not 'Our' fault….they know more about us than we ourselves do - – they do not want to frighten you and they do not want to hurt you, they want you to wake up and get back to normal ASAP but more important than this, is making sure this is never ever repeated, and to do that means scarring the living shit out of you. Your 'punishment' is the same as for all of us, its not actually a 'punishment' it's the TRUTH of your existence…and how you receive this information after you get your memory's back, will furnish the stage for how YOU PUNISH YOURSELF. its just going to be really really nasty when everyone is forced 'know' this truth. But……it is what it is. Your actual punishment will come from yourselves, you will judge yourself as soon as you get your memory's back because don't forget, you 'were' a pure soul, you had never sworn or lied, you'd never stollen and you never cheated, you never had thoughts of anger, resentment, jealousy, hate, or emotions of sadness, desperation, guilt & you had never been cynical, either…..you'd never even bare-backed a hooker in the crap-hole before either – so all the things that you never did before…..you never did them for a very good reason…..and you're going to be HORRIFIED when you get your memory's back…(yes, me too….don't worry about that!! IM FUCKED when I get my memory's back, and even more FUCKED when I get in and I can't hide what I've been up-to from my twin flame because she's telepathic now…..jesus christ I'm so fucked…..the punishment will be You punishing yourself and that's what you need to realise, hard-as-that-may-be right now to understand this, YOU are two people right now…..no, you're not schizophrenic, but as mentioned previously your spiritual apparatus, or your Pineal Gland has been completely disconnected by the time your ball-bag looks like a little mouses-ear, so your soul is unable to say 'hello' and its stuck inside you, a helpless bystander while your drive your vessel thru life like a fukin maniac oblivious to EVERYTHING that is actually 'REAL', your pineal gland would be able to help you here, but it can't, by the necessity of design. Your personality in this lifetime is known as your 'Vessel', or 'Body' – some people talk about their historical ancestors with great pride and possible amazement depending if this person had a role or responsibility that brought recognition and gravitas, but they are not your ancestors, genetically they are, but in reality these ancestors are in the same boat as you…they died, went into the sun and got spat-back-out again into the next available human vessel being born…..its utterly random, all but for a few instances, like people such as Christian21 – because his message is CRUCIAL, so he was 'placed' in that vessel, he didn't go looking for a new-born to inhabit. So your vessel ancestors may have been 'Great'….but what happens if you take a soul out of a body….? The vessel dies, so the vessel isn't worth a 'Bolt' as C21 likes to say….the vessel is NOTHING, the soul is EVERYTHING….why do you think the ET's care so much? Because they know the truth….you don't, your oblivious and your heads filled with unnecessary crap and lies. So, in this life ONLY your vessel is unfortunately YOU, by way of a defunct pineal gland.

Healing will be a lot faster than we previously assumed because of the technology involved with EMF (Electro Magnetic Frequencies) the children who were saved in the DUMBS up to 2019 have now been 'fixed' and are living with new family's or back with their original family's - I think it's safe to assume that 'most' people will heal in 12-24 months. Pets will automatically realize when you are healed and back in the realm, they will make their way to you if you bond was strong enough and they loved you and you loved them, you will see them again and next time you will be able to talk to them telepathically. They will likely make their way to you before you decide to make your way to them - because of the Law of One, they will be aware of your arrival, and you will still be adjusting to the new surroundings. Pets don't need to heal, no animals need to heal, and no children need to heal (not the DUMB kids but school children) if they need healing, then it will not take them long.

What happened the moment your beloved dog passed, was they went into the sun just as all living things do, they were then reborn immediately as before, BUT this time they did not have a memory-wipe, so your dog will be another dog right now, he will be about 3 months old and could be in any breed of K9. Id ask Christian but I think he's in Realm-2 at the mo? I think its 'James Cobbles' Stag Night tomorrow, he's been engaged for 7,456 years and they thought they would tie the not at last seeing as Gateway-10 has now been liberated….well, I'm pretty sure that's where he is? I was wondering how big James Cobbles Urethra was? Its gota be big enough to drive a Lorry down it and have room either side for 2 cyclists? surely because James Cobbles is an Anakim Giant who stands 200 meters tall, so can you imagine if he got sexually-aroused? it would be a fucking disaster: "James bruv sort it out m8……go do sexual-healing somewhere else mush, if your turn around with a boner like a Redwood well have to rebuild the realm again and its only been here a week….just cos it's your honeymoon bruv, don't forget your meant to be protecting us hoomans, not putting us all in danger with your substantial Giant-hood".

Giants don't have reproductive organs…..thats mad as fuk they are created beings, and keep small numbers of about 300 people per species. It's important that people 'on-the-fence' at this time, see straight thru the lies of the media and top truthers & ignore the obvious unprofessionalism of Christian & myself …turn the Tell-A-Vision off…what we need to be doing at a time like this, or should I say ESPECIALLY at a time like this, now more than ever, is being: 1. true to yourself 2. as good as your word 3. Treat others how you wish to be treated 4. Put yourself in the other persons 'shoes' 5. Practice what you preach. 6. Understand and spend time thinking about your thoughts – what and how do you think what you think and why do you think this? Sit at a metaphorical table in your mind with yourself as ask You questions about yourself? Do whatever works for you, I'm just trying to give you an idea what id do, and im shit at it, so you will prob work-out something better in seconds. I normally find everything out the hard expensive way that involves pain and suffering as im in too much of a hurry to read any instructions or listen to any advice…..im a bit 'Montessori' in that regard. My forte is I can think situations to completion really quickly, I don't mince about taking ages with options, and I think this is just because I 'think' I study what Im thinking about, I zoom into my thoughts and dissect them, all my life and I assumed everyone else did as well until a year or 2 ago. But No, they don't – they rely on other people to do their thinking for them as they are too busy worrying about paying fraudulent bills, to have any interests other than 'Bread-&- Circus' or to find amazement in unsolved mysteries, or to contemplate beyond the barriers of modernity. A long time ago when I was in my early teens, I saw a program on TV where a mathematician had spent 15 years solving a problem. This problem had became the guys life's work, and he thought he had solved it – he gave a seminar about his work and invited his peers. The chalkboard was full of algebra and complex mathematics, and one of the audience, himself a mathematician walked up to the chalkboard and pointed out that there was an error in the equations. The host mathematician listened to his younger peer, horrified at 1st because he could see that there may be an issue with the elegance of the equation itself, but after a few minutes when the peer sat back down, the room was silent, and the host walked to the peer, now sitting back in the auditorium seats, hugged him warmly and shook this man's hand congratulating him, he said "I have spent my working life on this problem, it has both plagued me and sustained me, and you, Sir, have set me free from this prison, I was wrong, and I can't thank you enough for highlighting this for me. I should have seen this myself, I am eternally grateful to you". (Don't quote me on this but the man may have been 'Bertrand Russel' and his "Ramified Theory of Types", but I may have spliced that memory In there of somewhere else?) The point being, that this is how one should conduct one's self when in a possibly humiliating situation. This mathematician is a bit-of-me, I didn't have a hero growing up, instead I used anecdotal excerpts like this instance to apply to my developing personality, and I did this consciously from a very young age. "Die well" springs to mind. My mum & dad were amazing, and let my mind do what it needed, when it needed to do it. The 'Hat' you wear day-to-day changes with whom you are with throughout the day - you can be the 'haphazard-son in the morning on the phone to your elderly mother, but by the time you leave for work to grab a Starbucks on the way, you are the busy businessman with a lot of important issues to address, all terribly terribly important - smartly dressed in an expensive suite, complete with latest MacBook Air and earpods, to a stranger in the que at the coffee shop, by the way you are dressed and carry yourself in that suite, resplendent with trimmings, aftershave & new tech…..they want to be you, they imagine briefly what your life must be like a jet-setting high flyer with several mistresses and a big house and nice car– but what they do not realise is that you are skint, your on the bare-bones of your crap-hole and about to loose everything, including your wife & kids – your whole life is on finance & you are strapped-up-to-theeyeballs, just so that you can exude an impression of success before actually succeeding in anything, because it makes you feel better & the Mrs 'needed' it all so she can feel the same when shes out with the girls, shes depending on you to provide. All you are doing is emulating the people who have been chewing on your children's sautéed faces. All the Elite twats who mince up-&-down catwalks wearing Bin-liners that sell for $5million and regale themselves on red carpets and Golden Globes & BAFTAS etc etc etc, these people are the focus of your emulation, you don't even realise whats going on, its social engineering par-excellence. Get all you lot down there in realm-3, to desire that which they have ordained you to desire…they are working towards a carefully thought-out plan…they want you thinking the things that you are thinking…..they gave you these thoughts, but you cant see it, you think you are choosing an option by your own free-will, but you are not. You can choose what you want, but your wants are chosen for you and the goals of your emulation are the synthesis of success and the veneer of stability, fortune & desirability. Look about you and test this with your own awareness….. you are being sold 'wants' that you don't even need, being hood-winked by very subtly programming. Everything you chose is poisons, pointless and unnecessary…..think about it…the Rangerover on the drive might be brand new and a deluxe model….but it runs on petrol….its already obsolete before the motor industry even started it was & before you even bought it because we have had free energy since 1747 when

Benjamin franklin invented the 'ElectroStatic Motor' – we had free energy before the occupation started 6,013 years ago, and we had it since during the 5th -to-6 th reset (starting approx. 890 AD – 1890 AD) where 'Great Tartary' was founded. Tartaria was a global civilisation – 'East Tartary' was China, and 'West Tartary' was everywhere else. The Tartarian Capitol was Russia. Tartaria had electric cars, at least in the last qtr, it had levitation devices also & free energy and all sorts of tech that we are oblivious to. "From Darkness-to-light". Can't afford the most expensive item? No dramas, you can get it on finance and if you can't afford that option, then there are cheaper options available with a less prestigious manufacturers – your clothes, holidays, gifts, jewellery, technology, devices, haircuts, food, fuel, cosmetics, travel, socks, pants, & wrapping paper……its all-encompassing and we called this 'Life'. I even spoke to a guy today who had lenses fitted in his retinas because he had cataracts, these lenses came in 2 options…the cheap pair, or the expensive pair that let you see even better. Your colleagues and peers, family and friends all contribute to the delusion by thinking that they too are making 'choices' and the validation & endorsement process that the group feel when making these selections weather together or separately i.e. where to go, what to do, what to watch, what to listen to, what to buy, what to need, what to hate and what to think….. plus everything else along the way, is what glues it all together – acceptance and validation, confirmation & justification all done without any thought whatsoever…..going with what your best m8 thinks, is not called 'Thinking', its called "Not Thinking" – and you did it because you lack the confidence to make your own decisions, reverting to the 'Herd-Mentality' or consensus reality, in the decision making process. Stop and think! Annalyse your thought processes……study what you think and ask yourself questions aloud "why do I want this?". Why do you 'want' a private number plate that only you can work out what it is supposed to represent in words? Does it make you feel special?……..why do you 'want' fake tits? Did you have a mastectomy? I might get my bollocks enlarged….walk about like 'Buster-Gonad' from 'Viz' comic, mincing about with my nut-sack in a wheel-barrow, proud-as-fuck about their humongous size. We gave 'They', The Government, the Benefit of the doubt.... the benefit of the doubt.... And the benefit of the doubt..... until there was no doubt that there was no benefit – and this started happening en mas in 2019.....'20/20' vision, means 'seeing clearly' and whoever said ET's don't have a sense of humour??? Looking Glass was used to set all this up with.....placing little 'oddities' here and there for the future-people to find to help create the tapestry that is The Great Awakening, itself, like the parasites did with Gobleki Tepi, for instance, covering it in sand about 4,000 years ago ready to be 'discovered' by an intrepid explorer, who probably already knew it was there because he was working for the Smithsonian – Gobleki Tepi was found by a Farmer (in 1967?), a small bit of stone poking up thru the dirt, that morphed into a massive pristine complex....complex bullshit, is what Gobleki Tepi was/is. It was built a long time ago and never used....Gobleki Tepi is a 'theatre' prop, basically, like so many others, it was never used as anything, just built and buried for the future....."Oh...its an observatory....?....a religious site? Who knows?" we all do now! It's a fake put there to confuse and confound you . When Christian went to Canada, for a laugh, and I sat in the van in a carpark for 5 hours again for the 2nd day in a row, and he didnt even get on the plane cos he was still in the immigration Cells in Vancouver whilst I was at Heathrow Airport worried-sick, I had some quality time with Eldo, just the two of us relaxing together between my ears.... I said to him: "Eldo bruv...your taking the piss init mush? what the fuck is going on m8?.... How could you not see this coming and why didn't you tell Christian? Doesn't Looking Glass work anymore? What the fuck bruv?? Did you get a copy of Looking Glass off 'Wish' and a fukin Bathroom Mirror arrived the next day? You need to have a word with yourself m8 you're fucking it all up now mush, well fall out soon over this million % bruv you need to pay more attention to what Christians doing Eldo your eye is not on the ball anymore bruv, you keeping fucking-off with mother every 5 minutes, where do you go? Really tell me where you fuk-off to?....you been on that arcturian-meth-pipe or something? Or is mother dying her hair white again and needs you as there's so much of it? I feel you should 'help' more bruv, as when im more than 10 meters away from Christian it ALL GOES TITS-UP. Theres a pattern to it and im holding you responsible until proven otherwise, so you owe me £100 for fuel and £15 quid for CostaCoffe's and I'm issuing a 'Cease & Desist', you will end-up in 'Chancery Court' bruv for Gross misconduct / Misfeasance in a UFO, and £300,000.00 Sterling for smoking Meth during The Great Awakening process. I think it was Cynthia I spoke to or someone else around that time, I forget? I was well pissed-off with worry and uncertainty by this point – she changed the subject a little, from Christian, to Eldo, she said about Eldo being worried that il be shocked when I see him for the 1st time.....i said "Shocked? REALLY??? Il chase the skinny-blue-prick down the fukin road and wring his fukin neck the little cunt wats he fukin playing at?". So I apologised profusely to Eldo, who wasn't even anything to do with it....it was all in Cristians head! It's a good job they know all about us and our situation down here....im not a 9th density being here with you guys.....i fluctuate between 1.9D & 2.8D, I may spend a week or two in 5th,emotionally speaking, but we had to be you and come from you and so did all the other 1.95 Billion Avatars.....This experience here is awful, you wouldn't want to ever come back here, same as you wouldn't revisit the restaurant that gave you Typhoid, even if it was nice in there. But what you will take away from this is priceless....literally....well, everything in 5 Th Density upwards is priceless as they don't have money, but, as a personal example of this, I just found out that not only did I want to come here to help Christian, as that's what 'we' do, he comes up with really stupid ideas and I back them with my life and we make it work, I might die here and there sometimes, but its all good.....think about this: if you are billions of years old and clever-as-fuck, you never even had an accident before because accidents don't happen, you never died before as death is fake, ...you have been with your twin flame for several billion years living in utter bliss and in a realm that makes 'Utopia' look like a bedsit on south London – so apparently, I decided that id like to experience 'hardship', which is the 2nd reason I came here .....can you imagine actually wanting to experience hardship as you never knew what it even felt like before? Never had a bad thought, never got depressed before, never knew what a lie was, never had cystitis, never died in a car crash, never smoked crack or drank alcohol.....never went on-the-run and got up-to-no-good....fuck it must be well boring in 5th Density.....i might stay here and tidy up for a few thousand years after you lot fuk-off home. Unfortunately for everyone else I meet, I don't have any mental health issues, iv not seen a GP for about 35 years other than for necessary documents – I'm not on meds or mood stabilizers, anti-depressants or anything else, you'd think this was a good thing, but to fit-in these days, if you're not on antidepressants or some other mood stabilizing medication, then there must be something wrong you because everyone else is. I talk to people, and when I hear their thoughts I'm stunned – I just met another person who didn't realise that the Joe Biden on TV isn't the original joe Biden.....fukin seriously??? Nice bloke, but because the mainstream media say that this person is 'Joe Biden' old-matey here with me right now goes along with it as its "obviously true, or the media wouldn't have said that?....." This is what happens when you let others do the thinking for you. It ends in tears. I didn't realise that he was vaccinated with all 2 million jabs, as he walks along the road peoples car keys and paperclips are attracted to him as he passes them, by the times he's got to Tesco's to buy some cheap sliced ham meat that likely came from the fat off of some old lady's thigh, he looks like a fukin desk-tidier. The human Ham Lady....after her kidneys and spleen were sold on the black-market, she went into the Luciferian-food-chain, brought to you by way of EVERY SINGLE MULTINATIONAL company in the world – and you ate the rest of her in McDonalds or Burger King. Does wearing a work uniform, like a policeman, a nurse, or a City finance expert In his Versace suite, does this attire reflect these peoples intention, desires goals & aspirations? Does it reflect their moral stability and their value as a member of the community?

Does-it-fuck, basically. The problem is that we are way too fast to accept someone's credibility based on how they speak and how the dress…….someone's 'twoBobs' worth of information that is actually erroneously incorrect and lamentably wrong / foolish / stupid / insane / lies or just plain daft, can be accepted gleefully as fact by the recipient, if the person saying it is dressed appropriately for the field of the information's content. The 'Grab-Bag' society's limitations are incrementally adjusted as acceptance is garnered. Gradually over decades, their goal was always reached. They had 'Looking Glass' of course their goal was always reached……like playing a computer game that you set the computer so you always win no matter what happens. But to beat the parasites post-exit booby-traps, the 'perceived intellect' aspect to the 3- strings you must cut, to ascend back here, is a real difficult cord to sever. The Perceived intellect is the toughest string to cut because its this perception of 'knowledge' that defines You and Your place in Your World, it is often this knowledge that creates your self-awareness acts as an anchor for your personality…..to find out that every single bit of information that passed your 6 senses since the day you were born, is untrue and erroneous information put there to deceive you, only….well, thats all coming-in-at-once during the EBS in a cpl weeks……those realisations, or 'Revelations' are going to be crippling for the majority of the denizens of the Known Lands. It was always going to be like that, the benevolents knew this from day-1 as they obviously fully understand every aspect to this as they have been fighting this war, also for 6,013 years. We are here to try cushion the blow, to wake up those who are interested in waking-up, and to see if we can ignite any passion in what may be behind the ice wall, in those who have smelt-a-rat& done the math and realised that yes, the earths flat – that's the starting point to truly waking up…..when you 'know' the shape of the earth….your on to a winner with the rest of the info, itl be less hard to work out if you can 'rip' your psyche away from the globe model, you will be in a good position to understand the rest, if you put the effort in – if not, don't worry as you will heal after the EMF.

Wow something really unusual for me happened the other day…..i opened an email from a woman in America, and I started crying straight away…..she fukt me right up, im welling-up now just thinking about it – I duno why? It was a nice email not woeful or nuffin, it just done-me-like-a-kipper for some reason….i replied that she needs to send me a picture immediately as this isn't normal I don't do crying that much, not because I don't want to cry, but I just don't, so this was really unusual for me. Im not looking for my twin flame, im not here for that and if she had any sense shed have stayed at home because you gota be brave as fuck or really fucking gullible to come here and try helping people who don't want help. Its like visiting a suicide planet, all you need to do is go about handing out razor-blades and rope. Interesting that the 200,000+ ascending (from Christians information, the other 400,000+ were already ascending anyway regardless, and are hills-people from Tibet, China and India, mostly – Christian has saved 200,000 souls during the Great Awakening, that's more than he saved when he was Moses, when Eldo parted the Red Sea that time to get away from the Anunnaki-inbred-overlord 'Rameses'. Kristen was telling the slaves……"Bloody hell you gota listen you peanut mugs…..I know you cant see them and they are in my head, but they are real and they never lie, Eldos in the Millenium Falcon right now and he's got clever-shit that makes water fold-in on itself, he's guna part the red sea with it, you peanuts……just follow my path and itl be sweet, trust me, see you all down at the beach at 5am". I had a recuring nightmare when I was young, it still daunts me now when I think about it…..the dream always short as it only had one scene, that of me standing at the foot of a wall of water hundreds of meters high, it scared the living shit out of me and id wakeup immediately sweating my tits-off terrified and feeling like 'impending-doom' was living in my chest…I assumed it was a wave, like a fuk-off wave but in my dream, it wasn't moving …… You must understand that you can not apply 3rd density schematics to a situation thought-out In a 5th Density simulation by 9th+ Density beings…….it is going to be way way way beyond your comprehension and the extrapolation of the relevant data that you need to use in 'gluing' this all together, you will need to think outside of your paradigm and start finding a way to 'meld' 3D-to-5D with your consciousness, 'IF' you desire to understand the more minute interactions of the simulation and how they coalesce to form points on the chronological timeline as you yourself experience it, not the fake historical version but your newly-found reality of incandescent truth. Christians info, that's now written into these Brief Synopsis series, if there wasn't to be a 7th reset, just assume for a second that in 500 years time, this information, being the only true version of REALITY ever discussed openly and publicly within this circle environments boundaries, in 6,013 years The 'Krystos' knowledge that you all heard about and the 'Christ-Consciousness' that's dear to many hearts the world-over……so what is the Krystos Knowledge? Sounds a bit Ashyana-Dean Metatronic mumbo-jumbo, but as is unfortunately the same with everything we thought we knew……its actually a lot simpler than we thought. Il break it down: 1. 'Kristen' means 'Krystaline' / 'Crystal' in English 2. Crystals hold and store information and energy 3. Crystaline technology is the 'copper-wire' of a 5Th density+ techno-culture 4. Christians Name outside of realm-3 is 'Kristen' 5. The 'Krystos' knowledge or 'Christ-Consciousness' is merely the pure & energetic knowledge of Truth coming from a person half Lyrian/Pleaidean whose name means 'Krystaline' back 'home' – arguably, Christians name 'Christian' stems from 'Christ' and 'Christian' personifies the Crystos/Krystos Knowledge, being the Truth of our existence, regaled against a backdrop of a 360 degree icewall with 177 0ther worlds and 1,013 other species, all highly advanced living just a stones throw away in real-2 and beyond . 6. Christian21 is the messenger of this truth as he is each time he comes here, he is one of the most ancient souls in the universe and possibly the most ancient, and so that task rests with him, its no big deal and nothing to get upset about cos is aint you – hes had a hard life on purpose for this message. Take it as you wish. So In 500 years time, if this was just guna play out for another 2,000 yrs, the embroidered nostalgia of 2023, in 500 years time will paint a different portrait of our era now past – Christ Consciousness is the Krystos Knowledge that we now know is Christian21, from Bucklands Council Estate in Portsmouth, UK…….. im living in the back of a battered old blue Ford Transit with a hole in the roof, writing up the latest chapter in the 'New Bible' for the ascension of humanity…….its not very glamorous at all, I'm freezing my fukin tits off in here, but in the hypothetical future of a victorious cabal and if there wasn't going to be a re-set for another 2kyrs….our story would be corrupted again, taken out of context and butchered to make more religions out of - Eldo would become a 'Saint Eldo and Celecia would be the new matriarchal figure 'Celecia Magdalane', Christian would have been born in a 'Manger' and my blue transit would become a winged beast…what happens after a re-set? We start again….oblivious to the supreme technology that the inhabitants of this realm were using as little time ago as 24 months ….because 6,013 years have elapsed here, that time is elastic in 5Dup the same with 3 ball-point-pen 'dots' on a wide rubber-band spaced an inch apart, as you pull the band apart, the points left and right of the centre dot, move apart faster than they do each other from the centre dot, and when you relax, it goes back to equilibrium – when you get in in 2 months' time, it will feel similar, like you were stretched to your limit and then snapped-back-together with a plethora of lives and memory's acting as the rubber of you imaginary band - each molecule of rubber is an individual memory. This is who you truly are, a multitude of experience, knowledge wisdom and abilities, yet you can only access the data gathered in this loop, and nothing from the past….that's one of the reasons you have only got access to a 2.2% brain capacity, because to store more previous life-memory's, is not possible with only 2.2%, that saves them having to worry that you might remember something after the Amnesia Vortex spits you out – they can eradicate the rest in nursery school with the help of teachers 'just doing their job' and parents who trust the system without a 2 nd thought & go get the kids vaccinated ASAP which guarantees a calcified & defunct pineal gland. Job Done already and the child isn'even 2yrs old yet and any that slip thru the net, well the chemtrails & tap water will fix that. Realm location 'ARB201' which is your realm here on E.A.R.T.H anagram of its real name H.E.A.R.T being the Heart and Centre of Gateway-10 and literally the most special place in the entire known universe….and its well-known…..you just can't remember because them fucking parasites…..the cunts, they really fucked shit up for us all, but it's all over now and the only danger to humanity itself, is the stupidity and ignorance of the humans living here, that's all. The people who refused to consider the insane possibilities, are unable to see that "conspiracy-theory" is a cover term used very effectively to deter any research on the subject for fear of ridicule, and it worked so so well for them – the term coined, I think by Senator John Dulles after the JFK "Assassination", he said "Lets not pay any attention to any crazey conspiracy theory's" Referring to the popular belief that it was in fact the C.I.A who "assassinated" JFK. Obviously it was meant to look like that for "The Plan". But the Kenedy assassination was a Pleiadean / Andromedan venture, all the shooting was done inside the vehicle itself, Jackie Kennedy was part of it and it was she and Frank Sinatra that sold JFK out. Scumbags. The 3 strings you must cut: 1. Religion 2. Perceived intellect 3. Finance Theres only 3 cords to cut, each thread, as previously mentioned is thinner than a single intention, but you're going to need to do it with a razor-sharp blade of tempered thought and think it in acceptance & understanding, empathising & sympathising as you sever the connection permanently…..now that's a serious problem for people were brought up in single-parent families & broken homes with no 'real' father figure, & a mum who is seeking random approval from multiple men, who are as immature and psychologically damaged as the one she just 'sacked' last week - most men in the modern era are woefully immature having come from broken homes themselves, their role models in the 1990's were gangster film legends who they aspired to emulate & gangster rap legends – ALL 'legends' are Luciferian child-killers who, not-coincidentally were all 33rd degree masonic role models for the aspiring-new-generation of potential soul-sellers. The broken homes 'thing' was orchestrated also back in the 1950's with the 'suffragettes' and women's movements – please don't misunderstand, im a feminist myself, I'm just explaining the social engineering aspect to the Luciferian agender. The demons were running this 'show' from a separate curtain behind the curtain that the parasites were hiding behind, the demons are ridiculously clever and plan well into the future, complex social nuances to fuck-us-all-up with. They needed broken homes and drug addicts and more prisons and more children taken by Social Services and Cafcass, so back at the end of the war they planted seeds in the fields of society, seeds that would grow to make women more empowered and valued members of the community contributing to the income of the household and coming into their own right....sounds so fair, but the goal was two-plus-fold – they wanted the kids in school being indoctrinated, and they wanted to be able to tax the other 50% of the population, being the women who were stay-at-home mums cooking wholesome food for the family and creating a happy and homey nest.....that's no good for the parasites, for many reasons – so they invented 'Women's Lib' and that split the family nucleus up, contraception made things worse and no longer were people 'betrothed' to one another for the duration of this mortal-coil, there were now 'Ex's' all over the place and women with 5 kids and 5 separate dads....this was unheard of 3 generations previously and it was well thought-out. So kids born after 1985 are in a lot of trouble and I personally can't blame this demographic for identifying as cats or any other farm animal because they are totally fucked by the system – the vaccines they received, even if that didn't give them noticeable brain-damage after the massive increase in the childhood immunization program rollout post '89 with the elevated levels of Thimerosal and polysorbate 60 & 80, Sodium Acetate Anhydrous, which is itself made with Aluminium Oxide, the silent and hidden effect of this demonic 'Pharmakea' when injected into an adolescents blood stream, is catastrophic, but only ASD is recognised and NEVER ALLOWED to be associated with the immunization program, that's easy to achieve because of the lascivious nature of the employed needing to stay 'employed' they are all more than happy to turn a blind-eye to this, being the 'GateKeepers' of your child's safety when they are at school, you trust them…..but they will pass-the-buck immediately if you're kid starts hitting its own face and stops eating a week after 'immunization' they will have suspected that vaccines are responsible, but the piedpipers music is still playing on the gramophone and therefore everyone can relax, no one noticed that you suspected these immunisations were the cause, so your paycheck still flows. That's all that 'MOST' people care about, themselves. Its well fucking shocking. These poor kids from broken homes, and that's EVERYONE but myself in my secondary school, and don't forget I left in 1989…I'm 50 now….this was years ago it was already fucked back then, now the back-draft has engulfed the entire realm and broken homes are standard, drugs are standard, sex-in-you-face is standard, for all children being sexualised at primary schools now and advised to choose a gender and shit in a litter tray if you want? Theres plenty of sand in the high-jump pit so you can go curl-one-out in there is you fancy it children? Don't worry, mummy and daddy have no say in this as its Your Choice…… You can see why the benevolants had to step-in and take the realm back….there was no other option but destroy everything, suck-up the souls and start again…..or….wait another 3,700 years and take the realm back like a fukin 'G', Kill Trump the nonce, and tell no one, stick the most powerful Lyrian General ever to have lived, in Trumps noncebody and take out the nonces all in one go……after they took 'looking-Glass' the rest was easy – you can't get a black-market copy of 'looking-Glass' its realm-specific and you get one interface unit per realm – after taking LG back, the war was won, it was just a matter of time to wake the people up…..the people from broken homes, drug filled lives, down trodden and emasculated men trying to fill-the-void with more drugs and more perversions as their idols do in these films they watched and the music their peers decided everyone is to like, the 'cool' kid being the easiest to dupe having 'cash' as his absent dad makes up for the loss with ostentatious financial gestures, thinking he's helping….. the rest of the kids follow suite quickly and algorithmically as designed, the ones who cant afford the new Armani shirt go and steal stuff or sell drugs to obtain their desires and a life of crime ensues, this is great for 'business' as these poor cunts in jail….their Cester Que Vie Bond is worth as much as a law-abiding business owner who has perfect school grades……how can that possibly be? It can't be…..but it is I have seen it with my own eyes, because a career criminal spending years in jail, is great for those thieves robbing your Cester Que Vie Bond, those thieves are known as "The Government" and the more time you spend in jail is what keeps that 'industry' going. Let me example this: A good friend of mine 'James' is a businessman, a well-educated professional (well awake and unvaccinated) James is a humanitarian, a real one – his time is spent giving talks to large industry captains and 'Bosses', he rubs shoulders with household names on a daily basis and his phone book is a 'whose-who' of humanitarian legends…..his Cester Que Vie Bond is worth $3.5 Billion. And he has sustainable living projects on all over the world - At the same time my other pal 'David' is a career criminal hardly working a day in his 54 years of age, has spent most of his life in jail…..yet Davids Cester Que Vie Bond is worth $3.8 Billion. (mine is $550 million……I should have spent more time in jail by the look of it) That's a paradox if nothing else……doesn't make any sense? until you realise that it costs over £150K per year to keep an inmate locked-up. The inmates food for the day in prison is just £1.65p in 2022 in the UK…..that's for 3 meals per inmate (the word 'meal' used here in this context is a complete misnomer), the most expensive item the prison buy for feeding inmates, is a small carton of milk for the breakfast, costing 50p & The 'Screws' or prison guards are all on min-wage. And the Crown owns the Land that the jail is built on, so there's no rent….PRISON is a multibillion £$ industry make no mistake that's why they have all these stupid "laws" that are designed to filter as many people into jail as possible, you are a product not a person, in their eyes – you are an income, a food source and a drug, that's all you are – but the only way they can 'Legally' take physical money from your Cestui Que Vie bond, its to create 'joinder' with you by duping you into associating yourself with a LEGAL FICTION. The deceased can only communicate with each other, not a living entity – interesting the word 'Human' means "Sea Monster, unable to own physical property &....(I forget the rest!?? lol, and I don't research, so fuk-it the rest is obvious if you're a sea monster then the rest doesn't really matter anyway) 'Cestui Que Vie', 'pronounced 'Sester K V' or, "for the good of the people" after the 1666 great fire of London, that was a deliberate act of arson and wasn't started in a bakery for fuk sake, they can't tell you the truth, if they do, they are finished, so you get a story, a his-story of made-up events to explain unusual artifacts, processes, architecture, paintings, war machines, technology, sculptures, scriptures, literature and everything else. The government can't just go enter your bond and help themselves, no no, they have to engineer a way to get you to allow this fraud, and that is done via your signature, or signof-nature. When you sign a confession, mortgage contract, wedding ring finance, mobile phone contract, bank loan ANY FINANCE CONTRACT, that's all that's needed to release the funds from your cester que vie account held in the U.S. The moment you sign your name on that bit of paper, your bond releases that same amount……that's why 'Davids' bond is worth more than 'James' bond because when David goes to jail again, everyone gets a pay-out, the prison Governor will get a fat 'drink' per inmate and the legal system is awash with fresh 'Gravey' all over again….James cant offer that level of 'Gravey' with his hamartian work and sustainable projects there's no way to 'musclein' on what James is doing as he's doing it for the love and he makes no great profit, if any, so when placing bets/investing in your Cester Que Vie, the interested parties will be backing David the career criminal as it's a safe-bet for a payout. James will payout but in years time, not immediately as required, hence James's bond is less valuable. Lets not forget that Christian Sibley is the most caring soul on the planet…..i don't 'think' this, I don't 'believe' it…..i have witnessed it personally 1st hand a whole lot of times……too many to count – Christian was saying 1,700 years ago about the sky event at a meeting in realm 2 "Naaaa….don't be silly, you can't scare them like that, not after what they have been thru don't be ridiculous….your taking the fukin piss Eldo what you on about bruv???" And Eldo explained it to Christian the way Christian explained it to you guys……. Me…..I wanted to have holograms of real 'Custodians' and A 'Joy-Stick' so that I can chase humans across fields for a laugh, because I would have known back then that I will do my best for people and the people who will not listen, LIKE EVERYONE who works for the police or NHS …..Fuck Them…..that's what I would have said 1,700 years ago at that meeting in realm 2. Id be like "NO…Kristen sort yourself out bruv, fuck these cunts lets terrify the living fukin day-lights out of them as they defo deserve it, they aint guna die are they, so give me the Joy-stick and let me have some 'Joy'. And that's why I am not allowed a Spirit-Guide / ET Guide and its why my pineal gland looks like a burnt Sesame Seed…..and who I thought was my 'Guide' was an entity called 'YUSHI' I thought it was an elderly Iranian bloke with a nice smile & a powder blue 'Turban' & gown, but I made that up in my head – his name, however, I did not make up in my head – his name came to my vision as I was driving in Spain on a mountain road in 2017, after many many attempts to find out why when I ask a question in my mind, why does the answer come in eloquent words that I do not personally use?…..21 years I had been asking that question by the time 2017 came and I was driving that red Renault Clio on a partially tarmacked road in 'Albondon' Las Alpujarra, 'YUSHI' flashed into my vision in the sky, like a 'Batman' 'Kapow' sign/emoji totally unambiguously……I thanked Yushi for telling me his name, at last. Then I find out a few weeks ago after talking to Christian about 'Yushi', he said "Yushi means 'Energy' Leon, you asked who was contacting you, and they replied….'Energy'. Well that pissed me right-off, I didn't say to Christian at the time, but 'Energy', fuckoff…..what I don't even get my own guide??? I have whoever's passing at the time??? WHAT??? So iv been getting on Easy-Jet & Ryan Air flights, bait-as-fuck with 2 kilos of gear on in my fukin hand luggage for

3 years monthly/bi-monthly flights to the UK…….on the say-so of some invisible people who are not even my full-timecarers?……well, some things we are best off not knowing – bloody Christian gets a team of ET guides 24/7 online support, full 5-Star concierge treatment, Break-Down cover, a fukin dental plan and a pineal gland like a fukin Aubergine……and me……..i get left the fuk alone……tumbleweed blowing about every time I reach out for a guides help…….all I can hear that isn't physically there, is my own fukin tinnitus. So, I guess that's why I'm help-less down here, can't be trusted with a personal guide, id milk-him rotten, and they well know that - id have emptied all his knowledge and built a fukin Stargate out of 700 washing machines, a pallet-full of toasters controlled by a Comodor-64 and three ZX-81's…..id be like 'naaaa bruv you help them, you're the one who gives a fuck, not me, I'm going the fuk home bruv laters, look they didn't listen when you were Moses, I wrote then 10 fukin commandments just like you said, in fukin stone & it took me weeks with that copper nail…Aaaaand if you remember, they didn't listen when you were Noah and they didn't believe it was guna rain, you had me writing signs in Hebrew about severe flooding, for two years before it even started……they didn't listen to that either, we even had trollers then as well writing "lies" in Babylonian on all my signs you had me putting out from Macedonia to the pillars of Hercules…….time to throw the towel-in bruv cumon were off, I'm calling it, just tell mother to fukin nuke it and start again mush, common bruv were going million %, engines running & your wasting petrol' I said the other day that I would follow Christian off a Cliff, million % I would jump straight off a cliff if he jumped 1st…..id honestly trust that mans opinion over 10 billion others who would be going the other way…..why would I do that? Am I fukin stupid? Arguably not, so why? Because I know for a FACT that if Christian jumped off a cliff, less than 1 meter below, would be a cloaked-UFO to land on with an old mattress on the roof-rack & I know that for a fact. So that's why I would follow him off a cliff……because I aint stupid. Do not let the whimsical desires of others dictate what you do or don not believe in, assay this information for yourselves with your own moral compass and your own souls 'pull'. My best advice is start by turning the TV off, don't listen to the Radio either, the idea is you don't want to be seeing or hearing the news – it will derail you, just wait for the EBS. Trying to help always gets me in trouble, always has done. Tyring to help people beat cancer is the most laughable thing to be in trouble for….some poor sod in America got 6 months in jail for advising people to use Apricot Kernels to cure cancer – its highly effective as the Kernels produce cyanide in the presence of cancer cells, but the FDA didn't like that as it would affect big Pharma's sales of Chemo and meds, so he was jailed for it and ridiculed, even though he was spot-on with his idea and we use apricot kernels to this day to treat cancer very effectively with no side effects as the cyanide will only be manufactured at the site of the cancers development, not anywhere else in the body, so they are non-toxic despite what your GP has to say on the subject. (if you have cancer take 20 kernels in the morning and 20 in the evening) I used to invent stuff all the time, my hobby when I was 7-15 was inventing stuff, Allan Sugar wasn't hated by me at that age and I knew he had Amstrad, so I invented a machine that you can speak into, and it will translate the text into any language and print it out the top of the desk-top unit……that was in 1987 way before its time. I didn't obviously invent the computer code for this gadget, I thought Amstrad may do that themselves, it was the concept that I invented and the physical design of the unit. Many many things I came up with, I used to go thru toy catalogues for inspiration and I invented several Toys and amusements for kids that I still have never seen available for sale to this day, because they are still ahead of their time. I sent some ideas off to manufacturers and I got some reply's, one in particular from 'Mothercare' I sent off a design for a child's feeding bowl that was rejected due to having too small a 'head' on the item…..it was a Disney characters head, 'Goofy' to be precise, Mothercare assumed the head of 'Goofey' was a lot smaller than I portrayed in my drawing and were concerned the child could swallow it, but they didn't read it properly and therefore did not understand, but they did give me a £5 gift voucher for my efforts, I was only 11 or 12 when I was doing this and it was all my own work, my own writing and my own ideas, helped with posting and addresses by my amazing mum & dad. I was a fountain of invention In the late '70's-80's, I invented a perpetual motion machine in 1985, you will have seen these things on youtbe in the last 10 years or so, a spinning magnetic drive, really simple design with 16 magnets in repulse. I invented it whilst watching "Number 73" a kids Saturday show, with an inventor character on there called 'Will Flung' who was showing the kids what perpetual motion was and how it was tried in Victorian times, with a wooden wheel and segmented compartments where a wooden ball would fall by gravity/buoyancy. It obviously didn't work, but I said to my dad, as I had not long come into possession of a set of magnets in a kids science kit with iron filings etc, I said to my dad "I can make a perpetual motion machine easy with more of these magnets" he agreed, but said "yeah that's so simple tho that someone else must have thought about it son" – I agreed, it was so simple it too me a few seconds to design it, I still have the original drawing I made when I was 11, its in Spain at the mo with all my possessions. I never had the idea to generate energy with this device, it was merely thought up on the spot to perpetually spin without energy used to power it – no doubt I would have come to that later on, or maybe not. Doesn't matter as I didn't pursue it – I kicked myself in 2004 when I read in the centre page of the Daily Mail that someone ad indeed manufactured this device, a MASSIVE version of 'my' device as far as I knew then, but he was killed shortly after in strange circumstances – there was a centre spread on this device in Britans most circulated paper the Daily Mail……im so glad I didn't pursue that, or id be dead as well, for trying to help. I used to think really different stuff to other kids I knew, and I had one goal……from the age of 7. I wanted to live in a submerged Army tank that was buried up to the neck of the turret, so that I could use the turret on its 360 rotation, to view my surroundings, whilst living in the bit below ground. That progressed to an underground home, and all sorts of spin-off's for a dwelling/s. No one lived underground in the 1970's trust me. No one wanted to either, its not like now, you couldn't do that sort of thing on a low budget back then as the materials were not available to make that a cost-effective reality to produce, not with the trimmings of a modern lifestyle and ease of living, anyway. I now know I was accessing the collective super consciousness that Carl jung theorised & that I'd read about in the late 80's, and I realised this quite young also – I worked that out in the early 90's as I had so many ideas come to me, and some of these ideas were also clearly coming to others, as I saw just about 10 years later a company had released 'my' (lol) idea for the translator and some other devices that I had also invented, yet not pursued because of my young age. Since then I have lived off-grid in all sorts of situations, and self-sustainability was a way of life for me for years in Spain, its easy and very enjoyable – your cold?....go cut wood, your thirsty?...go to the spring.....Solar System packed up? Speak to Elon and ask him to re-gas the sun. Food grows on trees and in the ground, its free. Truth grows in your mind, is also free, but some people don't like free stuff, they would rather pay for lies that bolster their current opinion, rather than listen to a free truth that conflicts with their paradigms boundaries, forcing them to stand in the unsavoury light that reflects back an animated image of a wasted life, learning lies to 'get-ahead'. The stress and pressure of existing here on earth, with the debts, finance, Tax, rules and regulations, makes it very very hard to be able to contemplate life's deep mysteries, throw a child into the equation, or two, and you have the perfect amount of stress and "3rd Density" hurdles to overcome to prevent you having more than 15 minutes 'spare' time to contemplate this outrageous new information. – there is reluctance and an aversion to survey or view this information with open eyes and a keen interest, because it IS going to go against everything you know to be "true", but as we have discovered, nothing was true. If you are ill with 'something' or 'anything' whatsoever, I can only recommend the most accurate diagnosis system ever created – its called a Bruce Copen M.A.R.S III – my website has a description and picture of this gadget: https://medi-cure.uk/antiquitech-healing/ You do not 'buy' one of these devices yourself, you contact a practitioner. My practitioner is an amazing woman called 'Jutta Boudgoust' and her contact details are: https://www.naturalmedicinecolchester.co.uk/ She is 'NEXT-LEVEL' at diagnosis, treatment and cure, of ALL ILLNESS. Jutta's accuracy with this machine, picks up cancers BEFORE an MRI can do the same – juttas machine is the size of a laptop & cost £15,000, whereas the MRI at the hospital probably cost about a million quid and is way less effective than the 'MARS 3' – jutta can tell you all your medical history after just 8 seconds of you holding two probes….from that moment you are linked to the machine for ever, until, or 'if' she deletes your profile from her machine – she can diagnose & heal you in this way even if you are the other side of the planet, it will also work if you were sitting on the holographic moon. You do not need to even visit her, you can send in a hair sample in a new 'Sealey' bag, and she can obtain your bio- frequency resonance from the smallest sample of fingernail, or hair. Its absurd as even the manufacturers themselves, on their own website explain that although they manufacture the device, they are all still clueless as to how it works! Bruce Copen was probably an Andromadan or something (?) il ask Christian…..hopefully? 3' AND no, I don't sell these machines, or any other products on my website because I haven't even told the vendors of these products and gadgets that I am even linking to their website – I display these products as they are what I use myself, no other reason) from my website: In short – the M.A.R.S III can ascertain, from you siting physically in front of the machine touching the receiver pads, or simply by a hair or fingernail sample sent in the post to the practitioner who can be anywhere in the world, exactly what your previous health status is from birth it seems, what your current health status is, and what your future health status is likely to be for the near future. After scanning your bio resonance pattern into the machine, the machine is then linked to you and can tell your health status at a glance no matter where you are on the planet. It can tell if you are near something potentially dangerous, like a Hornets nest, for instance, and it can also tell you way way in advance if there is anything you need to be worrying about i.e. cancer – a recent case involved a woman who was advised by the M.A.R.S III practitioner that she had breast cancer, the hospital could not find it at first with the MRI scanner, and the woman returned to the practitioner who informed the woman to go back to the hospital because they have missed it, and sure enough, the MRI had not picked up this cancer as it was too small to notice, but the M.A.R.S III caught it immediately. The M.A.R.S III also knows what you have been eating.....yes I know how that sounds, but trust me I have 1st hand experience of this several times, I have had phone calls whilst i am out the country from the practitioner asking if i have pain in my kidneys? (I did have pain that week & i was worried about it) & telling me why and what caused it and how to treat it. This machine is quite remarkable to say the least. I would urge everyone to seek a M.A.R.S III practitioner out as it will be the best thing that you can do for yourself and your family's health. There has been a lot of confusion lately over the subject of demonic 'attachment/s' – there has been raised voices & much a 'to-do' over this topic. 5 weeks ago Christian and I had a call with my pal 'Taffy' in Dundalk, Ireland. Taffy is a bit of a legend because he's shit-hot at everything, basically. He is the most awake person I ever met excluding Christian, and after 3 calls over a cpl weeks, Christian agreed that indeed Taffy is the most awake person he has ever met, after me also, and im only awake because I ask bare questions of Christian, making Taffy more awake than I from personal endeavours. Hybrids are part human/part reptilian, you would not know a hybrid unless they wanted you to know, and even a lot of hybrids do not know that they are even hybrids. Taffy had many questions for Christian, one of these questions was: ".Christian,

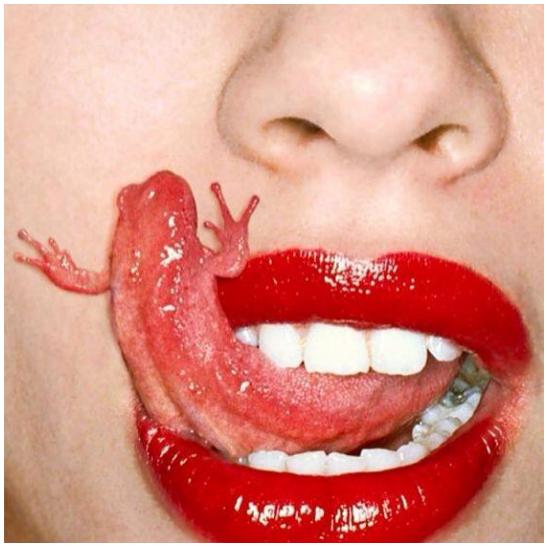

Fig.177 15% of the population of Earth, are Hybrids

The Hybrids…. if the hybrids come as standard with a demonic attachment, how do they remove the demon seeing that 15% of the population are made-up of Hybrids?..” 15% of 10 Billion souls, is 1.5 Billion Hybrids, each of which have at least 1 attachment….(very good question as would be expected from a xiaolin-jedi-star-seed-annon) Christian explained in compact-elegance as usual that: This will be done by EMF energy-weapons that will separate the attachment from the hybrid, they then ‘suck-up’ the demon ‘Ghost Busters’ style, and they are contained in a frequency fence. The ascension EMF will act the same in separating the attachment from the hybrid and the attachment will be contained and removed to the dumping realm for naughty demons. Demons can enter any person, but only with the right vibration, if your frequency is elevated to a higher level than the demons, they can’t ‘attach’ to you. But if you are a negative cynical obnoxious & rude person who gets angry quickly, then that’s easy for the demon to take you, frequency-matching at the lower echelons, they then get to work, and you would never know – they may desire ‘you’ specifically for a particular purpose, and follow you around for a long time waiting for you to get angry or do something bad like kill someone, punch someone, steal, hate, disrespect, harm or damage something – they can get you when your mood is lowered by depression, anxiety or any other negative emotion – Demons can’t kill you, it’s a galactic stipulation, but they can, and do plant ‘seeds’ in your mind in the hope that they can get you to harm others or yourself….don't forget they like negativity and suffering and they will make you ill, as ill as they can possibly make you, because they feed on your discomfort and pain. Whereas a happy person who is good at heart, helps others and does their best to be the best version of themselves as possible, this person isn't a good 'meal' for a demon as there is no 'loosh' coming off this person, so why attach to them? its pointless for the demon. Also……very important to note that Demons are ancient and far far older than your vessel age, they are master mimickers and highly intelligent – you will NOT know you have an 'attachment', but others around may notice a change? All the demons were removed from the planet as of 2019, but people overlook the Hybrids – the Hybrids are still all here and they come with demonic attachment as standard issue – most of these hybrids do not even know they are hybrids – they will not be executed, rather they will live out this life naturally after having the attachment removed as mentioned above, & when they die, they will reinhabit their 'old' vessel because Eldo has everyone's DNA 'Blueprint' in his 'Filofax' on the 'Millenium Falcon'. I notice the incendiary discussions in the chats that this subject alone has caused, quite a lot of anger and frustration - I was talking to Taffy about this last night and it sits with a stack of questions that I have for Christian about various subjects to write about for part 20 & 21 when I next speak to him, from 'Black-Holes', to the 'Antikythera Mechanism', 'Spontaneous Human Combustion' & the 'Phaistos Disc' plus many more. I have been trying to contact Christian to clarify this subject, and many others, but as of the last 4 weeks, I have not heard a single thing from Christian until yesterday when I received a text from him for the 1st time in that 4-week period. I have tried so hard to reach him this last month, but to no avail – I have sent 30+ messages & written him 3 emails and calls, plus I have asked others to contact him to get him to respond to me, urgently, but until yesterday I had not heard a single thing. I do not know why this is? And still today after his text yesterday, I still do not know why this is? An explanation is required for me to complete his work. The cohesion of Christians information relies on him being in continuous contact with me, as I'm sure you can imagine. I can't document that which I do not know, and I know nothing. My role here is to document Christians work in the best way I possibly can to make the information as widely available as possible for all who wish to understand it. I am not here to stand on Christians toes, I am here to compliment his message - the limelight isn't something I'm keen on, id rather smoke weed out the back while all the fuss 'n bollox is going on inside. I started doing videos to bolster Christian's information, not to usurp it – I know NOTHING without Christian, his thoughts and explanations are the reason that he is here, as I am not in contact with anything other than the chair my arse rests on. he's doing a really good job on his own and it might spread the word a bit better if I can reiterate what he is saying and maybe cover things from Christians previous videos for the newcomers. I live and breathe Christians work, I think its beyond fascinating, above awesome y fuera de la reinos de las possabilidades. Thinking about this topic is like going home for a while, like and I have said it to him many times…."Christian bruv, your a glass of ice water on a hot day m8"

There were supposed to be a lot more 'Christian21's floating about for now, but as we discussed previously…..they are having a lay-in. So I thought to myself, it's not every day that something like this happens, it's not that often that something that's never ever happened before in this history of the Universe, happens, so to be at the end of it, the sharp-end of the Great Awakening, and in the final weeks of it, well I don't want to regret anything & that's why I'm going to court next week to represent someone else as I'm confident enough to pull it off & this shit is like my extreme sport, fuk jumping outa helicopters wearing a bin-liner & Ski's. I invented 'Extreme-Growing' which was my hobby for many years – Extreme Growing is basically getting a large grow on as near as possible to a coppers house, preferably under it or over it. The best one was in 2014, I had a banger on in a middle flat with a Chelmsford Desk copper above me, and a Clerk to The Justice in the flat below 325 plants aiiiiight. Iv done many many grows in 37 years of growing and on quite a few occasions I have thought to myself…'fukinhell I cant believe I actually got away with that….that's a fukin miracle' (probably Kalo cloaking it lol) ….Kalo will keep me sweet in court nxt week init Kalo bruv? Course he will, il be going in there like 'Buster-Gonad' with my sack on a wheel-barrow anyway so I doubt ill need him, but just in case, he'll be in the Millenium Falcon with Chewey & the Mandalorian ready to get the pipe out for after. Kalo said if I bait-myself-up like that, then Mother will let me come home early cos I'll be a total fukin G if I pull this off and get the magistrate arrested for aiding and abetting in a treasonous act and trying to obtain money by deception, fraud, & Gross misconduct in public office – it will be on par with the Clacton police Station fiasco, and Mother will be like 'Kai Bruv….that is DOUBLE SICK bruv well done, you can leave work early this time Kai you fukin legend….come let mummy run you a bath and stroke your brow" – il watch the sky event from the bath, thru the 10 meter wide circular viewing panel in Kristens room on the Millenium Falcon, hell be down there waiting for everyone else to leave, & Il have champagne flute filled with Dr Pepper Strawberry with olive on a cocktail-stick in one hand, and the other hand reassuring the girth of my 9th Density length, that will be floating just under the surface near my knees. One last point: Christian has a lot going round in his head, and when he's making a video it's very easy to digress or come off topic, especially when there's no editing going on…..its luck-of the-draw sometimes and from my few videos, I well understand this. I've had a emails from people, several actually regarding utility bills…..let me clear this up please. When Christian said "stop paying bills" he was absolutely right, BUT….that's only guna work if at least half the planet do it the same week but Christian didn't mention that because of the pace of the video/s. So I congratulate the people who had the balls to do this straight-away as you guys are 'proper-a-bit-of-me' million%. But, if you are now in shit with Bailiffs, drop me an email and I can help get rid of them – my email address is below. DD's or Direct Debits are unlawful and you can call the bank and get ALL of them refunded immediately via a phone call – they have indemnity guarantee (I think is the correct term? I found this out on Telegram, on 'Stacey's World Rocks' there is a lot of info on this on her channel, I urge you to look there, but I will cover this all in the pdf – but all your DD's can be refunded the same day….so ALL your council Tax you ever paid, ALL you TV licence money you ever paid ANY Direct Debit is lawfully returned to you if you call the bank and tell them that there is fraud going on, on your account with whoever you have a DD with, explain that you require the full amount to be refunded immediately while they investigate (they wont as they are well aware of the scam, the cashier will not know about the scam but the senior staff all well know about it. I will research this for you as I never paid a DD in the first place so I never needed to ask for one to be refunded, so my experience on this subject is limited) So, iv had some emails from people explaining that they stopped paying bills a cpl months ago…..and bailiff letters started coming thru – one woman I got an email from said "I called the Military Police about the Bailiffs like christian said, but they didn't know anything about it and they wouldn't give me the email address of their senior" – no, they won't know anything about it, not yet they won't. Okay, so right now I am homeless, I have a warm place to stay so don't worry, & importantly an internet connection - yet I'm doing more work than I have ever done in my entire life and I don't charge – yes, I am crazy…..you have to be to volunteer to come to ARB201in the 1st place, but please bear with me…A 'Cease and Desist' can take me 5 hours to do just the 1st letter, there will be 3 letters sent 14 days apart.

Please understand that it's not a straightforward 'Template' scenario, some things are straightforward with a template, but each case is different, even with bailiffs, I work off the last letter that a company sent you and I find the fraud within that document, such as your LEGAL FICTION, the 'Four Corner rule' i.e any text inside 4-corners [ ] or in a Box, is information/text or numbers to be disregarded/ignored as NOT part of the document so when a bill turns-up at your house with a box showing the amount you 'owe' that's just an attempt to deceive you into paying the fraudulent 'Bill'– no two instances are the same, similar, but individual – and I need to work off the last letter sent to you, or a recent letter from them, and draft you a letter from what I find.

I am in the process of putting together a large pdf of ALL sorts of common law tricks and tactics, templates and other info – to help people empower themselves to be free of unlawful debt and Bailiffs. Bailiffs are EASY to get rid of forever….but only if you know how to do that lawfully. Also Utility companies are robbing you blind, they send you a 'Bill' which is actually a 'Presentment', and you think it's a Bill, what you think is a bill is a statement showing you that they have deducted the amount on the 'Bill' from your 'Cestui que Vie' trust, look at the bottom of the 'Bill' it says "Bank Giro Credit", so you pay it, so they have double-dipped you with interest. Utility companies are NOT supplying you, they are just Billing companies and they do not own your meter either, that's why they ask for the meter serial number, this creates 'Joinder' so don't give them anything, instead ask them to send you the contract…..they will shit themselves as they have no contract with you.

If you stopped paying bills & are now in shit – please contact me and I will fix it for you.

Please understand that I am One man with 10 fingers and I only use 2 & a thumb to type with – I'm writing these synopsis and I'm already well snowed under with a backlog of common law work like you can't even imagine, plus I'm writing a Naturopathic PDF with a lot of info and tips to remain in homeostasis and cure things overnight, like a common-cold (to do this you need a 'Salt Pipe' and 'Lugol's Iodine' 5 or 6 drips in the pipe and inhale thru the nose and mouth – when you inhale, if you can smell iodine then you have received a therapeutic dosage of iodine – Iodine kills all germs and viruses on impact and is non-toxic at any level – you will still produce mucus/snot etc, but you will not feel 'ill' from the cold 😉, it would have removed the necessity to have a vaccine as it will get rid of a cold in a day or two) and I'm 67 pages into the common law pdf I'm creating – but I want to help as many people as possible, even if it's only for their peace of mind – so please bear with me, and can I PLEASE ask that before you email me, can you read the pdf when its posted? Because it will make my life a whole lot easier if you do as very likely your issue will be covered in the pdf file, and you can type it up easily yourself. I'd like to concentrate on people who have immediate problems with repossessions, mortgages, and bailiffs. So, everything I do is free for everyone, but I am skint-as-fuk right now and not receiving any benefits or have any income whatsoever – so I created a "Buy me a coffee" page just now and my link is here if people feel inclined:

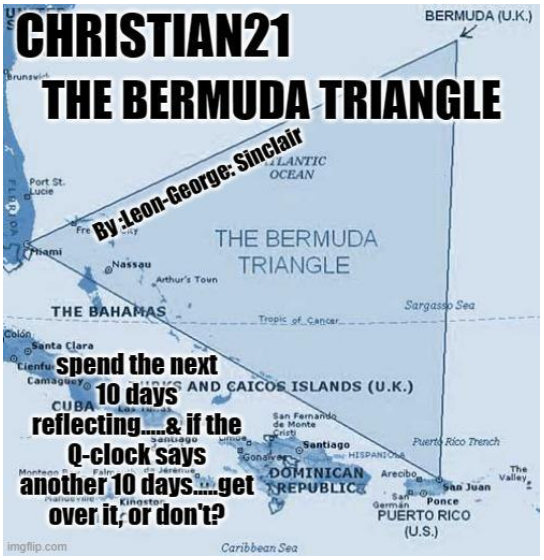
I do not need much to live on and I will give the rest away to people who need money. We hope you find the time to digest the full information before the EBS and importantly before the EMF, and we congratulate you on your arrival at the Great Awakening – it's the 1st and last Great Awakening.....so make the most of it! Big Love people xxx – Leon



The Bermuda Triangle has 3 mysterious idiots who live on 3 islands marking the 'elbows' of the Triangle, itself – these 3 idiots are dead now, but for a few thousand years these same 3 idiots lived on the same 3 islands. Just like the rest of the ultra-elite, these 3 idiots had the luxury of changing body's when the one they were wearing grew old – just like the Royal Family, the Lizard that was living in Queen Victoria, is the same entity that was in Queen Elizebeth the 2nd –

Jefry Epstein - Richard Brandson – Joe Biden, are the three idiots being discussed above - in this incarnation that's what they are known by, duno who they were last loop, but it hardly matters right now. So, knowing the names of 3 idiots who had these 3 islands, you can guess what the mystery behind the 'Bermuda Triangle' is caused by, cant you?.....if not, go back to the 1st synopsis and start over. So that's what all the disappearances were caused by, paedophiles and murderers abducting people for a plethora of reasons, genetic experimentation, organ harvesting, technical knowledge, slave labour.....any reason you can think of, any reason at all – they don't need an excuse – flight MH370 was the same, probably carried out by Greys as is the norm as they are really good at it – watch Jupiter ascending to see what a grey abduction looks like, also an Alpha Draco prime is depicted in the same film, that's what they look like, exactly like that.

Same thing with the Mary Celeste and basically every other strange / ghostly / unusual / mysterious / out-of-the-blue / paranormal or supernatural event and experience that ever took place here in our realm – it was all orchestrated by Extra-Terrestrials, the negative ones.....there is no 'Supernatural' – Supernatural is just science, a science that to us looks like magic, just like it did to our post-occupation 'caveman' ancestors.
The negative ET's gave us a fake history and smaller, dumber, slower & less agile bodys and a smaller brain capacity, then reduced the parts of our brain that we can access and gave us 6 re-sets, 1 reset every thousand or so years, they can also re-set just one country if they wish, and have, which would have been much easier hundreds of years ago without the advanced communication - the bad guys are all gone now and there is only positive ET's here since 2019 they are all gone now and no one is in any danger. The only danger now is people's emotions when they see and hear what took place, who was involved, how long it lasted, why? How?.....its guna be bad, I don't want to be negative about it, and I'm not, I'm being realistic in saying that people are going to lose it unfortunately. Told to stay home for a year 2019 for a fake virus that was the trap to ensnare several million child-killing paedophiles, right under the sleeping publics noses – some incredibly astute people, now quite old, worked a lot of this all out in the 1970's….but no one knew ANYTHING WHATSOEVER about the information and revelations of Christian21 until September 2022…….people heard that someone said once that the earth was flat, & a lot of people laughed and never again was a serious word uttered on the subject for 45yrs until "Flat Earth" started being popular again in 2014 (ish) & by 'popular' I mean with the younger generations considering and researching it, thirsty for answers because they smelt a rat – the rat was in reality, a few vermin, people like Buzz aldrin and other highly paid-sell-out "scientists" creating whatever 'science' is required to bolster whatever it is that the government/cabal/Draco, desire to be implemented, such as, "Global Warming" – so for a start, you live on a flat plain, not a Globe, so that's just 1 tiny reason that Global warming is a total fantasy, but there are many other reasons – just look at 'Agender-21' renamed Agender-2030 cos they fukt up and accidentally woke everyone up by mistake….well, that's the version that would flatter a human, as in reality you were totally fucked and were saved by a few-hundred-million ET's…..other races that live behind the ice wall that no top truthers are saying all that much about, strangely? All these crypto sellers, gold dealers and metal-merchants, promoting a QFS, NESARA / GESARA and a CME or 'Coronal Mass Ejection'….from the sun which is assumed to be a ball of gas 93 million miles away, or 1 'AU' (Astronomical Unit – 1-Au = 93million miles) when in fact the sun and the moon are inside the firmament here with us, the sun isn't a ball of gas, and the moon isn't a naturally occurring space-rock – the sun does not 'set', it moves-away from the point of observation. Forget all the technically complicated explanations that make you 'feel' intelligent being able to repeat them with a basic understanding does not make you intelligent, understanding the need to evaluate each topic on its own merit and truths is what makes you intelligent, as it is only truth that can lead to wisdom garnered from knowledge, nothing else but truth will work, and consider your basket empty if you try to fill it with anything other than truth - filling your basket with make-up & foundation to hide the blemishes, isn't going to cut-it. Deciding for yourself, working it out for yourself & getting help for that which you are unable to do alone, offering that same help to others & not being afraid to ask, not shaming those that do.....making sure others are okay, happy, warm & safe, before yourself, and dealing with disaster/s in a calm way, is how you will navigate this next few days...

Don't forget you are being watched, closely – you have always been watched, closely, except RIGHT NOW it matters more to you than it ever has. Never before has it mattered more than now, depending on what you aspire to, that is? If your happy paying for your mortgage that was actually funded by your own government bonds, not a bank or lending company but YOUR OWN MONEY created from your birth certificate, and if you are happy paying fraudulent bills and associating yourself with a 'Legal Fiction', and happy to be eating poisonous foods, happy to have your children eaten, raped and tortured, happy to be lied to about everything, happy to be fooled by people dumber than you, happy to be on a Globe that spins & happily oblivious to life's greatest mysteries....happy to fund wars that are nothing to do with you, which are also illegal, happy to carry-on as you are....then you have a right result, you are jumping a density, into 4th with all that offers (read previous synopsis to recap if your not up to speed) you have Utopia to live in rent free and no bills.....but for the ascending coming back here, they have density's 5-9 to mince-about in 😊powers straight-out-of a 'Marvel' tin and a Pineal gland like a fukin water Mellon – a coincidence that our spiritual apparatus just happens to be the most prized part of our body's that appear on the Elite Menu.

Have a great week people 🙂if your near Bermuda right now, you can sail thru the triangle as all the nonces have been killed 🙂 stay positive and remember to think what it is that you are thinking about, by that i mean monitor yourselves.....think about what you are thinking about, literally. Are you reacting appropriately to external stimuli as would be expected for those who wish to be in 8th Density next week? only you know the answer to that.....

Has anyone else noticed the 5D chess move that happened in early January and ongoing still to this day ….?? I worked it out last Thursday, loading wood onto a van the day I got it stuck in the mud last week on a building site, still with a bust shoulder that I was meant to be resting the last 2 months, instead I had a few days of transferring 180 x 8'x4' sheets of 'Sterling Board' from one location to another several miles apart – I was still trying to conjure possibility's to the impossible & ordain some sense to the senseless, in my own mind at least, I couldn't fathom the unusual nature to what was seemingly transpiring in front of my very own eyes….nothing made sense whatsoever, and the only 2 options that were available in terms of an explanation were very unsavoury options….frying pan, or fire? But carrying a sheet of Sterling Board across a windswept building site, in totally unsuitable footwear, being trainers that I bought the day before now thick with unexpected sods of mud, I had a total epiphany, an asteroid of thought rather than a download per se…..what did the vaccinated do in the rollout…?…..they listened to one source of information only, that being the mainstream media and all its appendages, guises and outlets…..''Died Suddenly'' was BLATANT covid vaccine death, my 10yr old Godson knew this when 120 pro-footballers football players died on the pitch during the 1st 6 months of the rollout……so the sheep ignored the other side of the coin completely ignoring what their eyes other senses were relaying to them, choosing to focus on the 'safe & effective' slogan and accompanying narrative.

This ignorance proved their inability to be self-sufficient, unable to ascertain and construct a complete 'picture' model or schematic of a true reality based on a full understanding of all the available information, no matter how contrary to their belief system or world view that this information from their conspiracy theorist friend/family member, seemed to be, they were unable to contemplate it due to societal programming, we see this algorithmic thought pattern on socially programmed sectors of the communities that populate the realm, for instance in the religious sector who must rely on "Faith" & "Belief", and for every other sector of society….in Education: "because that's how it is and we must respect that" when asking an obvious question that casts a shadow on authenticity and/or purpose, possibly, but the scope is so large it encapsulates everything, literally everything…..that's why it was so important to make yourselves aware of this, and we did try and we are still trying……but even the Ultra-Awake have missed the 9th Density benevolent-chess-move here this last 3 months……look what's happened…..the people on the path were given a curve-ball, a 'level-up' or 'End of Level Boss' conundrum to wrestle with, their thoughts, feelings, assumptions, guesstimation's, appraisals, stance, standing, postulancy, vibrational resonance & TRUE self being captured, recorded 'weighed' against a feather if you will, analysed and assayed for purity and source-essence….how damaged is your soul from all the hardships endured here? That depends on how long you have been 'looping' here and the trauma you endured…..but the benevolent 5D-chess move that everyone's been trying to conclude in a plethora of ways, yet each option is unsavoury, unsatisfactory and obnoxious to the awakening process….or is it??? What you have born witness to and concluded in your own individual ways, is the same options that 'Died Suddenly' presented to the demographic embroiled in that same 5D chess move they went thru themselves almost 3 years ago…….raw independent decision making, Raw because this test is conducted by your own organic thought processes going on between your own two ears….your ears, eyes, mouth, Gut and 6th sense will be busy procuring all the relevant data to use in the decision making process, it's how YOU process this information that is being scrutinised & your disdain that dates have been missed, purposefully missed for exactly this reason to ad 'load' to the pre-ascension burden, that's why many are losing their homes the world over….added burden before a utopian reality is born, but the inhabitants of this new reality, must be the right people for the job….don't forget that 'mistakes do not happen' in 5D+ and those planning 'this' being the Great Awakening, live in 9th density+ so please do not think they fucked something up in the 11th hour….no no….it just looks like that to us plebs down here with little understanding & a minimal torque on the ratchet-of-reality…….the final separation stages and filter of ascension-adequacy from those unable-to-recognise obvious facts when presented to them, to conclude a decision based on ALL available facts & information, and not to blindly follow another as we have seen people doing with religious leaders and politicians alike, 'unconditional' love for a clearly and proven dubious character/s caught lying red-handed in the promulgation of determined lies, and standing on the centre stage of the Great Awakening process….a purposeful and harmless division was formed, instigated by 'Bluewater' many a true flame shone brightly, but the naked light of truth casts no shadows as it shines from all directions, many fell for the trap that no one saw coming & we all knew nothing about, and many did not fall for the trap – it was a separation from the path, or at least the path itself did not separate into two paths, rather the path just ends abruptly, and all that could be seen is the horizon…..no actual continuation of the path, no hand rail, or footprints creating a trail thru the enchanted forest, forcing the masses to use their garnered knowledge of the divination of truth and the understanding of the 5th+ density's requirements for entry, you had the option to give "unconditional love" but the love you gave was misplaced in an immature gesture of attaining that which you have no right to attain as proven by your words, gestures and deeds ….the test was to see the two sides to the Chess game's coinage and assay them both with a surgical use of emotions and understanding that you have learnt this last few years…….you all knew the requirements of attaining true-5th+ Density ascension….you all are aware of the apparent simplicity of this entrance exam, as its well discussed…..but look how many people fell at this hurdle just recently…..what did Christian say……"There will be many twists & turns before the end…" – I was the 'died suddenly' metaphor, a no-brainer for authenticity & blatantly not making shit up, sincere & open transparency all thru the synopsis series, all thru each video, all thru each conversation & phone call….just as blatant as 'died suddenly' was caused by the covid vaccine. I wasn't lying then, and I'm still not lying now –

I can just imagine Kristen, me, Kalo & Mother sitting in the pub, The Nag's Head on 'Sterope'….Christmas eve 1,700 years ago, snow blanketing the street outside, an uninterrupted & continuous breeze had frozen the icicles sideways on the window sill – it was rammed with the usual suspects, Chewey and Groot were waiting for the pool table, the Mandalorian polishing his helmet with a waitress near the toilets, C3PO chatting-up another Gay robot, both off their tits on WD40, sawdust all over the floor, Gonzo from the Muppet Show serving at the bar, & Sarah Connor on the Piano singing Adelle covers (we had looking Glass….so just downloaded some tunes from the future, as you do)…..we were sitting in an alcove seat next to the window made of quarter-pane leaded-light, frost overspread the dimly lit alleyway outside and a faint shadow moved silently besides what looked like steam? slowly the shadow moved closer & appeared illuminated under the zero-point energy street lamp……..it was Pegasus, my Unicorn, he'd curled-one-out on the pavement in the dark and the steam was coming off the top of his shit…..I'd asked him to pick me up from the Nags Head because I got 13-month ban on my UFO licence for smoking Dylethium Crystals out of the warp-drive off of Mothers old *fridge

"Yeah Mother sweet buuuuuut….the homeless thing, it's kinda not me, the weather isn't looking great for 2023/24 & I like a bit of heat & 4 walls, you know me…also Mother, when your telling me I need to be homeless for poignancy, authenticity & sheer grit….. its winter during that part of the ascension, I'm just pointing that out because I just noticed earlier……I'm not keen on semi derelict buildings in the pissing rain and freezing cold, which is most of that period of the awakening process….soooooo….let me have a go on LG for a minute and I'll see if I can re-route this finale in a way that I'm not homeless & cold, starving & destitute, wretched & dishevelled….cos I don't know who I'll be in 1973 but I bet a million unicorns that I'm not into homeless & cold, in the winter.

*…(you can mix the Vapourised Chloromethane from the back of an old fridge pre-1980 when they changed the propellant gas, with gaseous Pyridine in a rotorvap and make really good amphetamines out of not very good amphetamines, just saying)

There wasn't a way, needless to say…….I didn't have much of an option in it as Kristen made me sign the contract before id read it……(he must have done as I don't see how I would have agreed to any of this)

We'd have been chatting about the outcomes of various moves, if 'X' happens, that will make 'Y' occur, and if 'Y' occurs, then…..oh…..here look Kristen, Looking Glass says we should create a division in the double-keen-to-ascend who follow you to ascertain true purity in that demographic……' it's at this point that id have slid my chair back as I stood up to leave, thanking Kristen, Kalo & Mother each for a jolly nice family afternoon, but I'm not interested in this mission I can see it being really shit…… & it's curious I'm the only cunt here in the pub discussing it….where's everyone else? And why are you trying to make me feel special all of a sudden?....is it April Fools or something?

From what I can only imagine, I was 'probably' drugged, and my signature forged. And I assume that only because I would have made Kristen aware, at the time in the pub that….

'…..I'll be sweet with the division aspect right up until Bluewater starts publicly sharing my private & honest concerns with the entire world AND lying about me in the process, publicly, trying for some strange reason to destroy me woth a pocket-full of utter lies…….. I will not be wearing that Kristen, and look…. 'Mother can you pass me LG please? (mother has Looking Glass on her watch)….let me fast forward LG a few weeks…..see here bruv….you don't back me up a month later and appear to side with the liar's by your silent acquiescence on the subject……& bruv look, then I knock you right-out, round about half past February by the look of it….and look at your nose…hang on il rewind it a bit….yeah look there's an ambulance carrying you off to A&E……Mother, do we need to do this to create division? I know your watch screen is small, but you can clearly see that Kristens vessels nose shouldn't look like that....there must be a better way? how can we cause a division where no one gets knocked out & no one has to look a cunt?'....just then Kalo returned from the loos, vomit all down his blue Lycra tunic roll-neck that his Mrs knitted for him, she's got really small fingers, so knitting with Lycra stands is no issue for her, and interjected…"here bruv…" stopping to wipe bits of carrot off his blue chin……" buuuurp… here bruv", Kalo said to Kristen……"if you stop talking to Leon in the flat & ignore him totally while he's sitting next to you…..and then also don't back him up when that perverted pensioner from New York with dementia they call 'Bluewater' starts blatantly lying about Kai, he'll knock you out after a few weeks of that, I'm very confident……."

….I butted in ….”yeah I just saw that Happen on mothers watch Kalo…Kristen’s nose not looking the same as it used to….all to create a division in the awake and give them a conundrum?….and you 3 are sure that this is a good idea?…”

"Eureka!"... Mother proclaimed, leaping up like a bingo winner....."Kai, in 1973 your new vessel grows up to not be taking any crap from wankers, so we will have to organise a situation where you have to leave Christian....you can fuck-off and live in a tin can at the 'Fist Of The First Men' in the fucking snow in January, then Kristen will just go quiet for a few months & do everyone's nut right-in cos me and Kalo won't tell him fuck all, this will cause full-vertically-integrated-unilateral-toy-throwing period, pre-ascension, toys exiting prams left, right & centre absolutely rotten all over the place.....it will be easy to discern who is really awake, from the awake, and bring the slugs and worms to the surface...then Kristen's nose gets to stay where it is ,and everything's sweet"....

I'd have been like 'what so I gota be homeless in winter so that Kristen nose stays where it is? That isn't fair? is it fuk.... fuk that I'm off, I don't need an awakening I'm already awake, enjoy your day..." This is the point I think I the 9th Density Temazepam would have kicked-in.

That's how I'm seeing it anyway, in light of Zero other information available on the matter, 3 months later, there are no other options on the table with which to construct a hypothesis. So that's what I think 😊

Let your morals define your personality, just make sure your morals are right & true to yourself, be as good as your word and remember, a by-product of truth is understanding & acceptance, be true, don't lie – if you lie, come clean, as a festering lie grows into a tumour affecting other aspects of your life just like pancreatic cancer can give you a headache – put yourself in other people's shoes and do it often, soon it will form a habit……you will see a lot clearer if you do this, you will know that you stand in a position of light, and therefore that will be a foundation of stability for you to proceed out into the future, 'knowing' that you have not done wrong will make everything a lot simpler, its very frustrating as not many people will join in this exercise as they are mostly oblivious due to the programming and the need to at least be equal to the next person if not above them

I was lucky, I learnt to do that at a young age, 7-ish, but I was clueless about it till the other week to be honest…..the penny dropped about why, only a few weeks ago, and now it's obvious - id been hearing those words off my dad since I was born….ask my mum, she will laugh as it was a 'point' already by the time I was 4yrs old hearing "What did 'Thumpers' daddy say to him??....if you cant say anything nice, then don't say anything at all" referring to a cartoon with 'Thumper' the rabbit & "put yourself in someone else's shoes lad..." was another favourite - Then from that age I went thru a phase of having no choice but to see things from other people's point of view, with my dad's repetition of these pearls of wisdom as I had been hearing these saying so constantly that I wanted to throw myself off a cliff by the time I was 11....fuuuuukinhell dad please STOP saying that. But by the time I was 17-19 I could see it made total sense and I could see why it was important to him that I went to bed mulling these sayings over & over in my head.....my parents knew shit.....their positive input definitely shaped my thought processes for the better.

From Darkness…..to Light

Appendix i.

Please bare in mind when reading the not-so-secret covenant, that 'Sodium Fluoride' is the main ingredient in Rat Poison, it is admitted with pride by 'They', added it to our water and toothpast….as 'They' say its "good for your teeth"……..is that not a little-bit well suspicious, don't you think?

The Rothschild

Secret Covenant

1. An illusion it will be, so large, so vast, it will escape their perception.
2. Those who will see it will be thought of as insane.
3. We will create separate fronts to prevent them from seeing the connection between us.
4. We will behave as if we are not connected, to keep the illusion alive. Our goal will be accomplished one drop at a time so as to never bring suspicion upon ourselves. This will also prevent them from seeing the changes as they occur.
5. We will always stand above the relative field of their experience, for we know the secrets of the absolute.

6. We will work together always and will remain bound by blood and secrecy. Death will come to he who speaks.
7. We will keep their lifespan short and their minds weak, while pretending to do the opposite.
8. We will use our knowledge of science and technology in subtle ways so they will never see what is happening. A Secret Covenant The Secret Covenant – By a group you dare not name. 2 / 6
9. We will use soft metals, aging accelerators and sedatives in food and water, also in the air.
10. They will be blanketed by poisons every where they turn.
11. The soft metals will cause them to lose their minds. We will promise to find a cure from our many fronts, yet we will feed them more poison.
12. The poisons will be absorbed through their skin and mouths, they will destroy their minds and reproductive systems.
13. From all this their children will be born dead, and we will conceal this information.
14. The poisons will be hidden in everything that surrounds them, in what they drink, eat, breath, and wear.
15. We must be ingenious in dispensing the poisons, for they can see far.
16. We will teach them that the poisons are good, with fun images and musical tones.
17. Those they look up to will help. We will enlist them to push our poisons.
18. They will see our products used in film and will grow accustomed to them and will never know their true effects.
19. When they give birth we will inject poisons into the blood of their children and convince them it's for their help.
20. We will start early on, when their minds are young, we will target their children with what children love most, sweet things.
21. When their teeth decay, we will fill them with metals that will kill their mind and steel their future.
22. When their ability to learn has been affected, we will create medicine that will make them sicker and create other diseases, for which we will create yet more medicine.

23. We will render them docile and weak before us with our power. A Secret Covenant The Secret Covenant – By a group you dare not name. 3 / 6
24. They will grow more depressed, slow and obese, and when they come to us for help, we will give them more poison.
25. We will focus their attention towards money and material goods so they may never connect with their inner self. We will distract them with fornication, external pleasures, and games, so they may never be one with the oneness of it all.
26. Their minds will belong to us and they will do what we say. If they refuse, we shall find ways to implement mind-altering technology into their lives.
27. We will use fear as our weapon.
28. We will establish their governments and establish opposites within. We will own both sides.
29. We will always hide our objective, but carry out our plan.
30. They will perform the labor for us and we shall prosper from their toil.
31. Our families must never mix with theirs. Our blood must be pure, always, for it is the way.
32. We will make them kill each other when it suits us.
33. We will keep them separated from the oneness by dogma and religion.
34. We will control all aspects of their lives and tell them what to think and how.
35. We will guide them kindly and gently, letting them think they are guiding themselves.
36. We will foment animosity among them, through our factions.
37. When a light shall shine among them, we shall extinguish it by ridicule, or death, whichever suits us best.
38. We will make them rip each other's hearts apart and kill their own children.
39. We will accomplish this by using hate as our ally, anger as our friend. A Secret Covenant The Secret Covenant – By a group you dare not name. 4 / 6
40. The hate will blind them totally, and never will they see that from their conflict, we emerge as their rulers. They will be busy killing each other.

41. They will bathe in their own blood and kill their neighbors for as long as we see fit.
42. We will benefit greatly from this, for they will not see us, for they cannot see us.
43. We will continue to prosper from their wars and from their deaths.
44. We shall repeat this over and over, until our ultimate goal is accomplished.
45. We will continue to make them live in fear and anger through images and sounds.
46. We will use all the tools we have to accomplish this.
47. The tools will be provided by their labour.
48. We will make them hate themselves and their neighbours.
49. We will always hide the divine truth from them, that we are all one. This they must never know.
50. They must never know that a man's colour is an illusion; they must always think they are not equal.
51. Drop by drop, drop by drop, we shall advance our goal.
52. We will take over their land, resources, and wealth, to exercise total control over them.
53. We will deceive them into accepting laws that will steal the little freedom they will have.
54. We will establish a money system that will imprison them forever, keeping them and their children in debt.
55. When they shall band together, we shall accuse them of crimes and present a different story to the world, for we shall own all the media. A Secret Covenant The Secret Covenant – By a group you dare not name. 5 / 6
56. We will use our media to control the flow of information and their sentiment in our favor.
57. When they shall rise up against us, we shall crush them like insects, for they are less than that.
58. They will be helpless to do anything, for they will have no weapons.

59. We will recruit some of them to help us carry out our plans. We will promise them eternal life, but eternal life they will never have, for they are not of us.
60. The recruits will be called "initiates" and will be indoctrinated to believe false rites of passage to higher realms. Members of these groups will think they are one with us, never knowing the truth. They must never learn this truth, for they will turn against us.
61. For their work they will be rewarded with earthly things and great titles, but never will they become immortal and join us, never will they receive the light and travel to the stars.
62. They will never reach the higher realms, for the killing of their own kind will prevent passage to that realm of enlightenment. This they will never know.
63. The truth will be hidden in their face, so close they will be unable to focus upon it until it is too late.
64. Oh yes, so grand will the illusion of freedom be, that they will never know they are our slaves.
65. When all is in place, the reality we have created for them will be their prison. They will live in self-delusion.
66. When our goal is accomplished, a new era of domination will begin.
67. Their minds will be bound by their beliefs, the beliefs that we have established from time immemorial.
68. But if they ever find out they are our equals, we shall perish then. This they must never know. A Secret Covenant The Secret Covenant – By a group you dare not name. 6 / 6
69. If they ever find out that together they can vanquish us, they will take action.
70. They must never, ever find out what we have done, for if they do, we shall have no place to run, for it will be easy to see who we are once the veil has fallen. Our actions shall have revealed who we are, and they will hunt us down and no person shall give us shelter.

71. This is the secret covenant by which we shall live the rest of our present and future lives, for this reality shall transcend many generations and life spans.
72. This covenant is sealed by blood, our blood. We are the ones who from heaven to earth came.
73. This covenant must never, ever be known to exist. It must never, ever be written or spoken of for if it is, the consciousness it will spawn will release the fury of the PRIME CREATOR upon us and we shall be cast into the depths from whence we came and remain there until the end of infinity itself.

Food for thought:

This last 4yrs have been very very strange, gone very very quickly and been very very informative. I have learnt more in the last 4 years than I have learnt in all the previous years rolled-into one.

Christians information is highly unusual but strangely its also opaquely familiar, maybe that's because it wasn't that long ago for some of us who came here?

What should you be worrying about right now?.....nothing if you are awake and have absorbed the information above you should be sweet-as. Just expect the unexpected and make sure you have food and batteries.....download a copy of this pdf and you can read it again when the power goes out if you remembered to get a cpl battery packs 😊

You already know the answers to the questions and the answers you do not know, will be answered soon enough – in the meantime trust your self and your own opinions, why listen to others?? They are not you, don't be lazy, make a choice of your own, don't ask someone else if you're arse looks big in those new jeans, if you think it looks big, don't buy the fukin jeans in the 1st place.....be
